

GARZA SURROUNDED.

Every Avenue of Escape Cut Off from the Revolutionist.

THE "WAR" WILL SOON BE ENDED.

Though It Is Asserted That the Mexican Outlaw Is Adding to His Forces, General Stanley Is Confident That He Will Soon Be Suppressed.

LAREDO, Tex., Jan. 5.—It is said here that Garza is surrounded in the chaparral in the northwestern corner of Zapata county by United States troops and rangers, and that it is almost impossible for him to escape, either to the north or towards Mexico.

A reliable person, just in from the vicinity of Garza's operations, reports that Garza's men are in a sorry plight as regards the horses with which his men were mounted several weeks ago, and which were all grass fed. The hard usage that they have been put to since, in a section of country where there is no corn or hay to be had, and the grass on the range is dried up, has about used them up. It is hardly possible that the command can be kept together long dismounted. The United States cavalry in that section is supplied with forage hauled on ox carts from Laredo.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 5.—Skirmishing of an indecisive character continues between United States troops and Garza's revolutionists in Starr and Duval counties. The bandits, being more active and better acquainted with the country, continue to elude their pursuers without serious loss, meanwhile remaining in the field and gathering fresh accessions every day in either moral or moral support on both sides of the Rio Grande. Despite this fact General David S. Stanley, commanding this department, feels confident of either suppressing Garza or driving him from American soil with the forces now in the field.

Numerous copies of a proclamation calling on all Mexicans to take up arms under Garza have been distributed in the Mexican quarter of this city. It was promulgated by Juan Antonio Flores, who was appointed commander of Garza's so-called Army of the North four weeks ago. The proclamation is said to have been distributed in every city of Mexico and the towns all along the frontier. It is dated state of Nueva Leon and is in Spanish.

As a result of the fire two persons were killed, one fatally hurt, and four others quite badly injured. The killed are: John Meredith, 65 years old, residence unknown; suffocated. Paul Wood, 17 years, son of Samuel F. Wood; suffocated.

Those injured are: Mrs. S. F. Wood, right leg broken and injured internally; will die. Mrs. Edward C. Dwyer, overcome by fright and smoke. J. R. Clay, overcome by heat. Mrs. J. E. Smith, overcome by smoke. Mr. Frank, slightly injured about the shoulders by falling.

Two Newspapers Homeless.

WESTFIELD, N. J., Jan. 5.—Fire destroyed a considerable portion of the business section of Westfield yesterday. The fire broke out in the large frame building known as Arcadian hall, at the corner of Broad and Prospect streets. This building was three stories high. The upper floors were used as public halls, while the lower one was occupied by stores and by the Westfield Leader. In spite of the efforts of the firemen the flames communicated to the Ferris building adjoining and thence to three other frame buildings in the same row. These were totally destroyed. The Westfield Standard, in the Ferris building, lost its valuable plant. The total loss is $40,000.

Four Killed at a Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—Elmer S. Hoffer, of Chester, N. H.; F. B. Tucker, of Sacramento, and E. W. Foster, of Sanford, were burned to death in their boarding house at San Francisco, Cal. T. C. Hammond, a printer, was fatally hurt by jumping from the second story window and died soon after. Six others, whose names are unknown, were fatally burned. The fire was started by the explosion of a coal oil stove in the boarding house. The Methodist church and several adjoining dwellings were also destroyed.

"Prinz" Von Michals Insane.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—"Prinz" von Michals, who has caused so much annoyance to the family of Jay Gould by his insistence that Miss Helen Gould should marry him, was pronounced insane at the Bellevue hospital, and was sent to the asylum on Ward's Island this forenoon. His hallucination is that angels are whispering to him and breathing inspiration to him.

Consul New's Deputy Resigns.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The American deputy consul general, Mr. George C. Hill, has resigned his office and will shortly resume the business management of the Indianapolis journal. Mr. Hill and family sail for New York on Wednesday next.

