

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, causing distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind. Headache—I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would have a faint or tired, all gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble was aggravated by my business, painting. Last evening I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEO. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

THE KENNEDYS.

A Strong Case Made Out Against Them.

STOCK OVER ISSUED TO BORROW ON.

Due Bills of the President Carried Along as Cash—Fooling Examiner Drew—Oellers Takes Charge of the City Treasurer's Office—Ex-Treasurer Bardsley in Jail.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The Kennedy brothers, president and cashier of the Spring Garden bank, were before United States Commissioner Bell for a hearing yesterday. Their counsel were anxious to waive a hearing, but District Attorney Read refused to agree to this. The evidence presented was ex parte, and there was no cross examination, but it seemed to establish a strong case against them.

Employees of the bank swore that the stock had been over issued to borrow money upon; that the due bills of the president and cashier had been carried as cash in big amounts, and that by manipulating the books Bank Examiner Drew was not able to learn of these transactions.

Examiner Drew intimated that more crookedness might be unearthed when the New York banks shall be heard from. Other strong points were brought out, and the defendants were held in jail to answer.

Directors Knew What Was Going On.

An important feature of the hearing was the establishment of the fact that the directors were aware of what was going on. Ex-Assistant Cashier McClure resigned because of the illegal methods pursued, and he informed the directors of the cause of his action. This makes it all the more to be expected that more arrests will be made before long.

Richard G. Oellers, the city treasurer elected by councils, took charge of his office yesterday, to remain there until the courts shall decide the contest between him and W. Redwood Wright, appointed by the governor. Bardsley is still in the hospital department of the county prison; no one offers to give bail for him. Yesterday it was reported that his condition is improving. He sleeps well and is quite resigned. The legal contest over the question of succession may be settled before the end of the week, though there is a suspicion of a desire to delay it.

Boyer and McCamant Annoyed.

Treasurer Boyer and Auditor General McCamant are considerably annoyed about the report spread abroad that they are to be arrested for charges growing out of the Bardsley affair. Mr. Boyer says he knows nothing about it, and that he had no knowledge whatever of Bardsley's speculations with the state's funds. Gen. McCamant says he acted as best he could in the matter of compelling Bardsley to pay up. There is no law prescribing a penalty, and the machinery for collecting the money through the courts was put in motion as soon as possible.

Bardsley in Jail.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—City Treasurer John Bardsley on the last day of his term, which he cut short by his resignation, was brought before Magistrate Pole in the city hall hearing room yesterday to answer to three criminal charges—two of misappropriation of funds and one of perjury. When the charge concerning the state funds was called up, Bardsley took the stand, and he made most damaging admissions. He virtually acknowledged that he drew the money out of other banks and put it all in the Keystone, and that he received interest further, from which other banks that had made such payments to him. The charge of perjury was delayed until June 12. Bardsley was held in $50,000 bail, in default of which he was taken to the county prison. Shortly afterwards he became very ill, and was removed to the prison hospital.

In the meantime President Marsh reports among the missing. Reports come from here and there that he has been seen, but investigation proves these rumors to be without foundation.

A Brutal Crime.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Daniel McCarthy, aged 28, was arrested for a brutal crime. Saturday he went home drunk. His wife asked him for his wages and a quarrel followed. The woman had her 6-week-old baby in her arms. McCarthy fell her to the floor and then aimed a vicious kick at the prostrate woman.

The little weak child received the full force of the brute's foot in the groin, which so injured it that it will die. The woman was also dragged around the room and frightfully beaten, after which McCarthy covered with blood and bruises took the dying child to Bellevue hospital, close by.

Minister Romero Ordered to Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 2.—It is reported upon authority which should be reliable that President Diaz has telegraphed to Minister Romero, at Washington, ordering him to return to Mexico and assume the office of secretary of the treasury, vice Senor Dublane, deceased. Senor Romero was once before secretary of the treasury under President Lerdo.

Jackson Challenges Corbett.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Peter Jackson has issued a challenge to Jim Corbett, offering to fight him in the California club or any fair club, New Orleans barred, for a purse of $10,000. Jackson will put up a forfeit as guarantee of good faith.

