TREATY RATIFIED.

The Behring Sea Matter Finally Submitted to Arbitration

WITHOUT A DISSENTING VOTE.

The Proceedings to Be Conducted in English and a Decision to Be Rendered Within Four Months After the Close of the Argument on Both Sides.

WASHINGTON, March 30 .- The treaty or convention providing for arbitration in the settlement of the differences be tween Great Britain and the United States over the jurisdiction of Bering sea was ratified by the senate by a unan-imous vote. The secret session which resulted in the ratification lasted two

Shortly after the doors were closed a call of the senate was ordered, and an unusually large number of senators answered to their names, the number being increased to seventy-two when the was some general discussion concerning the perfection of the treaty, and Mr. Sherman announced that the propositions made by some senators at previous sessions that the arbitration proceedings should be conducted in English had met with a favorable response from

Lord Salisbury.

The treaty does not stipulate the language in which the proceedings shall be conducted. Mr. Sherman said that the suggestion that they be conducted in English had been communicated to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British min-ister, who replied that he had no objection, but preferred to communicate with his own government before agreeing to it. This he did, and Lord Salisbury approved. After Mr. Sherman made this statement the treaty was amended so that English should be the languaged used in the conduct of the proceedings.

There was also some discussion over article XI of the treaty, which provides that the decision of the tribunal shall, if possible, be made within three months from the close of the argument on both sides. Several senators thought the time allowed the arbitrators for decision should be longer, and as there was no objection to this the time was extended to four months.

After a discussion over these points and some others of minor importance the treaty was ratified without further change and without the passage of any resolution by yea and nay vote, and resolutions informing the president of its ratification and removing the injunction of secrecy from the vote were adopted.

The senators not present were: Messrs, Aldrich, Blodgett, Brice, Casey, Chilton, Colquitt, Davis, Faulkner, Harris, Hill, Irby, Jones (Ark.), Jones (Nev.), Mander-son, Morrill and Stanford.

The Behring sea arbitration treaty, or convention, was signed in Washington on Feb. 29 last by James G. Blaine, on the part of the United States, and Julian Pauncefote, on the part of Great Britain. It was sens to the senate in confidence

The treaty provides that the Behring sea controversy shall be submitted to a tribunal of arbitration, to be composed of seven arbitrators, the president of the United States and her Britannic maconted States and her Britannic ma-jesty to have two each, and the presi-dent of France, the king of Italy and the king of Sweden and Norway to name one each. The arbitrators are to be distinguished jurists in their respective countries, and the treaty provides that they shall meet in Paris within twenty days after the delivery of the twenty days after the delivery of the depredations of the members of this counter case, or what might be called band until Sunday, when five of them evidence in rebuttal. The printed case of the two parties, accompanied by documents, official correspondence and other evidence, is to be delivered in duplicate to each arbitrator, and to the agents of each high contracting party as soon as possible after the appointment of the tribunal.

Vote Against Prussia's Government. BERLIN, March 30.-The Prussian government submitted a proposition in the lower house of the diet to reinsert in the estimates which were under discussion the vote for a new cruiser. This same proposal was made some time ago, and was then rejected in the face of an appeal by Chancellor Von Caprivi. The proposition was again rejected after a long debate by a vote of 177 to 109. This defeat of the government was effected by a coalition of Centrists, Radicals and Socialists against the Conservatives and and National Liberals. It has made a great sensation.

Free Silver Defeated.

WASHINGTON, March 29.-After a consultation with some of his supporters, Mr. Bland endeavored to get the requis-ite number of names to a detition to the committee on rules asking it to set apart a time for the consideration of the free coinage bill and to bring in a cloture rule. But, on further consideration the Bland men decided that they would withdraw the petition and give up the FAYETTE, Mo., March 30 .- A sale under the vagrant act took place in Fayette. when the services of three negroes were sold on the block to the hignest bidder. One brought $25, another $5 and a third $1. The negro element is highly indignant at this old fashioned way of working out the fines, and threaten to have revenge.

