BURNED TO DEATH.

Nine Persons Perish in a Fire at Rochester, Pa.

A TOTAL LOSS OF OVER $6,000.

A 16-Year-Old Girl Escapes by Jumping from a Second Story Window. Gold Coin Found in the Ruins. List of the Dead-A Fearful Struggle with the Flames.

ROCHESTER, Pa., April 7.—A disastrous and fatal fire broke out late on Sunday night in a large frame building on New York street, occupied by E. J. Keede as a dwelling and shoe store, Mrs. A. Hall as a millinery store and George Edwards as a tea and coffee store. The fire started in the kitchen of Keene's residence, and he and his son Walter were overpowered by the smoke and were not discovered until too late to save them. The other persons mentioned escaped, but a number of Italians occupying the upper rooms of a portion of the building were burned to death, with the exception of one of them. Marie Tickio a girl 16 one of them, Marie Tickio, a girl 16 years old, who escaped with slight in-juries by leaping from a second story window. She gave the following as the names of those who lost their lives: Vittorio Tickio, her uncle; Anna Tickio, her mother; Baptisto Tickio, her father; Rosa and Fannie Tickio, her sisters; John Tickio, her brother, and Josef Rampatein, boarder.

Nine Bodies Found in the Ruins. There were nine bodies found at the scene of the fire. Only two have been recognized. They are McKeene and son, who was a shoemaker. One hundred and fifty dollars in gold was found in the ruins, supposed to have belonged to the Italians. The Italian girl, Marie Tickio, says that there is $500 more still in the asies. The con-clusion arrived at is that the Italians became confused and could not find the stairway, which was a narrow one, and to reach it required the opening of two doors in the rear of the building. Thomas McManus, a railroad brake-man, was the first to discover the fire, which was under way at the time. He sounded the alarm of fire, which aroused the neighbors. He worked at the fire until his train departed. Mr. H. C. Fry, Jr., William McCutcheon, C. Frick and William Reid were the first on the scene after the alarm was given, and did noble work, with many others, to check the flames.

A Horrible Sight.

The scene of the Italian father lying upon his bed surrounded by flames until the bed dropped through the floor was sickening in the extreme. The frightened man seemed to cling tightly to his bed, and made but a slight strug-

All the bodies have been recovered. They are now lying side by side in an adjoining building. Each body is burned beyond recognition. The sight of the row of blackened bodies is horrible. Annie, the baby, had one foot and an arm burned completely off. The others are fearfully mutilated. There is no definite theory as to how the fire started, but it is the opinion of the authorities, and it seems to be the correct one, that a lamp left burning by Mr. Keene in his kitchen exploded and fired the house. There appear to be no indications of incendiarism.

The total loss is $6,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

Uprising in India.

CALCUTTA, April 7 .- If present indications turn out to be correct there is very serious trouble brewing in India for the British forces. Emboldened by the success of the Manipuris, who recently crushed the Ghoorka escort accompanying Chief Commissioner James W. Quinton in his efforts to settle the disputes which have occurred among the rival chieftains of Assam, the Miranzai, in the Kohaf territory, a district of the Peshawer division of the Punjab. have risen in arms and are attacking the British troops along the whole length of their lines. It is also known that the Miranzai attack is being pushed so vigorously that strong re-enforcements have been hurriedly dispatched to the front, Full details as to this new uprising are naturally withheld by the British authorities here.

Johann Most delivered the eulogy and took advantage of the opportunity to make an appeal for anarchy. The dead man was attired in black. A blood red scarf encircled the threat and a blood red rose was pinned to the coat lappel. Around the foot of the bier floated the folds of a carmine Anarchist flag. The rests beneath the casket were draped with bunting of the same sanguine hue.

At midnight there was no change in his condition. Slept Too Near a Stove. Washington, April 7. — Frances Lewis, an old colored woman, was burned to death yesterday. The old woman had made a bed on some chairs near the stove and her screams aroused the police, who broke the door in to find a mass of flames and charred flesh. It is thought that a spark from the stove set fire to her clothing.

Emigration from German Ports. Berlin, April 7.— The number of emigrants from Germany to America in the months of January and February, 1891, was 7.648—the highest for the same period in five years. RIOTERS SHOT DOWN.

The Strikers at Morewood Met With Armed Resistance.

