VICTORY COMPLETE.

Chile's Capital Surrendered to the Congressionalists.

BALMACEDA IS NOW A FUGITIVE.

And Vicuna, Who Was Elected to Succed Him, Acknowledges Utter Defeat-Suppressing Disorder in Valparaiso-The Junta En Route for Santiago.

VALPARAISO, Aug. 31.-Santiago has been formally surrendered, the triumph of the Congressional party is complete and peace and quiet may be looked for in Chile before many days have passed. After the crushing defeat which Balmaceda's forces met with at the hands of General Canto's troops on the hills back of this city and the subsequent entry of the conquering army in Val-paraiso the fall of the capital was only a question of time.

The insurgent leaders intended to make it a question of only a very short time, too, for active preparations were being made to send a force of men sufficient to overcome all possible opposition at Santiago as soon as the railroad could be repaired and arrangements made for the transportation of the troops.

All this was made unnecessary, how-ever, for word was received from representatives of Balmaceda at the capital asking for a conference, with a view to surrender. The request was readily granted, and General Baquedano, who who was formerly commander-in-chief of the Chilian army, was designated to act for the Congressionalists. A meeting was held and the terms of the surrender were arranged. A few days more and the Junta will form a provisional government, which they insist must be recognized as the only legitimate government of Chile, and the work of reorgan izing and rehabilitating the country can proceed.

Unconditional Surrender.

When the insurgent fleet came into the bay the sailors were greeted almost as enthusiastically as were the soldiers when they entered the city. Senor Don Jorge Montt, chief of the Junta da Gobierno, came in with the fleet and took charge of affairs immediately on his ar-At a conference between Senor rival. Montt, Senor Martinez and the foreign admirals with Senor Viel, the late intendate. Senor Montt announced that the only terms he had to offer was the unconditional surrender of the city and of all officers and troops as prisoners of war. The terms were, perforce, ac-cepted, and Senor Walker-Martinez was continued as intendante.

The behavior of the insurgent troops since their entry into the city has been most exemplary. Perfect discipline has been maintained and officers and privates have endeavored to keep the unruly ele-ments here in order. This is next to impossible, however, as the town is crowded with disbanded soldiers and orderly characters of all kinds. Many of them have visited the battlefield and possessed themselves of rifles and ammunition. Fights and riots are of constant occurrence in the streets and several people have been killed by the rioters

Now that fuller details of the fighting Now that tuner details of the igniting are at hand it appears that the jealousy and bickering of Balmaceda's generals was largely responsible for the over-whelming defeat. They had no con-certed plan of action, and the battle was fought on their side with absolutely no regard for tactical advantages. Their men were brave enough, but they were,

Vicuna Gives It Up.

Senor Don Claudia Vicuna, who was elected president to succeed Balmaceda, and who is now a refugee aboard the German flagship, acknowledges that the defeat of the government is final and that any further resistance would simply a useless waste of force and destruction of life and property. This seems to be the general opinion among the adherents of the government here.

The History of the U.S. Government by Congresses. The History of the U.S. by Administrations. An Analysis of the Federal Government. Issues of all Political Parties. The History of all Political Parties in this Country. The Popular and Electoral Vote for each Candidate.

/RECOMMENDATIONS.

P From A. R. SPOPPORD, Librarian of Congress: "The novelty of the plan, exhibiting by graphic diagrams a complete synchronology of Ameri-can political history, is carried out with admir-able ingenuity, and the work may fairly be termed a Breviary of American Politics."

From Hox. S. S. Cox: "Only one work is com-parable with it-the 'Statistical Atlas' by the Government-and to say this is high eulogy."

From BERSON J. LOSSING, LL. D., Historian: Like a concave mirror it reflects to a single focus an epitome of the essential elements of our national history, showing clearly at a glance the progress of the nation, from its infancy to its present period of maturity.