Senator Plumb's Successor.

TOPEKA, Jan. 2.—Governor Humphrey appointed ex-Congressman Perkins, a United States senator to fill Senator Plumb's successor. The appointment gives general satisfaction.

SALVATIONISTS MOBBED.

They Receive Very Rough Treatment at Eastbourne, England.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—There is no doubt that the Salvationists will obtain a fair hearing in parliament, for they are becoming a body so important that the government would not dare to deliberately ignore their appeal. The Salvationists all over the country are joining issue with their brethren of Eastbourne upon this point, and the Salvationists of Middlewick have gone so far as to petition the home secretary, Right Hon. Henry Matthews, in behalf of the Eastbourne "soldiers."

A correspondent at Eastbourne describes in the following manner an "engagement" between the Salvation Army and the local authorities of that place.

Little bands of the Salvationists gathered at their appointed positions at an hour previously agreed upon, and at once commenced their customary services. They had no sooner done so than the police interfered, and drove them in all directions. Both male and female members of the army repeatedly returned, and although hustled by the constabulary in a very unceremonious manner they sang snatches of their favorite hymns, while individual members harangued the spectators. The latter jeered at the Salvationists and loudly cheered the police.

Every minute there was a rush on the part of the crowd and not a few lost their feet and were trampled upon. The color bearer, a man named Elms, was roughly handled by a constable, who grasped him by the hair of his head and ran him along to the delight of the crowd, he being so ill used that he was in a fainting condition.

Then a squad of mounted police charged the crowd, riding down men and women of the army and the mob indiscriminately, serious injuries and loss of clothing resulting. The mob seized the Salvation flag and the army made an attack to recover it and succeeded. The Salvationists finally got back to their barracks, surrounded by police, but nevertheless driven into several times by rowdies in wagons.

The opinions of Solicitor General Sir Edward Clarke and Sir Charles Russell, that the mayor of Eastbourne has no power to prevent religious processions and gatherings, has filled the followers of General Booth with renewed enthusiasm.

A Noted Novelist's Suicidal Efforts.

PARIS, Jan. 5.—M. Henri Rene Albert Guy de Maupassant, the well known French author, who is seeking Cannes to recover from the nervous disorders from which he is suffering, and which are due to overwork, attempted to commit suicide. He got possession of a revolver, and fired six shots at his head. Fortunately the members of his family had a suspicion that he intended to kill himself, and in order to frustrate his design they had removed the bullets from the cartridges with which the revolver was loaded. He then took a razor and cut his throat, but this attempt also failed, and the injury he inflicted upon himself was not serious.

Ohio's Senatorial Contest.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 5.—At last the date of the senatorial caucus has been set and at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the hall of the house of representatives the battle will be fought without gloves. Senator Ohl, of the senate caucus committee, and Mr. Dougherty, of the house, with President Harris, of the senate, and Speaker Laylin have agreed upon this date. The Foraker men have made a desperate fight to put off this caucus as long as possible, preferring Thursday. Senator Rawlins, of Clarke county, who has been classed as a doubtful Foraker man, has announced himself for Sherman.

Mysterious Murder in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—The little town of Creswell, thirty-six miles below this city, on the Atlanta and Florida railroad, is stirred to its very foundation over the assassination of Dr. R. G. Barrett, an aged physician, and his wife, which occurred at the home of the old couple some time Sunday night. The murders were committed with a coupling pin, which instrument, all covered with blood, was found beside the victims. No motive is known for the crime, as nothing of value in the house was disturbed.

Slavin Didn't Put Up.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Neither Frank Slavin, his friend Charlie Mitchell, nor any representative of theirs put in an appearance at The Herald office at the hour they had appointed to meet Charley Johnston, John L. Sullivan's backer, to cover the $2,500 put up by Johnston some weeks ago. After waiting a good half hour for them to appear Johnston withdrew the forfeit money. He says he is ready to put it up again at any time the Australian can induce some one to back him against Sullivan.