Mt. Pleasant, Pa., April 3.—This town was shaken to its very center at 3:25 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour seven Hungarian rioters were shot dead and twenty or more wounded by deputy sheriffs. The greatest excitement prevails. Following is a list of Paul Dohannis, Slav, unmarried; shot in the head; died in the company's store. Valentine Zeidel, Slav, of Donnelly, unmarried; shot through the neck. James Brochle, Pole, of Tarrs, unmarried; shot through the right breast. Jacob Shucoskey, Pole, of Tarrs; shot through the head; he has a wife in Poland. John Fudor, Pole, of Standard, unmarried; shot above left eye. Antonio Rist, Pole, of Standard, unmarried; shot through the head. Cresezo Binero, Italian, of Tarrs; shot through the breast.

At about 2:30 o'clock in the morning doubtless a thousand men gathered around Morewood. The deputies were keeping a sharp lookout. The guards were in charge of Deputy Sheriff McConnell and Capt. Loar. The latter had been sworn in as a deputy, as were also some men from Company E. were stationed at the west side of the company's store. The deputies at the east side were under McConnell.

As the Huns advanced, making but little noise, the deputies remained si-lent. Then the Huns passed, but they were bent on mischief. The column had not all passed when those in front made a dash for the company's fence. Capt. Loar cried "Halt," but not a man stopped. In answer to the captain's command their revolver shots resounded. One bullet whizzed past Capt. Loar's head, and two men standing near him each felt the hot lead pass their bodies. The deputy sheriffs then came to the relief of the soldier depu-The Huns marched down the road and broke for the company's Another command to halt. Another answer to the command by pistol shots. The infuriated men kept their course toward the stables. The command was given to fire and the deputies came to aid Capt, Loar. The strikers replied, but there were too many shots from the repeating rifles. The air was alive with bullets. How many shots were fired will never be known, but when the smoke cleared away and the men ventured near the dead it was found eight men had fallen, one of whom is now dying from the effects of a bullet.

At 9 o'clock the rioters made another charge upon the Frick works. The deputies opened fire upon them, killing three and wounding twenty-five. This last attack has increased the excitement. The deputies are well armed and can easily hold their ground.

James McBride, secretary of the district, and Robert Waddell, of the strikers' general committee, swore out war-rants before Squire McCaleb, of Mt. Fants before Squire McCaleb, of Mt.
Pleasant, against the following: For murder, Capt. J. A. Loar, Richard Burns, J. A. Sundla, L. S. Davis, Harry
Wilson, Lon Brown, Harry Gilbert,
— Berger, Edward Sieman, George
Carbaugh, Miles Hanna and Elmer Nichol. As accessories: Thomas Lynch. general manager of the Frick company, and Morris Ramsey, superintendent. The warrants were served, and each man gave bail for a hearing.

Governor Hill Against Free Trade. New York, April 3.—At a meeting of the Free Trade club held last night a letter was read from Governor David B. Hill in which he says: "I am not an advocate of free trade, and never have been. I stand with the Democratic party in favor of tariff reform. I believe that the best interests of our country demand the establishment of that tariff policy defined in the national Democratic policy of 1876, 1874 and 1888. Cold and moisture combined have a torporising effect upon the bodily organs, and the digestive and secretive processes are apt to be more tardily performed in winter than in the fail. The same is true, also, of the excretory functions. The bowels are often slugcretory functions. The bowels are often sluggish, and the pores of the skin throw off but little waste matter at this season. The system therefore, requires opening up a little, and also purifying and regulating, and the safest, surest and most thorough tonic and alterative that can be used for these purposes is Hostetter's Stomache Bitters. Persons who wish to escape the rheumatic twinges, the dyspeptic agonies, the painful disturbances of the bowels the billious attacks, and the nervous visitations so common at this time of the year, will do well to reinforce their systems with this renowned vegetable stomachic and invigorant. It improves the appetite, strengthens the stomache, cheers the spirits, and renovates the hole physique.

That Little Tickling

In your throat, which makes you cough once in a while and keeps you constantly clearing your throat, arises from catarrh, and as catarrh is a constitutional disease the ordinary cough medicines all fail to hit the spot. What cough medicines all fail to hit the spot. What you need is constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Many people who have taken this medicine for scrofula, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and other troubles, have been surprised that it should cure this troublesome cough. But to know the actual cause of the cough is to solve the mystery. Many cases of consumption can be traced back to the neglect of some such slight affection as this. Consumption can be controlled in its early stages, and the effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in purifying the blood, building up the general health, and expelling the scrofulous taint which is the cause of catarrh and consumption, has restored to perfect health many persons on whom this dreaded disease second to have a firm hold.
