MR. MONTT LEAVES WASHINGTON.

Valparaiso's Intendente Requests That a Copy of the Evidence Taken by Captain Schley Be Furnished the Court of Inquiry-Severe on Minister Egan.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 2 .- Senor Arlegui, the intendente of this city, gives Captain Schley, of the Baltimore, his positive assurances that the officers and sailors of that United States war ship will be afforded all possible protection in case they should come ashore. At the same time, in view of the present state of af-fairs, he will not offer advice in regard to the advisability of permitting any of the Baltimore's crew to land. While Arlegui will not commit himself by an expression of opinion on the subject it seems clear that he deems it best that no such attempt should be made for the present

The intendente asked American Con-sul McCreery to request Captain Schley to furnish Judge Foster, who is conducting a secret inquiry into the outrage, with a copy of any testimony ob-tained by him, so that it may be used by the court. The opinion prevails that the authorities desire to proceed in good faith

Watched by the Police.

That the police on duty near the American legation are under instructions to make arrests of persons leaving that place in certain contingencies is manifest from the fact that two women, who had been calling at Minister Egan's, were placed under arrest as they came out into the street. They were questioned by the policemen in charge, who appears to have satisfied himself that this was not a case where his instruction justified him in holding them prisoners, so they were restored to liberty and allowed to proceed. A carriage was driving past the legation when the police made an at-tempt to stop it, on what pretext is not known. The driver, however, whipped up his horses and drove away before the lice could capture him or see who was in the carriage

The members of the junta continue to express the strongest feeling against the United States. A prominent member of the new government, who holds a posi-tion in the cabinet, in an interview in regard to the dispute between the two countries spoke in a most unfriendly manner concerning America and Americans. He was particularly severe on United States Minister Egan, whom he bluntly accused of trying to provoke a war between the United States and Chile in order to secure glory for himself.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 2.—The Con-nellsville, New Haven and Leisening Street railway started its cars on Satur-day for the first time. All went well until in the afternoon, when a car carrying sixteen passengers came down a steep grade toward a crossing of the P., McK. and Y. railroad and ran into a passing freight. The car was crushed like an egg shell. Daniel McMurray, his son, aged 6 or 7, a colored woman and a Hun-garian child were fatally injured.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29 .- Another true bill, containing thirty-two separate counts, was found against Banker Bill, of Clearfield, Pa., by the United States grand jury. With the indictment made Tuesday there is now a total of thirty-six separate and specific criminal charges against Mr. Dill. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31 .-- Mrs. Margaret Yeomanson, who was recently sen-tenced to three months' imprisonment for selling liquor without a license, has become insane. Hence she began the sale of liquor. The sentence imposed was the lightest possible. Judge Biddle approved papers for her transfer to the Norristown asylum.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

Pennsylvania's Senate Responds to the Governor's Cail. HARRISBURG, Oct. 27 .- In the senate vesterday afternoon the remainder of HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 28 .- The proceedings in the senate yesterday degenerated into innumerable political discussions, and nothing of a practical nature was done. The Republicans charged the Democrats and the attorney general with a purpose to make political capital out of the inquiry. The order of business having been changed by authorizing counsel to proceed with the arguments in the Boyer case, the attorney general asked that he be permitted to re-exam-ine that gentleman. The request was denied.

In answer to a question by Senator Robinson as to his knowledge of the state's balances in the Keystone bank Mr. Boyer answered: "No, most em-phatically. I never knew that John Bardsley had a dollar of state funds in the Keystone bank until I read it in the newspapers. The Senate reassembled at 3 p. m., but the session was devoted exclusively to eulogies on the late Senator Mehard. HARRISBURG, Oct. 29.-At yesterday's opening session of the senate, after a lengthy debate, it was decided that argument shall proceed in the following order: First, by counsel of the respond-ent; second, by the attorney general; third, the question of justification of the senate may be discussed by counsel and the senate. Attorney General Hensel said that he would make but one speech, and would address himself to the question of facts only. Unless he had the privilege of closing, he would have to decline to further assist the senate. Without settling the question, Lieutena Governor Watres directed counsel f respondent to proceed with argument. Rufus F. Shapley, began the argument for his client, the state treasure He commenced by declaring that the governor had no doubt done his duty is calling the extra session of the senate he understood the constitution, but the proceedings, in Mr. Shapley's opinion, was not only unjust to his client, but a violation of the constitution. The action of the governor in calling the senate to-gether was criticised because it was taken during a political campaign. He declared that there was not a particle of evidence to show that there was any intentional wrong doing on the part of the state treasurer. The proceedings, he asserted, should have been in the form of an impeachment if the facts justified such action. In any other state, he said, the action of the governor would have subjected him to impeachment. Mr. Shapley's argument was continued at the afternoon session, and at its conclusion the senate adjourned. HARRISBURG, Oct. 30. - Yesterday's sessions of the senate were taken up en-tirely with the argument of Judge Orvis denying the constitutionality of the proceeding and the jurisdiction of the ate. The judge began by saying that his argument would necessarily be brief, because his friend, Mr. Shapley, had so nearly exhausted and covered everything in the shape of authority and analogy that it would be difficult without in some respect repeating to continue the argument on that line. This argument, he said, would be equally applicable to the case of each of the accused officials, Messrs. Boyer and McCamant. The question raised by the answer of those officials to the charges of the gov-ernor, which has been filed here in the senate, is of the jurisdiction of this body to inquire into the charges. "To my mind," said the judge, "it is the most remarkable case that has ever come before a body in America since the supreme court of the United States, in ex parte

Officers Schley and Brown Sustained

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 .- There has been a disposition on the part of some folks to criticise the course pursued by Captain Schley in connection with the killing and wounding of his seamen at Valpa-raiso. One of the most important officials of the navy department said yes-terday that he could not see how Captain Schley could have acted any differently in the matter. The men were impris-oned but a day, and after their release there was nothing to do until the government at Washington had demanded reparation and it had been refused.

