CHILE APOLOGIZES.

The President Sends Another Message to Congress.

Offensive Remarks Used Toward This Country Withdrawn.

President Harrison's first message to Congress on the Chilean imbroglio was speedily followed by another, transmitting additiona diplomatic correspondence between the two countries. The second message is as fol-

"TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRE SENTATIVES: I transmit herewith addition-al correspondence between this Government and the Government of Chile, consisting of a note of Mr. Montt, the Chilean Minister at this capital, to Mr. Blaine, dated January 23, a reply of Mr. Blaine thereto of date January 27, and a despatch from Mr. Egan, our Minister at Santiago, transmitting the response of Mr. Pereira, the Chilean Min-ister of Foreign Affairs, to the note of Mr. Blaine of January 21, which was received by me on the 26th instant. The note of Mr. Montt to Mr. Blaine, though dated January 23, was not delivered at the State Department until after twelve o'clock meridian of the 25th, and was not translated and its re-ceipt notified to me until later in the afterof that day.

"The response of Mr. Pereira to our note of 12 withdraws, with acceptable expressions of regret, the offensive note of Mr. Matta of ult, and also the request for the recall of Mr. Egan. The treatment of the in-cident of the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore is so conciliatory and friendly that I am of the opinion that there is a good prospect that the difference growing out of that serious affair can now be ad-justed upon terms satisfactory to this Gov-ernment by the usual methods, and without special powers from Congress.

"This turn in the affairs is very gratifying to me, as I am sure it will be to the Congress and to our people. The general support of the efforts of the Executive to enforce the just right of the nation in this matter has given an instructive and useful illustration of the unity and patriotism of our people. "Should it be necessary, I will again com municate with Congress upon the subject. BENJAMIN HARRISON.

"WASHINGTON, January 28, 1892."

Chile's Answer to Our Ultimatum. Chile's answer to our ultimatum of the Chile's answer to our utimatum of the 21st was dated Santiago, January 25, and received at the State Department in Wash-ington at 9 A. M., January 26. It was written and signed by Mr. Persira, Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs. Without any intention of opening a discussion as to the facts referred to by the communication, the answer states the re-gret with which the Government of Chile sees that the President of the United States finds reason to continue to regard the inci-dent of October as an attack caused by hostile feeling toward the uniform of the navy of the United States. Continuing the an-"That unfortunate occurrence took place

"The undersigned admits that the occur-rence of October 16 was of greater gravity than those which usually occur in the same district between the sailors which frequent it, and the fact of knowing that two deaths have resulted from it among the sixteen ounded men of the Baltimore has sufficed to give it an extraordinary character, and to induce the Government of Chile to hasten to adopt the measures necessary to discover and punish the guilty parties, and to offer in due time, if there should be ground for so doing, such reparation as might be due." Mr. Pereira regrets the delay in the pending investigation, but declares it is inevitable on account of the judicial laws. Regards it as his duty to declare once more that the Government of Chile laments the occurrence of Cetober 16, and by way of showing erity of his feeling and the confidence which he has in the justice of his cause, he declares his willingness not to await the decision of the examining judge, and proposes to the United States Government that the case be submitted to the consideration of the United States Supreme Court to the end that that high tribunal, with its learning and impartiality, may determine, without appeal, whether there is any ground for rep aration, and in what shape it should be The writer of the answer recalls the fact that Chile offered on December 30 to submit any misunderstanding to arbitration, and that Minister Montt telegraphed that he and Blaine had agreed to arbitration of any difference that should supervene after the verdict of the judge of Valparaiso. Concerning the Matta note, the writer says that Chile absolutely withdraws the nsive expressions used, which were employed through an error in judgment, and he trusts that this frank aud explicit declaration will carry to the of Mr. Harrison and his ( mind Government that the people of Chile, far from entertaining a feeling of hostility, have the lively desire to maintain unalterably the good and cordial relations which up to the present time exist between the two countries, a declaration which is made without reservation, in order that it may re-ceive such publicity as the United States Government may deen suitable. Relative to Minister Egan, Chile will take no positive step without the accord of the United States. M. Pereira concludes the reply with the assurance that he has therein set forth every-thing that can fally satisfy the United States; that Chile cherishes the conviction that the relations with the United States uld be sincerely and cordially maintained under the shelter of that mutual respect and that good understanding which are based upon the just and equitable appreciation of the facts, and on the appreciation to be given to the spontaneous declarations made on

The Memorable Battle Between Our Sailors and the Chileans.

The Main Incidents of the Brutal Attack Rehearsed.

