

A FRENCH LEADER.

Jules Grevy, Ex-President of the Republic, Passes Away.

ALWAYS AN ARDENT REPUBLICAN

His Opposition to Louis Napoleon's Reign Led to His Imprisonment, but He Was True to His Convictions—Finally Overwhelmed by the Rascality of a Son-in-Law.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—M. Francois Jules P. Grevy, ex-president of the French republic, died yesterday. M. Grevy had for four days been suffering from a severe attack of congestion of the lungs, which was the immediate cause of his death.

M. Grevy was born at Montsours-Vaudry in the Jura mountains, in 1813. He went to Paris when only 15 years of age, and was studying law there when the revolution of 1830 broke out. He joined the insurgents and fought with them until Charles IX abdicated.

He then returned to the study of law, and was graduated with honor and admitted to the bar. He made himself particularly conspicuous by his chivalrous defense of those who were accused of holding liberal opinions during the regime of Louis Philippe.

Opposed to a President. In 1848 he again came to the front and won respect by his moderate though strong liberal opinions. He was elected to the house of deputies and was chosen as vice president of that body. The chief event during this period in which M. Grevy was a very important factor was the question, or rather the parliamentary debate arising out of the question, relative to the presidency of the republic. The authorities who were then in the cabinet, thinking it well that one man should be appointed for the space of four years to the presidential chair, and having brought forward a proposition to that effect before the house, M. Grevy introduced his celebrated amendment, known in history as the Grevy one, wherein it was provided that the presidency of the republic be abolished, and that the supreme power be vested in the hands of the prime minister elected for an indefinite period, and always liable to be removed from office by a vote of the assembly. His amendment was supported by Carnot, Etienne Arago, Ledru Rollins and others, but was defeated.

Imprisoned by Napoleon. Napoleon was elected president. Jules Grevy's words were true. The president became emperor, but Grevy remained a Republican. The former, remembering the famous amendment, thought it dangerous to allow its author at large. Accordingly orders were given to arrest M. Grevy. He was arrested and imprisoned in Mazas, where he was detained for several months, on the expiration of which he was released. He returned to Paris, but retired to private life, where he remained until 1868, when he was induced to stand once more as a candidate for the department of jura in the corps legislatif. Once more was he triumphantly elected. He was re-elected in 1869, and opposed the plebiscite started on the part of the emperor. He sat with the Republican members, and upheld the same flag as ever.

As President of France. He was an opposition member of the corps legislatif when the Franco-German war broke out and opposed with all his strength that disastrous movement. Elected to the national assembly, he was chosen president of that body and held that difficult and stormy position in a manner that won the applause of his enemies. He was re-elected four times, and finally was elected third president of the French republic in 1873. This position he maintained with so much credit to the nation and himself that on the expiration of his term of office in 1885 he was re-elected.

M. Grevy had not taken any part in public life since his resignation of the presidency in 1887 on account of the scandals arising from the trial of his son-in-law, M. Wilson, for selling decorations.

The Taormina Disaster. ATHENS, Sept. 14.—The corrected estimate of the number of persons drowned, as a result of the collision off Cape Colonna between the Italian steamship Taormina and the Greek steamship Thessalia, shows that fifty people lost their lives by the sinking of the Taormina. Of this number ten were saloon passengers. The Taormina had forty-six passengers, among whom was an American named John C. Oliphant. Her crew numbered forty-nine persons. Of the whole number on board the steamer only the second officer and thirty others were saved. According to these figures sixty-six persons were lost.

A Four Years Sleep. SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 14.—Michael Ferman, living beyond Factoryville, Wyoming county, near the Nicholson tunnel, has just returned out of four years of somnolence, broken only by semi-waking periods produced by pangs of hunger. Ferman was for many years night watchman at the tunnel, and he worked a small farm on which he resides during the day.

Philadelphia Appraisers Arrested. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of the five mercantile appraisers, on complaint of City Treasurer Wright. The appraisers, hearing of the issuance of the warrants, appeared before Magistrate Pole and gave bail in $5,000 each for a hearing on Monday next.

They Filled a Lighted Lamp. MONONGAHELA, Pa., Sept. 11.—While the two daughters of John Etelle were filling a lighted lamp the oil exploded, burning the youngest girl to death and her sister so seriously that she will probably not recover. The mother of the girl was terribly burned in trying to extinguish the flames.

His Body Scattered on the Track. ASHLAND, Pa., Sept. 11.—William Malla, a lad aged 15 years, was struck by a train near Big Mine Run while walking on the Reading railroad track. His remains were found scattered along the rails for a distance of fifty yards. It is said that at least three trains passed over him.

