The head of the firm of C. I. Hood & Co, is a thoroughly competent and experienced pharmacist, having devoted his whole life to the study and actual preparation of medicines. He is also a member of the Massachusetts and American Pharmaceutical Associations, and continues actively devoted to supervising the preparation of and managing the business connected with Hoods Sarsaparilla.

Hence the superiority and peculiar merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is built upon the most substantial foundation. In its preparation there is represented all the knowledge which modern research in medical science has developed, combined with long experience, brain work, and experiment. It is only necessary to give this medicine a fair trial to realize its great curative value.

A DIPLOMATIC CRISIS

Italy's Undue Haste Regarding the New Orleans Affair.

THE RECALL OF BARON FAVA.

Secretary Blaine Denies That the United States Has Refused to Consider the Question of Indemnity, but Says Our Government Would Not Permit Snap Judgment,

WASHINGTON, April 1.-Baron Fava, the Italian prime minister, presented a formal document to the state departand W. S. Painter. When called for say advertised.

When called for the baron's passport, of course, was given to him at once.

In his note to Secretary Blaine Baron Fava informs the secretary that as the United States government has not given assurances that the murderers of the Italian subjects acquitted by Amer-ican magistrates and murdered in prison while under the immediate protection of the authorities of New Orleans would be brought to justice, the Italian government has found itself under the painful necessity of showing openly its dissatisfaction by recalling the minister of his majesty, King Humbert, from a country where the Italian representa-tive is unable to obtain justice.

Secretary Blaine's Lefter. Secretary Blaine's letter to the Marquis Imperiali is as follows:

The Marquis Imperiali, Charge d'Affairs, etc. The Marquis Imperiali, Charge d'Affairs, etc.
Six: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a note from Baron Fava, who has left the Italian legation in your charge.

I beg to express the sincere regret with which the government of the United States receives the intelligence of Baron Fava's speedy departure from this capital. Though he has more than once intimated this purpose, the government of the United States has been unable to see adequate reasons for has been unable to see allequate reasons for such a step. The baron's service here for the past ten years has been distinguished by the most agreeable relations with the executive minded physician will tell you that the only safe-guard lies in keeping the systems thorough by keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulent. Hundreds of tonies are advertised under misapprehension of facts by the government.

ernment of Italy.
In the constitution of the United States it is deciared that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy a right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed. It needs no argument to prove that a jury could not be impartial, if it were in any sense or in any degree before the trial of the accused, by an assurance which the president of the United States had ven-tured to give to a foreign power. tured to give to a foreign power.

In the constitution of the state of Louisiana,

In the constitution of the state of Louisiana, under whose immeatate jurisdiction the crimes were committed, substantially the same provision is found, so that the governor of the state would be as unable to give a pledge in advance for the result of a trial under state laws as the president would be bound, were it practicable, to the leaders of the mobunder the laws of the Unite i States.

The United States, so far from refusing. The United States, so far from refusing, has distinctly recognized the principle of idemnity to those Italian subjects who may have been wronged by a violation of rights secured to them under the treaty with the United States of Feb. 25, 1871.

United States of Feb. 25, 1871.

I have repeatedly given to Baron Fava the assurance that, under the direction of the president, all the facts and incidents connected with the unhappy tragedy at New Orleans on March (last should be thoroughly investigated. I have also informed him that in a matter of such gravity the government of the United States would not permit itself to be unduly hurried, nor will it make answer to any demand until every fact essential to a correct judgment shall have been tully ascertained through legal authority. The impatience of the aggrieved may be natural, but its indu gence does not aiways see ure the most substantial justics.

Accept, sir, the assurance of my high consideration.

James G. Blaine.

Di Rudini's Reply.

ROME, April 3.—The Marquis di Rudi-ni, the Italian premier, yesterday sent another cable message to the United states on the subject of the New Orcans troubles. This message is addressed to the Marquis Imperiali di Fran-cavilla. Marquis di Rudini instructs the Marquis Imperiali to hand the mes-sage referred to to Mr. Blaine. The message is in reply to Mr. Blaine's letter on the subject. and in it the Marquis di Rudini says Italy has asked for nothing but the regular prompt institution of proceedings against the parties at New Orleans. He adds that it would have been absurd to claim punish-ment for the offenders without MARQUIS DI RUDINL the guarantee afforded by a regular trial. The diplomatic incident, the Marquis di Rudini says, can only be considered when the federal government has declared in pre-cise terms when the prosecution will be commenced. In the meantime the Italian government takes cognizance of the general government's declaration ac-knowledging the fact that compensa-tion is due to the families of the victims by virtue of the treaty existing between the two countries.

Looking for Reprisal.

HARRISBURG, April 6. — Secretary Blaine, through Governor Pattison, addressed a long communication to District Attorney Darte requesting him to furnish the state department at Washington with all the particulars of the tragedy in which Paymaster McClure and his assistant, Flanagan, were mur-dered by "Red Nose Mike" and his companions, Guiseppe Bevivino and Vincenzo Villala. The required information was forwarded at once.

Mike made at the time of his trial a full confession, implicating Bevivino and Villala in the murder. This con-fession, together withfall the other testimony in the case, was forwarded to Italy and was supposed to have been used in the trial of the escaped murderers. There is every reason to be-lieve, however, that this trial never took place and the Italian government has failed to bring the criminals to District Attorney Darte said that the United States had a far better case against Italy than Italy had against the United States, and if the question is properly considered it would go against the Europeans.

