WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND KNOW.

Cleanings of Importance from All Fields of News, Picked Up Here and There in the State.

Erie City is terrorized by thieves. The savings fund of the Doylestown public schools began on Monday.

Nineteen persons lost their lives by accident in Warren county last year. A 16-year-old girl secured a divorce in the Pittsburgh courts a few days ago.

According to a new directory just issued Allentown has 931 business people. Seventeen thousand bushels of coal were sold in Indiana county in December.

Twenty-one deer have been killed in Schuylkill county during the season just closed. Since the factory inspection law went into effect 2,087 factories have been visited.

The Delaware County Teachers' association held a meeting at Eddystone on Saturday. No wine will sparkle at the annual supper of the Montgomery County Bar association.

The Armour Dressed Beef company, of Chicago, will build a storage house at Uniontown. In the fight among tramps at Lebanon William Hawkins, of Brooklyn, received fatal wounds.

The Democratic Central club, of Wilkesbarre, will attend Pattison's inauguration 150 strong. The Altoona Tribune calls upon the legislature to take some step to diminish the tramp nuisance.

Senator Harry Alvan Hall, of Elk county, is the owner of 30,000,000 feet of white pine on the stump. John Price, a colored man, of Bristol, is a candidate for the position of messenger to Governor Pattison.

There were thirty-seven fires and alarms of fire in 1890 in Easton, and the total loss did not reach $2,000. The Delaware river is bridged with ice between Burlington and Bristol, but people fear to cross over on it.

Washington is without any vacant houses and 200 mill employes attracted to that city are without shelter. The Kennett Square spring election is already waxing warm. The issue will be made on municipal improvements.

Fourth class postmasters were appointed as follows: G. B. Snyder, Burdsville, Pa.; D. F. Gerges, Lucon, Pa. The Young Men's Temperance society, of South Bethlehem, has cleared $2,500 on a bazaar held to raise funds to build a hall.

James Wilson is in custody at Shamokin on the supposition that he is the murderer who recently escaped from Bellefonte jail. The new West End Silk mill of W. C. Seaton, the third of its kind in Allentown started Monday and 150 hands will be employed at present.

Harry Radcliffe, aged 40 years assistant yardmaster for the Lehigh Valley railroad at Packertown, was run over by an engine and cut in two. The ground in the vicinity of Port Bowley, three miles from Wilkesbarre, is settling, and the people are ready to move at a moment's notice.

A severe rain storm, accompanied by hail, thunder and lightning, passed over the eastern end of the state, doing damage at Pottstown and other points. The residence of John Boyle, John Hughes and Augustus Roth were damaged by fire at Allentown to the extent of $200, which is covered by insurance.

The Lincoln Young Republican club, of Litzitz, adopted resolutions in opposition to the proposed re-election of United States Senator J. Donald Cameron. William Canavan, a wealthy young man of Oakland, Luzerne county, was thrown from his sleigh near his home and killed, his neck having been broken.

The name of Congressman Stone is suggested as that of a senatorial candidate in opposition to Mr. Cameron's re-election. He has not been approached on the subject. An enraged cow, belonging to Daniel Kemmerer, of Alsace, broke both her hind legs by falling, and with the bones protruding through the flesh she walked 500 yards.

Millard Ford, puddling mill boss at the Pennsylvania Bolt and Nut works, Lebanon, while attempting to start an engine which had stopped on its center, sustained fatal injuries. A large quantity of molten steel was accidentally dumped from a converter in the Bethlehem Iron company's works, but the workmen escaped injury through timely warning.

John Rhoads, Harry Keirn and Harry Barrett, of Newport, skated on the canal from that place to Harrisburg. The distance is twenty-eight miles, and they covered it in four hours. Stabbed His Rich Father.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 10.—Col. J. W. Moore, the millionaire coal and coke operator of this place, was almost fatally stabbed last night with a butcher knife in the hands of his son Bert. The two were in the sitting room of Mr. Moore's house, when Bert suddenly attacked his father with a knife, cutting a deep gash in his left side. A neighbor who was passing by heard the noise and, running in, caught Bert and held him until the police came, when he was taken to jail. The cause of Bert's act is not known. He has been leading a rather wild life of late and was intoxicated at the time.

A Thousand Coke Ovens Banked. SCOTTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 12.—Over 1,000 coke ovens were banked in this region Saturday. About 1,200 men will be affected. The ovens are owned by the Schoenmaker, Southover and other companies. The causes which led to the suspensions are attributed to the dullness in trade. It is thought that more ovens will be closed next week, because of the blowing out of the Mahoning and Shenango valley furnaces, which occurred today.

LABOR LEGISLATION.

Powderly Participates in the Discussion at Harrisburg. HARRISBURG, Jan. 10.—Lewis Emery, Jr., sent the following message to the Knights of Labor legislative convention: "The oil producers of Pennsylvania, recognizing in your present convention wise and timely concern for the cause of legislative reform, I congratulate you upon the auspicious occasion and bid you Godspeed in your laudable effort."

