LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

The dog-day season is here. Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Cross, of Milesburg, were pleasant callers at our office on Monday. The Sons of Veterans will hold their annual state convention this year at Gettysburg, on the 11th of August. Mr. S. S. Campbell and family, of Roland, have gone to McKeesport, Pa., which place they will make their future home. Messrs. Wm. Royer and Wm. Barnes, of this office, spent their 4th of July vacation at Philadelphia and Atlantic City. Rev. McArdle, of St. John's Catholic church, of this place, left for Ireland, Monday July, 6th. He will be absent three months. The Pleasant View Methodist church will hold a festival on Saturday evening, July 25th, at which all kinds of refreshments will be served. George T. Bush left this week for Detroit to attend a national convention of wheelmen. He also expects to spend some time at Chicago. Trout fishing season closed on Wednesday the 15th. After this it will be risky to catch the speckled beauties, and might be expensive as well. Rev. Hoshour, pastor of the Lutheran church, this place, accompanied by his wife and child, left for Gettysburg where they will remain a month visiting relatives. This time of the year all farmers and land owners should see that all Canada thistle plants are cut down before the seed can ripen and spread through the country. Prof. Isaac Harvey, the geologist, of Beech Creek, dropped into town on Tuesday on a business trip. The Prof. and family are now living at Beech Creek. The festival to be held by the Zion Grange at their new hall on Saturday evening, July 18, promises to be a success. The Zion band will be in attendance to enliven the occasion. Mrs. Yocum, a daughter of Treasurer Gramley, met with a painful accident at her home near Hubbersburg, on Saturday. She fell in some manner and broke her ankle and it caused her great suffering for several days after. Mr. A. Sternberg and family moved into Mr. Harris' house on East Lamb street this week. Mr. Sternberg thinks there is no place like home and for that reason was anxious to have his family located at Bellefonte again. Last Tuesday, July 7th, Mr. Morris Loeb, of Mahony City, and Miss Josephine Newman were married at the residence of Wm. Grauer, this place, by Rabbi Levy, of Williamsport. The groom is a brother of Adolph Loeb and the bride a sister of Mrs. Wm. Grauer. Bellefonte is filled with summer girls this season. They seem to have flocked upon us from every direction and their charming faces, winning ways, fine jewelry and attractive dresses are just too bewitching for anything. But then we have so many pretty girls of our own town that these don't cause much annoyance; we are used to such things. Miss Grace Houck, will leave this week for Chataqua to attend the summer session of that educational institution. She goes for the purpose of better preparing herself for Kindergarten instruction, in which she has been engaged at this place for some time. Miss Houck is an intelligent and energetic young lady and her school at this place has been a success. On Monday Jacksons show, traveling by wagon, exhibited at Milesburg. The show arrived at that place on Sunday and in the afternoon began erecting their tent. At the instance of Mr. Harry Musser, Mr. Jackson, the proprietor was arrested for Sabbath breaking and at a hearing in Bellefonte was fined $9 which he paid and went his way rejoicing.

THAT BIG CELEBRATION.

A GREAT DEMONSTRATION AT BELLEFONTE.

The 4th was properly observed—A Large Gathering—A magnificent Parade—Superb Industrial Display—Good Music and Fine fireworks in the evening.

Almost two weeks have gone by since the 4th of July, which was so appropriately observed at Bellefonte, and for that reason we can not give as full and complete account of the celebration as some might desire.

To begin, the largest crowd assembled in our town that day that has been seen here for many years. The morning trains came from all directions packed and jammed to their full capacity of humanity, representing bands, drum corps, fire companies, G. A. R. men, cavalry men and others; while the many who came to town by private conveyances swelled the crowd to many thousands.

The town throughout was most beautifully decorated; private homes, business houses and public buildings, the streets and diamond were covered with a profusion of handsome decorations, significant of the day and occasion. The rain on Friday night had a tendency to discourage many, but the clear sky and cool breeze on Saturday was more than was expected by the most sanguine. Saturday was a most delightful day and made the occasion all the more enjoyable.

THE PARADE.