The McAuliffe-Gibbons Fight. HOBOKEN, N. J., Sept. 12.—The fight between young Austin Gibbons, of Paterson, N. J., and Jack McAuliffe, of Brooklyn, for the lightweight championship of America, was stopped at the end of the sixth round by Police Captain Hayes. The referee declared that McAuliffe had won. The decision has caused much dissatisfaction.

In Darkest Emans. ALLESTOWN, Pa., Sept. 10.—The electric light plant at Emans was destroyed by fire, and the place will be in total darkness for several weeks. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is covered by insurance.

KEYSTONE FAIR COMMITTEE.

B. F. Whitman, of Erie, Chosen as Executive Commissioner.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 11.—The September meeting of the Pennsylvania World's fair commission was held in the senate chamber. There was a very full attendance. Robert E. Wright, secretary of the board, received many hearty congratulations in consequence of the recent honor conferred upon him by the Democratic nomination for auditor general.

After a number of communications had been read the selection of an executive commissioner came up. Mr. Thomas Bradley, in a brief speech, presented the name of Benjamin F. Whitman, of Erie, and his election was made unanimous. Mr. Whitman made an eloquent speech, accepting the office and pledging his best efforts in the performance of the duties thus imposed upon him.

After considerable lively discussion it was decided that the Pennsylvania building at the fair should be composed of brick, stone, wood, iron and glass, and should be made, as far as practicable, of Pennsylvania material.

William B. Gill, of Philadelphia, was chosen to fill the vacancy in the board caused by the election of Mr. Whitman as executive commissioner.

Governor Pattison appointed Adjutant General McClelland and General Snowden, major general commanding the National Guard, as a committee to meet next week in Chicago representatives from the other states, and arrange an appropriate programme for the opening of the World's fair.

BARDSLEY TO HAVE COMPANY.

Arrest of a Number of Prominent State Officials in Contemplation.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The scandals which since John Bardsley's defalcations came to light, have involved financial officers of the state and other state and city officers promise to culminate this week in novel and sensational proceedings before the courts in this city.

District Attorney Graham contemplates the arrest of Auditor General McCamant and the issuing of a warrant for the arrest of State Treasurer Livsey, who but a few days ago resigned the cashiership of the state treasury and went away to Wisconsin. The members of the firm of Glendinning & Co., to whom Bardsley loaned large amounts of money, and through whom his stock speculations, amounting to millions, were carried on, are also to be arrested or subpoenaed. Other state officials may also be included in the arrests. The proceedings will be held before Judges Gordon and Fell, who will sit as committing magistrates to hear the evidence and determine whether the accused shall be held to bail.

John Bardsley will be brought out of his prison upon a writ of habeas corpus to appear as a witness, and his testimony is expected to be of a somewhat startling character.

Literally Roasted to a Crisp. NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept. 11.—A shocking accident occurred in Gwynedd township, about a mile and a half from North Wales, the victim of the flames being Mrs. Frank Bean, aged 45. Mrs. Bean was engaged in boiling apple butter over a fire in the yard, when her clothing ignited. She ran screaming to the house, shouting for help. The woman's body was horribly burned, the skin being literally roasted to a crisp. Her anguish was painful to witness, and all that could be done to alleviate her sufferings was done, but she continued in agony until relieved by death, about an hour after the accident occurred.

Bribes Offered for Positions in Mines. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 14.—It has lately been ascertained that some inside foremen and mine bosses near here have accepted bribes from foreign applicants for work, and laid off native miners to make room for them, unknown to their superiors. Foreigners make a regular practice of securing employment in the mines by paying from $5 to $25 cash to the inside foremen for the privilege of working. At the Nottingham mine, John Berkeiser, inside foreman, was summarily dismissed for accepting such bribes, and at the Washington mine, near Plymouth, Thomas Young was similarly treated for like offenses.

Livsey Is Angry. HARRISBURG, Sept. 12.—Treasurer Boyer will be in the city the first of next week. It is now expected that both he and Cashier Livsey will be on hand on the 18th and 19th, when the legislative investigating committee will meet here. Cashier Livsey's friends state that he is very indignant at the baseless rumors started in Philadelphia concerning his absence from this state. He feels that it was an uncalculated insult to take the opportunity of his attendance on a daughter supposed to be dying to cast suspicion on a character that had never before been assailed.

A Four Years Sleep. SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 14.—Michael Ferman, living beyond Factoryville, Wyoming county, near the Nicholson tunnel, has just returned out of four years of somnolence, broken only by semi-waking periods produced by pangs of hunger. Ferman was for many years night watchman at the tunnel, and he worked a small farm on which he resides during the day.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Knights of Pythias Delegates in a Wreck in Colorado.

