STATE NEWS

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 12.—The county court awarded Daniel Kepler a verdict of $1,300 damages for dampers crushing his arm in 1887 at the Black Diamond colliery.

EDGEMONT, Pa., March 15.—Mrs. Jane Young, the aged widow of Hugo Young, a Mexican war veteran, was found starved to death in her hut near this place. She had long expected a pension, which never came.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 15.—Judge Metzger made an order of court that all barrooms in this city must close at midnight. This will put an end to the business of many all night saloons which have been thriving for several years.

ASHLAND, March 16.—By the shutting down of the Monitor colliery over three hundred men and boys have been thrown out of employment. The reason for the closing of the mine is attributed to a shortage of coal.

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—Dr. William Paine, proprietor of the Peabody hotel, was arrested on the charge of employing Charles Wing, a Chinese laborer, to prepare food for the guests and employees of the hotel. The action is taken at the instance of the health officer. Dr. Paine waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at court.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 12.—During the absence from home of Samuel Rishel, a farmer, of Farmersville, his house caught fire from an overheated stovepipe, and it and its contents were destroyed. Loss, $2,500; no insurance. One hundred dollars in bank notes in a trunk were also burned. The family knew nothing of the fire until their return home, and then it was in ashes.

LEBANON, Pa., March 15.—An investigation will be made into the death of Allen, the 9-year-old son of David Long, of South Cornwall township, who died of croup. It is alleged that he was held under the eaves of a roof by his schoolmates while water was dripping in order to watch the effect upon him as it trickled down his back. The child was taken violently ill the next day.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 12.—H. H. Hill, of the firm of Hill & Swartz, underwriters, is missing, and a shortage of nearly $5,000 is reported to be found in his accounts. He was also receiving agent in this section for the United Brethren Mutual Aid society, of Lebanon, and his accounts show a shortage of $1,000, while they hold his notes for $1,400 additional. Hill is supposed to be in St. Louis at present.

CARLEISLE, Pa., March 15.—Fire destroyed the large barn, outbuildings, farming implements, 650 bushels of wheat, all of last year's crops, together with two calves, one colt and several hogs. The property belonged to Sanford B. Robinson, and is situated in Monroe township, five miles east of this city. The fire originated from a spark from the threshing machine engine. The loss is covered by insurance.

PITTSBURG, March 15.—Shortly after midnight freight train No. 74, on the Fort Wayne road, struck and killed A. L. Galley, a resident of Maple Station. The engineer reports that the man would not get off the track, that he stood facing the train waving his hat. At Maple Station, where the remains were taken, it was learned that Galley was a poor farmer, that his farm was lost by a mortgage one week before and that he was employed as a farm hand on his own property.

HARRISBURG, March 12.—Auditor General McCamant's annual report just issued shows the receipts of the state treasury for the past year to have been over $13,000,000, an increase of $5,250,000 as compared with the previous year. Under existing legislation all the revenues derived from retail liquor licenses goes into county, city, borough and township treasuries, and the auditor general suggests that wholesale liquor license revenues, which are now paid into the state treasury, be given to the counties in relief local taxation.

READING, Pa., March 15.—John B. Taylor, father of Robert Taylor, the burglar who escaped from the county prison yesterday morning, was arrested on the charge of harboring his son and aiding and abetting his escape. The house of the elder Taylor was under close police surveillance Sunday, but he refused to allow the officer to search his premises. Yesterday the officers entered the house and found Taylor's striped suit in an upper room. J. B. Taylor, who is old and feeble, is locked in a cell near the one from which his son escaped.

YORK, Pa., March 14.—Bishop Andrews yesterday, in the First Methodist Episcopal church, ordained the following deacons: J. W. Glover, W. J. Sheffer, Henry Treverton, Frank W. Leidy, E. L. Estinger, A. L. Miller, G. L. Comp, R. W. Illingworth, W. Vandermark, J. H. Morgan, J. H. Price, T. H. Evans, G. M. Eganwelder, W. J. Adams, E. E. Harter. The following were ordained elders: M. E. Cleaver, G. N. Crotser, A. W. Hantz, W. A. Lopley, J. E. Weeks, R. T. Whaley, M. B. Shiner, W. J. S. Deavor, J. H. Morgan, F. M. Welsh, A. C. Forscht.

