—The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has handed down a decision that when an unsuccessful prosecutor in a Quarter Sessions case is charged with the costs and refuses to pay he cannot be sent to jail. This decision will probably increase the number of verdicts of "not guilty, but the defendant to pay the costs." It will also make District Attorneys more careful in bringing suits, for the prospect of getting costs out of the defendant is generally less hopeful than the chances of getting them out of the prosecutor.

—The Centre Democrat and the Philadelphia Weekly Times one year for $1.75.

Does Experience Count?

It does, in every line of business, and especially in compounding and preparing medicines. This is illustrated in the great superiority of Hoods Sarsaparilla over other preparations, as shown by the remarkable cures it has accomplished.

The head of the firm of C. I. Hood & Co, is a thoroughly competent and experienced pharmacist, having devoted his whole life to the study and actual preparation of medicines. He is also a member of the Massachusetts and American Pharmaceutical Associations, and continues actively devoted to supervising the preparation of and managing the business connected with Hoods Sarsaparilla.

Hence the superiority and peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is built upon the most substantial foundation. In its preparation there is represented all the knowledge which modern research in medical science has developed, combined with long experience, brain work, and experiment. It is only necessary to give this medicine a fair trial to realize its great curative value.

—A bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives at Harrisburg prohibiting the custom of one person treating another to intoxicating liquors, the penalty to be imposed being two days in jail or from $10 to $100 fine.

DEATH AT THE FEAST

Secretary Windom Drops Dead at a Banquet.

HIS LAST WORDS FOR HIS COUNTRY.

Stricken at the Close of His Speech at the Dinner of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation — Electricity Tried in Vain. The Diners Immediately Dismissed. The News in Washington.

NEW YORK, Jan 30.—The sudden death of Secretary Windom, of the treasury, while at the dinner of the board of trade and transportation at Delmonico's last night, caused the immediate adjournment of that body a few minutes after 10 o'clock.

The secretary was the first speaker of the evening. The dinner, which was began at 6 o'clock, was completed shortly after 9, and the secretary arose to speak. He entertained the diners with a most elaborate oration and sat down amidst the loud applause of his auditors.

"Look at Windom."

Judge Arnoux then got up and was in the midst of his speech introducing ex-Secretary Bayard, when some one cried, "Look at Secretary Windom." The speech was broken short and every eye was turned in the direction of that gentleman. He had collapsed in his chair and was falling to the floor. His face was ghastly and a cry of horror arose among the late festive revelers. There was an immediate rush on the part of all hands towards Mr. Windom's chair, but several doctors, who were guests at the dinner, got there first and drove the others back. They were Drs. S. A. Robinson, Durant Whitney, Fisher and Bishop. Dr. Robinson bent down and making a close examination of the prostrate form discovered that the heart was still beating.

WILLIAM WINDOM.

At 10:11 p. m. Judge Arnoux came out of the dish room and announced to the diners that Secretary Windom, whom they had had the pleasure of hearing only a few minutes before, had breathed his last.

The secretary had succumbed to an attack of the heart. He had been for a long time a sufferer from heart disease and only last Monday was visited by a shock, which, however, passed away without causing much inconvenience.

Among those present who were expected to respond to toasts were ex-Secretary Bayard, Secretary Tracy, Maj. McKinley, Hon. W. C. P. Breckenridge, Attorney General Miller, Murat Halstead and Orlando B. Potter.

Secretary Windom's Career.

William Windom was born in Belmont, O., May 10, 1827. He received an academic education, studied law at Mt. Vernon, O., and was admitted to the bar in 1850. In 1852 he became prosecuting attorney for Knox county, but in 1855 he removed to Minnesota and soon afterwards was chosen to congress from that state as a Republican, serving from 1867 to 1869.

In that body he served two terms as chairman of the committee on Indian affairs and also was at the head of the special committee which visited the western tribes in 1865 and that investigated the conduct of the commissioner of Indian affairs in 1867. In 1870 he was appointed to the United States senate to fill the unexpired term of Daniel S. Norton, deceased, and was subsequently chosen for the term that ended in 1877.

