

THE RESULT IN MONTANA.

The Republicans Secure the Legislature and Most of the State Offices. HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—The official canvass of the state vote was finished, Silver Bow county, over which there is a dispute, was canvassed by the board of that county, thus electing the entire Republican state ticket, except Toole for governor. The judges of the supreme court and six of the eight district judges are Republican.

Both States Claim Ohio. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5.—Chairman Conner, of the Republican state executive committee, went home to Akron to vote. As there were several inquiries for his opinion he was telegraphed from headquarters for it and replied: "Our poll of over 22,000 precincts in the state shows a plurality for the Republican state ticket of over 21,000 outside of Hamilton county. To be conservative we deduct 5,000 on account of local differences, leaving a strength that may come to us from some causes on the other side. I do not believe our plurality can possibly fall below 15,000. We estimate our majority in the senate at 3 and in the house at 17."

Baltimore's Exciting Contest. BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Perhaps the most hotly contested election that has taken place in Baltimore since 1875 is progressing here. The opposing forces are the regular Democrats, under the lead of United States Senator Gorman, and the Independent Democrats and Republicans with John K. Cowan, general counsel of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, at their head. There are to be elected a mayor, chief judge, sheriff, clerk of the superior court, city surveyor, thirty-three members of the city council and a full legislative ticket and a state comptroller. The campaign has been very bitter. Money has been used lavishly. Thousands upon thousands of dollars has been spent by both sides in advertising speeches and open letters.

The Australian Ballot in Massachusetts. BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The state election in progress here is chiefly interesting as furnishing the first test of the new Australian ballot law in this state. The campaign has not aroused any excitement and the minor local offices have almost monopolized the efforts of the politicians. The Republicans claim their usual majority for governor, while the Democrats express a belief that their nominee will win by from 2,000 to 5,000 majority. Returns from some of the larger towns in the state may be announced later than usual, as the counting of votes under the new system may occupy more time than formerly.

The Election in New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Polling is proceeding quietly throughout the city, the chief interest centering in the local offices. A small vote is being cast. The Tammany workers are seen on every hand and the fusion ticket is being closely pressed. Both parties "claim everything" for both the city and state tickets.

Borklevitch's Desperate Leap. NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—"Count" Anselme Stanislaus Borklevitch, that versatile young Russian "nobleman" who has been attracting so much attention lately in a criminal way, distinguished himself again by making a most daring leap for liberty from the rear end of a Third Avenue "L" car that was in motion on the track and from there to the street below, a distance of thirty feet. He is now lying in the prisoner's cage in Bellevue hospital. His right knee cap is broken into four quarters, his heel bone on the left foot is shattered in many pieces and his ankle bone on the same foot is fractured. He made the leap in an attempt to escape from Detective Nugent, in whose charge he was.

A Fatal Political Dispute. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—A number of negroes at Dickerson's store, Henrico county, three miles from here, got into a dispute about politics. A negro named Spot was struck on the head with a piece of wood and died soon afterward. The murderer and twenty-five or thirty other negroes who were present have been arrested.

Polygamy Permanent in Utah. WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—"They have accepted the doctrine of polygamy and will probably adhere to it as long as they live," says Governor Arthur L. Thomas, of Utah, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, referring to the condition of the people of the territory.

Lost His Office and Became Insane. PROVIDENCE, Nov. 1.—Ex-Postmaster T. W. D. Phillips of Burrellville, has become insane because of his removal about ten days ago from his postmastership, which, with the exception of a short term in the Garfield administration, he had held for years. He was taken to an asylum.

Capt. Boozie Shot. CAMBRIDGE, Md., Nov. 4.—Capt. Martin L. Boozie, a well known citizen, was shot by Samuel J. Carey. Carey charged that Boozie had been too intimate with Mrs. Carey. Carey laid in waiting for Boozie at the corner of Muse street and Independence hall and shot him twice. Boozie's condition is serious.

Baltimore's First Cremation. BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—The advocates of the cremation of the human body after death gave their first demonstration in Baltimore of their idea of what is the proper disposition of mortal remains. The body incinerated was that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Hartman, of Baltimore.

A Constable Shot. CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 5.—Constable MacTillman, of Van Wyck, S. C., was fatally shot by a negro named John Liddin near Maxhaw. The constable was attempting to arrest the negro. A posse of men are searching for the murderer.

THE BANK RESUMES.