$50,000 Fire at Louisville. LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 7.—A fire was discovered in the drying room of the Falls City Woolen mills late yesterday and damaged the building to the extent of $50,000. The mill employs a large number of female operatives.

MRS. SCHMIDT IS FREE

The Jury Quickly Brought in a Ver-dict of Acquittal.

MEDIA. Pa., April 1.—Media's sensa-tional murder trial came to an end yesterday, when the jury in the case, after only a half hours' deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty. By the verdict of the jury it is declared that Emma Pfitzenmeyer took her own life. The district atterney at once withdrew the charge that had been made against Henry Schmidt, and thus Media's sensation is ended. Many were the congratulations Mrs. Schmidt received. She accepted them in a dazed way. She hardly seemed to realize that the great strain was over, and that she had been cleared of one of the worst charges that can be made against man or woman. It is feared that the terrible strains to which this woman was subjected will cost her the loss of her mental power. Her mind seems to be gone. She has been placed in the care of physicians, and there is a hope that rest and proper treatment will restore her to full reason, but even this seems doubtful

Good News for Workers.

BRADDOCK, Pa., April 3.—As soon the steel works resume, the entire Edgar Thompson plant will be run with coal instead of gas fuel. When coal was used at the plant entirely some five years ago, over 600 men found employment as coalers. Since that time improvements have been made at the steel works, and four new blast furnaces erected. It is now estimated that 900 additional men will find work in consequence of the proposed change.

Iron Workers Stick to Their Work. READING, Pa., April 2.—The employes of the Reading Iron company continue at work and none of the departments were stopped on account of the reduction of wages, as was anticipated. The works are running today as usual. The puddlers held another meeting, and de-cided that it would be folly to strike at a time when so many are out of employment and the prices of iron are down to the lowest notch, with no de-mand for any kind of iron.

To Take the Strikers' Places. Norristown, Pa., April 7.—Since the strike occurred at Morewood a number of Italians employed in this vicinity on the Pennsylvania Railroad company's Trenton branch have started for the scene of hostilities. Four embarked on Friday night and nineteen more on Sat-urday. Others are to follow, and one of a party that intend leaving said his party were in search of work, that they did not intend to join the strikers, but would take their places.

Oil Goes Up in Smoke.

PITTSBURG, April 3.—The Waverly Oil company's plant was totally destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $115,000. The planing mill and lumber yard of George Lacey, adjoining, were destroyed; loss $5,000. The oil refinery was owned by S. M. Wilcox, of Alle gheny. Six cars of crude oil, three of benzine and about 415 barrels of oil were destroyed. The origin of the fire is in-cendiary. The fifteen employes had narrow escapes.

Killed by Non-Unionists.

CHESTER. Pa., April 2. — William Brown, one of the men employed by the Standard Steel Casting company, at whose shops a strike is in progress, was shot and killed last night. Brown was with several strikers who attacked four non-union men. The non-union men drew revolvers, and Brown was shot through the heart. The four men are under arrest. Their names are A. and C. Gill, J. C. Crisps and F. Quinn.

Sunday Closing in Lansdale.

LANSDALE, Pa., April 7 .- All the cigar stores in Lansdale were closed on Sunday through the influence of the con-ference committee of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Women's Christian Temperance union. But one hotel was open during the day, and there was a more general suspension of business than for many years. It has been agreed by the cigar dealers to make the Sunday closing permanent.

The Gilkinson Murder Case. PITTSBURG, April 7.—The coroner's inquest in the Gilkinson murder case, after a brief review of the testimony, found that Detective Gilkinson's death resulted from two gunshot wounds inflicted by Frederick Fitzsimmons. His wife, Lucy, was held as an accessory, and C. M. Cark, his wife and her sister, Cora Wyatt, were held as accessories after the fact in concealing, harboring and maintaining Fitzsimmons.

Will Suspend During Church Hours. READING, Pa., April 7. — The two mountain railway companies of this city, and the East Reading Electric Railway company, have been requested not to run their cars on Sundays during church services. The Mount Penn Gravity company will comply with the request, while the East Reading line will suspend during the church hours provided the City Passenger Railway company will also discontinue.

Charged with Murder in Poland. MAHANOY CITY, Pa., April 3 .- Matthew Stanix has been arrested at this place on suspicion of having committed a murder in Russian Poland several months ago. A letter written by F.
W. Boczkowski, son of the editor of The Saale, the local Lithuanian paper. was offered in evidence. It alleged that Stanix had killed a man in Europe and fled to America. Stanix has been committed to jail.

His Reason Taken by the Grip. READING, Pa., April 3.-Judge Ermentront issued an order for the transfer of John Van Pelt from the county prison to the state lunatic asylum at Harrisburg. The testimony of physicians presented to the court was to the effect that Van Pelt's reason had left him by reason of his long and continued illness with the grip.

The Keystone Bank Will Resume. PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—The affairs of the Keystone National bank are gradually issuing from a state of chaos, and the officers are confident that within a few days the doors of the in-stitution will be again opened for busi-ness, which will be conducted on a firmer basis than has existed since the panic of last winter.

Her Life for Her Money. Reading, Pa., April 3.—The farm house of Frank Miller, at Conestoga Station, was destroyed by fire. The family escaped in safety, but Mrs. Miller returned to secure $180 which was in a chest in an upper room and perished in the flames. She was 35 years of age.
