

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, causing distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind. Headache. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or I did not eat anything. My trouble was aggravated by my business, painting. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied, and the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

BOODLER BARDSLEY.

His Scalings While Treasurer of Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—The experts appointed by Mayor Stuart to investigate the accounts of John Bardsley have made their final report, in which the disgraced ex-treasurer's dealings are fully shown. With few exceptions all the money for Bardsley's stock deals, made through Glendinning & Co., was secured by checks on the deposit of public money in the Keystone bank. The total of the stock bought through Glendinning & Co. amounted to $102,732.12; from William H. Kemble, $50,687.50, and that bought through the People's bank, $16,850.

The recapitulation of losses through Glendinning & Co. was $102,732.12; through William H. Kemble, $50,987.40, and through the People's bank, 16,850—a total of $170,569.63. Bardsley's total gains on these stock transactions were $36,116.63, and the net loss was $134,453. Gain on stock purchased by Mr. Bardsley, mainly with money borrowed by him from the Farmers and Mechanics National bank; West Side Chicago Railroad company—2,000 shares bought from Kemble, Widener & Elkins, $32,518.75.

The dividends and interest received by him during 1889, 1890 and 1891 on stock and bonds purchased by him with public money amounted to $28,370.00, and the interest paid by him to carry loans amounted to $19,064.01, leaving a profit of $9,306.99.

Loans were made by Bardsley with public money to Robert Glendinning & Co. amounting to $500,000, which were repaid him. He received from Glendinning & Co. as interest on loans $13,026.37. He loaned the Bradford Mills cash to the amount of $55,000.79, which does not appear to have been repaid.

There are other and smaller loans which were made by Mr. Bardsley from time to time to different persons. As to many of these loans there is at present no means by which we can satisfactorily determine which have been paid and which have not.

With relation to the question of loans to judges, Hon. Thomas C. Finletter, either borrowed from Mr. Bardsley personally the sum of $900, or obtained this sum through Mr. Bardsley's indorsement. The very small amount and the further fact that there was no evidence that a loan was made out of any public money, proves the transaction to be entirely free from any element of impropriety; nor indeed, does there appear in the matter anything which would reflect upon Judge Finletter in any way whatever.

The transactions with Hon. William N. Ashman related solely to his salary. These are the only judges with whom Mr. Bardsley appears to have had any transaction whatever.

Memorandum on page 43 shows that Bardsley received a rebate on advertising in 1889, $16,289.94, and the entry reads less amount paid to H. N. Grafflin, $14,289.04. One half to Thomas McCannan, $7,144.52; one half to J. B., $7,144.42.

In 1890 the mercantile advertising amounted to $42,865.20, and an item showing a deposit to Bardsley's account of $17,076.00, which is 40 per cent. of the sum credited as newspaper balance.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND SAY

A Chapter of Accidents, Crimes and Local Happenings Picked Up Here and There in the State and Flashing Over the Busy Wires.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 18.—Paul Punlisky, a laborer at Burnside colliery, was instantly killed by falling timbers. He was engaged in what is known as robbing pillars, when heavy collars fell from the roof.

GORDON, Pa., July 18.—A camp meeting of the Pottsville district of the Evangelical association is in progress here. It is in charge of Rev. D. A. Medlar, presiding elder. About 500 persons participated in the opening services.

PORTSMOUTH, Pa., July 18.—Traffic on the Schuylkill Canal has been almost paralyzed by a break fifty feet long and six feet deep in the six-mile level near Naomi. The water is entirely out of the canal, and a large force of men are at work repairing it.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 18.—A man from Philadelphia came here last evening, and made charges against five Jewish peddlers who are peddling through-out this county without a license. If he proves the charges in each case he will receive one-half of the fines—$425.

