

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence. It is peculiar in that it strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. Give it a trial. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists.

WRECKED IN SIGHT OF PORT.

The Ship Elizabeth Goes Ashore in a Gale While Entering San Francisco Harbor-Pounded to Pieces on the Rocks-Tugs Unable to Render Assistance.

San Francisco, Feb. 23.-While entering the harbor Saturday night the American ship Elizabeth went on the beach at North Heads. Two of the boats were sent to her assistance, but could do nothing and had to leave her. A heavy gale was blowing. The Elizabeth carried a cargo of merchandise from New York.

It is now known that the captain and seventeen sailors of the ship Elizabeth were drowned in the wreck. Details of the wreck are hard to obtain, as the point where the ship went on the rocks is inaccessible by the sea and to reach it by land a climb of several miles over mountains is necessary. The place is called Tennessee cove and is four miles north of the entrance to the harbor on the Marine county shore.

Story of the Wreck. The story of the wreck as told by one of the survivors is as follows: The vessel sighted port early Saturday afternoon and Capt. Colcord decided to sail in. The wind was blowing a furious gale from the southwest and finally the tug Monarch came to the Efizabeth's assistance. The men say assistance was refused because of exhorbitant charges asked by the tug. The tug Alert then made fast to the Elizabeth, but the hawser soon broke and the ship drifted behind towards shore. Just as the second hawser was made fast she struck the rocks. Then Capt. Colcord lowered a boat to take his wife and children off.

As the boat struck the water it cap sized, throwing three sailors, James Taken, George Hanna and Brant Johnson into the water. They clung to the bottom of the boat and were picked up by a tug. Then captain's family were then lowered in another boat and taken to a tug by the mate and two seamen. The boat returned to the ship and its occupants perished with the rest of the ship's crew

Left to Her Fate. The tugs were unable to get near the ship and late at night returned to port, leaving the vessel to its fate. Early Sunday morning a tug went to the scene of the wreck and found that nothing was left of the Elizabeth. She had gone to pieces during the night.

As soon as the wreck was reported the Ft. Point life saving crew, com-manded by Capt. Henry, started in a life boat for the wreck. They were being towed by the tug when Capt. Henry was washed overboard by a big wave and drowned. The life boat could not get near the wreck and returned to the station. About midnight last night the life crew was taken across the bay on a tug and started over the mountains to Tennessee cove with wickets, ropes and other apparatus. No report has been received from them and it is not known if any men were rescued.

Had Been Out 120 Days. The Elizabeth was a wooden ship, built at New Castle. Me., in 1882 and was of 775 tons. She was owned by A. Hall, of New York, was commanded by Capt. James Colcord and carried a crew of twenty-six men. She was 120 days out from New York and carried a cargo of assorted merchandise con-signed to Williams. Dimond & Co. For thirty-six hours the wind had been blowing a furious gale and is increasing in violence every hour. Much damage has been done to shipping in the harbor. At the same time the Elizabeth struck the British ship Jessomine also hit bottom, but got off and stood out to sea.

Eleven Saved.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—The loss of beth off North Head Saturday night is now estimated at nineteen. Eleven persons were saved so far as known. The list of those known to be saved comprises Mrs. Colcord, the captain's wife; their son and daughter, Chief Mate Barclay, James Takan, wheelman, and six seamen. Those missing and believed to be drowned are Capt. Colcord, Second Officer Pendleton, William Redmond and Edmund Miles, boatswains; Carpen-ter Smith, twelve seamen and the Chinese cook and Capt. Henis, of the life-saving station. The latter's body has been recovered, and a body believed to be that of Capt. Colcord has been picked up.

A Scramble at a Land Office.

ASHLAND, Wis., Feb. 24.-A break occurred in the line of homesteaders at the land office. There was a general scrambling for first place, in which several of those who had been in line for a week were crowded from their positions. Revolvers were pulled, but the police prevented any serious occurrence. The land officials kept the door of their office locked, while they were examining the mail applications. A hungry mob gathered in front of the building and threatened to batter the door down unless it was created along. door down unless it was opened, claiming that it was kept closed illegally, as the official notice read that it would be opened at 9 o'clock. The crowd was dispersed by the police before they accomplished any damage. One man, who tried to get a place in front of the line, was thrown over the heads of the Murderers Run to Earth. RATON, N. M., Feb. 24.-A message as been received from Maxwell City, calling for more men and stating that the Mexicans who murdered United States Marshal Seth V. Russell Saturday afternoon, had been run down by the blood hounds, and about forty of them were in an adobe house on the Vallejo hills surrounded by a posse, but owing to their strong position, it was impos-sible to take them without a bloody battle. As there is no doubt the Mexicans will make a savage fight before surrepdering, a large number of citizens from Raton and vicinity, armed with Win-chesters, started for the seat of war, and are determined to either capture or exterminate the entire band.

After consuming three hours in the disposition of a claims bill the house took up the postoffice appropriation bill, but ad-journed without action.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The senate passed 130 house pension bills, and after other business of a routine nature proceeded with the consideration of the Nicaragua bill. In the house Mr. Cannon reported a resolution from the committee on rules for the immediate consideration of business from the judic-iary committee. The Democrats resorted to dilatory tactics and several times left the chamber in a body. The resolution was finally adopted and the court bill taken up and the senate amendment non-concurred in and a conference ordered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The senate passed a bill prohibiting pool selling in the cities of Washington and Georgetown. The bill ap-propriating $2,000,000 for a new mint at Philadelphia was placed on the calendar. The canal bill was discussed, but not disposed of. The house indulged in another partisan wrangle, during which it took two hours and a quarter to read the journal. This business has brought him repeatedly to the White House, and he has been consulted on several occasions during the recent trouble in the Indian country.

