THE DEAD CARDINALS

Two Eminent Prelates Succumb on the Same Day.

THE LOSS TO THE CATHOLIC WORLD.

Life Sketches of the Men Who Rose to Distinction in the Church by Their Eminent Abilities—Cardinal Manning's Body Lying in State.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Cardinal Manning is dead. It was generally admitted that the aged prelate could not live through today, and his death was only what was expected. The cardinal continued to grow weaker and weaker during the night until finally his prostration became complete. He was able, however, to join in the prayers which were being offered at his bedside. His eminence continued these supplications for divine mercy until 7:30 o'clock when he became unconscious. His death was calm and he passed away evidently without pain.

Cardinal Manning is a son of the late William Manning, Esq., M. P., merchant, of London, and was born at Tottenham, Hertfordshire, July 15, 1808. He was educated at Harrow and Balliol college, Oxford, where he was graduated B. A. in first class honors in 1830, and became Fellow of Merton college.

He was for some time one of the select preachers in the University of Oxford, was appointed rector of Lavington and Grafton, Sussex, 1834, and Archdeacon of Chichester in 1840. These preferments he resigned in 1851 on joining the Roman Catholic church, in which he entered the priesthood, and in 1857 founded an ecclesiastical congregation at Baywater, entitled the Oblates of St. Charles Borromeo.

Pope Pius IX created him a cardinal priest March 15, 1875, the title assigned to him being that of St. Andrew and Gregory on the Caelian Hill. The same pontiff invested him with the cardinal's hat Dec. 31, 1877.

CARDINAL SIMEONI.

The Eminent Prelate Who Was Pope Pius' Secretary of State.

ROME, Jan. 14.—The death of Cardinal Simeoni, which occurred today, was due to an attack of influenza, from which he had been suffering for several days. Giovanni Simeoni was born at Paliani July 23, 1816, and having been ordained a priest he was, on account of his profound learning, employed in offices of importance. In 1875 the pope created him cardinal. Having been created cardinal Mgr. Simeoni remained in the nunciature in Madrid as nuncio, and on the death of Cardinal Antonelli in 1876 he was appointed secretary of state to Pope Pius IX, which office he retained until the death of that pontiff.

J.) introduced a bill granting American register to the barge Seabird; Mr. Fellows (N. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Among the bills introduced in the senate was one by Senator Quay for a public building at Altoona, Pa.; by Mr. Cullom, to promote the safety of travelers. The senate passed a bill appropriating 50 per cent. of all moneys paid the government for mineral lands in Colorado to establish delivery routes to that state; also, an appropriation of $50,000 for a hall of science in Washington. In the house Mr. Martin (Ind.) introduced a bill for the adjustment of international disputes without war; by Mr. Doolittle (Ia.), increasing pensions to the totally blind; Mr. Herbert (Ala.), to repeal the law which provides that persons engaged in the military, naval or civil service of the late Confederacy shall not be appointed as officers in the army of the United States. A long discussion on Mr. Holman's anti-subsidy resolutions was indulged in.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The house devoted the greater portion of its session to Mr. Holman's anti-subsidy resolutions, which were finally passed. Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Smith (A. C.) for the admission of Arizona as a state. Mr. Harmer (Pa.) introduced a memorial of the Ministerial Union, of Philadelphia, against opening the world's fair on the Sabbath. On motion of Mr. Meredith (Va.) Feb. 6 was set apart for the delivery of a copy of the late Representative Lee, of Virginia.

C.), for the election of president and vice president by direct vote of the people; Mr. Bergen (N. J.), for a public building at Bridgeton, N. J.

TONS OF POWDER EXPLODE.

Five Men Are Killed and Two Fatally Injured at Kellogg, W. Va.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Jan. 19.—The Phoenix powder mills, at Kellogg, W. Va., blew up with terrific force yesterday, instantly killing five men and seriously injuring two more that they are not expected to live.

The killed are: Archie S. Livingstone, Ed Winton, John Benton, Charles Scott and John Schuster.

The injured are: Ed Cook and Joe Crouse, fatally burned; Reese Estep, burned; John Justice, struck by timber; Charles Melley, cut on the head.

A number of others were injured, but they were able to go to their homes. The explosion took place first in the glazier and was followed immediately by the two wheel mills, magazine and canning mill, all of which are totally demolished.

It is estimated that at least 60,000 pounds of powder went off. The mills, which cost in the neighborhood of $150,000, are damaged at least two-thirds of that amount.

Demolished by Natural Gas.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 19.—A terrific explosion of natural gas in which a residence was destroyed, two churches partially demolished, and about fifty houses damaged, in which the family of Judge John S. Brasse had a marvellous escape from death or serious injury, occurred about 6:30 a. m. at Lancaster, O., twenty-five miles south of here. The judge was in his study in his residence, a twenty room brick structure, when the explosion occurred, the rest of the household being upstairs asleep. The judge and his two sons were blown a hundred feet away, his wife, two daughters and four servants buried in the ruins of the mansion, which is a total wreck, and yet not a soul was seriously injured.

Fearful Disaster Averted.

GLASGOW, Jan. 19.—In the Ballestone mine, near this city, a paraffine lamp exploded and set fire to the mine. One hundred miners were at work at the time of the accident, and for six hours they were practically entombed. When the fire gained dangerous headway one of the miners ran to a safety door provided for just such an emergency, and, despite the flames roaring about him, he gallantly closed it, thus preventing the further progress of the fire in that direction. It was his action that prevented all of the miners being cremated.

Garza Has Hid Himself.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 19.—The Garza troubles have apparently subsided, as far as open hostilities are concerned, but there is still a fear along the border that he may turn up again somewhere, and the troops remain in the field. There is no reliable information as to his whereabouts or plans. The last report that he was in the vicinity of Eagle Pass with a considerable following, appears to be without foundation.

Two Sailors Drowned.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The British brig Wellington, bound for Portsmouth, was caught in a gale and bore up for the Tyne to make a harbor. As she was passing in she was lifted up by a heavy sea and tossed broadside on against the stern of the British steamer Huntsman, which is stranded near the south pier at Shields. The Wellington's side crushed in, and she filled and sank. Two of her crew went down with her.

Three Fatal Coasting Accidents.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 19.—While coasting on Market street Miss Mary Duncan was thrown violently from her seat and fatally injured. Mrs. Mattie Nieman, of Clarksville, was also fatally hurt. Henry Farrow dashed into a passing buggy near the Union depot, breaking his skull. He died shortly afterward. Several other accidents are reported, but none fatal.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.