He was re-elected for the term that expired in 1883, but resigned in 1881 to enter the cabinet of President Garfield as secretary of the treasury, but retired on the accession of President Arthur the same year, and was elected by the Minnesota legislature to serve the remainder of his term in the senate. In that body Mr. Windom acted as chairman on the committees on appropriation, foreign affairs and transportation.

At the expiration of his term Mr. Windom went to New York and engaged in business in Wall street. He was in the midst of a prosperous business career when Benjamin Harrison was elected president and called him to his old position in the cabinet. He hesitated to respond, but was finally prevailed upon to leave New York and go to Washington. Since his resumption of duties of office of secretary of treasurer, Mr. Windom has been constantly before the public.

Funeral of Secretary Windom.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The funeral services over the remains of Secretary Windom took place today. The order of the president closing all the executive departments was observed, and throughout the country the offices connected with the treasury department were closed, as also all postoffices between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. The interment was at Rock Creek cemetery. The members of the cabinet, at the desire of Mrs. Windom, acted as honorary pall-bearers, and a detail of non-commissioned officers from the treasury guard acted as body bearers.

When the cortege, about a half mile in length, reached the cemetery, at 2:30 o'clock, several hundred old soldiers, inmates of the Soldiers' home, stood with uncovered heads on either side of the entrance to the cemetery, and a band of music, also from the home, while the chapel bell was tolling, played "Nearer, My God, to Thee." There were several hundred sight seers assembled at the grave when the cortege came to a halt. There was no evidence that a grave had been dug, for it was heavily covered over with cut cedar.

The casket was placed on a spread canvas, while Dr. Hamlin read the brief service. It was then deposited in its last resting place and before the grave attendants began their work the distinguished mourners had left the cemetery and returned to the city.

Mr. Windom's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The opinion generally prevalent is that Assistant Secretary A. B. Nettleton will be promoted to be the head of the department. He is from Minnesota, and is thoroughly imbued with Mr. Windom's ideas on finance and familiar with his plans. He is the assistant designated to act as secretary in the absence of the chief. His appointment would be a natural one, and could probably be made with less embarrassment than any other.

FINDLAY, Feb. 3.—The Republicans of Ohio regardless of faction, are moving on to the president for the appointment of ex-Governor Foster as secretary of the treasury to fill the place made by the death of William Windom. Meetings were held in all the principal cities of the state by the Republicans to devise ways and means for bringing about Foster's appointment.

CONGRESSIONAL RESUME.

The Week's Work of the Fifty-first Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The senate agreed to meet hereafter at 11 o'clock daily. A bill was passed to allow the Norfolk and Western railroad to bridge the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy river. The remainder of the day was devoted to the apportionment bill.

In the house Mr. Springer, of Illinois, offered a resolution condemning the speaker for refusing to entertain an appeal from his refusal to order recapitulation of vote. The speaker ruled that the resolution was not privileged. Springer appealed and appeal was tabled. In committee of the whole the Military Academy bill was considered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The house devoted the day to discussion of the military academy appropriation bill, in committee of the whole.

The senate continued the debate on the apportionment bill and incidentally discussed the accuracy of the census.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—After the journal had been read and approved in the house, Mr. Dingley, chairman of the silver pool investigating committee, reported to the house the failure of J. A. Owenby to appear before the committee and asked that a warrant be issued and the sergeant-at-arms be directed to bring Owenby before the bar of the house to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. After some discussion the order was made. The house then went into committee of the whole on the millitary academy appropriation bill, but without action the house adjourned.

The senate passed the apportionment bill. The army appropriation bill was then taken up.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. — The senate adjourned immediately after adopting resolutions of respect to the memory of Secretary Windom, offered by Mr. Morrill.

In the house resolutions of regret offered by Mr. McKinley and seconded by Mr. Dunnell, of Minnesota, were adopted, after which the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—In the senate the credentials of Senator Cameron were presented and placed on file. A number of appropriation bills were passed.