CHESTER, Pa., March 14.—The poisoning of the two Moore boys from eating stolen food has caused no end of talk in this neighborhood. The oldest boy died Saturday afternoon and Lewis, the youngest of the brothers, died late Saturday night. Deputy Coroner Jeffries, assisted by Dr. H. N. Stoever, made a post mortem examination of the bodies yesterday, but declined to disclose the result of the examination until the inquest. He is now collecting evidence to be produced at the hearing. There is no doubt that a trap was set for the boys in the mill where they were employed at Upland, where the pilfering of the dinner pails has been carried on for some time. The boys were poor, and only recently lost their mother by death.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 10.—A terrible explosion of gas occurred in one of the new tunnels of the Alden Coal company mine, at Alden, yesterday afternoon. Eight men were at work in the tunnel. A heavy blast had just been fired. A spark of fire ignited a pocket of gas which had collected unknown to the men. A loud explosion followed, and Charles Kyara, a young Poleander, aged 17, was blown with a great force against the roof of the tunnel. His body was horribly mangled. Henry Brown, aged 35, and married, was hurled with great violence against the side of the tunnel. He died while being carried to the surface. Elijah Jones, the contractor who had charge of the work, was fatally burned about the face and hands, and died of his injuries soon afterward.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—In the senate Mr. Morgan, from the foreign relations committee, reported a bill for the appointment of consuls to the Congo Free state; also a resolution regarding claims against foreign governments by citizens of the United States. A bill was reported authorizing Commander Mulson, of the navy, to accept a medal presented by the Chilean government. Mr. Cullom introduced a bill "to test and try the science of spelling, and to provide for establishing 100 schools for that purpose, and to establish a spelling school in the World's Columbian exposition." The pure food bill was taken up and passed without division. In executive session the Behring sea matter was considered at length. The time of the hearing was consumed in listening to arguments by Messrs. McMillin and Dingley on the free wool bill. On taking his seat Mr. McMillin received an ovation of applause from his colleagues. Pending Mr. Dingley's address the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In the senate Mr. Hoar presented resolutions of the Massachusetts legislature urging on congress the enactment of laws to prevent the manufacture of clothing in unhealthy places, and to establish a report of sale. Bills were introduced; By Mr. Washburn, to regulate immigration and to prevent importation of laborers under contract; and by Mr. Turner, for the relief of persons who had on hand stocks of manufactured goods on which no rebate was provided for. In the house these measures were reported: The senate joint resolution relative to the improvement of the harbor of Philadelphia, Pa.; to protect foreign exhibitors at the World's fair from prosecution for exhibiting wares protected by American patents. The houses then went into committee of the whole on the free wool bill, Mr. Dingley concluding his argument. He was followed by Mr. Turner (Ga.), Mr. Reed (Iowa) and Mr. Patterson (Tenn.).

WASHINGTON, March 12.—In the senate a bill was introduced by Mr. Dolph, to create and establish a pilot service in the United States and to regulate pilotage of vessels along the coast and in the harbors of the United States; by Mr. Stewart, proposing a constitutional amendment that (after 1907) no person who has had the office of president shall be eligible to that office within four years after the term of office. Mr. Dolph addressed the senate of length on Mr. Stewart's bill to provide the government with means sufficient to supply the national want of a sound circulating medium. The speech was a strong argument in favor of the McKinley tariff. The senate adjourned till Monday. In the house the free wool discussion continued on the floor, though these measures were introduced by Mr. Mitchell (Wis.), a joint resolution authorizing his state to place in statutory hall at the capitol the statue of Pere Marquette, an Indian missionary, who made explorations within the borders of Wisconsin in the early days of settlement; by Mr. Wike, a bill providing that all veteran volunteer soldiers who were discharged for promotion shall be considered honorably discharged, and shall receive the full pay of bounty that they would have been entitled to had they served three years.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—In the senate the bill to amend the act to provide for the performance of the duties of the president in case of his death, disability or inability of president or vice president, was reported and placed on the calendar. It provides for the succession of the secretary of agriculture after the secretary of the interior. The joint resolution authorizing the president to invite the king and queen of Spain and all living descendants of Columbus to attend the World's fair, was laid over. Mr. Vest's bill providing for the construction of postoffice buildings in certain towns was passed, with amendments, by 24 to 21. In the house, after the introduction of a number of minor important bills, consideration of the army appropriation bill was resumed.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—In the senate Mr. Peffer introduced a bill to regulate the value of coin currency as evidence to prevent discrimination in favor of gold and silver as legal tender. In the house senate joint resolution was passed authorizing the librarian of congress to exhibit certain documents at the state treasury, by Mr. Enloe (Tenn.) reported a bill to repeal the small death penalty. Mr. Sayers (Tex.) presented the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill, and it was agreed to. The house then went into committee of the whole on the free wool bill.

