GARZA'S REBELLION.

The Revolutionary Leader Has Not Given Up His Plans.

BACKED BY PROMINENT LEADERS.

Garza Said to Be Not the Real Head of the Movement, but the Agent of Influential Mexicans—A General Uprising in Four States.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 12.—By the failure of important developments in Garza's revolutionary campaign it is by no means assumed that Garza has given up his plans, or that his support along the border is waning. While the troops have succeeded in temporarily upsetting his plans for organizing his army, there is no doubt that he will remain in the field. His men are acquainted with every foot of the country, are inured to hardship, hunger and thirst, and are at home in the saddle. When the troops have run upon the revolutionists they have scattered, only to meet at some point probably 100 miles distant.

Though Garza is intelligent and brave, he is not the real leader of the movement.
The leader is one of the most prominent men in the republic, and he is ably seconded by prominent military men and diplomats, who will never tire unless killed or triumphant.

What aids, or rather will aid, the revolutionists is the general depression which reigns, and which makes itself felt more and more every day. The prisons are full of people driven to crime by distress, and President Diaz himself understands that the situation is critical.
The police are very active in the search for the leading conspirators, but are meeting with poor success.

It is said that there is a general uprising in the states of Durango, Chihuahua, Coahuila and Sonora, and that the malcontents are well organized and will flock to the standard of Garza. In parts of Chihuahua the poorer classes have already revolted and are marching in bands of from 300 to 400 across the country committing depredations. The objective point of these forces is said to be Monterrey. The governor of Chihuahua has appealed to President Diaz for more troops to put down the rebellion.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.
Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The resumption of business in the senate was marked by a pretty full attendance. Among the bills presented by Mr. Dole, making appropriation for the purchase of sites for fortifications; by Mr. Higgins, making an appropriation for the payment of the French spoliation claims; by Mr. Peffer, to establish a bureau of irrigation and to prescribe the duties thereof; to increase the circulating medium by issuing treasury notes, based on gold and silver coin and on bullion, and to amend the coinage laws accordingly; to amend the interstate commerce act, and to prohibit options, trusts and combinations by Mr. Dawes, for the adjustment of accounts of mechanics and workmen under the eight hours act. Mr. Chandler proposed the following amendment to the constitution of the United States: "No person of foreign birth not a citizen of the United States shall be allowed to vote for any officer, state or national."
B. W. Perkins, Senator Plumb's successor, took the oath of office, as did Senator Vance. In the house the day was consumed in discussing the necessity of prohibiting the printing of private bills, and in discussing the necessity of prohibiting the

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—In the house an extended debate followed the presentation of the senate joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the navy to transport contributions for the relief of the sufferers in Russia. An amendment by Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, appropriating $100,000 as a relief fund was defeated, and the resolution providing for transportation was finally indefinitely postponed by a vote of 93 to 87. In the senate, among the bills presented was one by Mr. Pasco granting pensions to the soldiers of the Seminoles and other Indian wars, and one by Mr. McPherson for the purchase of the original telegraphic recording receiver. The senate bill introduced by Mr. Stewart to provide for the free coinage of gold and silver bullion was taken up, and Mr. Morrill addressed the senate in opposition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Among the bills presented in the senate yesterday was one by Mr. Vance for a monument to General Greene, the Revolutionary Army, on the battlefield of Guilford, N. C.; by Mr. Peffer, for the loan of money to the farmers of Indiana; by Mr. Cullom, to regulate commerce carried by telegraph. In the house Mr.
O'Neill (Pa.) introduced a bill to amend the interstate commerce act so as to permit the allowance of extra baggage to commercial travelers; by Mr. Bingham, to allow first and second class postmasters to suspend clerks and other employees for not exceeding thirty days for cause; by Mr. Caldwell, to erect a statue to General W. H. Harrison at North Bend, O.; by Mr. Entos, to repeal the McKinley tariff law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In the senate a communication was presented from the interior department asking an immediate deficiency appropriation of $150,000 for the support of the Sioux Indians; Mr. Quay introduced a bill to define the term artist in the bill prohibiting the importation of contract labor. In the house bills were presented: By Mr. Dutton (Ala.), to establish a uniform system of sanctury; by Mr. Wheeler (Ala.), to impose an income tax, under the title of relief for the farmers; Mr. Taylor (O.), granting service and disability pensions to officers, soldiers and sailors and marines in the army and navy of the United States of the late war, their widows and orphans and for other purposes; Mr. Mc-Kaig (Md.), increasing the pensions of persons who became totally deaf on account of wounds or exposure while in line of duty to $50 per month; Mr. Crain (Tex.), appropriating $200,000 for the erection of a monument and statue to General Grant in Washington. A resolution was introduced by Mr. McKinney, of New Hampshire, instructing the house committee on agriculture to report to the house the effect of agricultural culture on the present law for the collection of revenue by means of duties upon imports. Mr. Watson (Ga.) introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of the constitutionality, methods and numbers employed by the Pinkerton detective agency.