WASHINGTON, Pa., July 18.—S. J. Bigley, an oil well torpedo shooter, was killed here by an explosion of nitro-glycerine. Bigley was driving through one of the suburbs with 200 pounds of the dangerous fluid, when it exploded, blowing himself and the two horses and wagon to atoms.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 18.—Charles Hughbill, a Lehigh Valley car builder, was at work underneath a freight car at the Fullerton Car works, when a shifting engine backed up, and before the unfortunate man was able to get out his legs were both cut off and death resulted shortly after.

CORNWALL, Pa., July 18.—Coleman Hoots, a baggage master on the Reading and Columbia railroad, was struck by a water column at Penn Park. A deep gash was cut in his forehead, and he was found hanging across the chain in the door of his car in an unconscious condition. His injuries are serious.

CHESTER, Pa., July 18.—A sympathetic citizen of Chester has interested himself in the fate of Mary Hill, the pretty Irish girl now in jail, charged with attempting to drown her baby girl. Counsel has been retained for her, and an effort will be made to have her released on a writ of habeas corpus.

STEELTON, Pa., July 18.—A scale of wages, demanding an increase of 20 to 25 per cent. over the reduction of last fall, was presented by the Amalgamated association to the management of the Pennsylvania Steel work. A notice was subsequently posted by the management stating that neither the scale nor the organization that issued it would be recognized.

WOMELSDORF, Pa., July 18.—Edwin Eberly, the 13-year-old son of Harrison Eberly, of this borough, was drowned in the Tulpehocken creek. After having been in the water about an hour he attempted to swim across a deep hole in the creek, but his strength became exhausted and he sank beneath the surface. Several small companions who were with him were unable to save him.

BIENVILLE, Pa., July 18.—Mrs. John Canada, residing near this borough, was seriously burned while boiling blackberry jam. She was standing in front of an old fashioned hearth, in which there was a raging fire, when she was overcome and fell upon the hot coals, striking her head upon a large kettle. She sustained severe burns on the face, breast and arms, and her condition is critical. She was unconscious for some time after the accident.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—In his report upon the river and harbor improvement for Philadelphia, just issued, Major C. W. Raymond gives the following figures: The total amount appropriated for Delaware river improvements from 1888 to 1891 is $2,252,000. Balance unexpended, June 1, 1890, $69,058.22. Amount appropriated by last congress, $240,000. Amount expended during fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, $47,417.77. Balance July 1, 1891, $271,640.45. Estimated amount required for completion of existing project, $1,725,000.

BOWER'S STATION, Pa., July 18.—Some of the crops in the northern and north-eastern sections of Berks county are beginning to feel the effects of dry weather. In this portion of the East Penn valley there is very little clover coming up in the grain fields. Some farmers are plowing the fields for the purpose of re-sowing them with grain, and will depend upon the old grass fields for next year's crop. Many of the cornfields present an unfavorable appearance. An examination of the roots revealed the fact that the main root had been eaten off by a worm, which accounts for the slow growth of the stalk.

READING, Pa., July 18.—A number of officers charged upon the camp of the Salvation Army in West Reading, and arrested Captain William Duffin, the commander, and some of his followers. The warrant was issued upon the information of John D. Freeman, who alleged that Captain Duffin, William A. Thompson, William Paiff, Walter Heckman, William Reddy and Oscar Weile, all members of the Salvation Army, "are conducting a nuisance and disturbing the public peace." The captain, accompanied by Mr. Duffin and a number of his followers, went with the officers to the alderman's office and entered bail for a hearing.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—The case of Henry H. Yard, charged with contempt of court in not appearing before the city council's committee of investigation, was up again before common pleas court, but was not finally disposed of. The decision of the case hinged on whether or not the writ of certiorari taken out by Yard's attorney was a supersedeas and stayed further proceedings in the lower court. After hearing the argument Judge Allison announced that it was up to the power of the common pleas court to decide whether or not the writ of certiorari was intended as a supersedeas by the supreme court, by which it was issued, and in the meantime Yard would be held under $5,000 bail until the supreme court should decide if cert No. 1, common pleas court, under the circumstances, commit him for contempt.