Outlawry in West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 5.—News from Raymond City, Putnam county, is to the effect that the white people of that vicinity are almost terrorized because of the constant rioting and disorders of negro miners. Hardly a day passes without his recording a serious affray and shooting, stabbing and the use of clubs, etc., are increasing. The local paper calls upon the citizens to take action and says it will be but a short time until neither a white man's life nor property will be safe.

Three Broke Through the Ice.

Two Men Blown to Pieces.

MCDONALD, Pa., Jan. 4.—While George Condy and John Fair were putting up a stove in the magazine of the High Explosive company, on Glenn Farm, near Willow Grove, for the purpose of thawing out a new stock of nitroglycerine which had just been received from the factory, a terrific explosion occurred. Both men were blown to pieces. The shock was so great that windows were broken and pictures and other brick-a-brac on walls at McDonald, two miles from the scene, were shaken from their fastenings. The little hamlet of Willow Grove suffered greatly, there being scarcely a whole pane of glass left in the place. The little church was shaken almost from its foundation.

Shangled by an Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—John Mulholland, aged 67 years, of 18 James street, Falls of Schuylkill, was fatally injured yesterday by an explosion of giant powder in Powers and Weightman's quarry at School lane and Ridge avenue, where he was serving as blastman. He had prepared two charges, and while igniting the fuse in the second the first exploded, throwing him about twenty feet. His right arm was shattered to pieces, the sight of both of his eyes totally destroyed, his left arm fractured at the wrist, and his legs and head and legs badly lacerated. His death occurred last night.

A State Pencil in His Liver.

ASHLAND, Pa., Jan. 4.—John Flannery, aged 12 years, of Mahanoy Plane, fell on a slate pencil the other day. It penetrated the left lung and lodged in the liver. Soon after the boy's body began to swell. His parents became alarmed and summoned a physician, but he could do nothing to prevent the swelling, which has developed the boy's body to an enormous size. Saturday night young Flannery was brought to the Miners' hospital, where surgeons succeeded in removing the pencil. The boy is in a critical condition and there are no hopes of his recovery.

A Bad Gang of Counterfeiters.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—By the arrest of Vincenzo de Lorenzo, at Pettenburg, a suburb of Scranton, Pa., the United States authorities believe that they have captured a leading member of a reckless gang of counterfeiters having headquarters in this city. De Lorenzo passed only $5 bills, and every town in the coal regions has been flooded with bad money. Lorenzo himself disposed of $100 a day in bad $5 bills. It is expected that the entire gang will be arrested within a week.

Frightful Shipwrecks.

Stanch ships strike and founder, the fierce winds and mountainous waves sweep noble mariners "hearts of oak" to shipwreck and to death, yet that does not prevent the lubberly landman from risking his life on the stormy Atlantic in the role of tourist or commercial traveler. But if he shall reach his destination safely he will scarcely have escaped some of the qualms of sea sickness unless he takes with him Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, that infallible specific for nausea. Bad water on long trips acts as a threat, the stomach may be deprived in a great measure of its disordering effects upon the stomach, bowels and liver by the Bitter. Against the prejudicial effects of malaria, bad diet, fatigue and exposure it is also efficacious. It averts, moreover, rheumatism and kidney complaints. Don't travel on sea or land without it.

WARNED IN TIME.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The Board of Health sounded a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree that with proper precautions the disease may be prevented. Aged and enfeebled persons, in fact any one whose system is run down, require a healthful stimulant just now. The medical faculty are in unison upon this point. Klein's Silver Age and Duquesne rye whiskeys which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the purest and best stimulants known. The most skilled practitioners in the country endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively. Major Klein also sells a cucumber, french, ginseng, Overholt and Bear Creek at $1 per quart or six quarts for $5. His establishment is headquarters for everything in the liquor line.