Cardinal Gibbons' Condition.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—Cardinal Gibbons, according to a letter from St. Thomas Manor, Md., is still very weak, and by his physician's advice he will return here. Bishop Curtis, of Delaware, will meet the cardinal's Episcopal appointments.

May Irwin Married.

NEW YORK, June 2.—A telegram from Chicago says that May Irwin, the variety actress, was married to Hugo Toland, a rich young San Franciscan, last Thursday.

Mr. Blaine Slowly Improving.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Mr. Blaine is reported as slowly improving in health. It has not yet been fully decided at what time today he will leave for Bar Harbor.

THE LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS

Presents for the Officers Before Saying Good-bye.

HARRISBURG, May 27.—In the senate yesterday house bill to relieve clerks, mechanics, laborers, workmen, working women, journeymen or other employes from certain prosecutions and punishment for conspiracy under the common law or the criminal laws of this commonwealth passed finally.

The congressional and legislative apportionment bills were passed finally without amendment. The bills will now go to the governor. The Farr compulsory educational bill as it came from the house passed by a vote of 30 to 10.

In the house the senate bill to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a state asylum for the chronic insane, to be called the State Asylum for the Chronic Insane of Pennsylvania, and making an appropriation therefor, which had been defeated on final passage, was reconsidered and postponed, was called up and passed finally.

The senate resolution for an inquiry into charges against the management of the Eastern penitentiary was indefinitely postponed.

Senate amendments to the bill providing for the expenses of the State Agricultural college were rejected, as were also the senate amendments to the anthracite mine bill.

HARRISBURG, May 27.—In the senate yesterday a large number of house bills were passed finally, including the act to fix the number of senators in the general assembly of the state and to apportion the same into senatorial districts as provided in the constitution, and the act to prohibit mining and manufacturing corporations from engaging in the business of carrying on stores, known as company stores or general supply stores.

In the house there was a lengthy discussion on the ballot reform bill. The house refused to agree to the senate amendments by a vote of 98 to 89.

The house insisted on its non-concurrence in the senate amendments to the congressional apportionment bill, and Messrs. Walton, Lytle and Ritter (Lycoming) resigned, and he informed the directors of the cause of his action. This makes it all the more to be expected that more arrests will be made before long.

HARRISBURG, May 29.—At 1 o'clock yesterday morning an unsuccessful effort was made to confirm gubernatorial nominations, but at 9 o'clock, after considerable other business had been transacted, the senate went into executive session for the purpose of taking action on the governor's appointments. By a vote of 31 to 16 they refused to confirm the nominations. It was a strict party vote.

Senator Ross moved that the vote by which the conference report on house bill No. 2, known as the Baker ballot bill, was defeated be reconsidered. This was agreed to, and the bill passed by a vote of 31 to 14.

The report of the conference committee on the World's fair bill was agreed to. It makes a commission of thirty members, to include the governor, lieutenant governor, the president pro tem of the senate and speaker of the house. The appropriation is $300,000.

The factory inspectors' bill was indefinitely postponed, but the act creating a banking department was agreed to.

At noon the senate adjourned sine die. After adjournment a handsome silver service and a beautiful gavel by the retiring senators.

Soon after 1 o'clock the house reassembled and concurred in the general appropriation bill—157 to 1. Between 3 and 4 o'clock the sleepy ones were kept awake by the shooting off of bunches of fire-crackers, the introduction of several cats, the setting loose of a couple of owls and other childish amusements. At 5 o'clock the conference report on the Baker ballot bill was agreed to—130 to 81. At 8 o'clock the judges' retirement bill was defeated. At 9:30 the banking department bill was passed, as were two others, amending immaterially sections of the retail liquor law. The only apportionment bill that failed of passage was the senatorial. The senate amendments were not acceptable to the house, the conference committee were unable to agree, and the bill therefore fell. Finally, at 10:15 o'clock, the longest continuous session for many years was brought to a close.

At 11:15 the house reassembled for the final session. Speaker Thompson was presented with an elegant silver service, and the various clerks were remembered by valuable presents. At 12 o'clock Speaker Thompson's gavel fell with the formal declaration that the legislature of 1891 stood adjourned without day.

LOOKS LIKE FOUL PLAY.

