The Chamber of Torture

Is the apartment to which the unhappy sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism is confined. If, ere the crisis of pain is reached, that fine preventive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is used by persons of a rheumatic tendency, much unnecessary suffering is avoided. Nervines, anodynes and sedatives, while having some but a spurious effect, are yet very desirable at times. Yet can they produce no lasting effect upon rheumatism, because they have no power to eliminate from the blood the rheumatic virus. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters does this, and checks at the outset a disease which, if allowed to gain headway, is next to impossible to eradicate or to do more than relieve. Rheumatism, it should be remembered, is a disease with a fatal tendency from its proneness to attack the heart. A resort to the Bitters should, therefore, be prompt.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost weight alum or phosphate powder. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 105 Wall St., N. Y.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Estimates of the Strength of the Various Candidates.

THE SITUATION VERY DOUBTFUL.

McKinley Pressing Hard Upon the Heels of the Man from Maine—The Result Hinges Upon the Action of the Delegations from Pennsylvania and New York—Wool Men for McKinley.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The first week of the speakership contest closes with the result in even more doubt than it was seven days ago at that time. Mr. Reed's partisans were claiming a "walk over" for the man from Maine, while the more conservative of the number were confident their candidate would win in the second ballot after the complimentary votes had been cast and the caucus had settled down to its work. At the same time Maj. McKinley's friends were not claiming an excess of forty votes for that gentleman on the first ballot. The fluctuations of the past seven days have materially changed these calculations.

A Conservative Estimate.

A conservative estimate of the situation now gives Mr. Reed not to exceed 60 votes on the first ballot, with Maj. McKinley close up with 55 votes, Mr. Cannon 31 and the others with little strength beyond their state delegations. The same estimates show Maj. McKinley to be the second choice of seventy nine gentlemen, who at the start will support other candidates. According to these computations Mr. Reed is not so popular a second choice, their figures showing him not to have above thirty from this source.

The strength of Messrs. Cannon, Burrows and Henderson is variously estimated at from a score for Cannon to a dozen for the last named candidate.

The Republican membership of the house numbers 168 and it will require 85 votes to nominate if all are present.

Waiting for New York and Pennsylvania.

The result, however, is still very uncertain. Everybody is waiting to see what New York and Pennsylvania will do. Should they unite their forty votes in favor of any candidate his success would be practically assured from the start. There is, however, but little likelihood that either delegation can be united solidly, and still less that the two can be combined. When the majority of the members of the delegations reach Washington this question can be more satisfactorily answered, but this will not in all probability occur before the middle of the week. Meanwhile the gossip is that McKinley has made strong inroads in this quarter and that he will divide or nearly divide the middle state vote.

THE CONDITION OF BRAZIL.

Official Assurances of the Prosperity and Perpetuation of the Republic.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Dr. Valente, the Brazilian minister, received the following cablegram from Ray Barabara, the minister of finance of the provisional government at Rio:

"All the provinces have signified their adherence to the republic and the provisional government without any resistance or protest. The government in each state is being rapidly organized. A decree of the provisional government has extended the right of suffrage to all citizens except only those unable to read or write. The archbishop, the head of the church, has conferred his solemn benediction upon the new government and the republic."

Dr. Valente places no credence whatever in the published reports coming from Europe, hinting at the instability of the new government and probable breaking up of Brazil into three separate states. He regards the republic as fixed.

Knights and Farmers.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—Mr. Powderly says in his opinion some form of consolidation between the Knights of Labor and the Farmers' alliance will be accomplished at an early date. The knights favor it heartily and he has good reason to think the alliance is favorably disposed toward the scheme. On Dec. 3 General Secretary Hayes and Mr. Wright, of the knights' executive, will meet a committee of the alliance at St. Louis to discuss the matter. The aims and interests of the two organizations are the same. United they will have about 3,000,000 members. No sensible man can disparage the magnitude and importance of such a step. It might mean that the two organizations when combined will yield such a political power as to control the presidential chair.

A Political Sensation.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—The political sensation of the day was the arrest of R. G. Wood, of the famous ballot box forgery case, which played so prominent a part in the late Ohio election. The arrest was made at the instance of Governor-elect James E. Campbell, United States Senator Sherman, and Congressman Butterworth. It is said the disclosures in connection with the case will cause a profound sensation in the political world.

No Revolt in Cuba.

HAVANA, Nov. 23.—Information having been received that reports of a Cuban revolution are in circulation in the European capitals it is deemed proper to state that the rumors are wholly without foundation. There has been no disturbance and the island was never more quiet or its people more contented than now.

Stanley's Return.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Times is assured on high authority that Stanley is not likely to return to London before the end of January. He will probably stay some time at Mombasa to give the benefit of his experience to Mr. George McKenzie, who is starting on a survey expedition for a railroad from Mombasa to the interior.

No Trust Offered to Secret Societies.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—It is stated on authority that which there is no higher in this country that there has been absolutely no action taken by the hierarchy of the Catholic church on the question of secret societies, as was reported to have been done by the bishops during the centennial celebration.

