READING, Pa., May 23.—The trade and labor council of this city endorsed the proposed loan of $150,000 to secure a better distribution of water. They adopted the proviso, however, that only taxpayers of Reading be employed on LEBANON, Pa., May 23.—Charles, the 11-year-old son of Jeremiah Boyer, died of lockjaw which resulted from injuries received a week ago in jumping from a fence. A splinter was run into his foot, from which inflammation resulted, terminating in lockjaw and death.

QUAKERTOWN, Pa., May 23.—A snake charmer named Frederick Duford attempted his powers on a copperhead snake near this place, when he was seriously bitten by the reptile. The snake measured over three feet in length. Duford's recovery is said to be doubtful.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., May 23. — The grand jury returned the case of Jerome Fackenthall, ex-deputy recorder of deeds of Bucks county, charging h im with embezzlement on nine different counts, and larceny on two counts. The case will be tried at the next term of

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—The well known labor agitator, Joseph Barondess, of New York Cloakmakers' union fame, arrived here yesterday, presumably as agent of the union to agitate in this city among the tailors and cloakmakers in favor of a closer alliance with the New Tyrone, Pa., May 23.—During the parade of a circus here the wooden bridge which crosses Bald Eagle creek gave way with an immense crowd of people. O. A. Sanders, a telegraph op-erator of Huntingdon, was badly in-jured, and there were many narrow escapes from drowning.

Philadelphia, May 23.—The judges in the license court handed down their decisions at 6 o'clock last night. Of 1,615 applicants for wholesale licenses, 541 were granted. Last year there were 1,272 applications and 928 granted. The list of wholesalers is curtailed to 377. There were 1,248 retail licenses granted, an increase of 75 over 1890. The retail applications numbered 3,358, against 2,421 in 1890.

Jenkintown, Pa., May 23.—Tramps have become so numerous and trouble-some in Jenkintown and vicinity that the borough council has ordered the chief burgess to employ an additional police officer to arrest all members of the traveling fraternity found within the borough limits. The citizens of Cheltenham and Abington township have organized a protection society for SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 25.—The coke strike is at an end. The leaders advised the men to return to work, and this morning the Frick company started four more plants. This leaves only two of the Frick plants idle. A large number of local agitators among the strikers are refused work, however, and this dis-crimination may lead to further trouble in the near future. It is said there are a thousand names on the black list.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 21.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows elected the following officers: Grand master, W. Edw. Marsh, Corry; deputy grand master, William A. Witherup, Philadelphia; grand warden, John Wunch, Reading; grand secretary, James B. Nicholson, Philadelphia; grand treasurer, M. HAZLETON, Pa., May 23.—Four of the striking Italians on Coxe's railroad were striking Italians on Coxe's railroad were arrested, charged by Howley & Co., contractors, by whom they were employed, with intimidation and threats to do the contractors bodily harm. They were searched at the office of Chief of Police Hampton, and upon each was found a loaded revolver, a razor and a large knife. Three of the prisoners were held by 'Squire Martin each in $500 bail for court, but being unable to furnish it they were locked up. The other was discharged.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., May 23.—Jonathan Burrill, a one legged veteran, wandered away from his home near Tobyhanna during a snow storm on Dec. 16, 1890, and searching parties scoured the woods, but failed to find him. His dead body was found yesterday in a swamp on the mountains, with the head against a rock, against which he had fallen. The flesh had disappeared from his face and hands, but otherwise the remains were in good condition. On the day he left home he started for Tobyhanna to draw his quarterly pension. EASTON, Pa., May 25.—Isaac Lee, who was committed to jail here on Saturday, has confessed to having robbed Gomringer's grocery store and Richards' hotel, both in South Easton, and King's store and postoffice at Farmersville twice this year. He wept bitterly and said that he was unable to work in the ore mines in Williams township, could not get work elsewhere and was forced to steal to prevent his family from to steal to prevent his family from starvation and going naked. Lee is 20 years of age and his wife 18. He also had to support his mother and mother-in-law, both of whom lived with him.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 26 .- A fatal WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 26.—A fatal accident occurred to a young man, aged 18 years, whose name was not learned, in the lumber yards of Howard & Perley, in the Sixth ward. Several boys were engaged in riding on a lumber truck on a high trestle, and the unfortunate young man was sitting on the front end of the truck. As it approached the end of the truck. As it approached that could not be controlled, and seeings that the car was sure to go off the track, he sprang from the car to the ground ahead of it, but the car followed him, and before he could get out of its way it fell on him, breaking his neck and killing him almost instantly.

NEWS OF THE CHARLESTON. She Is Gaining Rapidly on the Flee-

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The Pacific mail steamer Colima, which arrived here from Panama, reports having left Acapulco May 15. Just north of that port she sighted a steamer flying the Chilean flag and answering to the description of the Itata. The latter was steering south by east. Later in the day the Charleston appeared and spoke the Colima. On learning what had been seen the Charleston steamed away to the southward. The Charleston was at that time about one hundred and thirty ing Itata. that time about one hundred and thirty miles from Acapulco, while the Itata when sighted was about sixty-five miles from there. The Colima reports that the Esmeralda left Acapulco on the morning of the 13th instant, and went morning of the 13th instant, and went out to sea, but was seen near the harbor in the evening. The Itata was expected to arrive there on the 15th, and it is supposed the Esmeralda was waiting for her.

