WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS DO AND SAY

A Chapter of Accidents, Crimes and Local Happenings Picked Up Here and There in the State and Flashed Over the Busy Wires.

MAHANAY PLANE, Pa., Feb. 16.—The employes at the Lawrence & Brown colliery, about 300 in number, are on strike for seven weeks' back wages.

CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 15.—Patrick McDade, a 13-year-old boy, was drowned yesterday afternoon while skating with several companions on the ice at the Leiperville quarry pond.

BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 13.—Fourteen-year-old Willie Putnam put the muzzle of an old revolver, which he supposed to be harmless, to his temple at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, pulled the trigger and received a bullet in his brain, dying an hour later.

READING, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company's acquisition of new lines has already been followed by the issuing of orders for the enlargement of the company's shops in this city. Employment will be given to 1,000 additional hands.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—An unknown man committed suicide by shooting himself in the head in the crowded Broad Street station of the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday. From papers found in his pockets he is supposed to be Charles Voegelé, a resident of Greensburg, Pa.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Feb. 15.—Robert Hastings, a tramp, of St. Louis, was found dying in an old stone quarry near Homestead. While wandering in the dark night he had fallen over a precipice. He was unable to move, and lay there for seventy-two hours without food or water.

ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 13.—L. Elmer Bingham, a railroader well known throughout the state, was instantly killed in the yard here. He was jumping from one box car to another when they separated and he fell. Eight cars passed over him. He leaves a wife and two children.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 13.—A plot by which a number of soldiers of the late war were to attempt the rescue of a fellow soldier named Edward McMillan from the county jail has been discovered here. McMillan is now under sentence to be hanged next month. Extra precautions will be taken to protect the prisoner.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 16.—Pedro Montt, the Chilean minister, visited the executive department to call upon Governor Pattison, who, to the disappointment of the distinguished visitor, was in Philadelphia. At the request of Minister Montt, Private Secretary Tate promised to forward to him school laws and reports of Pennsylvania.

BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 13.—The worst snowstorm known in years prevailed throughout northwestern Pennsylvania and western New York yesterday. On the line of the Rochester and Pittsburgh railroad between this city and Rochester snow is piled up to a height of ten feet. All the south bound trains from Rochester and Buffalo are snowbound near Ashford Junction.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 13.—While forging armor plates at the ordnance works of the Bethlehem Iron works, the porter bar and supports gave way, and precipitated a red hot ingot to the ground below. James McHugh, 35 years of age, was fatally injured and several others seriously. The men were forging the ingot when a blow of the 125 steam hammer tore away the supports.

BEAVER, Pa., Feb. 13.—The Pennsylvania board of pardons at its next meeting will be asked to recommend to Governor Pattison the pardon of the Beaver Star editors, who were recently sentenced to six months each in the county jail for publishing a libel on Senator Quay. The movement for the extension of executive clemency to the prisoners was begun by the officers of the Pennsylvania State Editorial association.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 13.—The court ordered the jury to acquit ex-Mayor Richard Pearson, of Allegheny City, who was on trial for embezzling about $700 of city funds taken in one day. The costs were laid on the county. The prosecution dropped the case, it having been discovered that the cases of Pearson and Mayor Wymann, the latter convicted Thursday, were different. Pearson's subordinates did the embezzling.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 13.—In the examination of witnesses in the Delamater cases it was shown that the original capital of the banking firm was $2,500. Assignee Haskins testified that the liabilities of the firm on the day of the assignment were $620,000, made up of $290,000 deposits, $218,000 balances, $76,000 bills payable and a few other smaller items. The individual liabilities of the members of the firm aggregated $520,000.

ASHLAND, Pa., Feb. 13.—John Mitchell, aged 14 years, met with a sad accident near his home. He had been sent to Shenandoah on an errand, and while returning he attempted to board a passenger train near Lost Creek. He slipped and fell to the track, where the wheels passed over him, crushing his left arm and side and pulling his right leg from its socket. It was found 200 yards up the road. He was carried into his home, close by, and died twenty minutes later.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 16.—An application has been made for the pardon of Louis E. Pfeiffer, late president of the Bank of America, who is serving a term in the penitentiary for embezzlement. Pfeiffer's attorney, William C. Mayne, has filed the first papers, which give a history of the case, together with letters and petitions from neighbors of the imprisoned man, all asking his pardon. It is alleged that Pfeiffer was the tool of Work, who used him as president to peddle, and that he never profited to the extent of a cent by what he did.

ASHLAND, Pa., Feb. 11.—A sad accident befell Thomas Kinney, a resident of Heckescherville. One of his children was sick, and in order to get medicine for it he was compelled to go to Minersville, a distance of two miles. While walking the tracks of the Reading railroad he stepped on the opposite side to allow a train to pass, and was struck by a train he had not seen approaching. In addition to having his legs crushed he was badly injured about the body. He was conveyed to the Miners hospital. While the surgeons were preparing to amputate his right limb the man expired.

