

A NEW CANDIDATE.

General Slocum Mentioned as a New York Possibility.

A SPLENDID MILITARY RECORD.

Representative Greenleaf Names the New York Soldier-Statestman As a Possible Compromise Between Cleveland and Hill, but Feels He Would Forbid the Use of His Name.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—That Senator Hill's friends have lost faith in his candidacy is evident from the manner in which they are casting around for a new candidate who can unite the Cleveland and Hill forces in New York.

"If neither Hill nor Cleveland can be nominated," said Mr. Greenleaf, "I do not know of a stronger candidate than General H. W. Slocum, of New York."

"I regard him as having the finest military record of any living American. He commanded the right wing of Meade's army at Gettysburg and the left wing during Sherman's march to the sea. He was in all of the important engagements in which Fitz John Porter was concerned and was at Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg and other noted battles."

"I should like to see the Democratic party select a soldier for its candidate. I believe it would be a successful experiment. The only drawback is that General Slocum is one of the delegates at large for Hill, and he would not do anything or allow anything to be done that would in any way look as if he were working for or wanted the nomination."

Only two were rescued.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—General Charles M. Field died at his residence in this city of Bright's disease. General Field was born near Lexington, Ky., in 1828 and graduated from West Point in 1848. He served in the army until 1861, in the famous Second cavalry, commanded by Colonel Albert S. Johnston and Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. Lee. Safety in the Midst of Danger.

This would seem a contradiction—is so, in fact, to the eye. But experience has proved its possibility. Take the case of the individual who dwells in a malarious region. A robust constitution is no certain defense against the dread chills. What is? Recorded testimony covering a period little short of half a century, proves that Hoozer's Stomach Bitters is precisely the thing. This content does not limit the field where the medicine has proved its efficacy. In South America, the Isthmus of Panama, Mexico, everywhere, in fact where miasmatic disease takes on its most obstinate and formidable forms, the Bitters is a recognized specific in illimitable demand, and prescribed by physicians of repute. Potent, too, is it in disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, and against that destroyer, la grippe. It improves appetite, neutralizes rheumatism and kidney complaints.

WARNED IN TIME.

People will have themselves largely to blame if the horrid grip secures a foothold here this winter. The Board of Health sounded a note of warning a few days ago. Physicians all agree that with proper precautions the disease may be prevented. Aged and enfeebled persons, in fact any one whose system is run down, require a healthful stimulant just now. The Klein's Silver Age and Duquesne rye whiskeys which sell respectively at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart are the purest and best stimulants known. The most skilled practitioner in the country will endorse and prescribe these brands and leading hospitals use them exclusively.

Major Klein also sells quinine, French, Gibson, Overholt and Bear Creek at $1 per quart or six quarts for $5. His establishment is headquarters for everything in the drug line. Goods expressed everywhere. Send for catalogue, mentioning this paper, to