The following is a condensed account, taken from the New York Herald, of the battle in the streets of Valparaiso between the sailors of the United States warship Baltimore and the Chilean mob:

It will be remembered that on the afternoon of October 16th Captain Schley, taking into consideration that his men had been cooped up aboard ship for over five months without liberty, gave shore leave to 117 seamen and petty officers, with special in-structions to keen solar seamen and petty officers, with special in structions to keep sober. On the morning of October 17th the Herald exclusively gave to the world the startling news that our saflors had been set upon by a bloodthirsty mob in the streets of Valpar aiso, beaten, stabbed and viciously maltreated until two of them had been done to death and a number of others more or less des-perately wounded. As was told at that time in the Herald em

As was told at that time in the Herald our men were absolutely without other means of defence than those furnished them by na-ture, and were helpless in the hands of overpowering numbers. Only one Chilean was hurt in the affray and his injuries were not fatal. Two distinct investigation of the affray were undertaken almost immediately; one aboard the Baltimore by a Board of Inquiry instituted by Captain Schley, and the other in the Chilean courts by Judge of Crimes Foster foster.

Foster. The testimony adduced before these two tribunals, while differing widely in many respects, added to rather than substracted from the dramatic interest in the affray which came so near embroiling the United States and Chile in a bloody and costly war. The men landed from the Baltimore, which lay off the passenger mole, at the foot of the Plaza de la Internencia, about two o'clock in the afternoon. They were supplied with "liberty money," which they had changed at the money changer's office, a short distance the money changer's office, a short distance up the plaza, at Calle de Cochrane.

From here the men separated and in small parties rambled through the town sight seeng and amusing themselves, as sailors ashore

The Intendencia, at the Calles de San Augustin and de Serrano, is only about three hundred yards from the centre of this district, where the hardest fighting took place, and the fact which was brought out in both investigations, that it was brought out in both investigations, that it was fully half an hour before the arrival of the police and soldiers, is one of the grounds for the belief expressed on the part of the United States authorities that due diligence was not used in protecting our men.

Locked in a Box Car, They Fight Their Pursuers.

A Battle With Winchesters on a Moving Train.

The crew and passengers of the south bound Missouri Pacific train had a thrilling trip through Missouri a few night ago. The "rain was "beld up" twice, once by a lynching party that was escorting Murderer Robert Hepler from Nevada, Mo., to Lamar, Mo., where they hanged him, and a second time by train robbers, who robbed an ex-press car and its inmates.

time by train rotbers, who robbed an express car and its inmates. The train had hardly left Nassau Junc-tion, where the lynching party took pos-session of it, when a danger signal induced the engineer to slow up again. When the train came to a standstill, two masked men entered the express car and ordered the occupants to hold up their hands, keeping them covered with revolvers, while the train traveled twelve miles to Lamar. The robbers riffed the pockets of the trainmen, taking $75 from Baggageman Hull, small amounts from Express Messenger Houck and Travel-ing Passenger Agent Bardett, of the Mis-souri Pacific, who had gone to the express car to escape annoyance by the mob of lynch ers in the rear cars. The express messenger was compelled to open the combination of the Pacific Company's safe, and that was also rifled. The amount secured, however, was less than $75.

When the train arrived at Lamar, the destination of the mob, the bandits mingled in the crowd of lynchers and for a time were lost sight of. One of the trainmen, however. lost sight of. One of the trainmen, however, soon discovered them boarding a passing north-bound freight train on the Mem-phis Road, and sent the following dispatch to the Sheriff and City Marshal at Fort Scott, Kansas: "Watch for two meat; no baggage; rough appearance; one some what taller than the other. They are wanted for robbing Pacific express, Missouri Pacific train here this more are Pacific train, here this morning; are coming toward your city on a freight."

The freight train arrived at Fort Scott at 7 o'clock next morning. Policeman S. B. Clemore, colored, was on duty at the station. Two suspicious looking characters of the alwo subpicious looking characters of the description of the robbers given in the dis-patch arrived. He halted them, when one of the men drew his revolver and fired. The builet pierced the policeman's heart and he dropped dead on the instant. Shortly afterward the passeng"r train from Lamar arrived, and on it was De-tective Chester, of the Missouri Pacific, who was in pursuit of the brandits. nn Calle de Arsenal a few feet to the place where Riggin was shot, it is alleged by

Johnson, by the police or soldiers. Riggin's body was taken to the drug store at Plaza Echaurren and Calle de la Matriz. In the meantime there had been, accord ing to the testimony, a general assault on the American sailors. Seaman Turnbull was attached, beaten and stabbed while on the Plaza Echaurren and ran into a place on Calle de San Martin and the plaza to escape from the mob, but was driven out. He was taken to a drug store adjoining that to which Riggins was taken. Seaman Hamilton was attacked on Calle de Marquez, near Calle de Blanco, and was nicked up from the article of Blanco and was picked up from the gutter only a few feet away.

