LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Kellar will be at the opera house next Saturday afternoon.

The Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania are in session at Sunbury this week.

Our prices tell the story of our immense trade—Powers shoe store.

"Tangled Up" at the opera house this coming Friday evening.

W. E. Tyson was recently appointed postmaster at Vail, Blair county, near Tyrone.

We hear that Marsh Creek was stocked with trout recently and that fishing in that stream will be illegal for several seasons.

General Hastings has mapped out a summer trip to Europe of several months. He expects to leave about the first of June, and will not return before August.

The funeral of Mrs. T. F. Wallace, Jr., occurred at Milesburg on last Friday afternoon. The services were held in the new Presbyterian church at that place.

Mr. John Lane, who went to Michigan about a week ago to be treated for rheumatism, writes home that he is much improved and looks forward to a complete recovery.

Moyer Lyon, the merchant, spent last week in the eastern cities selecting new goods for the spring and summer season. You can depend on it that he made a fine selection.

The trial of W. H. Dill, the Clearfield banker, takes place at Pittsburg this week. It had been postponed for a week on account of the illness of Jonathan Boynton, an important witness.

A special train will be run from State College on Saturday at 1 p. m., over the Bellefonte Central, for the accommodation of such as may want to attend Kellar's entertainment that afternoon.

Doctor D. L. Dartt and bride arrived in Bellefonte on last Friday evening from their wedding tour. The boys of the town called on the Dr. later and tendered him the usual calithumpian greeting.

Millheim will be strictly in it this year as they have organized a first class base ball club and are practicing every evening. It is their intention to be the champions of Pennsvalley and if possible, of the county.

The axe factory is in full operation again after a shut down of over a week. We are told they have orders to keep them agoing for the next year. This is good news for the many workmen employed about that thriving institution.

Clinton county has an 80-year-old citizen, one Jacob Deise, who recently cut sixty-three mine props twenty-eight feet long, averaging eight inches at the top, and peeled one and one-half tons of bark in three weeks, walking a distance of three miles every day.

In the report of Grand Master of Records J. D. Barnes, of the K. G. E. at the annual meeting of that body at Chambersburg last week, it was shown that during the year in this state there was an increase of 1,200 in membership, and 31 new castles instituted. There are now 448 castles in the state.

There is a curiosity at the home of Ellis Allen, in south Philipsburg. An old hen has taken charge of a litter of four puppies, which she cares for just as if they were chicks. She will sit on them and cink and call them to eat in such a manner that it is indeed an interesting sight to behold.

When you attend the commencement exercises of the High School, in the Garman opera house, this Thursday afternoon, look at the programmes furnished. They were printed at the CENTRE DEMOCRAT office and will bear inspection. We are noted for doing fine job work.

DEATH OF JAMES MORRISON.

After a Season of Great Suffering he Dies on Sunday Night.

James Morrison, the father of Gayler Morrison, the present Recorder of Centre county, died at his son's residence on Bishop street, at 9.30 o'clock on Sunday night. For the last twenty-four years Mr. Morrison had been in feeble health, and at times he would become very weak. When he moved from Port Matilda to Bellefonte about two years ago he was hauled up from the train to the house, and since that time he has been failing very fast. About seven weeks ago he began to grow worse, and four weeks after he began to realize that death was near, and he called his children to his bedside and gave them some excellent advice. Since then he has been suffering great pain. Sunday his pain was so intense that perspiration stood out on his face. At 9.30 death came to his relief.

He was born and raised in or near Port Matilda, this county, and his age was 66 years, 11 months and 15 days. During his younger days he taught school in the winter and farmed in summer. He was a member of the Methodist church, and as such was an honest, upright, christian gentleman. About six years ago his wife died who also was a godly woman. Besides Gayler the deceased leaves a daughter Mary, who is married to J. W. Rightmower, who keeps house for Galer on Bishop street. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning at 9.30 at the house on Bishop street. The remains were then taken to Port Matilda on the 10.20 train where services were again held.—Gazette.

Fine Accommodations.