This was a most successful feature of the day, and was the largest, finest and most imposing display seen in central Pennsylvania for many a day. The parade was made up according to the order announced in our last issue. The fine appearance of Sheridan troop, from Tyrone, was a treat to many as they seldom have the opportunity of seeing a body of cavalry men on march or at drill. The appearance of the fire companies was fine, while each band was in fine trim, discoursing the best of music. The G. A. R. division was also well represented and the industrial display was the surprise of the day. Almost every enterprising business house or manufacturing establishment of the town prepared a magnificent float for the purpose of displaying its business in the parade. It seemed that each had quietly gone to work with the express purpose of having the finest, and the result was that when they passed by each float had some excellent and special attraction, and all deserve the prize. It was simply stupendous—superbly grand.

The parade was concluded by John Dunlap and his fanatics in all their ridiculous and comical costumes.

Col. Spangler, the chief marshal, and his assistants are deserving of much praise for the promptness and successful formation of the parade.

GAME OF BALL.

This was played on the glass works meadow between the P. R. R. team, of Philadelphia and the Bellefonte nine. It was a very pretty contest and was witnessed by a large number of people. The game resulted in another victory for "P. R. R." by a score of 8 to 7. Sheridan troop gave an exhibition drill at the same time and it was an additional treat for the audience.

CONCERT AND FIREWORKS.

After supper an immense crowd assembled in the diamond to hear the concert advertised to be given by the Milton band, which enjoys a fine reputation in this part of the state. They gave a most excellent concert, a rare musical treat for our people. Mr. Joel Ettinger, the leader of this organization, is quite a young man, but possesses musical talents of a high order. He is a Centre county boy, having been born and raised at Aaronsburg.

The fireworks closed the program for the day. This exhibition was managed John Sourbeck, and was also a great success. In conclusion we must say that the entire occasion was a great success and honors are due to each and all who assisted or contributed. Special mention is due Messrs. J. S. McCargar and J. D. Sourbeck for the amount of time they gave to raising funds for the occasion and other details; also to George Bush credit is due for his untiring labors as secretary, and to the balance of the com. the citizens are likewise indebted. Everything was well managed, as at least $136 remain unexpended in the treasury and will be presented to the Logan boys for their steamer fund.

The 4th is over and Bellefonte has again covered itself with glory.

Wanted at Lock Haven.

The police have been requested to be on the lookout for Frank A. Caldwell, of Lock Haven, who has disappeared from that place with $469.27, which he embezzled from Union No. 108, a labor organization. He is five feet eight or nine inches in height, weighs about 150 pounds, has smooth face, red hair, cut short, and is squint-eyed.

Wanted.

$1200 or $2000 for three or five years, at 5 per cent. per annum, on first class collateral. Address, "C. H. W. C." DEMOCRAT office, Bellefonte, Pa.

Barn Destroyed by Fire.

On Monday evening July 6th, at about 10 p. m., the alarm of fire was sounded from the electric light station and a bright light was seen in the sky, which was soon found to be caused by the flames that were rapidly consuming the large stable of A. G. Morris at his lime quarries north of town. The fire companies responded promptly but the only thing they could do was to save adjoining property. The building and all its contents, consisting of a large quantity of hay, straw, grain, wagons and other vehicles, three horses and two mules, were consumed in a short time. By the heroic work of the firemen John Caldwell's barn near by and other buildings were saved. The fire started back of the horses and it appears to have been the work of an incendiary. As there was no insurance on the building the loss will be heavy for Mr. Morris.

Small Turn Out.

The annual camp of G. A. R. Veterans of Pennsylvania being held at Williamsport this week is by no means as large as was expected. Many thousands and veterans and visitors were expected, and particularly large delegations from Philadelphia and other cities. Great preparations were made by the hotels and the citizens to accommodate the throng who failed to materialize.

Bellefonte parties who returned from there on Tuesday say the attendance is unusually slim and hotels that made accommodations for keeping several hundred visitors in the city are sadly disappointed and will be at considerable loss. The ranks naturally are growing smaller as time and old age is gradually reducing the numbers, but with all that, it is far from what was expected.

In the Mountains.

