

BIG WESTERN FLOODS.

Rains and High Water Spread Ruin in Many States.

Farmers Are Appalled by the Remarkable Weather.

Floods, waterpouts, cloudbursts, hurricanes, and fierce thunder and lightning kept a good portion of Illinois in a turmoil for nearly a week. Every stream in the State was swollen, or out of its banks, and scores of towns were cellar-deep in water.

RESULTS OF A LATE SPRING.

Crops Affected by Long Rains and Cold Weather.

The New York Times presents special dispatches from its correspondents in the following twenty-two States in the Union, giving a careful and conservative summary of the acreage, condition, prospects, and probable yield of cotton, corn and wheat.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

THE Administration building will have a mosaic floor costing $5000.

A COLLECTION of finely mounted birds and animals will be shown in the Pennsylvania buildings.

A TELEPHONE exchange having, it is estimated, about 600 instruments, will be established in the Exposition grounds.

THE model of the Victory Nelson's celebrated flag-ship, will be brought to the Exposition by Manager Abnd, of the Prince of Wales's Theatre, London.

INVITATIONS are being sent to distinguished guests to attend the dedication ceremonies of the Exposition next October.

IT is announced that the Virginia Exposition Board intends to reproduce at the Fair Mount Vernon, the famous home and last resting place of George Washington.

DR. HENRY J. REYNOLDS and Samuel B. Foster, Chicago tourists, recently climbed to the summit of South Dome, one of the highest points of the Yosemite range, and painted in enormous letters on one of the most conspicuous cliffs the words: "Visit the World's Fair in Chicago, in 1893."

A COMPANY has been granted the privilege of carrying visitors by lake and from the Exposition grounds. It is planning to run at least fourteen steamers. Between the "lake front" in Chicago and the grounds, four large boats, two of them whalebacks, and all having a capacity of 5000 each, will make trips every half hour.

A NEW JERSEY pottery firm is making a large number of specimens of fine work for exhibition at the Fair. One piece already completed is an elegant vase, forty inches high and fifty-two inches in circumference.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

WHITEWASHERS are frequent enough this season.

THE Bostonians expect to win the pennant without trouble.

KELLY is doing most of the catching for the Boston team.

PITCHER GALVIN, of Pittsburg, is in his thirty-eighth year.

JOYCE, of Brooklyn, batted safely in every one of his first eleven games.

THE Boston team so far leads all the League teams in base-running.

RYAN, of Chicago, is probably the best throwing outfielder in the profession.

ASSON, of Chicago, has finally realized the value of bunt hitting, and is practicing his art at it daily.

MCALLEN, of Cleveland, scored against the New Yorks in a recent game, from second base, on a hit to the pitcher.

HUTCHINSON, of Chicago, and Rusie, of New York, the two crack pitchers of the country, are still out of form.

MANAGER POWERS attributes the recent poor showing of the New Yorks to "Rusie's lame arm and back and lack of team work."

THE first baseball fatality of the season occurred at Dover, N. H., when Jones Rieker died from injuries received while sliding to the home plate.

SENATORS HIGGINS, WOLCOTT AND DUBOIS, who are frequently among the spectators at the game, used to play ball with their college nines.

THE allegation is made that when a game of baseball is in progress at Washington, it is almost impossible to find a quorum of the House of Representatives among the spectators.

THE size, tone and enthusiasm of the attendance everywhere afford no practical demonstration of the repeated winter assertion that baseball "is dying out" and that "consolidation would ruin the game."

O'BRIEN, of Brooklyn, had a funny experience at Louisville. He made the circuit of the bases on a base on balls, a steal and a strike out. It was then discovered that he had batted out of his turn, and he was declared out by Umpire Lynch.

GALE, of St. Louis, is supposed to be in the third or fourth inning—be played all over again? My idea is that the club in the lead should retain its advantage and the next day take up the game at the point at which it was abandoned. When a trot is interrupted by darkness the horses are not compelled to run all the heats once more. I hold that the same principle applies to baseball.

