SCROFULA

In that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

Great Damage to Houses and Crops in Illinois.

TORN FROM THEIR FATHER'S ARMS

Three Young Boys Meet Death in the Deluge-Lieutenant Robinson and Four Seamen Drowned in Icy Bay-Three Children Drowned in the St. Lawrence.

Peoria, Ills., June 20.—A terrible rain storm swept through the Illinois river valley, doing great damage to crops, gardens and fences. In Hilton, a small town across the river from Peoria, numerous houses were washed from their foundations. The occupants fled, scantily clothed, to the railroad grade and bills. The water railroad grade and hills. The water raised in the houses at Farmdale, seven miles east to the depth of three feet, and many people narrowly escaped drowning. Herds of cows, horses and hogs were swept away. Crops throughout a large tract in the valley are utterly ruined. In Copperas creek valley, just across the line in Fulton county, a family named Gray had a cabin. When the flood left the banks the father took his three boys and started to the hills, while the mother refused to leave the house. When half way across the valley a floating log struck Gray and stunned him. The water drowned the boys, aged 12, 8 and 5 years. The father narrowly escaped by clinging to the log. His wife climbed to the roof of the house and was rescued.

OTTAWA, Ills., June 20.—Utica, the busy little cement and brick manufacturing town, and seat of many cosy and pretty homes, was devastated by a cloudburst. The cloud broke just north of the town over the high bluff and came into the valley with a roar that created a panic and caused the inhabitants to rush before it and seek shelter upon high ground. In a quarter of an hour the water rose six feet in low lands and from one to three feet in the deals. and from one to three feet in the dwellings and stores in the heart of the town. Buildings were shaken from their feundations, sidewalks torn up, fences and outhouses carried away. Fortunately no lives were last and the water seen no lives were lost, and the water soon receded. Not a dwelling or place of business escaped damage, and household goods to the value of many thousands of dollars were ruined. Beautiful lawns were despoiled, and sand and mud to the depth of stateral inches covered the floors and carpets of dwell-ings. The losses, it is thought, will aggregate $150,000.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., June 20.—The bridges on the Lake Erie and Western road, between Grandall and Farmdale, road, between Grandall and Farmdale, west of this city, were destroyed by a cloudburst, which flooded Farm Creek valley. Five other bridges ware crippled and several trains had narrow escapes, and all were delayed.

Pritsburg, June 20.—Six dwellings were washed away and a number of persons injured by a flood at Leebburg. Armstrong county. The flood was caused by a cloudburst. As far as known no lives were lost.

wes were lost. NELIGH, Neb., June 20.—The heaviest rainfall experienced within twentyeight years in Nebraska fell here—over five and one-half inches coming down within three hours. Drains and ravines became torrents and brooks became rivers. John Lorensen, a farmer, was washed from his wagon and drowned while crossing the flooded ravine.

The crossing the hoosed ravine.

The property of the following in Emerick township, about fifteen miles southeast of here, were drowned during the storm while trying to reach the house from school. A ravine which the children were accussively of the country of red to cross suddenly filled with the flood, washing them away.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 20.—The steamer
Queen, which has arrived from Sitka, reports that the revenue cutter Bear has reports that the revenue cutter Bear has reached Alaska from Icy bay, bringing news of the drowning of Lieutenant Robinson, Coxswain Hassler, Seamen Anderson, Nelson and Henry Smith, all of the Bear, and W. C. Moore, member of the Russell exploring expedition. The drowning occurred at the time when the party were trying to make a landing in Icy bay with the Russell-Mt. St. Elias party. The Bear left Sitka the morning of June 14 for Behring sea.

QUESEC, June 20.—Two children named Lochande and another whose name is unknown were drowned by the upsetting of a canoe in the St. Lawrence river at Portneuf.

PADUCAH, Ky., June 20. — While boating in a skiff at Golconda, Ills., William Hocwischer and William Kreip, white, and two colored men were drowned. The boat was caught by a storm while passing over that section and capsized in midriver. All were swept away before relief could reach

St. Louis, June 19.—Meager reports are received of a terrible catastrophe which occurred near the mining city of Catorio, in the state of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, are to the effect that the cloud Mexico, are to the effect that the cloud burst in Concepcion mountain and a great stream poured down the mountain side, sweeping everything in its course. The habitations occupied by the miners were swept away and the tunnel of Guadaloupe mine filled with water, drowning several miners, who were working inside. A number of people living in cliff dwellings were buried alive.

At Lacruces and El Potrero, on one side of the mountain, and Los Catorio on the other, twenty-three dead bodies have been recovered, and there are believed to be many more. The mining companies losses are heavy.

Large mantities of high grade metal were carried away by the flood at the Concepcion property. Hundreds of pack animals were drowned. These are the meagre details so far received from this remote district, though people here knowing the locality believe that there must have been at least fifty lives lost.

Three Girl Victims.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Three girls lost their lives by inhaling gas in a cubby room at 10 East Eighty-sixth street. The accident was due to the carelessness of one of the number, who was unaccustomed to the use of gas. The victims are Agnes Sears, 18 years old; Katie Keefe, 17 years old, and Jennie Grossman, 27 years old.

Manipur Victims' Widows Pensioned. SIMLA, June 23 .- It is announced that Mrs. James W. Quinton and Mrs. F. McLanghlin put in a quantity of dynamite and was tamping it, when the stuff exploded. McLangillin was hurled high in the sir in a cloud lin was hurled high in the sir in a cloud of smoke, dust and flying stones.

The workmen near by saw Polker running out of the storm with his hands to his face and shrieking with agony. In his frenzy he made for a pond in the quarry, but he was seized. McLaughlin had disappeared, but a search revealed one foot projecting out of the pond. The body was pulled out, and to the general surprise it gave signs of life. Physicians were seat for, but McLaughlin lived only an hour. Polker will live. Deputy Coroner Jefferies arrived and held an inquest. The verdict was accidental death. McLaughlin was a widower and leaves a family of three children.

About Spring Fever.

Who hasn't suffered from this diseasef We say disease advisedly, for such it is. It is a general relaxation of the system that makes the victim averse to exertion. Unless the constitution is keyed up when these symptoms appear, some acute malady attacks the most vulpear, some acute malady attacks the most vulnerable point and life is endangered. A good stimulent promptly and properly used soon tones up the weak spots. Leading physicians of the land invariably recommend the use of Pure Rye Whiskey in such cases. Max Klein's "Silver Age" and "Duquesne" Rye Whiskies are sold under a sworn guarantee of purity so that the constimer takes no risk—"Silver Age" at $1.50 and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per full quart bottle.
