KEYSTONE NOTES.

Items of Real Interest Presented in Condensed Form.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND KNOW.

Gleanings of Importance from All Fields of News, Picked Up Here and There in the State.

In Bucks county last year 347 marriage licenses were granted. Sixteen hundred applicants for liquor licenses in Allegheny City.

Two thousand Pottstowners ask councils for two new fire engines. Eight hours time henceforth in the railroad shops at Susquehanna.

An iron ore vein at the Cornwall ore bank killed William Christ, aged 60. John McKeown, the iron king, died at Washington, Pa., aged about 50 years.

Charles Fein, of Freemansburg, was cut to pieces by a Valley train at Bethlehem. Landlord Daniel Stoyer, of the National, at West Hamburg, is dead at the age of 63.

Adam S. Rhoads, aged 46, a well-known musician of Lancaster, is dead of consumption. The grounds of the Cumberland Agricultural society were sold on Saturday for $10,290.

Elias Hoffman was killed by an explosion of gas in Pine Brook colliery, near Scranton. Huns have contributed liberally to the King's Daughters' hospital project at Pottstown.

A thief pried his way into the Central school at Gwynedd and stole only the new dictionary. Col. Frank J. Magee, of the Eighth regiment, it is said, is to be superintendent of the State arsenal.

A Bucks county jury has awarded Allen Tomlinson $6,313 damages for land taken by the Trouton cut-off road. An observatory to cost $2,000 will be erected to the memory of the late Col. Theodore Hyatt on the Chester academy grounds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dillon, who had what she considered a $5,000 fall on a Delta borough sidewalk, accepts the jury's figures—$750. L. M. Emmertson, of York, sues the Northern Central Railroad company for killing his son, an employe, at Marsh Run, a year ago.

A forlorn-looking pocketbook lay in the gutter at Lancaster for four hours. Lots of people saw it, but no one suspected it contained $53. Edwin K. Myers, son of B. F. Myers, of Harrisburg, is a candidate for quartermaster general in case of Col. Deming's re-election by the senate.

Bishop O'Hara, of Scranton, appeals to the faithful of his diocese to contribute on the first Sunday in Lent to alleviate the distress in Sligo, Ireland. Rev. Mr. Earle, of Chad's Ford, has just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh, in searching for his son, who has been missing from home for fifteen months.

Sammuel Baronowski, of Reading, mistated his age in joining a beneficial society and was expelled. He says he made a mistake, and has laid the case before a magistrate.

Penitentiary life does not agree with Embler Shellenberger, of Doylestown. He is growing thin. He is doing clerical work, being an assistant in the bookkeeping department.

Frederick Plofield, aged 70, a well-known farmer of Morgantown, was stricken with apoplexy while returning home from the mill. On arriving at his home he was taken from his wagon unconscious and died soon after.

IN THE COKE REGION. The Strike Now Fully on, and Trouble Brewing.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—No coal has been mined in any of the pits owned by the Frick, Schoenmaker or McClure Coke companies since Saturday, and no one but the coke drawers are at work. Thirteen thousand men are out on a strike. There will be large additions to that number by to-morrow, and the duration of the conflict is merely a conjecture. Operators and workers are equally firm in their determination and both are alert to prevent a repetition of the depredations of previous strikes.

In the Dunbar district the men are nearly all at work, and some of them will remain at work if permitted to do so. The workers' scale demands an advance of wages of about 134 per cent., all coal to be weighed instead of measured, and eight hours to constitute a day's work.

The operators have demanded a reduction of 10 per cent. on all classes of labor. The current wage scale has expired. There are now no negotiations for a settlement pending.

During a drunken fight at Ft. Hill yesterday Yard Boss Snyder and his assistant were beaten unmercifully by Hungarians. Snyder's assistant was probably fatally injured.

AN UNsuccessful Launch. CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 9.—Another unsuccessful attempt was made to get the Mallory line steamer Concho off the ways at Roache's shipyard. The vessel moved about eight feet more and then refused to budge. It was concluded to block the vessel up again and make a third attempt to baptize the vessel on Saturday next. It is probable that she will have to be pulled off with the aid of tugs.

A Table Glassware Trust Forming. PITTSBURG, Feb. 10.—Five table glassware houses in this city, one in Wheeling, one in Fostoria and one in Findlay, O., have made application for a new trust combination which will be known as the United States Glass company, with a capital of $1,000,000. It is said to be the beginning of the combine which will soon embrace all the table glassware factories in the country.

Dead by the Side of the Track. MEDIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—Dr. C. S. Mercer, a well-known physician of Media, was found dead by the side of the tracks of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad station at Elwyn. His neck was broken and the body badly bruised, and he had evidently been dead some time before the body was discovered.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

How the Wheels of Government Revolve at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 4.—In the house a communication was received from Governor Pattison transmitting a memorial of the United Mine Workers of America, suggesting that the legislative committee inquiring into the causes of the mine disaster at Scottdale take the testimony of men of long experience, as well as that of experts.

In the senate petitions were received praying for the erection of monuments to Meade and Hancock and protesting against the sale of liquor on Memorial day. A message was received from the governor returning without his approval the concurrent resolution of the senate providing for the printing and distribution of 10,000 copies of the governor's inaugural address.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—The house met at 10 o'clock. A number of petitions, including Grand Army of the Republic requests for Meade and Hancock memorials, were presented. The governor's message sent in Monday night returning without his approval the concurrent resolution requesting the United States senators from Pennsylvania to further the passage of the elections bill was read. The communication now lays on the table until the house is informed that the senate has taken action on it.