THE LOTTERY WILL LIVE.

Millionaire Morris Will Receive Contributions in the City of Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 16.—At last the true secret of the withdrawal of the Louisiana State Lottery from the fierce political struggle which has been raging for many months is out. Half a dozen friends of John A. Morris, the principal owner and director of the company, have been aware of the coming change, but the secret has been carefully guarded.

Although he has not yet made an announcement, a stockholder of the company has said that the Louisiana state lottery will be removed to Mexico in 1893.

President Diaz has already expressed himself as favorable to the proposition, provided the Louisiana state lottery will make as favorable a proposition to the Mexican government as was made to the state of Louisiana. While the directors of the company have not as yet held any meeting to consider the propositions made by different cities in other countries, it is understood that Mr. Morris favors the City of Mexico, and that practically settles the entire matter.

The company will be international in its scope. The drawings will be far larger in the aggregate than the drawings of the Louisiana State lottery. There will be Mexican drawings for the Mexicans, American drawings for the people of the United States, English drawings for the people of England, and Spanish drawings for the people of Spain.

The American business will be conducted under the popular name of the old company, the Louisiana State lottery, and carrying will be done by the express companies.

BRAVE SAILOR GILLIS.

His Heroism Saved the Crew of the Schooner Avenger.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 16.—A thrilling story of the rescue of the Prince Edwards Island schooner Avenger comes from St. John, N. F. The vessel was driven on the rocks twenty miles below St. John in a blinding snow storm.

Murdock Gillis volunteered to swim ashore with a life line. There were in the sea a number of barrels of oil, swept from the vessel's deck, and impeded and hindered by these Gillis could not obtain a hold upon any point on the shore, which was composed of precipitous rocks, and was obliged to give it up. He was drawn back on board the vessel, where he rested about an hour. Then he tried again. This time he was successful. Getting his hand into a hole in the rock he drew himself up, and by catching points of rock he succeeded in climbing to a spot on which he could fasten a line.

Then he drew ashore a larger line, and by means of this the captain and crew all got safely to shore. Gillis had nothing on him but his drawers, undershirt, socks and a pair of slippers. In this scanty clothing, hatless and shivering, he was towed about five miles to the nearest lighthouse.

Young Mrs. Blaine Will Win.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 15.—The divorce case of Blaine versus Blaine is practically settled. The defense will not put in an appearance, and the decree will be granted to Mrs. Blaine by default. The defendant, so says the judge's order, has disobeyed every order of the court, and is now in contempt for having failed to pay the suit fees and alimony. The attorneys for the defendant will not go to Deadwood, and will not in no way answer to the order. This means that the case will go by default, giving Mrs. Blaine her decree and probably the custody of the child.

A Remarkable Sleep.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—In the insane asylum is a patient, Bridget Pendegast, who has not been awake for eighteen months. During the day she sits in a rocking chair near a window, and at night is placed in bed by attendants. Her eyes are closed, but the eyelids can be opened by force. Her only food is milk, of which she takes about three quarts a day through a silver tube in her nose that connects with her throat. She is gradually wasting away, and as no effort arouses her it is not likely that she will live much longer.

Starvation in Austria.

WIEN, Feb. 13.—The destitution that prevails here at present is greater than it has been in many years. Thousands of respectable persons of the laboring classes are idle and starving. The misery of the poor people in this city is enhanced by an influx from the provinces of a large number of persons who are out of employment and are flocking to Wien in the hope of obtaining work. The total number of unemployed persons in this city is estimated at 70,000.

No More Boxing in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—The fat has gone forth from the police department that after this week no more boxing shows will be permitted in Chicago. The shows in which the representations made to the police have been violated have become altogether too prevalent, says Chief McClaughey.

Wiped Out by Flame.

MURKIN, Ark., Feb. 15.—This village was almost completely wiped out by fire which broke out in an old lumber yard, and spread rapidly to surrounding buildings. About two-thirds of the buildings in the town were burned. The total loss is estimated at about $125,000.

Delaware Offenders Lashed.

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 15.—Eight prisoners, two whites and six negroes, were whipped at Newcastle, two receiving fifteen lashes and the others five lashes each. All suffered more from the cold than they did from the punishment. About 300 spectators were present.

Three Miners Killed.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 16.—An accident occurred in the Mollie Gibson mine at Aspen, Colo., through which the following miners were killed: Michael Eggers, W. L. Shirpe and M. Caples. The Mollie Gibson is the richest silver mine in the world.

Sisters Burned to Death.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 15.—While Mrs. Giverty, who lived near Wellford, was making soap her clothing caught fire and she was burned to death. Her sister, who tried to save her, was so badly burned that she died a few hours later.
