

DEATH OF MR. PLUMB

The Distinguished Kansas Senator Suddenly Expires.

DEATH DUE TO APOPLEXY.

The Eminent Statesman Passes Away in His Unpretentious Quarters in the National Capital—The Body Will Be Forwarded to Emporia, Accompanied by a Congressional Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Senator Preston B. Plumb, of Kansas, died suddenly of apoplexy shortly before noon yesterday. His death occurred in the unpretentious brick boarding house, 610 Fourteenth street, in this city, within a stone's throw of the Ebbitt House, Riggs House, and Willards hotel, in which convenient location he has for the last five or six seasons taken up his quarters during the sessions. In a very short space of time the news spread over the city, and the expressions of regret were universal, and not confined to any political party.

Mr. Plumb had been ailing more or less ever since the close of his herculean labors in the last campaign in his state, which resulted so satisfactorily to himself and party. He was at all times an indefatigable worker, but in this campaign he outdid himself.

There were round his bedside at the time of his death, besides his physician, Surgeon General Wales, Mr. B. F. Fleniken, who for many years has been clerk of the committee on public lands of which Senator Plumb was chairman and has acted as his private secretary, his landlord and other attendants.

Senator Plumb had served fourteen years in the senate, and two years ago was re-elected for a term which would have expired in 1895. He was one of the best known men in congress. Born in Ohio, like so many other distinguished men, in 1837, he was 54 years of age. Before he became a lawyer and a banker, he worked at a practical printer. He moved to Kansas in 1856, and participated in much of the early exciting history of that state. Unlike senators of long service, he did not undergo a previous apprenticeship in the lower house of congress, but came straight to the senate in 1877. He had previously, however, served in many important positions in the Kansas legislature, closing his local career there as speaker. During the war he fought his way up from a second lieutenant to the lieutenant colonelship of the Eleventh Kansas infantry.

The senator leaves two unmarried daughters, who are now living with their widowed mother at his late home in Emporia, Kas., a son, 22 years of age, now under treatment for his eyesight in Philadelphia, and a boy of twelve, and a girl of fourteen at school in Pennsylvania.

The body of the late senator was taken from his apartments under escort of the capital police to the marble room of the senate at 10 o'clock this morning. At 1:15 the body was removed to the senate chamber, where the funeral services were conducted fifteen minutes later by Rev. J. G. Butler, chaplain of the senate. At 2:30 the body was taken to Baltimore and Potomac Railroad depot, accompanied by the congressional committee, the president, the cabinet, the chief justice and justices of the supreme court, members of the house, members of the diplomatic corps, and the friends of the late senator, invited to the senate gallery. The body, accompanied by the congressional committee, will be taken to Emporia, Kas. The car in which the remains will be conveyed will be attached to the Columbian express which leaves Washington at 3:30, and will reach Emporia on the evening of the 23d, where the interment will take place at 2 o'clock on the 24th.

The congressional committee selected to accompany the remains of Senator Plumb to Kansas are as follows: Senators Pfeiffer, Paddock, Pasco, Dolph and Ransom.

Other Notable Deaths.

Colonel Theodore McGowan, in Chambersburg, Pa.

Joseph A. Thomson, postmaster at Media, Pa., suddenly of grip.

A. P. K. Safford, ex-governor of Arizona, at Tarpon Springs, Fla., aged 54.

At Baltimore General John R. Kenly, of pneumonia. He was major general of volunteers, and the highest commissioned volunteer officer of the state of Maryland under the war. He was born in 1822.

Miss Louise Bayard Married.

WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 22.—Miss Louise Lee Bayard and Dr. Frank Angell, of New York, were married at Delaware place, the residence of ex-Secretary of State Thomas F. Bayard yesterday afternoon. The wedding was very quiet, but few persons being present. Rev. Jesse Higgins, assistant rector of St. Luke's church, Baltimore, performed the ceremony. Miss Bayard is the ex-secretary's fourth daughter. Dr. Angell is a professor at Cornell university. Dr. and Mrs. Angell will make their home in Ithaca, N. Y.

Will Settle Out of Court.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 22.—Negotiations are pending at Butte, Mont., for the settlement of the celebrated Davis will case. A proposition comes from the contestants represented by Henry A. Root. It is positively certain that the case will not come to trial again. The absence of Administrator John V. Davis from this city caused delay. It is said that in three weeks all the details will be perfected. The estate involves about $5,000,000.

REBELS—COURT—DISGRUNTLED.

He Refuses to Accept Second Place on Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Speaker Crisp sent a note to Mr. Mills, saying he was engaged in making up his list of committees and requesting to know whether it would be agreeable to Mr. Mills to accept the second place on the ways and means and a chairmanship of one of the other important committees. The letter was courteous in form and closed with a request for an immediate reply.

Mr. Mills replied declining the proffered place on the ways and means. He referred to the fact that he had been on the committee for ten years, and two years was its chairman, and that if not qualified to sit as chairman he ought to be disqualified to occupy any place on the committee. As to the other places offered Mr. Mills indicated that he was indifferent.