It was a privilege recently to take a trip over the Bellefonte Central to State College and return. The well equipped train was the first surprise. The cars are bright, fresh and clean, just from the shops. The interior is kept clean and is more inviting than most of the dirty contrivances hauled by some railroads for the accommodation of the public. Conductor J. Ross Parker, in his new blue, frock coat uniform with bright buttons on it, is just to hand-some for anything and it is no wonder that all the pretty girls, and even the old maids, along Buffalo Run throw kisses as the train whirrs by.

The trip to the College is made in a very short time.

At that point there is a large force of men at work ballasting and filling up the new section of road recently built. The new depot at the College is a handsome building and in harmony with its surroundings.

From the amount of passengers and freight traffic over this road since completed to the College it certainly must be a success.

Near Hunter's station there is a large force of laborers at work cleaning up the grounds and carpenters and mechanics putting up the buildings. When completed it will be a fine place for picnics and summer excursions.

Changes in Railroad Circles.

H. C. Brew has resigned his position as shop clerk for the Tyrone division P. R. R., to take effect June 1, and will thereafter represent the Standard Scale and Supply Co., of Pittsburg, whose scale factory is located at the Valentine furnace, Bellefonte. His territory will be the counties of Central Pennsylvania and he will continue to be a resident of Tyrone which is an excellent point from which to cover the field over which he will travel. Mr. Brew went from Bellefonte to Tyrone in 1876.

Foot Crushed.

Last Saturday evening Percy, son of Geo. Blackford, of this place, arrived home from Johnstown, where he met with a serious accident. In attempting to board a moving train the day previous, he missed his hold and his foot was caught under the wheels. He was dragged for some distance; the result was that several toes were smashed and he was badly cut about the face. The injuries to his foot may to some extent cripple him and will compel him to remain at home for some months.

An Opportunity.

There is some talk of the fifth wheel factory at Howard being moved away. Williamsport, Lock Haven and other towns are offering special inducements for the enterprise. If such is the case can't Bellefonte make some move to get this manufactory located in our town. A few live industries of this order would be appreciated. If we had a live board of trade something of this order might be done.

Society Event.

The assembly given in the Bush Arcade on Monday evening was quite a society event and was largely attended by young people of Bellefonte and adjoining towns. Beautiful dresses, handsome young ladies and good music were some of the special features of the occasion.

Can't be Done.

The man who says he can buy better and cheaper clothing elsewhere than from us, must either be ignorant, untruthful or mistaken, because there is no place that can compete with us in regard to quality, style or low prices.

Baker Ballot.

The Pittsburg Times has a complete election outfit that complies with the Baker Ballot law, passed by the last legislature. They are sending a man from town to town in the western part of the state with this election appliance for the purpose of setting it up and holding trial elections to show the people how the new law will operate. The Times representative will be at Bellefonte Friday, May 22nd, and the county commissioners have granted the use of Arbitration room, in the court house, for this purpose. The commissioners will make an effort to have the election boards of the county present on this occasion to give them instructions.

Kellar Next Saturday.

This man has made himself famous at what might be known as a wonder worker. His home is in Philadelphia where he has a hall of his own for the purpose of entertaining the nightly throngs. He is assisted in his entertainments by Mrs. Kellar and it certainly will be a treat to attend a performance given by them. All the new and startling features presented at the Egyptian Hall will be presented, embracing modern magic, allied with oriental occultism. In short, if you miss Kellar at the opera house next Saturday afternoon you will be sorry. Admission 35, 50 and 75 cents. Seats are selling rapidly.

The Railroad Company Paid.

About four years ago Dr. J. W. Dunwiddie, of Philipsburg, was injured by the cars at what is known as the Maple street crossing, in that city. He brought suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company to recover damages in the courts of Centre county. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $8,000. The Railroad Company made an appeal to Supreme Court. After a serious consideration the company withdrew its appeal and paid the $8,000 damage. Judge Orvis notified Dr. Dunwiddie that such was the decision.

Horse Stolen.

Last week a large dapple gray horse was stolen from the stable of S. H. Irvin, in Barree township, Huntingdon county. The thief's name is Walter Colum. He took from other parties 2 sets of harness, buffalo robe, blanket, etc. He was traced over through Pennsvalley to Linden Hall and down to Spring Mills on last Sunday. It is supposed that he traveled towards Lewisburg. A reward of $70 has been offered for his arrest and conviction.

West Susquehanna Classic.

