KUNZE AND BURKE.

Their Grinning at Witnesses Provckes Discussion.

DR. CRONIN'S CLOTHES IN COURT.

The Production of His Effects Creates a Sensation - Several Witnesses Testify That Kunze Called Himself Kaiser Last April-Beggs and the "Inner Cirele"-O'Sullivan's Mysterious Contract.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Henry Buckholz testified in the Cronin trial that John Kunze came to board with him in April under the name of John Kaiser.

The defense objected to the testimony of this witness on the ground that they had not received sufficient notice that he would be called. The court overraled the objection and announced that simi-lar objections in the future would not

Charles Herkimer, a tailor, was the next witness. Mr. Longenecker to witness: "Do you know John Kunze sitting there—this man at the end?" "Yes." "The man that is grinning at you?"
"Yes, sir." Mr. Donahue, jumping to his feet: "That is not the way I submit, to treat a man who is on trial for his life." "He is grinning at the witness.
That is what I stated." "We except to those remarks." "You have no need to except to them. I did not intend anything by them more than to draw his attention." "Why does the gentleman repeat it so often then if he does not intend anything by it?" "Why did Kunze grin then?" The court: "I did not understand that the state's attorney intended any impropriety."

The witness testified through an interpreter that he had seen Kunze in the latter part of April, and that he gave the name of John Kaiser; subsequently he said it was Kunze.

More Testimony About Kunze. John P. Dunn, a plumber, testified that in the early part of April he saw Kunze and Coughlin in Cameron's sa-loon on Lincoln avenue. Kunze called the witness up and introduced Coughlin as a good friend of his, adding that Coughlin would do anything for him (Kunze) that he could.

Frank S. Washburn, a saloon keeper, testified that Kunze and O'Sullivan were in his saloon between the 12th and 20th of April, and that Kunze said he was going to buy a horse from O'Sullivan and pretend to pay a big price for it so as to get some spending money from his guardian.

Joseph Peotowski, a beer brewer, testified that he knew Kunze last April under the name of Kaiser.

Burke's Turn to Grin.

Gus Glahre, tinner, testified that on Monday morning after the murder Burke came to the shop where he worked and had a galvanized iron box soldered. It was about 14 by 26 inches in size. The witness continued:

"We got to talking about this case here, as I read it in the paper Sunday morning, and he said that Dr. Cronin was a British spy and ought to be killed. When I was about to cut the cord that bound the box he shoved my arm to one side and said, 'For God's sake don't cut it, or some remark like that. I told him I had to cut it to make a job, and he said, 'Do it any way; it don't make any difference what kind of a job it is."

On cross examination the witness re-peated every detail of Burke's visit to his shop and the soldering of the box. He was certain as to his identity. While the witness was giving this testimony the defendant Burke leaned forward in his chair and laughed derisively at him. Joseph O'Byrne, senior guardian of Camp 266 was recalled and testified that on the Tuesday subsequent to Dr. Cronin's disappearance Beggs in conversation with the witness, Maurice Morris and Dennis Ward, said in reply to a suggestion made by Morris, "You don't know what you are talking about. You are not in the inner circle. We are." The witness previous to that time had never heard of an "inner circle" in the Clan-na-Gael. Dr. John F. Williams was called to cast suspicion upon O'Sullivan's mysterious contract with Dr. Cronin. He testified that he had been O'Sullivan's physician for a period of two or three years and during thestume the ice man's bill had not amounted to a second of the second of the second of two or three years and during thest time the ice man's bill had not amounted to a second of two or three years and during the second of two or three years and during the second of two or three years and during the second of two or three years are the second of two or three years are the second of two or three years. bill had not amounted to over $5 a year. Maurice Morris was recalled and corroborated the testimony given by O'Byrne in regard to the "inner circle" conversation held with Beggs.

Cronin's Effects Produced. Mike Gilbert, a sewer cleaner, testi-ed to finding Cronin's effects last Friday, and then the clothes and instruments of the murdered physician were brought into the court room. There was a buzz of excitement from the spectators' benches as the tell tale relics spectators' benches as the tell tale relics were lugged in and the clerk was compelled to wield his gavel to induce the crowd, which had risen to catch a glimpse of them as they were exposed to the gaze of the jury, to sit down. The prisoners, save Beggs, who scarcely looked at them, evinced as much curiosity as the spectators. Chief of

Then Mrs. Conklin took the stand and ntified each piece of clothing and each instrument as having been worn and carried by the doctor when he left his home on his fatal ride. She recalled each article perfectly and the truth of her testimony was so self evident that the defense waived cross examination.

