TALK OF DARK HORSES AGAIN.

Opponents of Blaine and Harrison Express Confidence That Neither Will Win, and Allison and Lincoln Are Most Prominently Mentioned. Secrelary Blaine's Resignation.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 8 .- Nearly every delegate was in his seat when, shortly after 11 o'clock this forenoon, Temporary Chairman Fassett called the national Republican convention to order. After the report of the committee on credentials and permanent organization had been disposed of Governor McKinley, of Ohio, was introduced as permanent chairman of the convention. He was received with salves of applause as he came to the chair, and his speech of acceptance was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic cheers. The report of the committee on resolutions was then

The event of last night was the meeting of New York delegates at the rooms of Chauncey Depew. Twenty-nine were present, all of whom pledged them-selves to vote for President Harrison's renomination against all candidates. Mr. Depew presided, and made a vigorous address in favor of Harrison, as also did Senator Hiscock and others. Besides those present at the meeting it was said that two more delegates would vote for the president and that eight would not vote for Blaine. These, the delegates present said, would ultimately join the Harrison column.

The uncertainty of the situation was the cause of the revival of the third candidate boom, not the Alger boom, but the dark horse boom. While there were various names mentioned in connection therewith, that most frequently heard was Senator Allison, of Iowa. It was advocated from the far east, where its interests seemed to be confided to the charge of United States Senator Higgins, of Delaware; from the west and northwest, where editor George Thomson, of the St. Paul Dispatch, one of the Minne-sota delegates, was the chief fugleman.

Another editor, Frank Hatton, of the Washington Post, who was postmaster general in Arthur's cabinet, and who is equally well known for his opposition to President Harrison and Mr. Blaine, is the engineer of another dark horse movement. Mr. Hatton seems to be willing to take anybody which will tend to knock out both the principal candi-dates. He came here talking for Sherman, but is now quoted as having transferred his affection to Minister Lincoln, of Illinois. "Whatever Lincoln has attempted he has done well," he said. "It is no easy matter to carry the Lincoln name, but Bob Lincoln has done this, which is more than any of the other sons of heroes have done with the great war established reputations. I understand that there is quite a sentiment in his favor in Massachusetts, and he is to be counted among the possibilities. He is a clean man, an able man, and every Republican in the country would vote for him."

NEW YORK, June 8 .- Ex-Secretary Blaine, accompanied by his wife and his son, James G. Blaine, Jr., and Miss Dodge (Gail Hamilton), arrived in Jersey City at 9:10 o'clock last night from Washington. Mr. Blaine, when seen by a reporter, refused to be interviewed, Blaine party did not leave the car, as they were bound for Boston. At 9.41 the car left the depot and was run on to the ferryboat Maryland, to be taken to Mott Haven, where it was attached to the train for Boston that arrived there at 6.50 this morning.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 7.—At 12 o'clock today Chairman Clarkson called the national Republican convention to order. Mr. Clarkson used for this purpose a remarkable gavel which had been made for the occasion. It is hand-somely carved and mounted with silver. The handle is inscribed with date and data, while on the gavel are the words, "Protection, reciprocity and honest money." The gavel is made from the old flag staff erected fifty years go at Fort Snelling, and was the first flag staff erected in this region.

J. Sloat Fassett was introduced as temporary chairman, and made a ringing speech. He devoted considerable of his time to the injustice of Democratic denial of the freedom of suffrage in the south. These references finally resulted in the audience calling "Reed, Reed, Reed!" and calls for him to come forward. Reed finally rose and went to the platform and made a brief speech, after which the work of the organization was proceeded with.

Washington, June 6. — Without a word of explanation, so far as correspondence shows, Mr. Blaine on Saturday sent to the president his resigna-tion of the office of secretary of state. Here are the brief, freezingly polite notes that passed between Mr. Blaine and Mr. Harrison. "To the President: "I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of secretary of state of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1889. The condition of public business in the department of state justifies me in requesting that my resigna-tion may be accepted immediately. I have the honor to be very respectfully, your obedient servant, "JAMES G. BLAINE," The following is the President's an-

"To the Secretary of State: "Your letter of this date tendering your resignation of the office of secre-tary of state of the United States has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once. Your resignation is therefore accepted. Very respectfully yours. Benjamin Harrison."

PIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS. Condensed Report of Proceedings in

Senate and House. Washington, June 3.—The exedus of Re-publican senators to Minneapolis had the effect of making the senate chamber a very quiet place yesterday. The session was taken up in considering and disposing of routine husiness and in the delivery by Mr. Stowart of the concluding portion of his free colnage speech. A resolution providing for an investigation of recent national bank failures was adopted, and a committee of senators was appointed to conduct the inquiry. The senate then adjourned until Monday next. The house spent another day in wrangling over the post-office appropriation bill, making but little headway. Mr. Livingstone (Ga.) was fortu-nate in securing the adoption of his amend-ment increasing the appropriation for inland mail (by star routes) from $5,645,000 to $5,845,-000. An amendment was also adopted increasing the appropriation for mail messenger service from $1,000,000 to $1,160,000. One hundred thousand dollars was granted for mail facili-ties in connection with the World's Columbian exposition.

Washington, June 4.—The house devoted itself to the further consideration of the post-office appropriation bill in committe of the whole, but adjourned without completing it. An amendment reducing by 10 per cent, the compensation of railroads for mail transportation was rejected, and an amendment provid-ing that no part of the money-appropriated for stamped envelopes should be used in printing on these envelopes the addresses of business firms was adopted. A point of order against this amendment was overruled.

Washington, June 6.—Yesterday was a "red letter" day in the house. Several important measures were passed under suspension of the rules. It is the first time during this session that the Democrats have worked as a unit. The Republican forces were largely depleted, and they were totally unable to stem the tide of legislation that had set in. The Democrats rallied to the support of every measure but one, that exempting state banks from taxa-tion, which failed to pass. Among the measures passed were: The anti-option bill, the res-olution placing the river and harbor and the naval appropriation bills in conference, the resolution for the purchase of a site and the erection of a pedestal for a statue to General Sherman, bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona as states, and finally the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. At times the house was in a perfect uproar. At 5:30 the reading of the legislative bill was commenced. Its reading occupied two hours. The bouse was in great disorder pending the consideration of the bill, but it was finally passed. Mr. McMillan (Tenn.) offered a resolution for the adjournment of congress on Saturday, which was referred to the committee on ways when was referred to the committee on ways and means, and at 8:10 p. m. the house adjourned. The senate passed most of the day listening to a speech by Mr. Vest on the free wool bill, during which he discussed the silver question, the tariff and reciprocity in his usual ironic style, and fired many rhetorical shafts at the Republicans. No business was transacted.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The senate surpassed all previous records yesterday in passing the diplomatic and consular appropriation b#l in thirty minutes. The following changes were made: Increases, emergency fund from $60,000 to $80,000; salaries of consul general at London, Paris, Havana and Rio de Janeiro, from $5,000 to $6,000, and bureau of American republics from $25,000 to $30,000. The following missions omitted by the house were restored: Hon-duras, Venezuela, Bolivia and Ecuador. For a continental railway survey $65,000, and $50,000 to relocate the existing frontier line between the United States and Mexico west of the Rio Grande river were appropriated. house had a brief session. An urgent deficiency bill appropriating $7,674,000 for pensions and $14,000 for contingent expenses of the house was passed. Bills were also passed es-tablishing weather bureau stations on Middle and Thunder Bay islands, Lake Huron, and ceding lands to the city of New Bedford, Mass., for a public park. The bill forfetting land grants opposite unconstructed roads at the time limited by the granting acts occupied the remainder of the day.

Singular Drowning Fatality. St. Joseph, Mo., June 8.—A remarkable case of drowning occurred in a small pond near Forest City, Mo. Stephen Shaler, a boy 16 years of age, was running across a foot bridge over the pond, when he fell overboard. His mother and sister, the latter a girl of 15, witnessed the accident and jumped into the water to rescue him. The water was over their heads, and, instead of saving the boy, they found themselves strug-gling for their own lives. The father, Stephen Shaler, summoned by the cries of his drowning wife and children, and although unable to swim, at once jumped into the water. The fight for life lasted only a short time. When the neighbors reached the spot it was only time to remove from the water the bodies of father, mother and children.

Killed Her Old Lover.

TRACEY, Cal., June 8.—Last April Walter D. Clark went to the home of Tillie Ludwig, daughter of a hotel keeper, with the intention of shooting her because she refused to marry him. Before he found her, however, her brother, Henry H. Ludwig, shot and severely wounded Clark. Ludwig was on trial for the shooting Monday, and Clark accompanied by an officer was Clark, accompanied by an officer, was en his way to the court house to testify in the case. As they were passing the hotel where Miss Ludwig lives the young woman came out and fired several shots at Clark, killing him. She was arrested.

Maggie's Valuable Hair. New York, June 8 .- A jury in the court of common pleas rendered a ver-dict for $500 in favor of Miss Maggie E. Lynn in her suit against Mrs. Alice Hardenbrook to recover damages for an assault and the loss of a lock of decidedly red hair. Maggie was a servent in Mrs. Hardenbrook's house, and she said in a fit of jealous rage her mistress beat her until she became insensible.
