while driving across the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Lancaster, was struck by a train. His horse was killed and wagon demolished, but he escaped without injury.

Two large mass meetings were held in the principal churches of Williamsport under the auspices of the Sunday Observance association. A number of prominent clergymen addressed the meeting on the subject of the observance of the Sabbath.

A meeting of Hetrews in Grant street synagogue, Pittsburg, to con-sider the action of Vice President Miller in renting a hall to Atheists broke up in disorder, caused by Miller making an assault upon Harris Bartniski, a member of the congregation.

LOOKS LIKE A MIRACLE.

C. P. HEWES | Five of the Entombed Jeanesville Miners Rescued Alive.

JEANESVILLE, Pa., Feb. 24. — This place was thrown into a fever of excitement last night when it was announced that five of the men who were entombed in the mine here eighteen days ago, had been found in alive. Their names are John Tumaskusky, Joe Mastuskewitch, John Berne, Bosco Frenko and an unknown Hungarian who was veiting Berne on the day of the disaster.

These five with the thirteen bodies recovered makes every one of the miss-ing men accounted for. How they survived is a miracle. Nothing like it has been known or heard of in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania.

Miners' Bodies Recovered.

JEANESVILLE, Pa., Feb. 24.- The bodies of McCloskey, Griffiths and a Hungarian were brought to the surface. They are in a terribly bloated condition. Another Hungarian was found late yesterday. Both Hungarian bodies are un-recognizable. Their bodies were float-ing in a dog hole in the main gangway. McCloskey and Griffiths were dug from a pile of timbers and coal dirt.

Miners Starved to Death.

HAZLETON. Pa., Feb. 23.—The bodies of Larry Reed, Harry Hall, Mike Smith and John Bullock wave recovered from the Jeanesville mine yesterday. They were found in Ball's breast. This is situated about seventy feet above the water line, and the men had suffered the terrible pangs of hunger and thirst for ten or twelve days before they succumbed. The bodies were fearfully mutilated by rats. The bodies of the other victims, eight in number, will probably be recovered. Miners Starved to Death,

Election Board Arrested. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 23. — The election board of the First ward of Pittston was arrested charged with refnaing to receive the vote of J. H. Eichkeliger, a hotel keeper and citizen. The members of the board gave bail for trial.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE How the Wheels of Government

Revolve at Harrisburg. HARRISBURG, Feb. 19. - In the Harrisburg, Feb. 19. — In the house, legislative, congressional and senatorial apportionment bills were introduced in skeleton respectively by Messrs. Taggart, Lytle and Towler, and were referred to appropriate committees, where work will at once be begun upon them. Both the house and the senate adopted resolutions deploying the death of Gen. resolutions deploring the death of Gen. Sherman. The senate confirmed a number of notaries nominated by the gov-

Mr. Burdick, of Mc-Kean, introduced the judicial apportionment bill. The bill providing for the introduction of calisthenics in the public schools was under consideration. lic schools was under consideration when the house adjourned.

A flood of petitions from state granges was presented in the senate praying for the passage of a new revenue bill. Petitions were also received protesting against any change in the Sunday ob-servance laws. Bills were favorably reported appropriating $40,000 for a new dormitory at the state normal school, in Edinboro, and appropriating $1,000,000 for macadamizing or otherwise improving the public highways of the Harrisburg, Feb. 21.—The speaker laid before the house a communication signed by "Club," dated Elizabethville, Pa., Feb. 14, addressed to the state legislature, protesting against an increase in the school term, on the ground that six months is a long enough term, and that farmers' children are needed at home. Threats are made to resort to Whitecap methods if the protest is not heeded, and the request is made that members all be informed of the intention of the signers. The reading of the communication created considerable amusement. The speaker referred the communication to the committee on education. The Burdick oil bill was reported from the committee on corporations with a negative recommendation. The house adjourned till Monday even-

In the senate bills were reported with favorable recommendations: Authorizing the issuance of liquor licenses on the basis of population [this authorizes a license for every 700 inhabitants]; amending the act of April 29, 1874, authorizing the formation and regulation of certain water companies: com-pelling dealers in cigarettes to take out a license, and making a fine of $50 the penalty for selling to persons under 16

A bill was offered by Senator Penrose providing for the incorporation of dry goods establishments. Bills were passed finally: Providing for the appointment of a commission by the governor to revise, amend and make such changes in the mining and ventilation laws of the anthracite coal regions as will secure greater safety to human life and property, and to provide for the payment of their compensation and their necessary expenses.

Mangled on the Track.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., Feb. 24.—James Terry, of the Lehigh Valley, was instantly killed here by being run over by a train. He leaves a widow and seven children. Thomas Cleary was em-ployed on the same road at Mudran as watchman. An engine and a short coal train passed him and he then stepped on the track behind it. The coal train had broken in two without the knowledge of the crew and the second half followed the first. Cleary failed to hear the second part and was knocked down by it. His legs, arms and body were cut to pieces and scattered over the tracks a distance of fifty yards. He leaves a widow and nine children.

Deserving of Hanging.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 24.—A fiendish act was perpetrated on the Baid Eagle Valley railroad near Milesburg. Some unknown person placed a stone in the switch and as the passenger train passed over it the engine left the track, followed by sweath coaches. over it the engine left the track, followed by several coaches. Fireman Gazeete, of Tyrone, jumped from the engine and was instantly killed. The engineer also jumped, but escaped injury. None of the passengers were injured, but all were badly shaken up. On three occasions lately passenger trains have been wrecked at this point.

Fell Dead While Powwowing. Norristown, Pa., Feb. 21. — Mrs. Catharine Freas, aged 82 years, living with a daughter in Plymonth township, died suddenly and unexpectedly under peculiar circumstances. She professed to be able to allay pain by the powwow process, and was exercising her strange influence on a grandchild which had, a few moments before, been painfully burned at a stove, when almost without any warning she fell over and expired. The cause of death was heart disease. CLOTHING

A Family Duty.

The home circle is sacred and life has few harms indeed if family ties are burst asunder. The promotion of happiness and the prevention of sickness are of prime importance in every household. It is in the spring that old and young alike are most susceptible to the hundreds of disease that fill the atmosphere we breathe and lurk in the water we drink. The timely use of a reliable stimulant is the only sure way to guard against sickness in the home. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquezne" brands of pure rye whiskey are recommended by physicians as the best invigoration in the world. Both are sold under a sworn guarantee of purity. "Silver Age" at $1.20 per full quart bottle, and "Duquesne, at $1.20 per full quart bottle, and "Duquesne, at $1.25. These whiskies are used exclusively in the leading hospitals which is sufficient evidence that they are the best obtainable.

Mr. Guckenheimer, Finch Gibson and Overhoit are sold by Mr. Klein at $1 per quart, or six quarts for $5. Hisstock of wines, brandies etc., is the largest in Pennsylvania.
