A Family Duty.

The home circle is sacred and life has few charms indeed if family ties are burst asunder. The promotion of happiness and the prevention of sickness are of prime importance in every household. It is in the spring that old and young alike are most susceptible to the hun-dreds of disease that fill the atmosphere we breather as durk in the water we drink. The timely use of a reliable stimulant is the only are way to guard against sickness in the Duquesne' brands of pure rye whiskey are recommended by physicians as the best invig-orator in the world. Both are sold ender a sybop er full quart boltle, and "Duquesne," at 1.25. PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATOR 3

How the Wheels of Government Revolve at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, March 11, --Mr. Riter, of Philadelphia, introduced in the house a resolution authorizing the governor to accept the trust imposed by the passage by congress of the direct tax bill. A long and animated do ate ensued, many members from the border counties desiring to refer the matter to a com wittee for thorough investigation. The reso-intion finally passed by 97 to 63. The calendar of bills on third reading and final passage was taken up, and several bills passed finally, including the act to protect miners in the bitu-minous coal regions.

Senator Dunlap, of Beaver, performed the remarkable feat in the senate of consuming the entire session in a speech against a Pittsburg bill which is said to be in the interest of the Pittsburg ring, and which the river interests of that city are strenuously fighting. His pur-pose was to talk the bill to death, and he spoke for two hours and a hall.

vill, vice J. S. Schoemaker, resigned; James Corrigan, Fayette, vice James Cochran, resigned. The announcement of the appointment of the commission ity of Hoods Sarsaparilla over other prepara- to revise the mining laws of the anthracite and bituminous coal regions was also announced. A long list of notaries public was sent in. HARRISBURG, March 12 .- Mr. Seyfert, of Lancaster, yesterday introduced in the house a bill making it a misdemeanor for any female person to expose her lower limbs dressed in tights upon the stage of any theatre, opera house or concert hall. Such exposure is declared gross lewdness and lascivious behavior, and shall be punished by a fine of $5 to $25 and imprisonment from five to one hundred days.

The bill offered by Mr. Patterson which allows boards of control of public parks to grant licenses to sell liquor within the limits of said parks, was con-sidered and laid aside when the ballot reform bill came up at 11 o'clock as a special order on second reading. A number of amendments were consid-ered and adopted before the bill was laid aside.

The senate the act designating the days and half days to be observed as legal holidays passed by a vote of 30 to 1. This provides that all of the Saturdays between June 15 and Sept. 15 shall be half holidays.

HARRESIURG, March 13. — The sen-ate yesterday passed the bill making eight hours a day's labor in Pennsylvania institutions under control of the state. The act for the better preserva. tion of the public health and to secure the preservation of vital statistics in cities of the third class, boroughs, and townships fell by reason of not receiving a two-thirds vote.

The consideration of the road bill was then taken up. Senator Lloyd, of Cum-berland, spoke in favor of the bill, saying that whatever censure there was of the measure now would turn to praise in the future. He said there were now 650 general and special road laws in operation, and that the present one was better than all of the others combined. The bill did not reach a vote.

The bill allowing the sale of liquor in Fairmount park came up in the senate and met with much opposition. The vote on the bill was deferred.

The bill providing for compulsory education, introduced by Mr. Farr, of Lackawanna, was considerably dis-cussed on second reading. The first sec-EASTWARD. The section equiring police officers and constables o enforce the provisions of the act was tricken out. Mr. Lyttle offered a free ext book amendment which is still der consideration. HARRISBURG, March 14 .- The bill apropriating $383,000 to reimburse Gov-rnor Beaver for money expended durng the floods of 1889 was made a special rder for next week in the house. Mr. Farrell, of Clearfield, warned the members against two swindlers who were collecting money alleging that it was for the striking miners in the Connels-ville region. The calendar of bills on rst reading was cleared. Bills were favorably reported in the emate providing for the creation of a lepartment of poor law administration; hanging the time and places of regisering voters and amending the laws or the same; relating to the collection of delinquent state, county and poor axes and providing for monthly rearns and payments thereof: requiring he imprisonment of persons made iable for the payment of costs in any riminal prosecution by the finding of grand jury and providing for their ischarge.