Increased Customs Receipts.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Customs receipts at the port of New York for the first ten days of January aggregated $3,410,185, as against $4,376,180 for the corresponding period of 1891. The net gold in the treasury today is $125,812,528, as against $145,848,858 for the corresponding period of 1891. Customs receipts show a decided tendency to increase. The total receipts of the government for the first ten days of the present month have averaged over a million dollars a day.

Locked in a Burning House.
SBDALIA, Mo., Jan. 12.—David Buckner and wife, who reside at Smithton, near this city, locked their children in the house when they left home to visit a neighbor. During their absence the building was destroyed by fire, and a boy 7 years old and a girl 5 years old were burned to a crip.

DR. GRAVES' DOOM.

Taken to the Penitentiary to Await His Death Penalty.

DENVER, Jan. 11.—Judge Rising denied the motion of Dr. Graves' counsel in arrest of judgment, and sentenced the condemned man to be hanged within the two weeks beginning Jan. 31.
In answer to the usual question before the court, "Have you anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced?" the doctor replied: "Your honor, I never in any way or manner thought of or had anything to do with the death of Mrs. Barnaby.
I have never confessed to any one that I gave a bottle of whisky to Mrs. Barnaby, because I never sent it. Proceed, your honor."

Governor Rountt has stated that the doctor shall have time enough to be heard in the supreme court. His excellency will grant a reprieve.

Dr. Graves was taken to the penitentiary at Canon City last night. Besides the officers he was accompanied by a large number of other prisoners, mostly petty offenders. Steel cuffs were on his hands and chains bound his feet. This is the first time he has been exposed to such indignity. Dr. Graves was not permitted to see his wife before departing. She is improving gradually, and is ignorant that her husband has taken one more step in the direction of the gallows. This information will not be conveyed to her until she is well enough to go to him.

A Wronged Girl's Revenge.

CAIRO, Jan. 12.—In an interview Father Ohrwalder, the priest who was formerly connected with the Austrian Sudan mission, and who recently escaped from the Mahdists after nine years of captivity, confirmed the report that the Mahdi was poisoned, and repeated in detail the events that led to his death.
After the Mahdi tired of warfare he withdrew to Omdurman to enjoy a life of licentiousness. Among his prisoners was the daughter of a wealthy citizen of Khartoum, whose property was confiscated when Khartoum was captured by the Mahdists. All his children, except this daughter, were butchered, and his wives were sold into slavery. From a knowledge of poisons she obtained one for the Mahdi that was slow to bring about death, and gave it to him in a drink.

Unity to Obliterate Slavery.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The senate has ratified the commercial treaty with the Congo state and the African slave trade. The African slave trade was framed by a conference of representatives of seventeen nations at Brussels in 1890. It deals not only with measures for the suppression of the slave trade throughout the world, but it also regulates the traffic in firearms in Central Africa; the regulation of caravans in regions where slave trade has flourished; the extinction of the eastern market for slaves, and the regulation of the liquor traffic.

Philanthropist Hirsch's Plans.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—In an interview Baron Hirsch said that the government of the Argentine Republic supports his scheme for the colonization of Hebrews in that country. Baron Hirsch declared that the movement would be pressed forward just as soon as Major Goldsmith, an eminent ex-staff officer of the British army, who is supervising the enterprise, reaches the Argentine Republic. The baron added that if the colonies were successfully established it was intended to send out 30,000 Jews during the present year. More land, he concluded, was wanted for colonization purposes.

Quieting Down in Kansas.

ARKANSAS, Kan., Jan. 12.—Dispatches from the governor have been received heretofore the dismissal of the troops heretofore held in readiness for this section of the state, and the indications are that there will probably be no further use for the soldiers. The court at Springfield has been opened quietly, and with no more indication of trouble than would have been observed in any eastern county, whatever the future may bring forth. The troubles are over and security may be said to be restored.

Italy Becoming Reconciled.

ROME, Jan. 12.—It is reported that the negotiations between Italy and the United States for the re-establishment of relations are making good progress.
It is said that the negotiations have taken place at Rome, and that the affair may be expected to be completed soon.
While there is semi-official authority for these reports much reason exists for doubting their correctness.

A Powerful Organization.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12.—General Organizer J. M. Richardson, of the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial union, is authority for the statement that all the arrangements are now made and a basis agreed upon for a consolidation of the open and secret alliances, and that it will soon be effected. This, he says, will make an organization in this state of about 250,000 members.

Mills for the Senate.

CORNICANA, Tex., Jan. 11.—Congressman Roger Q. Mills in an interview said he would be a candidate for the senate should there be called a session of the Texas legislature.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can SCROFULA Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer.
Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy."