Shot by a Madman.

TIFFIN, O., March 16.—An appalling tragedy occurred in the big hardware store of J. M. Naylor & Co. yesterday. Walter A. Snyder, one of the most popular young men in this city, while engaged in a friendly conversation with two of his employers, Burton W. Cribb and Edward T. Naylor, suddenly and without a word of warning pulled a revolver and began firing at them. Cribb was struck in the back and two balls passed through Naylor's body. Thomas W. Downey, a fellow clerk, interfered, and was shot three times. Snyder then ran upstairs and put the remaining bullet in his revolver through his own heart. Cribb and Naylor will recover, but it is feared Downey will die. There is no doubt that the shooting was the work of a madman.

Morrison Opposes Hill.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 16.—The Hon. William R. Morrison, of Illinois, on his way east, stopped here a few hours to see Treasurer Brinton, of the Democratic central committee of that state. Mr. Morrison expressed himself as against Hill. If it were not for the New York senators, he said, Cleveland would be nominated. As to his own state the machine was for Palmer, and will bring about an endorsement of him, though there is a very strong opposition and one that will resist instructions from Palmer.

Texas' Senatorial Contest.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 16.—The senatorial situation is taking more definite shape every hour. The Mills men express themselves sure of victory, and confident that he will be elected on the first ballot. The Mills party claim 75 out of 106 in the house, and they have shown such strength that Governor Hogg and the administrationists, who are supporting Chilton, have become alarmed. Culberson is not much talked of.

Ministerial "White Caps" Arrested.

ENGLISH, Ind., March 16.—A. J. Scott, county commissioner and preacher, his brother Lindsey and sons, George Scott, William Scott and William E. Scott, along with Albert Jones and William Condra, two more ministers of the gospel, all well known, have been arrested upon the charge of being the leaders in a recent white cap raid on a man named Mattex.

Fearful Murder in Altoona.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 16.—Frank Jewille, a notorious character, had a fight with his wife, Mollie, over the ownership of a dollar at their home in this city. Jewille became so enraged that he threw a lighted lamp and bracket at her head. She was burned from head to foot, and soon died in horrible agony. Jewille made his escape and has not yet been captured.

A Big Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, March 16.—J. Corbett called at the office of the world yesterday, paid the balance on his forfeit money, $1,500, and signed articles of agreement for a fight with John L. Sullivan.

GROVER CLEVELAND says he is not seeking the Democratic nomination for President; he thinks the party should make the selection and the individual accept. He does not say he would refuse, or not a candidate for a reomination.

EDITOR McCURE, of the Philadelphia Times says that D. B. Hill could not carry a single northern state if he received the democratic nomination for President. Further, McClure appears to be dead set against Hill as a candidate. The Phila. Record has taken the same position against Hill.

WARNED IN TIME.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The Board of Health sounded a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree that with proper precautions the disease may be prevented. Aged and enfeebled persons, in fact any one whose system is run down, require a healthful stimulant just now. Klein's Silver Age and Duquesne rye whiskeys which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the purest and best stimulants known. The most skilled practitioners in the country endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively. Major Klein also sells Guckenheimer, Finch, Gibson, Overholt and Bear Creek at $1 per quart or six quarts for $5. His establishment is headquarters for everything in the liquor line. Goods expressed everywhere. Send for catalogue, mentioning this paper, to MAX KLEIN, Allegheny, Pa.