RECORD OF THE LEAGUE CLUBS.

Table showing win/loss records for various league clubs (Boston, Cleveland, etc.) and their respective records.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

The Democrats Meet in New Hampshire, Missouri and Iowa.

Democratic State Conventions were held on the same day in New Hampshire, Missouri and Iowa.

The Democrats of New Hampshire assembled at Concord and adopted resolutions highly flattering to Grover Cleveland, and cast down upon Delegate Urch, who charged the ex-President with disloyalty to his party, and who endeavored to have inserted in the resolution the name of Senator Hill in place of Mr. Cleveland.

The delegates-at-large are: Harry Bingham, of Littleton; Frank Jones, of Fortmouth; Alvah W. Sulloway, at Franklin, and George W. Chandler, of Manchester. The delegation is unopposed, but favors Cleveland's renomination.

At the Democratic State Convention at Sedalia, Mo., delegates-at-large were elected to the National Convention. Resolutions were adopted favoring the renomination of Grover Cleveland.

At Council Bluffs over eight hundred delegates attended the Iowa Democratic Convention, and announced their unshaken fealty to Horace Boies for President of the United States by a unanimous vote, and without a dissenting voice either in committee or in Convention. Resolutions were adopted instructing the twenty-six delegates of the Hawkeye State to vote as a unit for Governor Boies, and use every effort in their power to secure his nomination for the Presidency.

UNFORTUNATE MINERS.

Over Two Score Perish at Roslyn, Washington.

Later particulars in regard to the fearful mine disaster at Roslyn, Washington, state that forty-six men lost their lives by the explosion.

The slope in which the explosion occurred is a new part of the mine and was just being driven to the place where the shaft is to be sunk to 2000 feet long and has seven levels.

Forty-eight men were at work at the time of the accident, most of them were married. Work in the slope was more remunerative than in the main mine, and the men had, therefore, been giving men with large families the preference for this labor. All are dead.

The slope was being driven in for the development of the mine. At intervals of 300 feet along its length levels were run laterally from the main slope. Main ways were being driven parallel to the slope from different levels, in order to establish a draught and prevent fire damp.

There was 150 feet of this yet to be cut when the explosion occurred. It is supposed that the explosion occurred in this manhole. A few moments before the explosion a new shift of six men had relieved an equal number of men in one of these levels or entries. They had been in only one hour when the explosion occurred.

The only living persons who were in the mine at the time are Walter Steele and Frank Hodgkins. The latter was a rope rider, who attends cars going up and down. Steele was a trapper, who attended the trap coors, opening and shutting them as they passed. As Hodgkins passed Steele the latter was taken with an impulse to go to the surface, and mounted the car with Hodgkins, just as the boys reached the surface the explosion occurred, both being blown from the mouth of the slope.

Immediately after the explosion the inhabitants of the village crowded about the opening to the mine, giving utterance to their piteous lamentations, and calling upon the assembled miners to rush into the mine.

The families of the dead miners are almost destitute. The mine is running on short time. Many of the dead men had only been working a few days, after a three-month lay off. Most of the bodies recovered were horribly burned and mutilated. The dead were taken care of as fast as they were brought to the surface. The City Hall was turned into a temporary morgue.

The feeling is one of general censure of the mining company, and there is a decided disposition to hold it responsible for the death of the forty-six men who are known to have perished in the accident. A. Rowland, who up to two weeks ago, was Superintendent of the company, resigned his position because he refused longer to accept the responsibility for the safety of the men under him unless the company took extra precautions.

A HOME FOR PRINTERS.

Dedication of a Handsome Building at Colorado Springs.

The Childs-Drexel Home for Printers was dedicated at Colorado Springs, Col., in the presence of a vast concourse of people.

The dedication ceremonies were preceded by a street parade, in which many trades unions took part. Governor Rount and Mayor Sprague delivered addresses of welcome.