It is said Speaker Crisp has decided to appoint Mr. Springer to the chairmanship of the ways and means. Chairman of appropriations, and Bland of Missouri, chairman of coinage, weights and measures.

Congressional Proceedings.

A number of bills introduced and referred in the senate Tuesday last week were: By Mr. Morrill, for a bronze statue of Christopher Columbus, in Washington, and the removal of the naval monument to a new site; by Mr. Hisecock, to authorize the erection of bridges over the Hudson and East rivers New York; by Mr. Sherman, to promote and encourage the display of the flags of the United States; by Mr. Proctor, to reorganize the infantry of the army and increase its efficiency; by Mr. Quay, for public buildings at Allentown and Bradford, Pa.; an appropriation of $100,000 is asked for the former and $50,000 for the latter.

On Wednesday the president sent the following nominations to the senate for confirmation: To be United States circuit judges William L. Putnam, of Maine, for the First judicial circuit; Nathaniel Shipman, of Connecticut, for the Second; George M. Dallas, of Pennsylvania, Third; Nathaniel Goff, of West Virginia, Fourth; William H. Taft, of Ohio, Sixth; William A. Woods, of Indiana, Seventh; Warren Tritt, of Oregon, United States district judge for the district of Alaska. Among the bills introduced were: By Mr. Davis, for a ship canal around Niagara Falls; by Mr. McPherson, to equalize the grades of officers and to increase the efficiency of the marine corps; by Mr. Adolph, to license and regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors in the district of Alaska; by Mr. Proctor, several bills in relation to army matters.

In the house Wednesday the speaker announced the appointment of the committee on rules as follows: The speaker (chairman), Messrs. McMillin, Catehings, Reed and Burrows. Mr. Bartine, of Nevada, who had been absent on account of sickness, appeared and took the oath of office. Mr. Taylor, of Tennessee, eulogized the late Leonidas C. Hoak, after which, as a mark of respect, the house adjourned until Saturday.

The proceedings in the senate on Thursday were made interesting from the start by the presentation of Senator Hill's credentials. All the Republican chairmanships were anticipated. Democrats were assigned to the chairmanships of private land claims and revolutionary claims among the standing committees and to the control of select committees on the Potomac front, Nicaragua claims, woman suffrage, additional accommodations for the poor, civilized Indians and transportation of meat products. On the last named committee Mr. Vest, who conducted the investigation during the last congress, was his chairman. The other Democratic beneficiaries were Messrs. Ransom, Coke, McPherson, Morgan, Voorhees and Butler.

Among the chief senators who obtained chairmanships were Messrs. Proctor, Sheep, Pettigrew and Allen, the latter succeeding the late Senator Charles Sumner on the committee, which the Massachusetts senator resigned on becoming chairman of the committee of the judiciary.

A Wholesale Murderer.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 22.—Six officers armed with Winchester and a requisition, arrived in Memphis yesterday and took Tall Hall, the Kentucky murderer, in charge and left with him for Virginia. John Wright, of Knox county, will try to intercept the train, and in order to avoid him the officers took a circuitous route. It is thought a mob will take charge of Hall at Norton, Va., where he killed his last man. United States Marshal Taylor says that twenty-seven murders have been traced to Hall. He cheerfully informed the officers that he would return to Memphis and kill Detectives Hendrick and Pryde and a reporter. After he was taken in charge by the Virginia authorities a requisition charging Hall with four murders arrived, but it was not honored.

Bank Failure at Tyrone.

TYRONE, Pa., Dec. 22.—Tyrone is excited over the following notice found pasted on the doors of the Tyrone bank: "A drain on the resources compels the bank to close for the present." When the regular opening hour arrived and the doors remained closed the citizens started in search of the cashier and stockholders—Claude Jones, C. Guyer, P. Flynn and A. B. Hoover. It was found that they had mostly left town, while those remaining refused to be seen. The deposits were mostly in small sums, but the liabilities will reach $75,000. It is thought that the bank will be able to pay eighty cents on the dollar. The failure will not affect any of the other banks in town.

Canada's Predicted Sensation.

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—According to prominent Conservatives, what is likely to cause a tremendous sensation throughout the Dominion is to take place soon. The dismissal of the Mercier ministry, it is asserted, was only the first step against members of the recent provincial administration. The intention of the Conservative leaders, it is stated, is to have Mercier and other members of the recent administration arrested on charges of defrauding the provincial treasury. Pacaud will also be included in the arrests, and if the Conservatives carry out their threats there will be a big sensation.

Panic on a Ferry Boat.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Hoboken ferry boat Morrisstown crashed into one of the White Star company's steamers, which was anchored in the stream, during the dense fog which prevailed on the river last night. The wheel house on the ferry boat was carried away, and a portion of the ladies cabin was stove in. Great excitement prevailed among the passengers of the ferry boat. Women fainted and several of these were severely hurt by being trampled on during the stampede which followed. Mrs. Grabber, an aged woman, had a leg broken during the panic.