Hon. John H. Orvis and family, Ellis L. Orvis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller and Mr. Will Keller left last week for Spruce Run, in the vicinity of Karthaus, Pa., where they expect to remain several weeks for recreation and to enjoy nature in all its grandeur. The Centre county Fishing and Hunting Club have a commodious club house at this point, which they will occupy, and own an immense tract of mountain land which contains several well stocked trout streams. Fishing for the speckled beauties will be the chief pastime and we expect to hear some boss fish stories when they return. The Judge is an experienced and expert angler and his luck will likely head the list.

Married at Lock Haven.

On Saturday morning Mr. Frank Galbraith, the jeweler, took a quiet sneak to Lock Haven, his many friends not knowing what the real object of his trip might be. The rumor here on Monday was that on Sunday morning Miss Cora Kerstetter and the young man in question were united in marriage. This was a surprise to most of our people, but all unite in extending hearty congratulations. The bride is one of Lock Haven's handsome and accomplished young ladies and Frank knows a jewel when he sees one.

Up in a Balloon.

From a four column article in a recent issue of the Lowell, (Mass.) Daily News we learn the experience of Mr. Israel Sternberg who took a three mile ascent in a balloon on the 4th of July at that place. Mr. Sternberg is on the editorial force of that paper and is always bustling around for the purpose of giving the readers something new, novel and interesting. Unlike his ascent in the balloon, he is gradually forging ahead in his journalistic work and does not drop each time he makes a raise.

Not Dead But Sleeping.

Clearfield did not celebrate the 4th in any grand style, like some of her sister towns, but her populace enjoyed themselves in a quiet way. Their ire was somewhat ruffled when the business men found tacked on the doors of their business places a streamer of black calico, at the top of which was pinned a neat little card upon which was printed these words: "This town is not dead but sleeping."

False Teeth in His Hair.

The Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin states that Anthony Johnston, a colored individual, called at that office one morning, about half-past one o'clock, and related the fact after taking a drink of beer he had found three false teeth in the bottom of the glass, which he exhibited. He thinks now that he will quit drinking beer, lest he might next time find a whole skeleton.

Found Dead in Bed.

The Lock Haven Express says: Mrs. Grimes, a lady from Spring Bank, Centre county, who was visiting at the residence of Solomon Maurer, near Mackeyville, Nittany Valley, was found dead in bed on Wednesday morning. Her age was 50 years, and the cause of her death heart disease.

Bellefonte is well represented at the G. A. R. encampment at Williamsport, this week.

Three Items from Phillipsburg.

A young man named Hockenberry was taken to Clearfield jail last Thursday night by Officer Simler, charged with burglarizing the residence of John Simmons of Chester Hill borough. He took $60 from a pile of gold in which there was the sum of $245. He afterward came to Phillipsburg, where he purchased a suit of clothes and a gold watch, and then left for Snow Shoe, where he was arrested. Hockenberry has not yet turned 18.

Austin King, mine inspector of this, the Eighth, bituminous coal district, is taking the preliminary steps toward establishing a mining institute in this place for the benefit of mine bosses and miners who are preparing for the next mining bosses' examination.

For Liberty and License.

The following is from the Curwensville Review: "His honor, Judge O. A. Furst, of Centre-Huntingdon district, made a speech at the celebration at Bellefonte on the 4th of July. The Judge is a fine orator and a big crowd had gathered to hear him and the other speakers. The Judge opened his volcano oratory in fine style and everything presaged a brilliant effort. But the best of us make mistakes and the Judge made a fatal one in his opening. In almost the first sentence he asked—'What are we here for to-day?'—and before he could answer the question himself some fellow away back in the crowd yelled out—'For Liberty and our license!' The answer knocked the wind out of the Hon. Judge for the rest of his speech. They say the fellow who gave such prompt answer had been disappointed in getting license last spring.

Birthday Party.

On Friday, July 10th, a large number of relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. Perry Morgan, in Union township, to celebrate Mr. Geo. L. Peter's 79th birthday anniversary. Mr. Peter for some time has not been enjoying the best of health but the presence of so many of his family and near friends made it an enjoyable occasion for him, as well as those present. May he enjoy good health hereafter and reach a ripe old age.