The senate convened with Lieutenant Governor Waters in the chair. The session was principally consumed in the introduction of bills of minor importance and placing them on the calendar. HARRISBURG, Feb. 6.—Senator Harlan presented the report of the road commission, accompanied by a bill providing for the election and qualification of supervisors and directing that county engineers shall lay out the roads. Senator Mylin presented a bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the improvement of roads.

Bills were passed allowing certain officers receiving salaries to be directors of corporations. Authorizing boroughs to manufacture electricity for commercial purposes. Appropriation of $75,000 for the erection of equestrian statues to Gens. Meade and Hancock. The senate adjourned until 3 p. m. Monday.

The house passed on second reading the bill providing for the appointment of a commission by the governor to revise, amend and make such changes in the mining and ventilating laws of the anthracite coal regions as will secure greater safety to life and property.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—The house passed the bill authorizing the governor to appoint a commission to change the mining laws. After reading a number of bills on the calendar for the first time the house adjourned till 8 p. m. Monday.

Vice President McCullough Dead. PITTSBURG, Feb. 9.—J. N. McCullough, first vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, died at 9:45 Sunday morning at his residence, on Lewis avenue, Allegheny. Mr. McCullough had been confined to his residence for two months past by a general failure of the digestive organs, complicated by a spinal ailment. The funeral has been arranged for Wednesday next, intended to be made at Wellsville, Ohio.

Mr. McCullough was born in Yellow Creek, O., in 1827. At the time of his death he was first vice president of the Pennsylvania company's external system of railways west of Pittsburgh, and president of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad, having held the latter position for thirty-three years.

To Abolish Trusts. HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—The Fow anti-trust bill came back to the house with a favorable report. This is a sweeping measure, and is calculated to give the trustees and combiners the cold shivers. The bill was not altered in the least in the committee. It applies to corporations and associations, whether incorporated or not, business firms or shareholders, interdicting a combination to control the manufacture or sale of any article. The bill provides for a fine of $10,000 upon any individual or business firm violating the law, while the governor is authorized to revoke the charter of any guilty corporation.

Rioters Convicted of Murder. PITTSBURG, Feb. 9.—George Rusnok, Andrew Todd and Michael Sobol, Hungarians, were convicted of murder in the first degree of Michael Quinn, who was killed in the Braddock riots on last New Year's day. The convicted men were leaders in the riots. Rusnok is said to have proven a complete alibi. Max Schamberger, the Austro-Hungarian consul, claims that the verdict is unjust. A new trial will be asked for.

Drank Embalming Fluid. LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 9.—Mrs. Margaret Snyder, aged 71 years, while at a funeral yesterday afternoon, became faint and took a drink of what she thought was whisky. It was the undertaker's embalming fluid, however, and the services of a physician were required. He left her apparently out of danger, but the excitement brought on an attack of heart disease, which caused death in a short time.

Mammoth Mine Inquest. GREENSBURG, Pa., Feb. 7.—The testimony in the inquest of the victims of the Mammoth mine explosion was finished yesterday. The coroner adjourned the case until Saturday, Feb. 14, when the testimony will be discussed, arguments made by the H. C. Frick Coke company and the United Mine Workers. The case will then go to the jury for a verdict.

Polish Vengeance. SHENANDOH, Pa., Feb. 9.—William and George Butsavage, Matt Maldasz and John Lalurnikers, four Poles, have been committed to the county jail in default of $2,500 bail, each, for murderously clubbing and stabbing five of their fellow countrymen who were instrumental in having a friend of one of the accused sent to jail.

A Cartage Factory Burned. MANHEIM, Pa., Feb. 8.—Fire was discovered in the frame carriage manufactory of J. P. Ebelman, in this borough, and although the firemen responded promptly, it was burned to the ground with its contents. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

A Horse's Kick Proves Fatal. HERRFORD, Pa., Feb. 7.—Noah Seibert, who was kicked by a horse while grooming the animal, died after great suffering. He was a produce dealer, and widely known.

Death of a Harrisburg Lawyer. HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—Wallace De Witt, one of the most prominent members of the Dauphin county bar, died here aged 53 years, from an affection of the kidneys.

BOGGS & BUHL,

115, 117 Federal St. ALLEGHENY, PA.

At this season of the year when malaria lurks in the air, and bad colds are an unrequited visitor, we long for a quick and effective remedy. There is scarcely a home without a sufferer from some one of the many ill-flesh is heir to. A stimulant is after the intermediary. It is quick and effective. It brings relief and saves doctor bills. We can recommend Mr. Max Klein for anything in the liquor line. His River Age at $1.50 per quart is the best whiskey in the market. He will sell any Pennsylvania Rye Whiskey, six year old, at $1 for each quart, or six for $6. Send for his price list and catalogue and mention this paper. Address MAX KLEIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny, Pa.

AUDITORS NOTICE

The auditors appointed by the Orphans' Court, of Centre County, to hear the parties determine the amount to be paid by the executor of the deceased to the widow, of said decedent, will attend to the duties of his appointment, at his office in Bellefonte, on Wednesday the Eleventh day of February, A. D. 1901, at ten o'clock, a. m. When and where all parties interested can be heard if they see proper. J. P. FORTNEY, Auditor.

HARNESS

I have always on hand a fine stock of Whips, Lap and Buffalo Robes, Blankets, Fly-nets, and every thing needed about horses. Spring Street, South of Allegheny