Charles Foster was born in Seneca town-ship, Seneca county, O., April 12, 1828, and his school education was limited to that af-forded in the common school of his district and the academy at Norwalk. His father had been a pioneer settler and merchant, and when Charles left the academy he followed his father's footsteps, becoming a partner in

In 1878 the boundaries of the district had been changed and Mr. Foster was defeated. During his service in congress he took high rank among the practical leaders of the Republican party. In 1879 he was elected governor of Ohio, securing a majority of 18,000. nor of Ohlo, securing a majority of 18,000 votes over Gen. Thomas Ewing, the Democratic and Greenback nominee. AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

Two Men Instantly Killed and Several Wounded.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24.-A horrible tragedy occurred here shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Two men were killed and several wounded in a fusillade of pistol shots. The terrible affair was the outgrowth of a newspaper feud, which has been raging for several weeks between the publishers of The Sunday World and Sunday Capital, of Col. W. J. Elliott, editor of The Cap ital, shot and instantly killed Albert Osborne, city editor of The World. W. L. Hughes, an old gentleman, who was standing near by, was shot and killed with a stray bullet from Elliort's pistol.

The tragedy, as before stated, was the result of a newspaper war. Two weeks ago The World made charges against Elliott's family, insinuating that a fe-male relative of Elliott was unchaste. Elliott retaliated on the following Sunday with a four-column article, charg-ing F. W. Levering, editor of The World, with being the joint proprietor of an assignation house and being associated with a woman named Lou Burton in the disreputable enterprise. Levering is an assistant state oil inspector and prominent in politics. The charges, therefore, created a profound sensation. The charges against Levering also implicated Claude Meeker, Governer Campbell's private secretary. Levering and his city editor, Mr. Osborne, retaliated Sunday with a sensational article charging Elliott with nearly all the crimes in the calendar.

BODIES OF 117 MINERS RECOVERED.

The Mine Had Just Been Examined and Pronounced in Fine Condition-The Work of Rescue Pursued Under Difficulties-Many Families Sorely Afflicted.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 23.—Gas in the eastern slope of the Spring Hill mines was ignited Saturday night and exoloded with terrific violence. Nearly 1,000 men were at work in the mines at the time, and 117 bodies have so far been recovered. The work of rescue was pushed rapidly forward and is now nearly complete.

The explosion occurred in what is known as Nos. 6 and 7 balances, on the east side of the east seam. It was examined only a few days ago by a committee of the workmen, and pronounced in fine condition.

After the circulation of the report of the extent of the disaster the wives and mothers of the imprisoned mengathered round and bitterly bewailed the lost. The work of recovering the dead and attempting the rescue of the living was attended with great difficulty and danger, but there was no scarcity of volunteers, and they did noble work. Most of those taken out died from fire damp. Several of the rescuing party were overcome by damp, but were resusci-

The deepest gloom has settled over the whole community and the inhabitants were astir all night. A special train arrived Sunday morning from Westville and other mining centers in Pictou county with relatives of the Some of the bodies have been frightfully mutilated and had to be identified by their clothing or marks on their bodies. The miners outbuildings have been converted into morgues and hospitals, where the dead and injured are taken.

Clergymen of different denominations are doing what they can for the grief stricken people. The injured are pro-gressing most favorably and are being tenderly cared for.

AT GEN. SHERMAN'S TOMB.

Thomas Sherman Conducts the Final Services at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Feb. 21.—Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman was given a soldier's burial in Calvary cemetery today. The procession which accompanied the body to the grave was four miles long and contained over 12,000 men, exclusive of the regular army escort. The national guard of half a dozen states, veterans by thousands, sons of veterans and civilians turned out to do honor to the dead hero and show by their presence the respect in which they held the memory of the citizen and their devotion to the soldier.

Father Sherman, followed by two acolytes and wearing the vestments of a priest, advanced to the head of the grave, and in a composed manner pronounced the solemn Romad Catholic burial rites and intoned prayers in Latin and English. All weapons were reversed and all heads were bare. The family took a last look at the burial case of the dead commander and gave way to uniformed men, who with spades quickly hid the casket from

A Letter of Thanks.

New York, Feb. 24.—The special funeral train which carried the body of Gen. Sherman to St. Louis for burial returned to this city bearing the family of the dead general and military offices who accompanied the body. One of the first things done after arrival was the writing of a letter testifying their appreciation of the honors paid to the beloved dead and the nation's hero. The letter was signed by Father Thomas Sherman. The letter is as follows:

What cough medicines all fail to hit the spot. What you need is constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilia. Many people who have taken this medicine for scrofula, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and other troubles, have been surprised that it should cure this troublesome cough. But to know the actual cause of the cough is to solve the mystery. Many cases of consumption can be traced back to the neglect of some such slight affection as this. Consumption can be controlled in its early stages, and the effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in purifying the blood, building up the general health, and expelling the scrofulous taint which is the cause of catarrh and consumption, has restored to perfect health many persons on whom this dreaded disease seemed to have a firmhold.
