PITTSBURG, March 9 .- At Finleyville, twenty-two miles south of this city, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a gang of four highwaymen assaulted J. J. Mc Millen, a shifting conductor, bound, gagged and robbed him. They also blew open the safe at the signal tower, binding the operator, but were driven off before getting any booty. They are still WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 8.-Mr. Charles M. Lawler, superintendent of the Williamsport division of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company, has been offered the superintendency of the main line division, with head-quarters at Reading, by President Mc-Leod; but Mr. Lawler states that he does not desire to make the change, on account of his wife's delicate health.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., March 5.—A fatal explosion occurred at the Marea colliery mine. John Butt, a Russian miner, and David Roberts, aged 45, were engaged in boring a hole in a rock tunnel. While preparing a blast it suddenly exploded, hurling Butt against the side of the tunnel and killing him instantly. Roberts was also thrown against the side of the tunnel, receiving injuries which may prove fatal.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 5 .- It is reported in official circles that Attorney General Hensel is preparing the neces-sary papers to institute proceedings against the Reading combine on the ground that the big railroad deal is in violation of the state constitution. The attorney general is not in the city, but other officials say the step is very probable. The Dauphin county court is the tribunal in which the case will be brought.

MEYERSTOWN, Pa., March 9. - The managers of the Berks and Dauphin Turnpike company, at a meeting held here, decided to apply for a charter to build an electric railway on their turnpike road from Reading to Lebanon, a distance of twenty-eight miles. This will head off the companies about organ-izing to construct electric railways between this place and Lebanon, and between Reading and Wernersville, each of which contemplated using about eight miles of the turnpike.

PITTSBURG, March 8. - Robert Mc-Clure, agent of the Law and Order society, was arrested yesterday charged with perjury. The information was made before Alderman Reilly by James W. Scott, a news dealer on the south Scott was recently arrested and fined at the instance of McClure, who testified that he had personally pur-chased a paper from Scott on the Sabbath day. Scott has numerous witnesses to prove the contrary. The penalty for perjury in Pennsylvania is very severe YORK, Pa., March 9 .- The twentyfourth annual session of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church convened in this city this morning. A large number of dignitaries, besides a number of advisory delegates from other conferences, are present to participate in the con-ference work. Nine anniversaries will be held during the conference. The first, the temperance anniversary, was held last night. The president, Rev. John A. Demoyer, conducted the meeting. Addresses were made by Rev. D. Wilson and Rev. J. B. Mann.

CHESTER, Pa., March 7 .- A sensational

shooting occurred at Ridley Park. Miss Annie Ward, a handsome young woman, who, until a week ago was a maid at the residence of Captain E. C. Merriman, laid in wait at Ridley Park station, and as Michael Gallagher, coachman for H. F. Kenney, was about to step on board a train, fired four shots at him. Two of the shots took effect. Gallagher fell and was picked up by the train hands and taken to the University hospital. He is thought to be seriously if fatally hurt. Annie claims that Galla-gher betrayed her. Annie was arrested. PITTSBURG, March 9. -- Officer John Mc-Physicular Properties of Allegheny City councils, presented information to Acting Mayor Voeghtley, of Allegheny, charging exchief of Police Murphy, who is now chief of Allegheny's department of public safety, together with several detectives who comprised the "front office" force during the incumbency of exmanyors Pearson and Wyman, with receiving and appropriating to their perceiving and appropriating to their perceiving and appropriating to their personal use money which belonged to the treasury. Mayor Voeghtley would not receive the information until he had taken legal styles.

Most Brutal Murder. WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 9.—Charles Wall was hanged in the prison yard of the Wyoming county jail at Tunkhan-nock for the murder of his wife. Never in the history of executions in this country did a human being face death on the scaffold with more disregard of his awful surroundings. In his cell all the morning Wall laughed and joked, and for over two hours before the ex-ecution he indulged in profane remarks. He gave no signs whatever of sorrow or repentance, claiming all the time that he was innocent and knew nothing of the crime. This was the first hanging that has ever taken place in Wyoming county, and it attracted considerable at-

Wall murdered his wife Julia with an ax, on July 25, 1891. They lived in Centre Moreland township, and had been married only two months. Wall was jealous, and quarreled with his wife, alleging undue intimacy upon her part with Butler Wall, his nephew. Wall went to town, and his wife, not expecting him home, went to a neighbor's to pass the night. He returned during the night intoxicated, and not finding his wife smashed all the furni-ture and dishes in the house. He then went to the house of John Smith, where his wife was in bed with her sister, and attempted to cut her throat with a knife, but only succeeded in wounding her slightly. Mrs. Smith and daughter also received slight cuts. His wife went home. Wall soon followed, securing an ax on the way. Mrs. Wall saw him coming, and fearing he would do her harm ran out of the house and started to cross a lot. She had only gone a short distance when she fell, and Wall, who was following her, ran up and sank the ax in her head. He struck her the second time and left her lying there. Wall was arrested, and con-fessed the crime. When he came up for trial on Nov. 9 he entered a plea of not guilty on account of insanity. He was convicted, however, and sentenced to hang.

