WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND SAY

A Chapter of Accidents, Crimes and Local Happenings Picked Up Here and There in the State and Flashed Over the Busy Wires.

CLEARFIELD. Pa., Sept. 12.—Hamil-ton, the Houtzdale bank wrecker, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5,000 and un-dergo an imprisonment of five years in the Western penitentiary.

CATASAUQUA, Pa., Sept. 10.-Edward Curran, yardmaster here, was run over by a Lehigh Valley train and cut in two. He was 25 years old and well known throughout the Lehigh Valley.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 11.-Cornelius Reagan, an iron worker was attacked with hiccoughs six weeks ago and had been hiccoughing constantly until yes-terday, when he died. The attack was caused by hernia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—After a ser-vice of twenty-six years with The Pub-lic Ledger Mr. William McKean has retired from the position of editor of that journal. He will retain his connection with the newspaper, however as a contributing writer.

READING, Pa., Sept. 10.—Dr. R. B. Schulze, for a number of years physi-cian at the Berks County almshouse, is to be appointed first assistant physician at the Harrisburg Insane asylum, and will enter upon the duties of the posi-tion on Oct. 1. He is a specialist in brain diseases, and was highly recom-mended for the place he is about to fill. PRIVETOWN Pa. Sort 10 Theorem PRICETOWN, Pa., Sept. 10.—Thomas Reinert, aged 14 years, disobeyed his father's orders in regard to tampering with his gun. Sneaking away from home with it, he induced a neighbor's son aged 11 to go graving with his son, aged 11, to go gunning with him. In crossing a stone fence Reinert's gun was discharged, and the entire load went into his left breast, killing him.

Frank Law-rence, the individual ledger clerks of the Keystone bank, were yesterday given a hearing before United States Commissioner Bell and held in $7,500 ball on the answer at the November bail each to answer at the November term of court, on the charges of making false returns to deceive Bank Examiner Drew, between October 9 and 14, 1889.

Drew, between October 9 and 14, 1889. HARRISBURG, Sept. 9.—The contest for the judgeship in Berks county. made vacant by the death of Judge Schwartz, is waxing warm. Yesterday afternoon two delegates appeared before Governor Pattison, one to urge the claims of H. Willis Bland, the tempo-rary chairman of the late Democratic state convention, and the other to press John H. Rothermel. These are but two of the dozen candidates, but the choice is said to be between them. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Oliver C.

Magistrate Milligan's office yesterday to answer the charge of a misappropria-tion of the bank's funds to the extent of $2,561.92. Wilson remained in the magistrate's office for several hours waiting for bail. The expected bondsmen did not turn up, however, and in default of $4,000, the sum required, he was committed to Moyamensing prison. READING, Pa., Sept. 9.-Dr. Aaron Smith. proprietor of a sanitarium in West Reading, died yesterday from the effects of injuries sustained in being thrown from his carriage through his horse shying at a bicycle rider. He was the pioneer in establishing the hygienic establishments on the South mountain, near Wernersville. Deceased repre-sented Berks county for three terms in the legislature. He was born in Colum-bia county, and was 65 years of age. PITTSBURG, Sept. 12.—James H. Barr, a painter, aged about 80 years, while en-gaged in painting his father's house in Wilkinsburg, fell from the ladder a distance of seventeen feet and was impaled on the top of an iron pump. A sharp iron entered his back and penetrated the heart, causing instant death. His body immediately became rigid, and, with one outstretched, formed a ghas aman cross, supported in the air b. air by the iron capped pump. #### HO, FOR THE EXPOSITION: The big Pittsborg Exposition opened in a blaze of glory on September 2d, and all indications point to a successful show. Mest of our country cousins will visit it before the close. City folks will thus have an opportunity to show their hospitality in return for favors received. We learn with regret that Major Max Klein, owing to a press of business, was unable to ar-range a display this season, as in former years. Visitors to the city should by all means take a peep at his model establishment, No. 82 Federal street, Allegheny, which is within a stone's throw of the FL Wayne and Weest Penn depots. They can then return home with the satisfac-tion of having seen the largest and best equipp-ed wholesale liquor house in this section of the state—the headquarters of those world famed brands of absolutely pure whiskles, "Silver Age" and "Dugesne." The former sells at 9.59 and the latter at $1.25 per full quart. Major Klein, R may be added, also keeps in stock Bear Creek, Gockenheimer, Finch, Gibson and Overhalt, and the finest old whiskles, brandles; wines, cordials, etc. Call and see him country cousins will visit it before the close