Sunk with 500 Pilgrims.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 26.—The Turkish journal Sanadet has received reports that the steamship India, with 500 Mohammedan pilgrims on board has sunk in the Aegean sea. The captain and two passengers alone survive.

WINNERS OF PRIZE FLAGS.

The Pennsylvania Counties Giving the Largest Republican Majorities in 1889.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 21.—Westmoreland and Potter counties are entitled to the two banners offered by Chairman Andrews, as prizes for the nearest approach at the recent election to the vote cast for Harrison for president last year. In Potter county 92 per cent. of that vote was polled, and in Westmoreland 89 per cent. Allegheny county's Republican vote aggregated only 521 of the Harrison vote, while Philadelphia reached 79 per cent. Pike has the lowest record, 51 per cent., and Lackawanna comes next, with 41 per cent. Lebanon dropped to 45 per cent., Lancaster 45, Clearfield 51, Clinton 48, Columbia 47 and Erie 51. Many of the counties cast only a little more than half of the vote for Harrison. The average in the entire state was 64.89 per cent.

The showing of the Democrats is not much better than that of the Republicans. Had they cast 80 per cent. of the Cleveland vote they would have elected their candidate for state treasurer by a good majority.

WILL FIGHT THE READING.

Mr. Powderly Attributes the Callaghan Suit to That Corporation.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 26.—John Costello, a member of the general executive board Knights of Labor, said to a reporter for the Times: The Callaghan-Powderly conspiracy suit is a fight between the Knights of Labor and the Reading railroad. The latter corporation has masked itself behind the form of Callaghan, supporting him with money and influence.

Believing this, the Knights of Labor general assembly just before adjourning at Atlanta levied an assessment of 5 cents per head on the whole organization as a Powderly defense fund. They say Powderly will be acquitted without trial and will then inaugurate a vigorous war on the Reading Railroad company for its violation of the constitution of Pennsylvania in mining coal contrary to the section which provides that no railroad company chartered by the state shall engage in any other business.

Patrolling for Corpses.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 26.—Four bodies came to the surface of the Conemaugh river here yesterday. One was that of a man supposed to be John R. Day, of Prospect, Md., who, with his daughter, was lost from the ill fated day express of the Pennsylvania railroad at Conemaugh station. So many bodies are being brought to the surface by the high waters of the past few days that a patrol has been started. Men will walk up both sides of the river between Johnstown and Nineveh daily to look for corpses.

Charters Granted at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 26.—These charters were issued from the state department: Erie Wringer Manufacturing company, of Pittsburg; capital, $12,000. Charleroi Plate Glass company, of Washington county; capital, $150,000; Charleroi Land company, of Washington county; capital, $100,000. Stewartstown Hedge and Wire Fence company, of York county; capital, $12,000. The Morse Baking and Confectionery company, of Philadelphia; capital, $35,000. Pennsylvania Oil company, of Warren; capital, $80,000.

A Piece of Pie Causes a Riot.

NEW RINGOLD, Pa., Nov. 23.—In a quarrel about a piece of mince pie among the laborers employed in building the new Schuylkill and Lehigh Valley railroad, Edward Ryan was shot three times. The first bullet struck him in the forehead, lacerating the scalp. The second entered his hand, the third his arm. A number of the laborers were badly beaten. Arrests will be made for rioting and aggravated assault with intent to kill.

Trains Running on the Northern Central.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Nov. 23.—The first train on the Northern Central railroad since the recent flood arrived here yesterday and today all trains are running as usual. Since Wednesday five temporary bridges have been erected on the Northern Central and many others strengthened. The work of repairs on other roads is also being pushed vigorously.

Fatal Natural Gas Explosion.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—A terrible explosion of natural gas occurred at Bradocks. A frame house occupied by Peter Kesh, wife and six children was blown to pieces, the front and side walls being thrown down. All of the family were more or less injured. Mrs. Kesh will probably die, but her 4-days-old babe was picked up uninjured. Five of the children were badly burned.

A Big Clothing Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—Isadore H. Sultzbach, the clothing dealer at Thirteenth street and Ridge avenue, made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors to Simon Bacharach, of the firm of A. Bacharach & Co. The liabilities are estimated at $225,000, and the assets comprise the stock in the large store and the ground and building.

A Miner Crushed to Death.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Nov. 26.—Joseph Miller, of this place, was crushed to death in Boston Run colliery by a fall of coal. His attention had been diverted by the dropping of a small piece of coal, when a great lump struck him, killing him instantly.

A Hellertown Factory Burned.

HELLERTOWN, Nov. 23.—The axle handle factory here, operated by L. A. Struck & Co., was burned, causing a loss of $2,000. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The firm had just laid in a new stock of machinery, much of which is damaged.

A Y. M. C. A. Conference.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 23.—A conference of Railroad Young Men's Christian associations workers from Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Massachusetts and other states is being held in this city and will last for three days.

Beat His Wife to Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Patrick Denning, aged 65 years, of No. 1001 Stocker street, beat his wife Mary, who is of about the same age, so badly last night that she will die. Denning was arrested.

Lehigh and Westeyan Play to a Tie.