Mr. George W. Childs responded briefly, expressing his warm friendship for the printers. Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, also delivered an address.

The home is located one mile from the city on a small elevation which overlooks the surrounding country, including the garden of the Grosu Pike Peak, Manitou and Cheyenne Canon. It is constructed of white lava stone, with red sandstone trimmings. The style is Renaissance, and the construction cost $100,000.

The home is four stories in height and 141 feet front, with a depth of forty feet. It has three towers with balconies extending along both sides and on every story.

The fund for the construction of the building was started in 1885, when Mr. George W. Childs and A. J. Drexel, of Philadelphia, presented the International Typographical Union their joint check for $10,000. To increase this fund it was agreed that on May 12, the anniversary of the birth of Mr. Childs, every union printer out of the Mississippi River, should contribute the price of 1000 cents, and on September 12, of the year following, the birthday of Mr. Drexel, all Union men west of the river should donate a like sum. By this means the money was secured to construct this magnificent home, the location of which was decided upon during the National Convention held at Denver in 1879.

SIXTY PERSONS DROWNED.

A Raft Upsets and Men, Women and Children Thrown into the River.

A great lumber raft, carrying 100 men, women and children, who lived on board during the trip down the river, went to pieces on snags near Brody, in Galicia, in a high wind. All on board were thrown into the river.

Sixty were drowned. The rest clung to logs and boards from the raft until help reached them from the shore. About forty of the bodies were recovered and laid side by side on the river bank. The raft was effectively constructed and the owners will be prosecuted.

The losses of sheep during the past year throughout the country generally were lighter than during any recent season.

SABBATH SCHOOL.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON FOR MAY 22.

Lesson Text: "Daniel and His Companions," Daniel I., 8:21—Golden Text: Daniel I., 8:—Commentary.

"But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank." This portion of the first verse of our lesson is the Golden Text for the day; we therefore give a little extra space to it.

We see Daniel, one of a company of young Jews, carried captive in the third year of Jehoiakim, in the palace of the king of Babylon, in training to stand in due time before the king as one of his wise men. While being taught the wisdom of the Chaldeans they are to be nourished with food and wine from the king's table. Daniel determines that he and his companions will not defile themselves with food which has been offered to idols, for they are true worshippers of the one living and true God, and know that whatever is offered to idols is offered to devils (1 Cor. x, 14; 17; 1 Cor. x, 20). All true believers are commanded to do all things, even their eating and drinking, to the glory of God (1 Cor. x, 31), and this one commandment is the whole temperance question for the Christian.

"Now God had brought Daniel into favor and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs." When any one determines to glorify God and serve Him only, His way will be prepared. When a man's ways please the Lord He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him (Prov. xvi, 7). See the story of Joseph, Gen. xxxix, 21; Acts vii, 9, 10, and remember that the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show Himself strong on behalf of all who trust in Him (II Chron. xvi, 9).

"And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord, the king." Daniel feared no man, neither did he fear death, but he did fear to offend his God. The fear of man bringeth a snare, but whose patheth his trust in the Lord shall be safe (Prov. xxix, 25). How often the fear of man or the desire to please man doth get us into sin; the only remedy is to know the living God and live only to please Him.

"I, 12. 'Prove Thy servants, I beseech Thee, ten days, and let them give us pulse instead of meat, and drink water instead of wine: and let us be able to stand before the king's table, and we will be as the king's servants, for we have been dedicated to Thee. On such food Daniel felt he could ask the blessing of his God and expect it. Let Christians test all their eating and drinking, all their home entertainments and church entertainments, by the honest question from the heart, Can I conscientiously ask the blessing of God upon this? And it will tend to make all these more simple and for the glory of God. Daniel's conduct made him seem very peculiar in the eyes of his church entertainments, by the honest question from the heart, Can I conscientiously ask the blessing of God upon this? And it will tend to make all these more simple and for the glory of God.