Arsenic Found in J. Norris Young's Body at West Chester, Pa.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., June 2.—The body of J. Norris Young, the young miller of Marshallton, who died May 8, about whose sudden death there have been rumors of foul play, was exhumed by Coroner McFadden yesterday in the presence of Dr. Formad, of Philadelphia, Dr. Mercer, of Germantown, and Dr. Dunn, of West Chester. A hasty examination showed that the body contained a large quantity of arsenic. A partial examination of the stomach was made, after which the organs were turned over by the coroner to Dr. Formad, who will make a microscopic examination and report the result to the coroner and district attorney.

Young was said to have died from cholera morbus, but the purchase of rat poison by a member of the family a few days before aroused suspicion. Papers were also found upon the person of David M. Link, a New York piano agent, who stayed with the family, which, it is claimed, bear an important part in the testimony. Link subsequently became insane, and his remark when taken to Bellevue hospital, New York, "People accuse me of killing him," as a sufficient ground to prompt the authorities to exhumate the body.

Mrs. Young, the wife of the dead man, denies the rumor about associating her with her husband's death. Mrs. Young is 21 years old and comely. She denies that there was any trouble between her and her husband.

Before the coroner had Young's body exhumed a dozen prominent citizens stood over the grave to prevent any one from stealing the body.

The Reformed Presbyterians.

PITTSBURG, June 2.—At yesterday's session Rev. Foster read the complaints of the deposed ministers. At the conclusion of the reading, Dr. McAllister offered a resolution for the arrest of the six deposed ministers for contempt of court, they having violated the rules of the Book of Discipline in not obeying the finding of the lower court. Rev. S. T. Milligan, raised the point of order that Dr. McAllister, as a prosecutor in the case, has no right to offer such a resolution. This was accepted and the resolution was offered by another minister.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND SAY

A Chapter of Accidents, Crimes and Local Happenings Picked Up Here and There in the State and Flashing Over the Busy Wires.

EASTON, Pa., June 2.—Ed Mills and wife, of Durham, Bucks county, visited Easton, and when they returned home in the evening found their home ransacked and the barn and contents destroyed by fire. There is no clue to the guilty parties. Loss about $4,000.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 30.—James Weaver, an employe at Orlo's furniture factory, was seriously injured while assisting to shift cars on a Reading railroad siding at the works. He was taken to the city hospital, where both legs were amputated.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., May 30.—The inquest on Henry Blase, who was recently murdered at Bowmanstown, has been adjourned until next week. All the evidence thus far taken shows that he was brutally murdered, but none of it points, even circumstantially, to any person in the neighborhood.

HARRISBURG, June 2.—In the supreme court this morning George S. Jenks, counsel for the Delamaters, applied for a continuance of the hearing for a change of venue until the October term. Counsel for the depositors gave notice that they would contest any postponement, and a consultation followed.

PITTSBURG, June 2.—Secretary W. J. Dillon, of the American Flint Glass Workers' association, denies the statement telegraphed from this city to the effect that thirty-four of the fifty-seven flint glass factories in the country would close down this week for the summer. Mr. Dillon says that none of the flint glass factories will close before July 1, the usual time.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—There was a drowning accident yesterday in the Delaware river off Gloucester, by which a man and woman, James Southard and Lizzie Dougherty, lost their lives. The couple were in a boat, which was being rowed by Joseph Hawk, when it caught in the paddle wheel of a passing Gloucester steamer, the Sylvan Dell, and capsized. Hawk saved himself by clutching the rudder chain of the Sylvan Dell. Neither of the bodies were recovered.

PITTSBURG, June 2.—There are 284 delegates at the convention of the Amalgamated association, which opened in Turner hall this morning. The convention is the largest ever held by the organization. The scale committee is still at work and will not finish its report for a day or so. Nothing official about the scale has yet been given out and will not be until the convention acts upon the matter. It is more than likely that the present officers will be re-elected.

