THIRTEEN KILLED.

Another Deadly Disaster on a Swiss Railroad.

Dashed Into by the Paris Express and One Car Completely Wrecked. In Addition to the Killed, Eighteen Received Severe Injuries-The Accident Due to Negligence.

Berne, Aug. 18.—The people of Switzerland have hardly recovered from the railroad scare caused by the terrible accident at Moenchenstein in June last, by which over 130 persons on an excursion train lost their lives and about 300 were injured, when they were startled by another wholesale loss of life by reason of a railroad accident.

This last disaster occurred on the Jura-Simplon railroad lines, near the village of Zollikofen, not far from this

A special train carrying a large num-ber of excursionists from the country districts to this city was on its way here, the passengers intending to take part in the centenary fetes which are now in progress here and elsewhere throughout Switzerland.

Due to Negligence.

This excursion train was stopped at Zellikofen in order to enable it to be shunted into a siding so as to let the Paris express pass. By some gross negligence, apparently, upon the part of the railroad officials, the Paris train, loaded with foreign travelers, was not warned to look out for the excursion train while passing Zollikofen, and the result was that the express dashed into the special train.

Luckily the engineer of the express had caught sight of the excursion train in time to put down the brakes, and so the damage done and the loss of life were not so great as it might have been. As it was, the engine of the express cut into and almost entirely demolished the guards' van at the rear of the excur-sion train, which was empty, and then crashed into the rearmost of the passenger cars, completely wrecking it.

Thirteen Killed, Eighteen Injured. Thirteen people were killed and eighteen persons seriously injured. In addition to these thirty others have suffered more or less severe wounds or

The bodies of the dead were carried to the waiting room of the railroad sta-tion at Zollikofen and were there laid in rows while awaiting identification. The interior of the station, as a result, presented a most sickening spectacle, for many of the dead were so terribly muti-lated as to be practically beyond recog-nition. The wounded were attended to by the relief corps sent to the scene from this city. Those of the wounded who were in a state to be removed have ; been taken to the hospitals in this city; others are being nursed near the spot where their injuries were of her mental faculties. Mrs. Polk had been in perfect health until last Wednesday evening, when on returning from a short drive she was taken s¤ddenly ill. From this attack she never rallied. Had she lived until Sept. 4 next she would have reached the age of 88. The cause of her death was simply exhaustion, resulting from old age.

A Burglar's Syndicate.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 18.-A well known MILWACKEK, Aug. 18.—A well known crook arrested here on suspicion gave to the police the details of a burglar's syndicate which has been in existence for nearly a year. With skillful management the members of this syndicate have traveled a regularly mapped out route, committing their depredations and escaping without trouble. Only once was a member captured, and he see once was a member captured, and he se-cured his release through the money of the syndicate.

Ate Poisoned Cakes. GRAFTON, W. Va., Aug. 18.—Mrs. George Mallonee, niece and five children are lying in a dying condition from eating poisoned cakes. The lady made the cakes, and while absent from the house a few moments it is believed some enemy attempted to poison the entire family by placing arsenic in the dough. The death of one or two of the children is expected. Suspicion points to cer-tain parties as the poisoner, and arrests may be made.

Charged With Stealing State Scrip. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 18.—A great sensation was created here by the arrest of J. L. Bay on a warrant sworn out by by State Treasurer Morrow, charging him with the larceny of $100,000 of state scrip. Bay was a clerk employed by the bondsmen of ex-State Treasurer Woodruff to examine the books of the defaulting state treasurer.

A Challenge to Dixon. New York, Aug. 18.—A special dispatch to the Police Gazette from Denver says the backer of Dan Daly, of that city, has issued a challenge in behalf of Daly for a fight with George Dixon, colored, of Boston, for $2500 a side and the featherweight championship of the

A PERILOUS WEDDING TRIP. Thrilling Experience of a Bride and

Groom at Denver. DENVER, Aug. 18.—The escape from instant death of Professor Samuel A. King, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hunt, who accompanied the aeronaut on his balloon voyage from AGAIN AN EXCURSION TRAIN, Manhattan Beach, is considered almost a miracle. It was nearly 6 o'clock when Sherman Hunt and Mrs. Mary John-ston, of Arvarda, who had determined to make their wedding trip by balloon, appeared in the enclosure near the tossing gas bags.

The words that made them man and wife were pronounced by Justice Talbot and the couple announced themselves ready for the voyage. Professor King stepped into the basket, followed by the newly wedded couple and a moment later the balloon shot upward. No ballest or anchor was talent in salest to the couple and last or anchor was taken, in order to give the ship greater buoyancy.

The people cheered and shouted as the air ship arose higher and higher.

Big black clouds covered the sky, and the lightning flashed and flickered. The bride waved her handkerchief and kissed her hand to the multitude below until her form became indistinct. Suddenly the larger of the two balloons attached to the basket appeared to grow small. It had, in fact, burst, and im-mediately afterward the basket began descending at a frightful rate.

