

PLAIN TRUTHS!

—FROM THE—

Rochester : Clothing : House!

"YOU CAN FOOL SOME OF THE PEOPLE ALL OF THE TIME; ALL OF THE PEOPLE SOME OF THE TIME, BUT YOU CANT FOOL ALL OF THE PEOPLE ALL OF THE TIME," —LINCOLN.

The above words, uttered by one of the greatest men the world ever saw, are particularly true when applied to the manner in which some of the concerns in Bellefonte are attempting to do business. On one line you will see large "Closing Out Sales" advertised; on another, "All Goods to be Sold at Cost" and on down further you will see suits advertised for "$9, formerly $18." Now just stop for a moment, look at it carefully, an $18 suit for $9; was this business legitimate? or is it legitimate now? Is the man treating you right when he charges you $18 for a suit that costs him only $9, you will say at once, no. If he abused your confidence once, will he not do so again? Read this carefully, consider well whether it is to your interest to buy your goods from a man who has treated you squarely and honestly in the past, and who, intending to remain in the same business and in the same place, has his own interests to protect by treating you the same in the future.

If you need anything in the clothing line, give me a call and I will promise you good, honest value for your money.

100 cents worth of goods for $1.

The new route will run due south through the northern half of York county, which is now without a railroad, and give direct communication with Baltimore.

Cut Him in Two.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 5.—W. G. March, proprietor of the Hardwood sawmill, on the Catasqua creek, near Weaversville, was caught in the belting which runs a circular saw, and as the big water wheel went around he was jerked up, striking the heavy rafters overhead and falling, was caught by the saw, which cut him in two.

To Discourage Horse Thieves.

MECHANICSBURG, Pa., Jan. 5.—The Allen and East Pennsboro Society for the Recovery of Stolen Horses and Mules convened in annual session in this borough. There was a very large attendance of farmers from York, Adams and Cumberland counties.

Six Hundred Men Out of Work.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 5.—The night shift at the Scranton Steel mill was taken off on account of a decreased demand for steel rails. Six hundred men are thrown out of employment.

A Prominent Hibernian Killed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 5.—Michael Hennessey, prominent in Ancient Order Hibernian circles of the state, was killed in Franklin mine by a fall of coal.

CONGRESSIONAL RESUME.

The Week's Work of the Fifty-first Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The house adjourned to Friday without transacting any business. Mr. Wolcott (Rep.) addressed the senate in opposition to the election bill. The financial bill was taken up informally, and Messrs. Stewart and Reagan spoke against it. The discussion of the election bill was resumed, and Mr. Teller (Rep.) spoke against it, and against the proposed change in the rules.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—In the senate most of the morning's hour was spent in the discussion of Mr. Morgan's resolution instructing the committee on privileges and elections to report as to the contents and meaning of the election bill. A resolution was agreed to directing the superintendent of census to report the population of the United States by congressional districts and counties. Debate on the election bill was continued. The house was not in session.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Both branches of congress met and adjourned until Monday. In the house only 110 members responded to the roll call.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—In the house the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill was agreed to.

In the senate the credentials of Senator-elect Dabois, of Idaho, were placed on file, and Senator McConnell, of Idaho, was sworn in. The conference report on the Pennsylvania railroad bill was agreed to. When the election bill came up, the senate, on motion of Mr. Stewart, by a vote of 34 to 23, laid it aside and took up the finance committee's bill, which was debated at length by Messrs. Sherman, Reagan and others.

The Trenton Monument.

TRENTON, Jan. 6.—Trentonians have almost concluded that if the Trenton battle monument is ever to be erected they will have to erect it themselves. Congressman James Buchanan, who has labored very earnestly in Washington and elsewhere for the project, has come to the same conclusion. The monument is to cost, if it is ever built, about $50,000. The city of Trenton raised $15,000, the last state legislature appropriated $15,000 and then congress was asked for $20,000 more which it appears will be refused. It is now proposed to try and raise the rest of the money by popular subscription and by entertainments to be given under the auspices of the leading citizens of Trenton.

The Homestead Heiress Besieged.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—Pretty Miss Carrie Painter, of Homestead, is already beginning to feel the weight of the $500,000 to which she fell heir a few weeks ago. The story of her sudden acquisition of wealth, has been scattered all over the country, and in return the girl has been flooded with letters. They are from mendicants who, under the cloak of christianity, beg for a multiplicity of objects. Others are of a business nature, and still others are from tender mothers who are searching for a rich wife for their more tender sons.

A Rich Colored Woman.

RICHMOND, Jan. 6.—Judge Leake yesterday rendered a decision, which, if not set aside by the supreme court, makes Bettie Thomas Lewis the richest colored person in Virginia. The suit has been pending for two years, and involved the estate of the late W. A. Thomas, estimated to be worth from $200,000 to $250,000. Mr. Thomas was a retired dry goods merchant of this city. Bettie Lewis was his natural daughter by a colored woman. He made no will but said he intended to give his property to his daughter.

Out for Eight Hours.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—The organized carpenters of this city have issued a circular to the bosses in which they state that on and after May 1, 1891, eight hours shall constitute a day's work and that $3.30 shall be the lowest price paid for said day's work. This agreement is to last until May, 1892. The master builders were surprised at the action of the carpenters and a meeting has been called to consider what action will be taken regarding the circular.

Farmers' Alliance Against Vilas.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 6.—The Farmers' Alliance has taken the field against ex-Postmaster General Vilas' senatorial aspirations, on the ground that he is a railroad attorney. The farmers are trying to induce Gen. Bragg to run against him. Vilas could be readily defeated if a few Republicans would vote for his opponent, but it is not thought that they will lend themselves to a scheme of the kind.

Cremation Increasing.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—At last night's meeting of the Philadelphia Cremation society reports were read showing the incineration of human bodies during the past year has doubled that of 1899. This is in some degree owing to the fact that corpses are now reduced to ashes without being taken from the coffins.

Acquitted of Libel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The indictment charging Joseph Pulitzer, Julius C. Chambers and James F. Graham, editors of The World, with criminal libel in publishing articles defamatory to the character of the late A. T. Stewart, was dismissed by Recorder Smyth in part 1 of the court of general sessions.

In Honor of C. Columbus.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Representative Butterworth, of Ohio, introduced in the house a resolution requesting the president to invite the several states and territories to hold suitable memorial services on October 12, 1892, commemorative of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America.

Public Building Bills Approved.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The president has approved bills for the erection of public buildings as follows: Norfolk, Va., $150,000; Reidsville, N. C., $25,000; Kansas City, $1,300,000; Rome, Ga., $50,000; South Bend, Ind., $75,000; Taunton, Mass., $75,000.

A California Earthquake.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Reports from Gilroy, Santa Cruz, Modesto, Stockton and a number of other points indicate that the earthquake yesterday was quite generally felt in Central California. No damage is reported.

He Wants Small Change.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Representative Kelly, of Kansas, has introduced a bill in the house to provide for the issue of $50,000,000 of fractional currency, and to increase the volume of currency to that extent.

Trains Detained.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 3.—Trains on all roads leading into this city have been detained by bad land slides as a result of the rain and snow, and several bridges have been washed away by the high water.