On Wednesday evening the West Susquehanna Classic of the Reformed church met in Lock Haven, to continue in session until Sunday night. The opening sermon on Wednesday evening was preached by Rev. Eisenberg, of Centre Hall. The Classic embraces the counties of Clinton, Centre, Lycoming and a portion of Snyder county. Eighteen ministers and the same number of Elders are in attendance.

Grange Meeting.

Centre county Pomona Grange, No. 13, P. of H., will meet in the hall of Victor Grange (near Oak Hall Station) Friday, May 27, at 9.30 a. m. All 4th degree members are cordially invited to attend.

SEVENTY SEVEN YEARS.

Anniversary of William White's Birth Celebrated on Saturday.

Sunday was the 77th anniversary of the birth of Mr. William White, of Mount Eagle. But the celebration of it with due form and eclat took place on Saturday, and was a complete surprise to the aged gentleman in whose honor it was intended, who with his wife has lived in that vicinity for more than a half century. There is perhaps no one there more deserving of this honor than he. For 35 years he has been a resident of Mt. Eagle.

During the past 56 years he has worked elsewhere only one year. All the rest of the time he handled the ferguson at Curtin's Forge. His life and character has been highly exemplary and e has the confidence and respect of all. The aged people lost, by death, both son and daughter. Their own health, however, is quite fair and they enjoyed the occasion. If their lives are spared until next April they will celebrate the golden anniversary of their married life. Mr. White was a contemporary, friend and schoolmate of Ex-Governor Curtin, who still maintains a close friendship with the old gentleman.

Among the gifts received on Saturday were a valuable and substantial suit of clothes, six sacks of flour, a bag of chop, 25 pounds of sugar, 12 pounds of coffee, underwear, and a variety of other articles which will contribute to the comfort and happiness of the aged people.

At 1 o'clock the guests assembled around the sumptuously laden table. Among them were the following:

Roland—Mrs Susan Holter, Mrs Julia Harvey, Mrs John Zimmerman, Mrs Nancy Confer, Col. Austin Curtin, R. C. Irwin, Samuel Bathurst, Robert Jacobs, Mrs. Lydia McMin and Mrs. James Curtin. Mt. Eagle—Miss Lizzie Bathurst, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Leathers, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. VanGordon, Mrs. William Bathurst. Howard—Mrs. Kate Henderson, Mrs. Elizabeth Funk, Mrs. Anna Neff, Mrs. Bertha Stahl and Master Merrill Neff.

The Registers at work.

The assessors throughout the state are now busily at work making the preliminary enrollment of voters upon which the election of next Fall will be based. The assessment law is entirely apart and separate from the Baker ballot law, but it is quite as important as the latter, as upon a correct and honest enrollment of the voters hinges the question whether any ballot law will furnish an honest election. Every man entitled to vote should see to it that he is enrolled at this time, and as soon after as possible he should see to it that no man is enrolled who is not entitled to vote. The honesty of the enrollment can be assured by the vigilance of the individual citizens, and not otherwise. Every man knows whether his next door neighbor is entitled to a vote or not, and if every man will make it his business to see who has been placed on the Assessors' lists, and to insist that those not entitled to vote are struck from the list, the chances of an honest election will be greatly improved. Now is the time to see that the Assessors do their work faithfully.

Winding up its Affairs.

We are within a few days of the third anniversary of the Johnstown flood, and the Relief Commission appointed by Governor Beaver directly after the disaster, held its final meeting on Tuesday at Philadelphia. The affairs of the commission and now definitely wound up. The total amount received and disbursed by it was nearly three millions—in exact figures $2,966,384. There were many contributions through other agencies, and as direct gifts, but the bulk of the help was done by this commission. It will go into history as being a movement of charity as noble and spontaneous as the disaster itself was unexampled.

Do You Dip?

The right to dip for fish in the streams of this Commonwealth is very complex according to the various authorities cited, but it looks as though it was unlawful when the following was received: In reply to an inquiry sent to H. C. Ford, president of the Pennsylvania Commissioners of Fisheries. The reply states: "It is unlawful to use any net in the river or any stream at any time." This should settle the question.

What we Keep.

We have no room for cheap trash and no desire to deal in it. We guarantee that every article in our stock has got the value in it, and is worth every cent of the price asked. We sell the kind of goods that improve on close inspection.