He successed in fighting his way through the crowd, up the Plaza de la Intendencia a few yards to the Prat monuteent, and fell fainting in the door of a store at the Plaza and Calle door of a store at the Plaza and Calle de Blanco. He was found here unconscious by a French naval officer and carried to a dry goods store across the street, and from thence was taken in charge by a policeman when he had regained consciousness. The police at the station on the Mole, it is claimed, afforded him no protection, and here, too, while the station was only a couple of hundred yards from the centre of that section of the conflict, it was many minutes before they tried to quell the disturbance, claims Captain Schley.

While these stirring scenes were being en-acted in the "Maintop" in another section of the city at the Calles de la Esmeralda and de la Concepcion, nearly half a mile away, other American sailors were being attacked. It is this which led Captain Schley to the conclusion that the attacks were preconcert-ed and part of a general plan which had been well arranged. It was at this place, near the Hotel de Colon, where Sailor Carson was attacked and beaten, and on the opposite side of the street is the cigar store where he sought refuge and was advised to change his uni-form and put on citizens' clothes, which he did, and was not further molested.

The police and soldiers after considerable time succeeded in dispersing the mob and making some arrests, most of the ar-

Although there was a police station at the Mole, only three hundred yards from the troubled districts, the prisoners were taken, it is alleged by Captain Schley and denied by the Chilean authorities, under cir-cumstances of ascravatal bontailty to the cumstances of aggravated brutality, to the police station and court in the Plaza de la Victoria, at the other end of the city and nearly a mile away.

MURDER'IN A SCHOOL-ROOM.

Four Pupils Attack the Teacher and Kill Her Young Detender.

John Stephenson, Burt Smith and William and Charles Spurlock, schoolboys, whose ages range from twelve to seventeen years, are in Kenton (Ohio) jail, charged with mur-

Their teacher, Miss McLaughlin, cor-rected them for some misdemeanor in school, whereupon they attacked and beat her. Frank, the twelve-year-old teacher's brother, interfered, and the boys turned on him and beat him into insensibility, inflicting in-juries from which he died in a few hours. Miss Laughlin was also fatally injured. high (a source.)"

OKLAHOMA'S GOVERNOR.

The Record of Judge Abraham Jefferson Seay.

GOVERNOR ABBAHAM J. SEAY

Judge Abraham J. Seay, the newly appointed Governor of Oklah.m.s. was born in Amherst County, Virginia, November 28, 1832. When he was three years old his parents moved to Osage County, Missouri, and there he grew up on a farm. His early education was very limited, and when be His early reached the age of twenty-one he could scarcely more than read and write. He started out with a determination to win however, and surely he has succeeded. Working by the day he earned sufficient to pay his way through the Steele money to pay his way through the Steele-ville (Mo.) Academy, and then studied law in the same town, paying his way by his own exertions. He was admitted to the bar three days before the firing on Fort Sumter, and, though most of his pec-ple sided with the Confederacy, he soon enlisted in the Union army and marched soon emisted in the Union army and marched away for four years of hard work and fight-ing. He entered as a private, but in August, 1864, he was mustered out a Colonel of the Thirty-second Infantry, Missouri Volun-teers. He then began the practice of law, and in the course of time was County Attorney, Circuit Attorney and Circuit Judge, sitting on the bench in the latter capacity

THEY SALUTED HIM.

But He Had to Shoot Two of Them to Insure Respect

The men of one of the artillery regiments at Vilna, Russia, have lately displayed a mutinous spirit, and a few days ago they refused to salute an officer, whereupon he deliberately shot two of the non commissioned officers of the insubordinate regiment. He was about to fire at a third when the men complied with the regulations and saluted

THE average production of wheat for 1531, as reported to the Agricultural Department at Washington, was 151% bushels per acre.

Finally a shot from a Winchester of one of posse struck one of the robbers in the head and killed him. The other bandit then surrendered. He was seriously wounded in the side. He gave his own name as Charles Myers, of Kansas City, Kan. His friend, S. C. Francis, the bandit who was killed, was a cousin of Governor Francis, whom he greatly resembled, and a nephew of Judge Cowan, of St. Louis. He was heir to an estate near Baltimore, Md., bequeathed him in trust by his father, the proceeds of which he received. Myers's father is a wealthy stockman living near Ver-sailles, Mo.
