Clarkson's Choice.

WASHINGTON, May 25.-The Post this afternoon publishes an interview with General Clarkson, chairman of Le Republican national committee on the presidential situation, in which Mr. Clarkson says he favors the nomination of the man who can unite all the elements of the party. The president, he said, had about 300 pledged votes, but the other 600 are substantially unpledged. When asked about Blaine General Clarkwhen asked about Blaine General Chark-son replied: "Oh, he's all right, as you will find by asking the 7,000,000 Repub-licans in the land." In conclusion the general said if he had his choice he would select another man than either Harrison or Blains for president but all Harrison or Blaine for president, but all Republicans should give up personal friendship for party interests.

Ex-President Polk's Will Void.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 25.-Ex-Pres-ident James K. Polk's will was declared null and void by Chancellor Allison, and the estate given to the heirs at law. Polk left the home, consisting of several acres in the heart of Nashville, on which his tomb is located, to his wife, and after her death to that relative who should be pronounced the "worthiest relative bearing the name of Polk," and on that Polk's death to a successor similarly chosen by the Governor of Tennessee. Mrs. Polk died last year, and the will was attacked as an attempt to entail the property. Mr. Tasker Polk, of North Carolina, brought the suit. The decision overturned the will and gives the heirs at law the property. It is worth probably $300,000.