SAMUEL LEWIN.

The famous serpentine dance will be one of the special features in "Tangled Up" on Friday evening.

The best wearing shoe for boys at $1.25 that you have ever seen. The best $1.25 shoe for men, in the county.

G. W. Shock, editor of the Mifflinburg Telegraph, purchased the Lewisburg Chronicle last week and it is his intention to run both offices. Of course they will be republican, as usual.

Aikens & Krumrine, merchants, State College, recently purchased a handsome delivery wagon that is said to be the finest of the kind in the county. They appear to have a prospering business established at that place.

SUGAR VALLEY RAILROAD.

The Citizens Committee Meets With Some Success.

From the Sugar Valley Journal we learn the following: "The citizens' committee appointed to secure free right of way through Greene and Logan townships for the new railroad have about completed their work and have been successful. The committee is composed of J. B. Garner, Dr. J. A. Houtz, John Morris and Dr. W. R. Goodman. They have worked hard and are deserving of much credit. Enough money has been subscribed to purchase the right of way where it was not given free. If the men at the head of the management of this new project really intend to build the railroad they will not hesitate long before commencing to work on the road."

Reformatory Rioters Sentenced.

George Cato, colored, and Harry Angel, of Philadelphia, and Ed. Williams, of Washington county, inmates of the Huntingdon reformatory, who were convicted of assault with intent to kill the keepers, and of rioting, were sentenced by Judge Furst to the Western penitentiary Friday evening. Cato received a term of three years and five months, and the other to two years each. William Cornelley, who attempted to wreck a passenger train in the Spruce creek tunnel got seven years, and Earnest Rogers, a parole reformatory inmate who brutally assaulted the eight year old daughter of Wilburt Straight in Juniata township, was sentenced to the Western penitentiary at hard labor for twelve years.

The Reason.

One of the main reasons why more and better fruit is not grown is because the trees are starved. Some persons have had fruit trees standing on their premises twenty years, and in all that time have never fed the tree anything in the way of manure. A tree will manage to maintain an existence under such circumstances, but to expect it to bear full crops of fine fruit is an absurdity. You must give your tree something to eat before you can expect it to do its best in the way of fruit bearing.

The High School Commencement.

Is causing quite a stir among the young people. The older persons, especially the ladies, are becoming greatly interested in the bargains being offered at Meyers Bazaar. White goods for children and ladies dresses. Dotted Swiss, Nainsooks, etc. Ribbed vests are moving rapidly, largest line in town. Children hats and caps are creating quite a talk.

He Wanted Justice.

A demented man named Geo. Fousal rode on horseback from Mosquito Valley to Williamsport on Saturday afternoon, and when he reached the county seat turned his horse in on the pavement at Pine street and entered the court house without dismounting. He said he was after justice in the settlement of an estate. The man rode clear through the corridor before he was arrested.

Kellar next Saturday afternoon.

We are not afraid to show our goods and quote prices.—Powers shoe store.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Miller, and their bright little daughter, of Pine Grove Mills, were pleasant callers on Tuesday and were much interested in the art of printing.

E. Brown, Jr., the furniture man says he will sell goods upon the installment plan, at cash prices; and he always does what he says.

The entertainment by Kellar, on Saturday afternoon, will attract a large audience. Several hundred seats are sold already and the entire house will be taken before Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yard and son, of Erie, Pa., are spending a few days in this section and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hewes. Mr. Yard is a prominent attorney in the Erie courts.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold an ice cream and strawberry festival in their rooms during the afternoon and evening of Decoration day. They are anxious to raise money for the furnishing fund and the proceeds will be devoted to that purpose.

The foolish may dispute facts, but the wise will not fail to call and see our immense assortment of spring clothing which we are offering at cheaper prices than were ever known in the history of the clothing trade.

SAMUEL LEWIN.

If blossoms indicate anything there will be an abundance of fruit this season. Rev. Houck says he saw an apple tree on which the blossoms were so plenty that the limbs were bending under the weight. Of course it must be so, the preacher saw it.

The Waite Comedy company was playing at the Broad Street Theatre in Hazleton at the time of the fire Saturday morning. All the costumes and scenery were burned. The company is well known to Bellefonte theatre goers, as they played here several times.