Secretary Tracy last evening made public the instructions sent last spring to Admiral Brown, commanding the Pacific squadron, at the beginning of the Chil-ean disturbance. "These instructions," Secretary Tracy says, "have been rigor-ously adhered to throughout. In no instance have they been departed from. This proves conclusively that charges of partiality made by the English news papers are untruths, and that they have been invented in order to prejudice the Chileans against the United States for commercial purposes.

Pedro Montt Leaves Washington.

Senor Pedro Montt, the Chilean minister, left Washington last night for New Orleans to be gone until next week. He declined to say anything respecting his visit to the state and navy departments, but expressed the belief that matters were progressing satisfactorily, and again deprecated the publication of sen-sational and trouble breeding stories.

VALFARAISO, Nov. 3.—The presidency has been offered to Jorge Montt. Con-gress will reopen Nov. 26. All political prisoners have been released. The excitement is fast dying out, and it is be-Heved that the government is now will-ing to settle all claims made by forigners who have been injured.

ALLEGHENY CITY, Pa., Nov. 2 .- The councilmanic auditing committee an-nounced at its meeting that its auditors or sub-committee had progressed far enough in their investigations to charge Mayor James G. Wyman and Chief of the Department of Public Safety John R. Murphy with crookedness and malfeasance in office. There are many counts in the indictment prepared by the committee, among which are levying blackmail upon the proprietors of sev-eral gambling establishments; extorting money from prisoners; falsifying the public records; compromising court cases contrary to law, and many more equally severe offenses.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 2 .- The Blair county almshouse, which is situ-ated about a mile from this city, was ated about a mile from this city, was consumed by fire last Saturday after-noon. The conflagration originated in a flue, and the structure, by reason of the prevailing high winds and its distance from a settled community, was a mass of flames before the fire department ar-riged. These wave sixty three partments rived. There were sixty-three paupers in the house, and several weak minded inmates were in a state bordering on frenzy, caused by the excitement. One demented man escaped to the mountains and an idiotic woman rushed back into the flames and perished. Many while rushing from the building were bruised and burned. The estimated loss is $40,000; insurance, $16,000. The county poor records form a portion of the loss and the county auditors will be unable to pass upon the almshouse receipts and expenditures for this year.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 2 .- The hearing in Senator Quay's criminal libel suit, against Albert J. Barr, president, and James Mills, editor, of the Pittsburg Post for the publication of the Bardsley certificate of deposit and editorial com-ments thereon, was held before Alder-man McMasters Saturday afternoon. There was a goodly number of pointed and interesting questions bearing upon the publication, which brought about the suit, but few were answered. In each case the attorneys for Senator Quay objected to what were termed ir-relevant questions. After being sworn relevant questions. After being sworn Senator Quay pronounced the statements false in every particular. On cross ex-amination he denied having received $8,876 from John Bardsley. The alder-man then rendered his decision, holding the defendants for trial at the December term of court in $1,000 bail each. Bonds-men were secured and the hearing ad-journed. W. H. Porter was arrested charged with criminal libel in publish-ing a malicious and defamatory article reflecting on Mr. Quay. Porter gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for appearing, with ex-Sheriff Henry E. Cook and L. W. Reed as bondsmen. Senator Quay, after consultation with Milligan, decided that a citizen could not be lawfully tried for alleged crimes before a military commission.

The question that arises is, can a citizen of this commonwealth, who has been duly elected to an office by the people and has entered upon the duties of that office, be removed from that office as a punishment for misdemeanor without first being impeached?

The very statement of the case would suggest a very positive negative. It is contrary to every principle of right and justice that a man can be punished for an alleged crime before he has been tried and convicted. The charges in the governor's message are charges in every instance of misdemeanor, every one of which constitutes an impeachable or indictable offense, liable to impeachment by the legislature or indictment in the courts of Dauphin county. HARRISBURG, Oct. 31.—Before the senate yesterday Mayer Sulzberger, of Phil-adelphia, of counsel for the accused Philadelphia magistrates, made an agu-ment on the jurisdiction of the senate in the cases of his clients.

In his argument he coupled his clients with the auditor general and the state with the anditor general and the state treasurer. He began by saying that the institutions and constitution of this commonwealth are on trial. He denied the right of the governor to interpret the constitution. The governor is the chief executive, and his duty is to see that the laws are faithfully executed. The legislature, elected by the people. The legislature, elected by the people makes the laws.

Passing upon the criminality of ac-cused state officials is not executive business. If the state treasurer has ab-stracted money from the treasury, if the auditor general has been criminal in his administration of his office, the courts of Dauphin county are ample to deal with them.

deal with them. If the magistrates of Philadelphia are guilty of the vulgar crime of bribery, the interests of the people can be taken care of by their prosecution in the courts of Philadelphia. The only executive business the senate can transact is the business the senate can transact is the passing upon nominations made by the governor.

At the conclusion of Mr. Sulzberger argument the senate adjourned until 8 p. m. Wednesday.

The accused gave bail in $2,000 each.