The Evening Bulletin says it is informed through unquestionably reliable sources that the congressional party of Chile, otherwise known as the insurgents, has entered into an agreement with the United States government to with the United States government to surrender to the United States the steamer Itata and her cargo; that the Charleston will not pursue the Itata any further, but will proceed to Callao, and the Itata will be handed over to the American authorities. The Bulletin adds: "It is probable proceedings will then follow in the federal courts of the United States. But it is definitely settled there will be no guns fired in the capture of the Itata, and that pursuit by the Charleston is practically off."

The Third Party Formed.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—When United States Senator Peffer, of Kansas, chairman of the industrial convention, called the assemblage to order every delegate was in his seat. Mrs. Helen Gougar, of Indiana, pleaded for a prohibition plank in the platform. At the afternoon session the platform was presented and unanimously adopted. It demands flat money, unlimited silver coinage, the graduated income tax governmental graduated income tax, governmental control of communication and transportation, the eight hour day, election of president, vice president and senators by popular vote and prohibition of alien land ownership. A national committee was chosen, with Congressman H. E. Taubeneck, of Illinois, as chairman; Robert Schilling, Wisconsin, secretary; W. McRankin, Indiana, treasurer; executive committe, Ignatius Donnelly. G. F. Washburne, J. C. Davis and J. F. Gathrai. It was decided to have a candidate for president at the next general election. The name, Peoples party, was en-thusiastically adopted.

Death by Dynamite.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., May 20.—Yesterday a work train on the Hudson River railroad was blown to atoms one mile and a half below Tarrytown by an explosion of dynamite in transportation explosion of dynamite in transportation for blasting purposes in track construction. There were probably fifty men, including Italian laborers and trainmen, on board. Of these eighteen were instantly killed and fifteen terribly torn and wounded. Many of the dead were blown into the river, and five bodies still remain there. The train was torn to atoms the railroad tracks rivered. to atoms, the railroad tracks ripped from their bed, and a great hole many feet deep dug out of the earth, totally blocking traffic for several hours.

Ex-Secretary Taft Dead. Washington, May 22. — Attorney General Miller was informed yesterday by Solicitor General Taft of the death at Los Angeles, Cal., of his father, ex-At-torney General Alphonso Taft. Mr. Taft was also secretary of war under President Grant and represented the United States at the court of Austria and Russia. Orders were issued to drape the war department and the department of justice buildings in mourning for thirty days and to close both departments on the day of the funeral. The remains of ex-Attorney General Taft will be broughi to Cincinnati for

Mexico, Mo., May 22.—Further de-tails of the cyclone which struck in the vicinity of Bean Creek, three miles from here, say: So far as heard from fifteen houses in the vicinity of that place were destroyed, some ten or twelve persons killed, and equal number fatally and large numbers badly injured. A horse was lifted by the wind, carried half a mile and dashed to death. A 1,200 pound roller was taken up and blown to pie Houses and barns were swept away like straw. The loss is over $350,000.

Two Killed by the Cars.

LATROBE, Pa., May 26. — Richard Fouks, a miner from Lock Haven. aged 25; Molly McNally, aged 16, and Miss B. McCready, aged 14, of this place, while out driving last night, were struck by the Pennsylvania railroad limited express at Jefferson street crossing. Fouks was instantly killed and Miss McNally died an hour later. Miss McCreary was not seriously hurt. The horse was killed and the buggy destroyed.

Florida's Senatorial Contest, TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 26.-Two ballots were taken in the senatorial cau-cas last night each resulting: Call, 52; Mays, 42, and Bloxham, 2. A Call leader threw a bomb into the caucus by a motion to adjourn the caucus sine die. The motion was carried. The selection of a senator will now devolve upon a vote of the legislature in joint session.

An Appeal for Aid. SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 26.—Secretary Parker issues a circular in which he states there are 850 families in the region homeless and penniless, who are living in stables and coal sheds. He appeals for aid to relieve their imperative wants.

They will visit Cleveland, Kansas City and intermediate points.

Killed by His Msane Mother. Oshkosh, Wis., May 25.—Yesterday Mrs. Corrigal killed her little 6-year-old son by striking him five times on the head with a hammer. His skull was fractured in three different places. The woman has been insane for some time, and it was only recently that she attempted to choke him to death.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE How the Wheels of Government Revolve at Harrisburg. HARRISBURG, May 20.—In the senate yesterday the act authorizing corporations to increase their capital stock for corporate purposes caused a long debate. The bill makes $10,000,000 the limit. The bill passed by a vote of 27 to 18.