A groan of horror went up from the crowd as the descent of the balloons became faster each minute. They soon disappeared from view and the people returned to their homes impressed with the belief that the voyagers had been dashed to pieces. The balloonists, however, were very much alive.

When the rapid descent began the professor told them they would get to the ground without being killed, but to do everything possible to ease the shock.

He knew it would be a tremendous one, and directed them to get astride the beautiful to get astride the beautiful them. and directed them to get astride the basket and cling to the ropes. This they did, and he did tikewise, dropping at a terrific rate of speed, faster than the balloonist ever traveled before.

Down the balloon dropped until it struck the ground with a tremendous crash near Fort Logan. Everything was dark, and the occupants of the basket, or rather the three astride of its sides, were scattered pell mell over the

The married couple on picking them-selves up found that they had escaped injury, not even a scratch being visible. Professor King, however, owing to his age and heavy weight, fell on his right shoulder, which is badly bruised, while his right arm is helples

An Aeronant's Plunge to Death. Rome, Aug. 18 .- An aeronant who made an ascent at Macerate met with a terrible death. The large crowd assembled to witness the ascent were watching the balloon sail away to the eastward, when they were horror stricken to see the aeronant fall from the car and planes are resided. plunge rapidly downward from a dizzy height. At the time of the accident the balloon was over the Adriatic. The un-fortunate aeronant fell into the sea and perished, while the balloon, relieved of his weight. his weight, soared away and was speed-ily lost to view.

CURIOUS RIVALRY France Also Claims the Coat Worn

by the Saviour. London, Aug. 18.—The rivalry between France and Germany is reaching curious lengths. This was illustrated in the exhibition of the Holy Coat of Argenteuil. No sooner did it become the Saviour than the French were alive to deprive the Germans, as far as possible, of the honor and profit. It appears that Argenteuil, within easy access by rail from Paris, also possesses a coat claimed to have belonged to Christ.

Arrangements were promptly made for the exhibition of the relic. Sunday was chosen as the opening day, several days ahead of the first public view at Treves. Great throngs of people went from Paris and other localities to see the holy vestment. The exhibition was in every way successful, and is said to have caused proportionate chagrin at Treves, which will lose a multitude of French Catholic visitors. The preparations for the public exhibitions at Treves are going on hyprically and will be are going on hurriedly, and will be completed within the appointed time.

Gloriana's Eighth Victory.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 18.—The big annual sweepstakes of the New York Corinthian Yacht club was sailed yesterday, and resulted in a splendid victory for the Rhode Island boat Gloriana. The Gloriana was started in eight races and won all of them, and Rhode Island records are evoltent. The Gloriania and won all of them, and knode Island people are exultant. The Gloriana's balloon jib topsail carried away soon after the start, and she lost some time while setting her smaller head sail, but she still led when they turned the second mark, and from there on steadily increased her lead, winning in impressive style. Gloriana wins first money ($595), Owene second ($170) and Beatrix third ($85), the total amount of the sweepstakes being $850.

An Unfounded Report. Washington, Aug. 18.—The state de-partment has received advices on good authority in regard to the recent riot-authority in regard to the recent rioting in China, but the reports are not of a serious nature at present, and no recurrence of the trouble is expected. In reference to the reported joint naval demonstration between the American and European fleets in Chinese waters against the Chinese government, acting Secretary Soley, of the navy department said: "No orders for a joint naval demonstration such as is described have been issued by the navy department, nor have I heard that any such demonstration is proposed. As far as I know, there is no foundation for the report."

Deluged by Cloudburst.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 18.—A special from Agency says: A cloudburst in the vicinity of the junction of the One Hundred and Two and the Platte rivers caused much loss of property. The river rose twenty feet in six hours and twelve or fifteen farms were ruined. Houses, barns and stock were swept away and crops ruined. Many narrow escapes are reported, but no lives are yet known to be lost.

When Captain Williams arrived in New York he saw a description of Marsh and subsequently a photograph, and was at once struck with the likeness to Howard, who, he says, also had his middle finger disfigured like Marsh, and the captain says all the other principal characteristics are similar. Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—Robert Alex-

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Robert Alexander, as John Bardsley's counsel, has had a tilt with City Treasurer Wright over the former's right to see some of the books in the city treasurer's office, to which the latter denied him access. It led yesterday to the filing of an application for a writ of mandamus in Common Pleas Court No. 1. Mr. Wright, as soon as served with the notice of the legal action taken, wrote Mr. Alexander a very polite letter, informing him that he would yield the point without having any trouble. The petition for the mandamus was in John Bardsley's name and was sworn to in prison by him on Aug. 11. It discloses that Bardsley will claim a large sum in commissions on the $53,65.24 of state moneys collected by Bardsley as city treasurer.