A Princely Gift.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The Drexel Institute of Art, Science and Industry was formally dedicated yesterday afternoon. It was dedicated to "the extension and improvement of industrial education as a means of opening better and wider avenues of employment to young men and women." Wayne MacVeigh, on behalf of Mr. Drexel, formally presented the deeds for the $500,000 building and the securities for the $1,000,000 endowment to James MacAllister, president of the institute.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 21.—The bottom of the Gaylord mine, located at Plymouth, caved in last evening. The Gaylord is one of the largest mines in the anthracite region. The damage incurred by the cave in will exceed $30,000. Two thousand men are thrown out of work.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Dec. 21.—Mrs. John P. Wallace, widow of a prominent citizen of Green Village, was found dead in her residence. She lived by herself, and was preparing her breakfast when she was stricken with apoplexy or heart trouble and sat down in a chair and died.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 21.—The Potts Bros.' iron works have given notices to their employes that after Jan. 1 a general reduction in wages in their puddling department will take place, which will make puddlers average $3.25 per ton. A similar notice has been posted in all the other iron mills of the town.

PRYORVILLE, Pa., Dec. 21.—Harry Shaw stabbed and killed David Quinn at the Knights of Pythias hall in Centennial hall on Saturday evening. A quarrel arose in the hallway leading into the hall, Quinn declaring Shaw had insulted his sister. Shaw drew a big clasp knife, and stabbed Quinn to the heart.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Dec. 21.—Thomas J. Narber, police officer at Muncy, was held for court on the charge of letting a prisoner escape. The charge was preferred by Charles Merrill, who recently swore out a warrant for the arrest of a boy charged with larceny. He alleges that the prisoner escaped owing to the official's carelessness.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Dec. 21.—A young man, accompanied by a girl, came here and asked a magistrate to marry them. They gave their names as Thomas Moore and Mary A. Harrigan. As the justice failed to recognize either of the youthful couple, he refused to join them, and they left. The girl's mother arrived shortly thereafter in search of her eloping daughter, but didn't find her.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 19.—Two little girls, Gertrude Overton, colored, aged 5 years, of 416 Fothergill street, and Dora Cohen, aged 3 years, of 520 Fitzwater street, were admitted to the Pennsylvania hospital yesterday suffering from typhoid fever. They died a few hours afterwards in that institution. The little ones had been playing with matches and set their clothing afire.

EASTON, Pa., Dec. 21.—After considerable effort Detective Johnson, assisted by Officer Long, of the Lehigh Valley road, and Officer Rehfsuss, of Phillipsburg, has unearthed the gang which has been robbing the Lehigh Valley, Lackawanna and Western freight cars in this vicinity. Two of the thieves, Robert Goltz and Henry Robbins, were caught by the two officers named.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 21.—There was to be a bantamweight prize fight between "Reddy" Bacon, of Pittsburgh, and "Kid" McHugh, of Cleveland last night, on the steamer Mayflower, at the foot of Ferry street. The principals were about to come together when the police swooped down on the boat and arrested the two principals and about twenty sports and newspaper men. They were taken to the central station, where most of them were released on bail.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 16.—The coroner has learned that Dominic Etro, who was killed at the Payne shaft a few days ago, met death through a practical joke. Some boys locked Etro into a small room at the head of the shaft, and when he roused at the door it was very amusing for them. Growing enraged, Etro hurled himself through the door so forcibly that he was unable to check himself and went plunging down the shaft to a horrible death below.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 19.—A force of men were engaged yesterday in sealing up the old workings of the Port Bowley shaft, just north of this city. The presence of gas was entirely unsuspected, but a large body of it suddenly exploded, killing Brian Cafferty, Hugh Ferguson and Jacob Mohan. Two of the men are survived by widows and children. Another fatality is reported at the Black Diamond shaft. John Dougherty was killed by a fall of roof. He was 30 years old, and leaves a widow and one child.

HAWLEY, Pa., Dec. 18.—While hunting in the woods three miles north of here, William Cornish, of Scranton, who teaches a class in dancing here, shot and killed one of his fellow sportsmen, John Meyers, of this place. Cornish was picking his way through some laurel, when his gun hammer caught and the weapon exploded. Meyers was some distance ahead of Cornish, and the latter did not know the result of the discharge of his gun until he stumbled upon Meyers' prostrate body. The latter was still alive when Cornish reached him, but was fast passing away, and died as Cornish lifted him to an upright position.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21.—The congregation of the New Jerusalem Hebrew synagogue, at Tulip and Wayne streets, indulged themselves during yesterday afternoon's service in another of those interminable quarrels which have on previous occasions brought the name of the synagogue into undue prominence. As the result of yesterday's fracas Herman Levi, of 2356 Wayne street, the vice president of the congregation, is now lying in a dangerous condition at the Episcopal hospital suffering from the effects of a vicious kick on the lower part of his abdomen, administered in the synagogue by one of the congregation.