The Conshohocken Bank Will Continue Business.

DRIFT FROM THE WRECKAGE

Assets of the Cashier Discovered from which the Directors Hope to Realize $25,000—The Bank Will Be Reopened in a Few Days—No Assessment on the Stock.

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., Nov. 4.—The defalcation of William H. Cresson, the fugitive cashier of the Tradesmen's National Bank of Conshohocken, has taken another turn and the directors say the bank will be reopened in a few days and all claims paid in full.

On Saturday they explored the contents of Cresson's private box in the vault and found $75,000 worth of life insurance all in force and mortgages for $2,000, stock in the Good Bros. Iron works to the value of $2,000 and $1,000 worth of stock in the Spring Garden Farmers' Market company of Philadelphia.

Suit Against the Fugitive. They have entered suit against him as a fugitive for $80,000 and under this will attach every dollar of his effects. All of the life insurance policies are written as payable to his heirs or assigns except policies for $15,000 in Mrs. Cresson's favor. These will be converted into cash. The directors hope to realize $25,000 at the lowest possible calculation out of Cresson's securities, which they discovered Saturday.

Execution has been issued on State Treasurer Hart's judgment to cover the amount. All of Cresson's property with the exception of his gas and electric light stock is practically in the hands of the directors of the bank.

The directors intend to deposit in the bank $50,000 so as to avert the necessity of assessing the stock and reopen the business in a manner calculated to restore confidence in the concern.

The Coachman's Story. How Cresson got out of Conshohocken, or whether he has left the place at all, is just as much a matter of conjecture as it was on Thursday. His coachman, Conrad Baumgard, seems to have been the last person to see him. That was at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. Baumgard tells this story: "Mr. Cresson came home from the bank about 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. I was just going away with my son at the time. I went with him to Rock Hill; returned right away. It was a little before 4 o'clock when I got back, and I met Mr. Cresson as he was coming out of the kitchen. Mrs. Cresson had gone into Philadelphia on the 1:30 train and I thought perhaps he wanted to go down to the station, so I asked him if he wanted his carriage. He said: 'No, I don't want the carriage,' and walked toward the stable. Then turning to me he said, 'Conrad, if anybody calls for me tell them I have gone away and will not be back today. He then went into the stable and that is the last I saw of him. I did not drive him to Spring Mill, and I do not know how he got away. I noticed that he was not the same and that he seemed troubled, but I did not say anything to him about that.'

The Defalcation Discovered. CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., Oct. 31.—The Tradesmen's National Bank of Conshohocken is closed on account of the defalcation of the cashier, William Henry Cresson, whose shortage will exceed $50,000, and may approach $100,000. This is the notice posted on the door of the Tradesmen's National Bank of Conshohocken:

To whom it may concern: This bank is closed in consequence of the defalcation of its cashier. The depositors will suffer no loss. (Signed) JOHN A. BORTNER, JAWOOD LUKENS, GEORGE W. WOOD, GEORGE COUSINS, Directors.

The Defaulting Cashier. The defaulting cashier is William Henry Cresson, than whom no one stood higher in financial, church and social circles in Conshohocken. Your correspondent was on the scene a half hour before the defalcation had become known outside of banking circles, and people who were questioned for information refused to believe that there was the slightest ground for the rumor. They had heard nothing about it. "Pshaw! there can't be anything in it," they said. But the rumor soon spread in every part of the town, and the notice on the bank door confirmed the startling report. Depositors and others flocked to the establishment and read and reread the notice from the directors, and retired to the curb to discuss the matter.

wastes or gives away during the year more or less kitchen grease, each pound of which can in a few minutes be converted into two pounds of the PUREST SOAP, far better than can be found on sale. The only expense for making ten pounds of this soap, with five and one-half pounds of grease or oil, is the trifling cost of one can of BANNER LYE, to be found at nearly every grocery store.

Disolve the contents of one can of Banner Lye in three and one-half pints of cold water, and pour slowly into five and one-half pounds of lukewarm grease, stirring from the start, until it thickens into a mushy condition; then pour into any kind of mould to harden—a child can make it, and full directions are to be found back of each label.

A can of Banner Lye will do the work of twenty-one pounds of washing soda, and besides its value for scrubbing purposes, the cleansing and disinfecting of sinks, Closets and Waste Pipes, Destroying the Filth and Disease arising therefrom, makes its systematic use one of the greatest boons the housekeeper has fallen heir to.