Royal Arcanum Basket Picnic.

We acknowledge an invitation to attend a basket picnic, at the R. A. Park Association grounds, Phillipsburg, on Thursday, July 23, 1891. It will be held under the auspices of Centre Council No. 803, Royal Arcanum. An orchestra and band of music will be in attendance. The committee consists of R. E. Munson, L. C. Jones, W. E. Landon, Henry Schmidt, and C. U. Hoffer.

Sudden Death of John Lutz.

On last Tuesday, July 7th, Mr. John Lutz, one of Benner township's prominent citizens, died at his home at Fillmore, quite suddenly from an affection of the heart. He was 69 years, 10 months and 27 days old; the interment, which was largely attended, occurred on the following Thursday. The deceased leaves a wife, seven sons and three daughters.

Gen. J. S. Brisbin to Retire.

We notice in an exchange that Gen. J. S. Brisbin, who for years has been in active military service in the far West, will be placed on the retired list after February 1, 1892, and General Kantz will take his place. The General is well known to most of our readers as he is a Centre county man and was born and raised at Boalsburg, this county. Mrs. Brisbin, who died a few years ago, was a daughter of David M. Wagner, of this place.

Pine Camp Meeting.

The directors of the Pine Camp Meeting Association met at Pine last week to open the bids for keeping the boarding houses on the grounds this season and to transact other business relating to the camp. The meeting will begin on Thursday, August 13th. Already a larger number of tents have been taken than ever before at this time of the year.

A Granger Picnic.

A Granger basket picnic and harvest home will be held at Warriorsmark, in Funk's grove, near the town, Saturday, July 26. Mortimer Whitehead, of Washington, D. C.; Hon. Leonard Rhone, grand master state grange, and Colonel R. H. Thomas, secretary state grange, will be present and speak to the people. An invitation is extended to all to participate.

Died at Howard.

Mrs. Lydia Schenck, widow of Christian Schenck, deceased, died at her home in Howard, on the morning of July 4th. She was 80 years, 5 months and 1 day old and four sons and one daughter survive her. The interment occurred on the following Monday, in the Schenck cemetery, Rev. M. B. Smith officiating.

A 52 Pound Tumor.

Dr. B. F. Baer, a celebrated Philadelphia Physician, recently removed a tumor from Mrs. J. A. Rhoads, of Lock Haven, which weighed fifty-pounds. Mrs. Rhoads is under the care of Dr. Armstrong, who reports her doing well and in a fair way to good health again.

A PREMATURE BLAST.

SERIOUSLY INJURES TWO MEN ON WEDNESDAY.

An Effort to Secure the Location of the Chronic Insane Asylum near Bellefonte—Shot at by a Robber—other items.

On Wednesday morning Chas. Heverly and Leyman Corman were at work in A. G. Morris' lime quarries near town. They had drilled a hole about six feet in depth and were preparing for a blast. A light blast was first put in to clean it out and then the hole was, as they thought, thoroughly swabbed to put out any sparks that might remain. A fuse was then put in by Mr. Corman and Mr. Heverly poured powder in the hole from a six pound can and a terrible explosion followed. Corman was blown back against the rocky wall and Heverly was knocked back and fell down over the bank a distance of thirty feet onto a pile of stones. He was badly injured, his scalp was cut open and his face and eyes were badly burned. Corman's injuries consist of a badly burned face and severe bruises. Both men's eyes were swollen shut, and their injuries are serious.

The explosion, it is supposed, was caused by a piece of burning fuse lodged in a crevice.

Mr. Corman is a young man and has a wife and one child. Mr. Heverly is well advanced in years and has a family with seven children, some of whom are depending upon him for support.

Chronic Insane Asylum.

An act passed at the last session appropriates $500,000 for the erection of a hospital in this state for maintaining chronic insane. A state commission was appointed to select a suitable location, which means a tract of land of about 500 acres, arable, easy of drainage, situated near a grove and along the line of some railroad, and must have on the land good water.