TWENTY-SIX PEOPLE ARE INJURED

An Employee of the Railroad Company Meets with a Fatal Accident While Boarding a Wrecking Train Which Was Ordered to the Scene of the Disaster—Other Fatalities.

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Passenger train No. 314, bound toward Denver on the Graymont district of the Union Pacific railway was wrecked yesterday morning about 11 o'clock near Beaver Brook station and twenty-six passengers were injured, five of whom will probably die.

The train was late and running very rapidly when rounding a sharp curve, the express car left the track and rolled down a fifteen foot embankment. It was followed by the mail and two passenger coaches, one of which turned over twice before reaching the bottom. The train was loaded with passengers, many of whom were Knights of Pythias delegates, who were returning from the Knights of Pythias state convention which was held at Aspen last week.

When the news reached Golden, Colo., a wrecking train was ordered out, and was starting when Robert Pruin, an employe of the road, attempted to board the engine. In doing so his revolver fell from his pocket, the hammer striking a stone, and the weapon was discharged, the ball taking effect in the man's neck, making a wound which will result fatally.

It is not known exactly what caused the wreck, but as the train was a narrow gauge and the coaches very top heavy it is thought the train was running too rapidly for safety.

Death Came in an Odd Way. JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 14.—One of the most peculiar accidents in the record of railroad fatalities occurred on the new Jersey Central railroad near Jersey City, N. J., when in the forward end of one of the last cars, and stood with four or five others. When the depot had been left about a mile behind the train was going at full speed around a long curve. Another curved track used exclusively for freight, comes close to the passenger track at this point. As the passenger train flew by the point where the tracks are closest together it passed a freight train going in the opposite direction.

At the same instant a huge plank from the freight train tore its way through the end of the car. It made a large hole through the outside window, smashed the toilet room and struck Mr. Boag on the side of the head, killing him instantly in the presence of the frightened passengers. The plank which killed Mr. Boag was a big piece of pine or hemlock, which had been detached by the door of one of the freight cars, which was swinging open.

Laborers Run Down by a Train. GLASGOW, Sept. 11.—A terrible accident, due to somebody's carelessness, occurred here yesterday. A number of railroad laborers were engaged in repairing a railroad track along which a number of trains were constantly passing. As usual in all such cases the drivers of all passing engines had been warned to keep a lookout for the laborers at work at the point referred to, and to whistle when heading it. This warning seems not to have been given to the driver of an express train, or else he forgot his instructions. In any case the express train dashed into the midst of the working trackmen, killed five men upon the spot and seriously injured a number of others. The usual official investigation is in progress.

Mangled by a Locomotive. NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 14.—George C. White, of Portsmouth, was instantly killed by a freight train on the Atlantic and Danvers railroad. His right leg was cut off and the body so horribly mangled that the remains were carried to his home in a cloth.

Died with Her Child in Her Arms. ASHLAND, Wis., Sept. 11.—Mrs. Zoilkowski, of this place, was sewing on a machine by the light of a lamp when her 3-year-old child, in attempting to crawl up where she was working, upset the lamp, which exploded. The flames instantly spread over the room. The mother caught up her child and started upstairs. The flames caught her dress. Several men attempted to catch her, but she rushed into the street and fell in the gutter with her child in her arms, where she soon died of her injuries. The house was set on fire, but was saved. Mr. Zoilkowski, Mr. Lashalik and Joe Jingle were badly burned.

Ex-Congressman Clark Dead. WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Ex-Congressman Clark, of Wisconsin, is dead. The body will be taken to Neshanic his family, who were present when he died. Charles B. Clark was born in Theresa, Jefferson county, Aug. 24, 1844, and received a common school education. He settled in Neshanic, Wis., in 1855, served during the war as a private and was a member of the Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses.

A Venerable Historian Dead. BOSTON, Sept. 11.—Dr. David Humphreys Storer, the oldest historian in this country, died yesterday, aged 87 years. He was at one time president of the American Medical society, member of the Academy of Arts and Sciences, and held many other important positions. Dr. Storer was a long time friend of Professor Agassiz.

Father and Daughter Killed. WARREN, O., Sept. 12.—Jacob H. Shaffer, a wealthy farmer of Champion township, accompanied by his daughters Ella and Emma, was run down by a Pennsylvania express train while driving to the fair. All three were instantly killed.

All But Two Perished. HONG KONG, Sept. 14.—An American vessel, name unknown as yet, was wrecked in Kan No Wa bay. Besides the captain and crew of seventeen men, there was aboard the vessel the captain's wife. All but two perished.

Four Dead in the Schooner's Cabin. HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 14.—News has been received that the Yarmouth fishing schooner Georgiana has been righted in Three Fathom harbor and the dead bodies of four men found in her cabin.