Myers Assails Harrity. HARRISBURG, March 30.-B. F. Myers, Harrisburg's postmaster and a prominent Democratic politician, in a letter to the Democrats of Pennsylvania, makes a bitter attack on William F. Harrity, secretary of the commonwealth, whom he charges with jeopardizing party in-terests to gratify his personal vanity.

NOTABLE DEATHS.

New York, March 29.—Pat Rooney, the Irish comedian, died in this city. LONDON, March 25.—King Sachity of Croboe, West Africa, an important ally of the British, is dead.

BERLIN, March 30. - General Konstantin Von Alvensleben has just died in this city at the age of 83. BRUSSELS, March 30. — Prince de Chimay, minister of foreign affairs, who had been ill for some time past, died yesterday, aged 55.

yesterday, aged so.

HAZELTON, Pa., March 28.—Ario Pardee, coal operator and banker, died yesterday at an advanced age. He was one of the pioneers of the anthracite region, and had amassed several millions of dolars as a coal operator. He was also lagely interested in the Lehigh Valley railroad.

FIFTY-EEGOND CONGRESS

Condensed Report of Proceedings in Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, March 24.-In the senate a petition was presented from Benjamin Harris, of Maryland, on behalf of himself and other citizens, asking compensation for slaves emancipated. The army appropriation bill was presented and referred. After disposing of a few minor matters the senate went into executive session for the consideration of the presideration of the consideration of the president's latest Behring sea message, after which the doors were opened and consideration of the Indian appropriation bill resumed. In the house favorable reports were submitted on bills: To exclude political influence in the employment of laborers under the authority of the United States; granting pensions to the survivors of the Black Hawk and Creek wars, Cherokee disturbances, and the Seminole war; to pro-vide for two United States revenue cutters on the Beside, coart Division and the Besides and the Bes the Pacific coast. Discussion of the Bland silver bill was resumed. Mr. Bland gave notice that he would call the previous question at 2 o'clock today.

Washington, March 25.—In the senate there was an inundation of bills relating to the postoffice service, which were referred to committees. Discussion on a resolution of Mr. Carey into a number of leased buildings occupied by the government continued until the executive session, which continued for over four hours. The extreme length of the executive session prevented the senate from hearing the eulogies on the late Senator Hearst. In the house consideration of the silver bill was resumed, Mr. Bland announcing that he would not call the previous ques-tion until 5 o'clock. When the previous question was ordered a motion was at once made to lay on the table. This was defeated by a tie vote—148 yeas, 148 nays.

Washington. March 28.—The whole session of the senate was occupied by consideration of the Behring sea treaty in executive session and in eulogies upon the late Senator Hearst, of California. But in a brief interlude between these exercises Senator Stanford gave notice that on Tuesday next he should call up his bill "To determine the value of the legal tender dollar," for the purpose of making some remarks upon it. The house, wearied from its labors on the silver bill since Tuesday last, devoted the hours to the consideration of the bills in the private calendar, and, not securing a quorum, adjourned at 3:30.

Washington, March 29.—The senate discussed, with some slight incidental reference to the Behring six matter, the proposition to transfer the revenue marine service to the navy, and subsequently recommitted a bill to give government employes in the bureau of engraving and printing and the navy yards thirty days leave of absence with pay, after amending the bill out of sight by tacking on to it a stipulation that its provis-ions should apply to every other person employed by the government, whether hired by the year, the week or the day. Secret session on the Behring sea question and the alleged violation of executive confidences occupied the balance of the day. The house consumed the entire day in considering bills reported from the committee on the District of Columbia, several of which were passed.