At a meeting in the court house, on Monday evening, a committee was appointed to select a suitable location near Bellefonte, and to confer with the state commission with the object of having them locate the institution near this place. The following men were appointed:

Gen. James A. Beaver, Ex-Governor A. G. Curtin, John F. Harris, Gen. D. H. Hastings, Col. J. L. Spangler, Hon. John H. Orvis, J. D. Shugert, F. W. Crider, Geo. W. Jackson, Hon. P. Gray Meek, J. A. Feldler, Thomas A. Shoemaker, Chas. L. Gates, Chas. R. Kurtz, and Robert Valentine, with Geo. L. Potter, as chairman.

Shot at by a Robber.

On Monday night Mr. Benjamin Rich, of Unionville, was awakened by a noise in his room. He saw a man whom he supposed to be his son, and asked what he wanted, when the fellow grabbed some clothes and ran down stairs, with Mr. Rich after him. When the intruder reached first floor he drew a revolver and fired back the ball passing close by Mr. Rich's head and lodged in the ceiling. The fellow escaped, taking with him a pair of trousers, $4 in money and a watch valued at $65. Neighbors were aroused and a search was made but no trace of the robber could be found.

Instantly Killed.

Christian Peters, of Milesburg, while helping to shift a freight train at the "Y" at this place on Thursday morning, July 2nd, was thrown from the car on which he was standing, the wheels passing over him, cutting off both legs and mangle his body, killing him instantly. A wife and two children survive him.

Select Schools.

Prof. D. M. Wolf desires us to announce that on Monday, July 27th, he will open a select school at Spring Mills to continue for a term of six weeks. Centre county has no better instructor and many will no doubt embrace this opportunity for further preparing themselves for teaching and other avocations of life.

Senator P. Gray Meek and wife left last week for St. Paul, Minn., to attend the National Editorial Association. Mr. and Mrs. Meek expect to continue their journey from St. Paul to the Pacific coast and will be gone about a month. We hope they will have a pleasant trip.

On Saturday morning Mrs. M. O. Noll was called to Milton by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Follmer. On Sunday Rev. Noll received a dispatch announcing Mr. Follmer's death, and he left on Monday morning for that place. On this account there will no services in the Reformed church at this place next Sunday.

We hear that preparations are being made to have the nail works at this place resume operations soon.

The weather prophets who predicted a warm spell for the first part of this week made a sure hit. The weather was exceedingly oppressive on Tuesday.

Messrs. James Gramley and Robt' Hunter, the committee on decorations for the 4th of July performed their work in a very creditable manner.

Mr. Ed. Garman, the bicycle enthusiast, presented our office with a handsome calendar showing to advantage the famous Columbia cycles.

W. W. Waite, and Miss Della Sigel, both of Halfmoon, township.

W. T. Fitzgerald Here.

The Williamsport Republican of Monday says: "W. T. Fitzgerald, of Bellefonte, a former resident of Williamsport and at one time a member of Common council from the Fifth ward, is stopping at the Farmer's Hotel. He is attending at the G. A. R. encampment. Mr. Fitzgerald was one of the leaders in the reorganization of Reno Post after its suspension a number of years ago. At the age of fifteen years he ran away from home and joined the regular army and during and after the rebellion he made quite a reputation as a composer of army verse under the non de plume "Unknown."

Band Movement.

An effort is being made to reorganize a band at Bellefonte. The old band is about defunct—dead—and a new organization is materializing. The members of the old band are not willing to surrender their instruments and cash in the treasury to the new project. The indications are that the old organization will be revived and another band may also be started. While the fun is going on let the bands play. Two rival bands in Bellefonte might prosper immensely.

A Busy Place.

One of the busiest places in Bellefonte on the 4th was that of Mr. Gottlieb Haag, proprietor of the Cummings House. To begin, he had Sheridan Troop to care for from Friday until Sunday morning, also the Zion and Pleasant Gap bands. On Saturday several hundred others came there for their meals and none were turned away hungry.

Will Meet at Bellefonte.

Bellefonte has been chosen as the place to hold the 3rd annual convention and parade of the Central Penna. Association, P. O. S. of A., comprising the counties of Centre, Clinton, Lycoming, Clearfield, Jefferson, Cameron and Blair, on the 3rd and 4th of July, 1892.