The revenue bill was made the special order for 3.30 every afternoon until disposed of. A large number of bills passed second

In the house the following bills passed finally: Defining and declaring the meaning of the words "surviving members" and "assessment plan" wherever they appear in the laws of Pennsylvania relating to insuring lives on the assess-ment plan; a further supplement to the act extending the jurisdiction of the courts in cases of divorce, allow-ing a wife who has intermarried with a foreigner and been compelled to leave him on statutory grounds, and returns to her domicile in this state, to file divorce papers in Pennsylvania courts; an act enabling county commissioners to sell any real estate which they may ac-quire and make deed therefor; an act to protect miners in the anthracite coal regions of Pennsylvania by properly weighing the coal, fixing the number of pounds to a ton, prohibiting dockage, and providing a penalty for any violation thereof. HARRISBURG, May 21.—The senate yesterday concurred in the house amendments to bills as follows; Providing for the organization, support and maintenance of associations formed for the proand property; making an appropriation for the purpose of liquidating a mortgage lien on the premises of the Memorial home at Brookville, and for maintenance of the home, enlarging the jurisdiction of the chief burgesses and other principal officers in boroughs

The senatorial apportionment bill passed finally—yeas 105, nays, 64.

The congressional apportionment bill was passed by a strict party vote-yeas, 105; nays, 61. The vote by which the Lytle insurance bill was defeated was reconsidered, and the bill passed by a vote of 113 to 56. The bill now goes to the senate. HARRISBURG, May 22.—In the senate the governor announced his refusal to sign senate bill 211, increasing the number of newspapers in which official advertisements are to be inserted. Senate bill No. 261, to separate the offices of prothonotary and clerk of the court in Delaware county. Senate bill 149, to fix the pay of election officers in Centre county. The senate sustained the veto and on bills 211 and 149 by a unanimous vote and laid the veto on 261 on the

In the house, among a number of other senate bills passed finally, was the fol-lowing liquor law amendment:

An act to amend the eighth section of the act entitled "an act to restrain and regulate the sale of vinous and spirituous malt and brewed liquors, or any admixture thereof," approved May 13, 1887, providing that the license money shall be paid into the treasury of the city, county, borough and township, where the licensed places are situated.

HARRISBURG, May 23.—The Boyer tax bill passed the house finally yesterday afternoon—yeas 136, nays 21. An attempt to substitute the granger bill was defeated. The house committee on education, by a vote of 12 to 8, agreed to report the Porter school bill affirmatively. Through the failure of Chairman Cochrane to reach the house at the opening of yesterday's session the bill has undoubtedly been lost. The bill cannot now be re-ceived until Monday. It then has to be printed and cannot be read.

The house rejected a resolution pro-posing to make special orders for the consideration of the Robinson constitutional convention bill.

In the senate the Baker ballot reform bill was the bone of contention. Sen-ator Robbins moved to amend by mak-ing the bill take effect in July, 1891, instead of March, 1892. Several amendments were offered and defeated, and while discussing an amendment of Sen-ator McDonald, to allow only those physically disabled to call in assistance in preparing the ballot, the hour for adournment arrived.

The legislature has rescinded its resc-iution to adjourn May 28. Sessions will be held next week, day and evening.

HARRISBURG, May 26.—In the house yesterday the Porter school bill was reported. An effort to make the measure a special order for passage Wednesday

The bill appropriating $20,000 to the State Normal school, Lock Haven, passed finally, as did also the bill authorizing the state board of charities to formulate a system of uniform accounts to be kept by the institutions owned in whole or in part by the state, or receiving aid therefrom, providing for examiners to enforce the same and regulate appropriations thereto.

The bill appropriating $830 for payment of Felix C. Negley, of Alleghany county, for his services as recruiting agent of the state of Pennsylvania during the war of the southern rebellion was defeated.

Insists on the Right to Vote.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 25.—Rev. J. K. McClurkin, of the Reformed Presbyter-McClurkin, of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological seminary, will resign the chair of theology and history in the institution at the coming meeting of the synod in this city on May 27. This action, Mr. McClurkin states, arose out of the fact that seven young Reformed Presbyterian ministers had been suspended from the observed for extinct the course for extinct the pended from the church for voting at a political election and that they would probably be expelled from the synod. The probabilities are that Mr. McClurkin will leave the Reformed Presbyterian church and go over to the United Pres-Denounced by the Grangers.

Denounced by the Grangers.

Easton, Pa., May 26.—At a public meeting of Pomona Grange at Bath resolutions were unanimously adopted denouncing Senator Laubach and Representatives Smith and Flad for voting against the commission bill, thus voting against the interests of the laborer and farmer. A resolution was adopted that in future the grangers in this county will use all fair means to elect representatives who will represent their interests, without regard to political parties.

Fell Down an Elevator Shaft. PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—Etta S. Anderson, 23 years, a pupil at the Philadelphia Lying-in Charity and Nurse school was killed yesterday by falling down the elevator shaft. She was on the elevator and tried to leave it while it was in motion and losing her balance fell backward as the car went up, and fell to the bottom, dying almost instantly. Highest of all in Leavening Power.-U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

TOUCHING the scheme to make Huntingdon county a separate judicial district, the Huntingdon Monitor says that there is not only considerably less the necessary population, but there is not enough business to keep a Judge busy more than two or three months in the year. As an illustration, the Monitor adds that the May term second week opened May, the jurors were discharged next day and May 20 court adjourned. The Judge of such a district would simply rust.

The Enemy in Ambush.
