Labors of the National Legislators at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 27 .- The house elected

Mr. Burrows, of Michigon, speaker protem, in the absence of Mr. Reed. Several District of Columbia bills were passed.

Mr. Piumb offered in the senate a resolution instructing the finance committee to prepare and report (in connection with the tariff bill) a statement showing the duties tariff bili) a statement showing the duties levied under existing law, the duties as they would be under the house bill, and the duties under the bill to be reported by the commit-tee. The resolution was amended by making it apply also to reductions of duties and was agreed to. The naval appropriation bill was passed after prolonged debate. Mr. Carlisle was sworn in as senator from Kentucky.

Washington, May 28.—The house passed bills for the erection of public buildings at Beaver Falls, Pa., and Martinsburg, W. Va. The conference report on the customs administrative bill was agreed to, 127 to 13, the speaker pro tem. counting a quorum. Consideration of the river and harbor bill was then continued.

The bill to regulate liquor commerce be-tween the states occupied the senate. Mr. Eustis said it was proposed to legislate against the breweries of Milwaukee and St. Louis and the distilleries of Kentucky, Illinois, North Carolina, New York and New Hampshire. To-morrow they would be asking for exclusion of cotton seed oil which the state of Louisiana produced a large amount in value. Then they would be asking that dressed beef from Illinois and tobacco from North Carolina should not be considered an article of commerce within the meaning of the constitution. The bill went over without action. president announced the appointment of Mr. Blackburn as a member of the committee on appropriations and of Mr. Car-lisle as a member of the committees on inance, territories and woman's suffrage. Washington, May 29.—The house passed the river and harbor bill. Richard Vaux, of Pennsylvania, was sworn in to succeed the late Samuel J. Randall. The senate continued at length the discussion of the bill to regulate the liquor traffic between the states, and it went over without

Washington, May 30.—The senate passed the bill subjecting-imported liquors to the laws of the various states. The river and harbor appropriation bill was received from the house and referred to the committee on

The house passed a large batch of public uilding bilis. WASHINGTON, June 3.-The house passed a bill to ratify an agreement entered into by commissioners of New York and Pennsylvania in regard to the boundary lines be-tween those two states. Very little business was accomplished during the session.

Mr. Morrill addressed the senate on the silver bill. The conference report on the army appropriation bill was taken up and the canteen system proposed by the bill was Five Children Left to Starve. COLUMBIA, S. C., June 2.—The inquest over the body of a little child in Union county showed that the five children of the family had been practically murdered by their parents. When a child was ill it would be left in the house by itself. The parents would go into the field and leave the child with-out food. In this manner the five children were permitted to die. The physician who attended the inquest testified that the last child had died from starvation and lack of attention. parents have been arrested.

The Spring Palace Fire. FORT WORTH, Tex., June 2 .- W. Hayne, a railroad contractor, is the only victim of the Spring Palace fire. There were 3,000 persons in the building and all got out in less than three min-utes. Many jumped from the second utes. Many jumped from the second story windows and were injured, but the indications are no deaths will result. Havne three numbers of women granted to the undersigned to whom all These are leaders-selected from and children from the second story exens of grades of Surahs, also Gros windows and then leaped to the ground with a senseless woman in his arms.

man was entertained at dinner in this city Saturday night by a number of his literary friends, the occasion being his 71st birthday. Among those present were Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, H. C. Harned and wife, Mrs. John Harrison, Miss Balch, Sculptor John Hoyle, Carl Edelheim, Talcott Williams, of The Philadelphia Press; Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, who presided, and William L. ton, who presided, and William L. Walsh. The dinner was notable for the good feeling displayed.

Clarkson Will Not Resign.

PITTSBURG, June 2.—Assistant Post-master General J. S. Clarkson was on the limited last night going west. In an interview he denied emphatically that he has ever sent in his resignation or that he even contemplated resigning. He also denied the recent interview attributed to him in which he stated that President Harrison was supicious of every man under him. He said that he would like to start a Republican weekly in New York city if he had the money.

Frightened by Hail.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 2.—A rain and hall storm that lasted ten minutes caused a panic among the teams on Market street and broke a good many windows. The streets were flooded and many cellars were inun-dated. The storm had a radius of over ten miles and was one of the most severe ever known in this region.

Sam Small Moves to Utah. OGDEN, Utah, June 2 .- The Rev. Sam Small, the noted southern evangelist, has been elected president of the Methodist university in this city. He will move his family here and make Ogden his home. This necessitates his severing his connection with the south-ern conference and affilating with the northern Methodists.

Angry Drummers. CINCINNATI, June 2.—The grand council of the United Commercial Travelers association adopted a resolution demanding of President Harrison in the name of the 250,000 traveling men the removal of John A. Place, postmaster at Oswego, editor of The Oswego Times, who editorially denounced the profession as rakes, profligates, mashers and sequences.

The Disaster at Oakland. San Francisco, June 2.—All the bodies recovered from the Oakland disaster have been identified. Parties are still at the wreck searching the bed of the creek, but it is believed no more than thirteen lives were left. thirteen lives were lost.

Big Tobacco Contracts. BALTIMORE, June 2 .- The contract of the Italian government for 330,000 pounds of Maryland and 220,000 of Caio tobacco has been awarded. Messrs. Geyer and Wilkins, of this city, are tho buyers.

Quay Goes Fishing. ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—M. S. Quay Nuts for Criminal Lawyers, Prisener was being tried for murder; evid nce against him purely circumstantiai; part of it a hat found near the scene of the crime; an ordinary round, black hat, but sworn to as the prisoner's. Council for the defence, of course, made much of the commonness of the hat.

"You, gentelmen, no doubt each of you possess such a hat, of the most ordinary make and shape. Beware how you condemn a fellow-creature to a shameful death on such a piece of evidence," and so on.

So the man was acquitted. Just as he was leaving the dock, with the most touching humanity and simplicity, he pulled his hair and said:

"If you please, my lord, may I 'ave my 'at?"-Cornhill Magazine.

A Hauuted House,

This body of ours has been likened to a tenement. It often has a haunted apartment-the stomach. Scared by the eldrich sprite, dyspepsia, digestion files and refuses to return. What can break the spell, what can raise the ban laid upon the unhappy organs? We answer unhesitatingly, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and we are warranted in response by the recorded testimony of myriads, covering a period of over testimony of myriads, covering a period of over a third of a century. A course of the Bitters, begun in any stage of the affliction, and persistently followed, will terminate in cure positive, not partial. The Bitters restores tone to the epigastrie nerve, renews and purifies the juices exuding from the cullular tissue that act upon the food digestively, expels bile from the stomach and the blood, and promotes a regular habit of body. Maiaria, kidney complaint, nervousness, rheumatism and neralgia give way to this medicine.

The Disagreeable Winter Gone,

Now that the cold, drizzly rains are transformed to de'ightful spring, and the muddy roads to pleasant drives, it would be well to look about and prepare for the lurking disease often coming with the new vegetation, as to better enable us to follow our daily avocations we should be in good health and spirits tions we should be in good health and spirits. No well-regulated family is without a stimulant of some kind. Deception is probably more practiced by unserupulous dealers in liquors than any other business. Max Klein, 82 Federal street, is a reliable party, to him we point with pleasure. No deception, no misrep resentation, no sailing under false colors with him. His Silver Age Rye is positively pure and sold everywhere for $1.50 per quart only. His six-year-old Pennsylvania Rye at $1 each quart, or six quarts for $5, are as represented. His wines, brandles and gins are as good and reasonable as any in the country. Send for complete calalogue and price list to Max Klein, $2 Ecderal Street, Allegheny, $\tau$.