Numerous resolutions were introduced, one recommending compulsory education for all children under 16 years, and another providing a law to prevent blacklisting, which means to enforce the same. The report of the committee on legislation was taken up, and the resolution with reference to the abolition of the railroad relief was discussed at length by General Master Workman Powderly, John Hayes, J. D. Farrell, Philip Willet and others, who explained the English law preventing the same and the good results therefrom. The resolution was adopted.

A resolution of a commission to draft a general mine law to meet the needs of the miners of the state. Resolutions were also passed favoring the Farrell bill prohibiting company stores; indorsing the Gallagher bill to regulate the examination of miners; favoring free text books and changes in the factory inspection act, providing for one chief and twelve deputy inspectors.

Mr. Dewey made a speech in favor of his resolution of the calling of a state convention of all labor organizations. During the discussion of this proposition Mr. Powderly stated that this was the best and strongest representation that the Knights of Labor had ever had and he believed that the next convention would surpass all efforts ever made or known in the interests of labor.

The Wallace Failure. HARRISBURG, Jan. 10.—The Philadelphia and Harrisburg papers contained the statement that Senator Wallace's assignees had failed to give bond, and that consequently immediate action would be taken in the matter by his creditors. S. J. McCarrell, of this city, one of the assignees, says: "The assignees have not failed to give bond; the time has not yet elapsed for the filing of the bond; it is duly prepared and will be filed before the expiration of the time allotted by law. Furthermore the executions issued against Senator Wallace's property were issued the day before the assignment was recorded and it was largely because of these executions that the assignment was made at the time it was. By a very conservative estimate Senator Wallace's property will bring, even after the executions issued before the assignment are fully satisfied, more than twice the amount of his debts. His creditors will be fully satisfied and will receive 100 cents on the dollar. Senator Wallace will not find himself a poor man by any means when his affairs are finally settled."

The Delamaters Arrested. MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 10.—Delamater & Co. (including George W. Delamater, late Republican candidate for governor), bankers, who assigned recently, were yesterday afternoon summoned before an alderman charged with embezzlement. The complaint was made by the outgoing board of county commissioners, who charged Delamater & Co. with the embezzlement of upwards of $30,000 of county funds, having received the deposits of the county treasurer while knowing themselves to be insolvent, and converting the same to their own use. A plea of not guilty was entered and a hearing waived. Bonds were given by each of the defendants in the sum of $10,000 for their appearance at the February term of court.

Scranton Defeats Wilkesbarre. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Congressman Scranton wanted the internal revenue office in this city removed to Scranton, and Congressman Osborne wanted the office to remain in Wilkesbarre, but Osborne was beaten. The Scrantonians came down to Wilkesbarre, Collector Penman at their head, and in the middle of the night all of the effects of the office were carried out and transported to Scranton. The $500,000 in the banks here belonging to the government will also be taken to Scranton. Osborne and his friends are much chagrined.

The Clearfield-Huntingdon Strikers. HUNTINGDON, Pa., Jan. 12.—Although the movements of the agitators of the strike throughout the Clearfield-Huntingdon bituminous coal district are somewhat shrouded in mystery, it is semi-officially declared that the proposed conference between the executive board of the miners and William H. Dill, representing the operators, has been postponed until Jan. 23. The miners meanwhile are to continue at work and vote on the question of strike.

To Paint the Kinza Viaduct. FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 12.—The great Kinza viaduct on the Erie railroad, near Bradford, is to be painted this spring. It will be a very dangerous work. The men must climb about 350 from the ground. It is calculated that it will take about four months to accomplish the work and it will cost $20,000. This will be the first time the bridge has received a coat of paint since its erection about eight years ago.

A Winter Fish Story. MANSFIELD VALLEY, Pa., Jan. 12.—A crowd gathered on the Main street bridge to watch the efforts of an immense carp to get into deeper water. W. E. Yates, ex-postmaster, dashed into the icy water and captured the fish after a struggle. It weighed thirteen pounds and was more than three feet long. It is thought that it escaped from a pond in Cannonsburg during the recent high water.

Relatives Want the Legacy. MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 12.—Edwin R. Lewis, who died in Newtown township about the first of the year, left a will bequeathing nearly all his property, amounting to about $50,000, to Richard Terkos, a young man now just past his majority. The only other bequest in the will is the division of $3,000 between the children of the sisters and brothers of the deceased. Relatives will contest the will.

BOGGS & BUHL, 115, 117 Federal St. ALLEGHENY, PA.

Well Known. There is probably no business house in western Penn'a. so well known to the public in this and adjoining states as the one we are about to speak of. Well known for square and honest dealing, well known for keeping the largest and most complete stock in his line, well known for prompt shipping and safe delivery, either by freight or express. We refer to the establishment of Max Klein, the wholesale liquor dealer of Federal street, Allegheny, Pa. His arrangements with the different Mountain Distillers of Penn'a for their entire production and his contract with foreign houses for direct importations, together with the experience of many years, makes him the leader in his line. His own "Silver Age Eye," sold now in every first-class place at $1.50 per quart, has no rival. His six year old Penn'a Rye at $1.00 per quart, six quarts for $5.00, are the finest goods offered for his price list, request yourself with his manner of doing business, and you will always send for any situation you may want to.