Gerhard Wardel, a gardener living on Ashland avenue, north of the Carlson cottage, saw two men—one large, the other small—go into the cottage on the night of May 4, about 7 o'clock. HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The total vote cast in Pennsplvania on Tuesday for state treasurer was as follows: Boyer, Rep., 332,C07; Bigler, Dem., 371,914; Johnston, Pro., 21,534. Boyer's plurality, 60,693.

Then the experts had their innings. Walter S. Haines, to whom was given some of the hair and blood found in the trunk, testified that there was no difference between human and animal blood, though it was certainly blood that was found in the trunk. Haines is a professor of chemistry at Rush medical college and is a chemical expert.

cottage trunk. He pronounced it human blood from the size of the corpuscles. He also pronounced the hair given him, said to have been found in the trunk, to be human hair.

Dr. W. T. Belfield supported Professor Haines' theory that one animal's blood did not differ from another and before the defense got through with the cross examination the minds of the urymen were in a hopeless tangle. On the whole, however, the jury was convinced that blood and human hair were found in the trunk.

Col. Goodloe Stabs Col. Swope to Death and Receives Fatai Wounds.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 10 .- Col. Goodloe on entering in the postoffice here tound Col. Swope getting his mail. Their boxes adjoin. Swope obtained his mail and seeing Goodloe, instead of stepping aside commenced a conversation through the opening with a postal clerk. Goodloe said to him, "You obstruct the way." Swope replied to the effect that it was an indifferent matter to him if he did. Goodloe said, "This is the second insult from you."

Each confronted the other, drawing his overcoat pocket and Goodloe a clasp knife from his trousers' pocket. Good-loe opened his knife, Swope firing be-fore he could use it. The first shot struck Goodloe in the abdomen. Goodloe plunged his knife twice into Swope, when Swope fired the second shot, which missed. Goodloe continued to strike, inflicting many wounds and un-til Swope fell dead. Goodloe's condition is precarious. He rallied from the shock promptly and his pulse is good, but it has not as yet been deemed ad-visable to probe the wound.

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 10 .- Last evening at a magistrate's court held at Brownsburg, just north of here, Henry Miller, a wealthy farmer, appeared against Dr. T. J. Walker, a physician. Walker was charged with threatening Miller's life. The justice decided to place him under a peace bond and when the verdict was announced, a row began, during which Miller shot and instantly killed Mrs. Walker and her two sons. Miller was also shot and is seriously wounded. Dr. Walker was riddled with bullets and cannot recover.

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 11.—The new developments in the Brownsburg homicide are that the fatal affair was opened by Dr. F. J. Walker, who killed old man by Dr. F. J. Walker, who killed old man Miller with a heavy knife after being disarmed of his pistol. Dave Miller was the man who shot Dr. Walker and is himself badly wounded and will die. Three of the other Miller boys are in jail, and it is the general belief that one of them deliberately killed Mrs. Walker. There is strong talk of brokhing the There is strong talk of lynching the man who shot the woman. Dr. Walker died of his wounds.

Cleveland Calls on Harrison. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison shook hands at the executive mansion and said any number of polite things to each other. The ex-president and Mrs. Cleveland, after leaving the Clymer residence, where they had witnessed the minimum of the control of th where they had witnessed the marriage of ex-Secretary Bayard and Miss Clymer, were driven to the White House. Mrs. Clevaland did not leave the carriage, but left her card for Mrs. Harrison, who is visiting Mrs. Wanansaker in Philadelphia. She was driven away and sent the carriage back again for Mr. Cleveland. As the president entered the green room his predecessor arose and grasped his hand. "How do you do?" said both simultaneously. They then sat down and talked about general topics for half an hour.

Hung Him on a Derrick. LEESBURG, Va., Nov. 10 .- As Miss Leith, a school girl about 17 years old, was returning from the Hamilton academy she was feloniously assaulted by a colored boy named Owen Anderson. On her complaint he was arrested, but as she could not identify him he was released. Afterward he was rearrested on circumstential evidences and he comcircumstential evidence and he con-fessed. Mrs. Parsons' Red Flag Suppressed.
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The feature of the Anarchist celebration was its utter lack of the enthusiasm which generally charaterizes gatherings of the Anarchists.
Less than 2,000 people visited Wildeman cemetery to decorate the graves of the Anarchist dead, and scarcely half of these listened to the speeches. The speeches were madness itself compared with those delivered last year. The only incident which occurred throughout the day was the removal by the police of a red flag displayed from a window by Mrs. Lucy Parsons.

Nervines, anodynes and sedatives, while having ione but a specific effect, are yet very desirable at times. Yet can they produce no lasting effeet upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does this, and cheeks at the outset a disease which, f allowed to gain headway, it is next to impossible to dislodge or to do more than relieve. Rheumatism, it should be remembered, is a lisease with a fatal tendency from its pronecess to attack the heart. A resort to the Bitters should, therefore, be prompt.