BRIDGEPORT, Pa., June 2.—E. F. Wilcox, of this place, has a pair of twin chickens hatched several days ago from a double yolk egg. Three weeks ago upon eleven eggs. All of these eggs appeared to be about the same size, and he did not know at the time that one of them contained two yolks. Consequently when the chickens began to hatch and two of them came from one shell he was greatly surprised. The eggs were of the golden pheasant variety.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—The final presentation of the grand jury for the May term of the quarter sessions was filled in the new court house. Of the 465 bills acted upon, 391 were found true and 74 ignored. All the city and county institutions were visited and found in good condition. The only suggestion in the presentment, which is very brief, is: "We feel sure that the get-rich-quick (or short-term) societies have been detrimental to the interests of Philadelphia, and hope that steps will be taken for their speedy suppression."

MILFORD, Pa., June 2.—The extensive property of John F. Kilgour, located in Lackawanna, Shohola, Westfall and Milford townships, Pike county, embracing several thousand acres of land, numerous houses, cottages and other buildings, and including the famed Shohola glen, Shohola house, Switch-back railroad and Parker's glen, has been sold by Sheriff Kessler to Charles St. John, of Fort Jervis, for $7,200, subject to mortgages and liens amounting to $40,000. Attention will now be given to popularizing Shohola glen as a pleasure resort.

PITTSBURG, May 30.—At Wittmer, eight miles from Pittsburg, on the Pittsburg and Western railroad, two passenger trains collided yesterday afternoon. James H. Sarver, an engineer learning the road, of Allegheny, was caught between the engine and tender and had both legs scalded by steam. The crew and passengers poured so much whisky into the unfortunate man to relieve his pain until rescued from his position that he stupefied him. He has not yet regained consciousness and it is feared he will die. A. G. Campbell, of Butler, Pa., a passenger, had his arm broken.

HARRISBURG, May 30.—The governor approved the following bills: An act to amend the election laws changing the time and manner of making the registry of voters and the duties of registry assessors; to authorize the employment of two additional clerks in the adjutant general's office to prepare muster rolls of the late civil war; an act providing for the assignment of $100,000 annually from the general to the sinking fund; providing for the transfer of the direct tax money amounting to $1,634,000 to the sinking fund; authorizing the auditor general to countersign all warrants in the state treasury.

The Fool Killer's People.
The individual with whom the fool killer should make a date seldom originates anything. His time is usually taken up with things handled by his equals for many years. Some time ago he arranged a cigar that would blow up when it was well lighted. With this he had any amount of "fun." Many a man was given a bad shock and half a dozen of cases of injured eyes were reported in this neighborhood alone. Within the past few weeks another thing for making "fun" has come to the front in the shape of a match so arranged that it will go off with as much noise as a fire cracker when it has been burning a few seconds. The candidate for the fool killer gets any amount of "fun" out of it. He hands out to his friend who wants to light a cigar and moves off far enough to escape danger and watch the effect of the explosion upon the friend. So far the "fun" has been without any fatal results. The eyes of no victim of the "joke" have been injured; but sooner or later the match with a little more explosive substance than the average will go off; an eye will go out, and the candidate for the fool killer will be unusually sad and sorrowful. He may learn a lesson from his friend's life-long affliction, but the countless other candidates for the fool killer's attention will have as much "fun" as ever. The smart Aleck must have his fun while he can, you know. He is just as liable to die, and unfortunately no more so than other humans.—Williamsport Republican.

The Enemy in Ambush.
Every one knows that at this season of the year disease lies in ambush, ever ready to pounce and prey upon the weak. And any (air minded) physician will tell you that the only safe-guard lies in keeping the system thoroughly keyed up by the use (not abuse) of a reliable stimulant. Hundreds of tonics are advertised for this purpose, but experience shows that a pure rye whiskey is the only one to be depended upon. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" brands are sold under a sworn guarantee of absolute purity; an affidavit accompanies each bottle. "Silver Age" sells for $1.50 and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per full quart bottle. The difference in age makes the difference in price—both brands are warranted to be unadulterated.

You can get Guckenheimer, Finch, Gibson or Overholt from Mr. Klein at $1.00 per quart, or six quarts for $5.00. His stock of wines, brandies, gins, etc., is acknowledged to be the largest and choicest in the state. Goods shipped to all parts of the U. S. Send for catalogue and price list, mention this paper. MAX KLEIN, 52 Federal Street, Allegheny, Pa.