Shamefully Assaulted by Tramps. NORRISTOWN, Pa., March 9.—Albert Strobecker, a young man of Port Providence, this county, was walking along the Schuylkill Valley railroad near Locustwood, when he came upon four tramps basking in the March sun. Without a word as to their purpose, they shamefully attacked him. Not content with their flendish work, one of the men drew a knife and plunged it into Strobecker's leg above the knee. They then slunk away, leaving him to live or die, as the fates might decree. He was weak from the loss of blood, and but for his timely discovery by persons who hap-pened by would probably have died from exhaustion. His assailants fled and left no possible trace of their identity.

The River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 9 .- The house committee on rivers and harbors decided to close its hearings on river and harbor bills. The committee for two months past has heard persons from every section of the country interested in river and harbor improvements, including senators and representatives. Representative Blanchard said that the pressure for river and harbor improvement had been 20 per cent. greater this year than ever before. The river and harbor bill, he said, was at present nearly completed, and would be finished in a week's time.

General Schofield's Narrow Escape. Washington, March 9 .- As General Schofield was driving to the war, state and navy building his carriage was run into by an express wagon. The wheels of the carriage were blocked and the carriage was overturned. It was found necessary to remove the general through the window, but fortunately he was not hurt beyond receiving a rather severe shaking up. His escape was due to the coolness of his driver, who managed to control the horses, notwithstanding the overturning of his carriage.

Mr. Mills Has a Relapse.

Washington, March 8.—Congressman Mills, of Texas, who has been progressing favorably through an attack of erysipelas in his foot, had a slight relapse yesterday, caused by an indiscretion on his part. He started for the Capitol, forgetting his condition in his anxiety be recorded on the silver bill rule but was intercepted by his physician, Dr. Sowers. As a result of this attempt at walking Mr. Mills is suffering from another return of the erysipelas in the

An American Officer in Trouble. San Francisco, March 7.-The news was brought here by the steamship City of Peking, from Yokohama, that on 12 George Gower Robinson, a well known English banker of Yoko-hama. was fatally shot by Lieutenant Hetherington, of the United States vessel Marion. The motive for the crime was jealousy because of Robinson's attentions to Mrs. Hetherington. The officers of the City of Peking say Hetherington's act was justifiable.

Princess May to Be a Royalist, LONDON, March 7 .- It is said in well informed circles that the queen proposes to raise Princess May to the dignity of royalty and increase her present small allowance by a considerable amount. It is privately announced that one of Princess May's brothers, who holds a captaincy in the dragoons, is soon to marry the daughter of a wealthy commoner, whose name is not altogether unassociated with breweries.

True Bill Against Mrs. Osborne. LONDON, March 8.—The grand jury found a true bill against Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne, who is at present in the infirmary of the Holloway jail awaiting trial on charges of larceny and perjury, growing out of her theft of a quantity of valuable jewelry from her friend, Mrs. Hargreaves, and the libel suit which she brought against Mrs. Hargreaves after she was accused of the crime.

A Most Brutal Murder.

New York, March 8.—Mrs. Kate Scanlon died in the New York hospital yesterday in extreme agony. Richard Scanlon, her husband, twenty-nine years of age, is a prisoner in the West Twentieth street station, charged with murder. He threw a lighted lamp at his wife, and she died from her burns. Jealousy was the cause. Scardon was arrested.

Mr. S. G. Derry Of Providence, R. I.,

Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Waterproof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by

Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt theum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms, A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching, and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent

. Thousands of Dollars in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was unable to lie down in bed, had to sit up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to hold my arms away from my body, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day. "Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My

Stomach Was All Out of Order

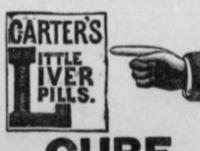

But the medicine soon corrected this, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the humor which nearly covered my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores soon healed, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, nearly two years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well.

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend
