AT THE WHITE HOUSE

The President's Ten Thousand Mile Journey Ended.

ARRIVED HOME IN A RAIN STORM.

Baby Benjamin Harrison McKee the first to greet the Chief Magistrate as He Alighted from the Train. The Record of Speechmaking on the Tour.

DENVER, May 13.—Ten thousand people welcomed President Harrison when the train rolled into this city. Thousands more were massed on the sidewalks as he was driven from the station to the Metropolitan hotel. The crowd was noisy, but good natured, and the sincerity of its welcome could not be doubted. Senators Teller and Wolcott and the governor of the state were the first to greet the president, after which he was escorted to his carriage, which was drawn by six magnificent horses.

OMAHA, Neb., May 14.—The presidential train arrived at 11:30, on time. There was a great crowd at the station, drawn there by the threats of the Boyd sympathizers to his Governor Thayer. Calmer counsels prevailed, however, and there was no disturbance attempted by the disaffected ones.

Nowhere has the president received a heartier or more enthusiastic welcome than was accorded him by the citizens of Omaha. The people turned out en masse in honor of the occasion, and they cheered the president nearly the entire time of his appearance in the city in public.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, who left Washington with the presidential party, took leave of their fellow travelers here. Mrs. Harrison will remain in Omaha for two weeks, when she will go to New York to sail for Europe with Mrs. McKee on June 3.

Mr. Charles L. Saunders, a brother of Mr. Russell Harrison, also left the party here.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 15.—The presidential train arrived at the Union station in Indianapolis at 4:45 o'clock. The booming of cannon announced the approach of their distinguished townsman to the Indianapolis people, several thousand of whom were assembled in and about the station. These broke into prolonged cheering as the president stepped from the platform with Governor Hovey. Escorted by the committee that had met him at Montezuma, the president walked through the station to Jackson place, directly opposite, and took his place on the stand erected there. In his response to addresses of welcome by Governor Hovey and Mayor Sullivan, the president feelingly referred to old scenes and old friendships, being frequently interrupted by thunders of applause.

The party then returned to the station, where hundreds of people pressed forward to shake hands with the president, and as the train pulled out at 5:30 many rushed after it, endeavoring to get a farewell grasp.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The grand tour of President Harrison and his party, which began April 14 last, ended at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, when the presidential train came to a standstill in the Pennsylvania Railroad station here, exactly on time. The great journey of 10,000 miles had been accomplished without an accident and without deviation from the prearranged schedule, except on one occasion.

Benjamin Harrison McKee was the first person to be greeted by the president, who jumped from the platform of the train and clasped his grandson in his arms. Little Mary McKee was also at the station.

Secretary Proctor, Secretary Foster and Attorney General Miller, with several assistant secretaries and a number of government officials, met the party at the train. Only a few people were at the station when the party arrived. The president, Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Dimmock were driven directly to the white house, while Mr. and Mrs. Boyd took a train for Philadelphia.

The last day of the journey was the quietest of the entire tour. Rain fell most of the time, and when the party reached Washington it was pouring down steadily. Between Washington and Baltimore the members of the party and the train employees assembled in the observation car, and to them the president made a short speech in which he thanked all those who had accompanied him for their courtesy and attention. He referred to the journey as one that had never been equaled, and paid a high compliment to George W. Boyd, the general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, who had charge of the train, for the great success he had achieved in keeping exactly to the prearranged schedule.

The president delivered 140 speeches during the tour. His best record for a single day was Thursday, when he talked to twelve different assemblages. The day before he made eleven speeches.

"Frenchy No. 1" Indicted. NEW YORK, May 19.—The grand jury yesterday filed an indictment for murder in the first degree against "Frenchy No. 1," the alleged murderer of Carrie Brown, alias "Old Shakespeare," who was brutally killed in the East River hotel some weeks ago. The indictment names the murderer George Frank. It has four counts which charge the accused with strangling the woman and then cutting her body. Frenchy this afternoon will be called on to plead to the indictment.

Decided Against Lingo. CAMDEN, N. J., May 13.—Judge Garrison announced late yesterday afternoon that as the trial court was evenly divided on the application of Francis Lingo, Mrs. Miller's murderer, for a new trial, the application must be refused. Lingo's counsel immediately certiorated the case to the supreme court.

Admiral Braine Retired. WASHINGTON, May 18.—Rear Admiral Daniel L. Braine, United States navy, was today placed on the retired list. He is 62 years of age. Capt. Erben will succeed the admiral.

Mr. Blaine Has the Gout. NEW YORK, May 16.—Dr. Dennis, Mr. Blaine's attending physician, says his patient has had an attack of gout in both feet, which will prevent him from leaving town for a few days.

Judge Gaft Very Low. SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 18.—Judge Alphonso Gaft's condition is very critical, and his physicians do not expect that he will survive the day. He is rapidly sinking.

THE THIRD PARTY MEN.

Gathering of their Forces in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, May 19.—Whether the representatives of the granger and labor organizations that are gathered here are to bring into existence a third political party, or whether definite action is to be postponed until next spring, when the policies of the two old parties shall have been more fully developed, are issues that will have to be fought out on the floor of the convention today. There is no question but that the third party men are running things to suit themselves. The Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and several other delegations, however, will not get here until late today, and while they are counted on to support the third party movement, the advocates of the latter are averse to counting their chickens before they are hatched.

"As goes Kansas, so will go the convention," has been a popular expression ever since the first contingent of delegates put in an appearance, and the representatives of the grasshopper state after a caucus that lasted several hours decided to support the organization of a third party through thick and thin. There has been no conference of the strictly southern delegates, but in conversation they express the opinion that it would be unwise to indorse independent political action so long as there was a possibility that they would be able to get relief on the most important economic questions through the older parties.

Last night's arrivals includes Senator Pfeiffer of Kansas, Robert Schilling, of Milwaukee, the Wisconsin socialist leader; Hon. A. J. Streator, of Illinois, and Ignatius Donnelly. The latter, referring to the announcement that the delegation of his own appointment is to be contested by a delegation named by the state committee of the Minnesota farmers' alliance, says that the state committee have no power in the premises, and that he has no fear that the convention will expel either himself or his followers. There is a general sentiment that the convention will be too large and decidedly unwieldy, and that if all the various shades of opinion and radical notions are afforded an opportunity of being aired, the affair is likely to break up in an uproar.

Charles Cunningham, for many years chairman of the Democratic state central committee of Arkansas, and candidate for vice president on the union labor ticket in 1888, will be the temporary chairman. Speaker Elder, of Kansas, having declined the honor. The selection of permanent chairman will be left to the convention, and notices of resolutions that as many delegates propose to submit had been filed with Rev. E. P. Foster, who will be the principal secretary.

Dr. Graves Arrested.

DENVER, May 19.—Dr. Graves was arrested yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was taken to the county jail, where he spent the night. Today he will have a hearing, when the question as to whether he will be admitted to bail or not will be decided. The sensational developments spoken of in yesterday's dispatches have not yet materialized, but it is said upon good authority that Miss Sallie Henley has also been indicted. The theory is that Mrs. Graves wrote the label on the bottle sent to Mrs. Barnaby, while Miss Hanley carried it to Boston and mailed it there. Detective Hanson, who has had charge of the case at Providence, has gone east to secure further evidence.

Great Excitement in Belgrade.

VIENNA, May 19.—The prefect of Belgrade, charged with the duty of expelling Queen Natalie from the country, went to her residence on Monday, compelled her to enter a carriage and drove with her to the quay, where the royal yacht was awaiting her. On the way a number of students detached the horses and dragged the carriage with the queen back in triumph to her residence. A large number of students gathered to defend her in her dwelling. The troops after vainly endeavoring to disperse the supporters of the queen fired upon them, killing two and wounding many. The most intense excitement reigns in Belgrade.

Tenny Again Takes the Honors.

GRAVESEND, L. I., May 16.—The great Brooklyn handicap race, which has been the all absorbing topic in turf circles for the past few weeks, has been run. Tenny, who has been the favorite for the last few days, won easily enough at the finish, though in the first part he looked to be out of it. Fully 30,000 persons were present. Tenny finished two lengths ahead of Prince Royal, who beat Tea Tray a head for the place. Then came Judge Morrow, Riley and Demuth, while Burlington, who was the winter favorite, finished back on the bunch. Distance, 1 1/2 miles; time, 2:10.

Lord Edward Cavendish Dead.

LONDON, May 19.—Lord Edward Cavendish, youngest son of the seventh Duke of Devonshire and member of the house of commons in the Liberal-Union interest for the western division of Derbyshire, has died as the result of an attack of influenza. Lord Edward was born in 1838, and had he lived would, in the event of the death without issue of the Marquis of Hartington, eldest son of the late duke, fallen heir to the dukedom of Devonshire.

The Duncan Mystery.

LONDON, May 19.—A quarryman, who discovered that E. C. Duncan had attempted to murder his wife, says that Duncan gave him a £5 note to say nothing. When he came upon the scene Duncan was holding a handkerchief to his wife's mouth, but removed it as he caught sight of the witness. In her delirium Mrs. Duncan exclaimed: "Don't back at me; get me up!" Mrs. Duncan is still in a precarious condition, and repeatedly calls for her mother.

Stanley Attacked by Socialists.

LONDON, May 18.—While Henry M. Stanley was delivering a lecture at Sheffield the hall was invaded by a gang of Socialists, who began to sell among the audience a pamphlet attacking the explorer. The pamphlet was very freely bought under the belief that it contained a report of one of Stanley's lectures. When the fraud was discovered there was a great commotion and the vendors were violently expelled.

The Enemy in Ambush. Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any fair minded physician will tell you that the only safe-guard lies in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of tonics are advertised for this purpose, but experience shows that a pure rye whiskey is the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" brands are sold under a sworn guarantee of absolute purity; an affidavit accompanies each bottle. "Silver Age" sells for $1.50 and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. The difference in age makes the difference in price—both brands are warranted to be unadulterated.