Washington, March 30.—After Mr. Stewart had given notice of his intention to call up the silver question in the senate on Monday next there was nothing more of general in-terest in the morning hour except a sharp little discussion between Mr. Wolcott (Colo.) and Mr. Dawes (Mass.) on the question of the removal of a remnant of the Ute Indians from Colorado, where their present reservation is in the track of a prosperous mining boom. Eventually Mr. Wolcott's resolution was adopted without objection, and the senate proceeded to the consideration of the Behring sea treaty in secret session. It was finally ratified by a unanimous vote. The silver bill being shelved the house proceeded with the consideration of the free wool bill, the entire day being devoted to debate, The following gentlemen spoke for the bill: Messrs. Harter (O.), Bretz (Ind.), McCreery (Ky.), and Deforest (Conn.). Mr. 1 olliver (Ia.) opposed the bill.

Desperate Mexican Bandits.

GUANAJUATO, Mex., March 30. - A few days ago six bandits were discovered by a detachment of rural guards near Leon taking up the track of the Mexican Central railroad for the purpose of derail-ing the express train that would soon be due, with the view to robbery. The guards fired upon the bandits, killing every one of them. This stopped the rode into the town of Bedrito and held up a number of citizens on the street at midday, securing a considerable amount of money. One man resisted, and was fatally shot by the bandits. They then coolly rode out of town. The band is under the leadership of Guan Fiento, one of the most desperate men of his class in the republic.

Paris' Reign of Terror.

Paris Reign of Terror.

Paris, March 30.—There was a dynamite explosion late yesterday afternoon in the building of the Credit Lyonnaise, one of the largest banking institutions of the city. The extent of the damage has not yet been learned. It is said two persons were injured. Police are in charge of the building, and refuse to let anybody approach. Two arrests have been made. The many anarchist outbreaks recently have created a veritable reign of terror, and visitors are leaving by hundreds. Judge Benoit, whose house was recently shattered, has been ordered by his landloid to vacate.

A Determined Priest.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 30 .- Rev. Rosano Nasca, the Italian priest, has been threatened with assassination by some of his parishioners, who are ex-bandits, and he goes armed night and day. Many of his people here are of the most de-graded class of Italians. A week ago one of them asked the priest to baptize his child, and he said he would if the father would help to support the Italian church. The father flew into a passion and threatened to drive the priest out of the country. Two days later a plot for assassinating the priest was discovered.

Death at a London Fire.

London, March 30 .- Fire in a restaurant on Victoria street resulted in the death of two of the inmates of the building and the injuring of another. The flames spread so rapidly that the stair-cases were burned, and a man and a woman on the top floor jumped from a window. The man was instantly killed and the woman so badly injured that her life is despaired of. After the fire was extinguished the dead body of a woman, burned almost beyond recognition, was found.

Serious Charge Against a Juror. PHILADELPHIA, March 30 .- Another and serious turn was made in the Cascaden case at Magistrate McCarty's of-fice, when Thomas F. Wheeler, the only colored juror on the panel of the twelve men whose failure to agree will result in a new trial for the murderer of Offi-cer Findley, made an affidavit charging Elias W. Evans, one of the trio who stood out for murder in the second degree, with embracery.

Cardinal Manning's Successor. London, March 30.—It is officially announced that the Right Rev. Herbert Vaughan, bishop of Salford, has been appointed to the place of Cardinal Manning. The pope is said to be delighted with Bishop Vaughan, as the latter is in thorough sympathy with the pontiff's utterances on the labor question. Highest of all in Leavening Power .- U. S. Expense not considered, planists should be able to tune their own piano, for often one string out of tune gives as much trouble as if the whole scale were so and no tuner at hand. Our new book teaches a new method, whereby every lady can easily tune. The Press, N. Y. says: "It teaches how to tune by a new simple process, and divests the art of all mystery. It also tells how to remedy all defects in piano and organ." The price, bound in Leatherett is 75c., but to introduce quickly we will send it FREE, with ten pieces sheet music, and a present that sells for one dollar, to all sending nine two-cent stamps for postage, etc., and names of six persons who play and have a piano.