In the house the time was principally taken with a discussion of the foreign policy of the government, mainly in reference to the Behring sea seal fisheries and the Barrundia affair.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In the senate, after routine business, the fortification bill was considered, and several amendments adopted, but the senate, without final disposition of the bill, adjourned.

In the house the bill amending section 180, revised statues, so as to read "vacancies occasioned by death or resignation shall not be temporarily filled for a longer period than thirty days." The present law limits the time to ten days, and the bill has special reference to the appointment of a successor to Secretary Windom. Senate bill was passed for the erection of a public building at St. Paul, Minn., at a cost of $5,000,000, and the house adjourned.

SENATOR INGALLS BEATEN.

Judge Peffer, a Recent Republican, Polls the Alliance Vote.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 29.—The senate and house met in joint session to elect a United States senator to succeed John J. Ingalls. Lieutenant Governor Felt took the chair and called the house to order. The roll of both bodies was called at once, and resulted as follows: William A. Peffer, 101; John J. Ingalls, 58; Blair, 3; Morrill, 1; Kelley, 1. The chairman thereupon declared William A. Peffer senator-elect, to succeed John J. Ingalls. The result was received with applause by the Alliance members.

Judge Peffer, who is 60 years of age, is a Master Mason, a Knight of Labor and a member of the Episcopal church. He wears a long, full beard, which gives him a very venerable appearance. Before the last election, he announced himself as a candidate for the senatorship, and some of the Farmers' Alliance members of the legislature were elected after pledging him their support. He has led in the canvass for Ingalls' seat ever since the election, and his final triumph is not unexpected.

Judge Peffer is a native of Pennsylvania. He went to Indiana in 1852 and served through the war in the Eighty-third Illinois infantry. After the war he settled in Tennessee. He went to Kansas in 1870, where he has figured as farmer, lawyer and editor. In politics he has been a Republican from Fremont to Harrison, and in 1874 served in the state senate. He was a Republican presidential elector in 1880.

Brice's Residence Questioned.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 3.—Representative Holliday (Rep.) introduced a resolution to request Senator Sherman to resist Senator-elect Brice's admission to the United States senate on the ground that he is not a resident of Ohio. The resolution recites a number of facts bearing on his residence, none of which are new, except that Mr. Brice's son, in registering at college, gave his residence as "living with his father in New York city," and that the senator-elect is a member of the Ohio society in New York city, the members of which must have acquired citizenship in New York.

A Bank Resumes Business.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Feb. 3.—The Bank of Commerce, which suspended sixty days ago with liabilities of $500,000, resumed operations this morning, the assignee having been discharged by the court. The capital has been increased from $100,000 to $250,000, and the institution is remarkable in its revival from the fact that the vaults contained sufficient currency to pay every dollar of the deposits. Andrew Crawford and S. B. Chase, of Chicago, and Gen. Mullan, of St. Paul, were active in the reorganization.

Looks Like Murder.

MILTON, Cal., Feb. 3.—It is now believed that the keeper of Ward's toll bridge across the Toulumne river, which was burned on Saturday night, was murdered. His remains and those of another man were found among the ashes of the burned bridge. The keeper was supposed to have a large amount of money in his possession, but he had taken the precaution to ship it on Saturday and the murderers got very little for their deadly work. The country is being scoured for the perpetrators of the crime.

Terrific Snow Storm Raging.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 3.—A terrific snow storm is raging along the Rock Island's western line. The train from Denver is reported to be six hours late. The storm is said to be the worst at Claremont, Col., and no trains are being moved at that point.

ALLEGHENY, PA.

At this season of the year when malaria lurks in the air, and bad colds not an unfrequent visitor, we long for a quick and effective remedy. There is scarcely a home without a sufferer from some one of the many ills flesh is heir to. A stimulent is after the intermediator. It is quick and effective. It brings relief and saves doctor bills. We can recommend Mr. Max. Klein for anything in the liquor line. His Silver Age at $1.50 per quart is the best wiskey in the market. He will sell any Pennsylvania Rye Whiskey, six year old, at $1 for each quart, or six for $5. Send for his price list and catalogue and mention this paper.
