

THE RACKET

He never takes the papers for they're dull as all creation, and besides he's "up" with everything that goes.

The mercury is dancing among the nineties now, and our best advice to U. is to keep cool.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

There are five inmates in Centre county jail on the charge of rape. That is not very complimentary, but tis true.

E. Brown, Jr., receives a nice line of wall paper constantly, and will have some put on for those who desire it.

Warm weather—yes, and the Philadelphia Branch is selling lots of light weight, ready made suits.

Senator P. Gray Meek and wife returned on Saturday evening from their editorial excursion to the Pacific coast.

Mr. David Sharer, of Spring township, has several trees of early cherries on his farm that are now ripe.

The Rose gas plant, erected at the Bellefonte nail works some time ago, was taken apart the past week and is being shipped to California, Pa.

As Thursday is our busy day, it was impossible to accept the invitation to give a helping hand at the raising of Mr. Vonada's new barn at Hublersburg.

Mr. Samuel Decker, of Zion, Pa., was a pleasant caller at our office on Wednesday. Mr. Decker is a candidate for Associate Judge and his announcement appears in another column.

Mr. D. A. Deitrick, of Hublersburg, has accepted a position in the prothonotary office and is assisting Mr. Shaeffer in the work.

Prof. J. Dorsey Hunter, principal of the public schools, of Gettysburg, is visiting at his parents home, Filmore.

The people of Nittany Valley are quite positive that the railroad project will be carried out and that ere long they will see the iron horse steaming through their fertile valley.

Travel to Penna. State College has been brisk the present week. The commencement exercises are more largely attended than in former years.

During the past week we have heard several of our business men predict that in about six months from date Bellefonte will be booming as of old.

The name of Dr. P. S. Fisher, of Walker township, (Zion, Pa.) appears among the announcements as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Legislature.

The Reformed picnic at the Keystone Park, on last Thursday, was a success. It was largely attended and the abundance of good things makes one wish for a picnic every week.

STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

Interesting Exercises this Year—The Attendance is Large.

The annual commencement exercises at State College took place this week, beginning on Sunday the 12th and closing on Wednesday evening with the farewell reception.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class was delivered in the college chapel on Sunday afternoon by Dr. McConnell, of Philadelphia.

On Monday evening the Junior oratorical contest occurred, in which six students, selected by the faculty from that class were interested. They were: Hayes W. Mattern, of Warriorsburg; George R. Wieland, State College; John M. Small, Harrisburg; Fred. F. Wells, Sugar Grove; Roy B. Mattern, Milesburg, and John F. Welsh, West Chester.

The decision of the judges was announced by E. R. Chambers, Esq., stating that the oration, "The American Home," by Roy B. Mattern, of Milesburg, was entitled to first prize.

At 8.30 Tuesday morning the annual meeting of the Alumni association, at 9.45 artillery salute, at 10 annual meeting of trustees and at 12 o'clock noon the alumni dinner in the armory occurred.

Tuesday evening the Hon. William U. Hensel, attorney general of Pennsylvania, delivered the annual address before the alumni. His subject was "The Ideal in Oratory."

Wednesday at 9.30 a. m., the graduating exercises of the class of '92 took place. Milton Speer McDowell, of Milroy, delivered the valedictory oration.

The Rose gas plant, erected at the Bellefonte nail works some time ago, was taken apart the past week and is being shipped to California, Pa.

Bicycle Race.

Last Saturday forenoon there was considerable interest shown in the bicycle race from Bellefonte to Pleasant Gap and return.

The race created considerable excitement and quite a number lost their hoodie, bet on favorites who failed to win.

Connecting Link.

The building of the connecting link of railroad between Clearfield and DuBois will make the Beech Creek of so much importance to the Reading system that there is no doubt of the line being double tracked at an early date its entire length.

50th Wedding Anniversary.

On Tuesday, June 6th, there was a large gathering at the home of P. W. M'Dowel, Mackeyville; the occasion was the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The five children of the family are Mrs. J. W. Blair, Logan county, Ohio; Mrs. James Allison, Adams county, Ohio; Mrs. S. H. Bennisson, Walker, Pa.; Mrs. Dr. Tibbens, Beech Creek, and H. T. M'Dowel, Abdera, Pa.

Phillipsburg Time.

A large, colored, three-sheet poster from Phillipsburg informs us that they intended to have a great big 4th of July time in their town this year.

Fourteen persons under the direction of one of the best engineers, are now engaged in surveying a route from Houtzdale to Altoona, and the report is current that the Beech Creek road is to be built from Phillipsburg via Houtzdale to Altoona.

The Mill Hall Brick Works.

The erection of the Mill Hall brick works begins this week. Men have been at work for several days grading and making preparations for the excavating which will be commenced soon.

The company expect to have the works completed and in operation by October 1st. The plant will have a capacity of 30,000 bricks per day.

Corner Stone of Lutheran Church.

Going to Chicago.

Next Wednesday and Thursday the democracy will assemble at Chicago to name their presidential ticket. Among those to represent Bellefonte will be Mr. Al. S. Garman, who will be accompanied by his little nephew, Martie.

Rival Advertisements.

The Lock Haven Express says: Large posters printed in red, white and blue were posted in this city yesterday, advertising the Fourth of July celebrations to be held at Bellefonte and Williamsport.

—Did you get one of Shaeffer's club tickets? The best wearing shoe for boys at $1.25 that you have ever seen.

—E. Brown, Jr., the furniture man says he will sell goods upon the installment plan, at cash prices; and he always does what he says.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Issued During the Past Week—Taken From the Docket.

- Harry M. Call, Millheim. Sally J. Keener, Aaronburg. Archibald Allison, Bellefonte. Rachael B. Humes, Bellefonte.

Much ado About Nothing.

The howling and excitement on our streets every night among the boys, young men and some professors of the town, would lead many to think that some scheme, of wonderful importance to the citizens, was being discussed.

Well now, all this fuss is simply between the players of the Academy and High School base ball teams and is becoming exceedingly tiresome to most of our people.

Decorated Trunk.

Among the passengers who changed cars in this city on Thursday evening was a bridal party from Bellefonte. When the baggage was transferred one of the trunks, presumably the bride's, attracted much attention, owing to the way it was decorated.

Those Boys.

Some of the young men of our town are very anxious to catch on to college ways and college yells. The only thing they seem to have accomplished thus far is to parade the streets at night and howl like Indians.

Warm Weather.

During the past week the thermometer has been on the rampage and we have been having the warmest weather of the season.

School Entertainment.

This Thursday evening the pupils of St. John's school will give an entertainment in the opera house. The programme will consist of music, dialogues, tableaux, etc.

Change Needed.

Since the warm weather set in you will be in need of lighter summer clothing. Remember the Phila. Branch is prepared for such an emergency.

Will Appeal.

The Phillipsburg Journal says: The fact that council proposes to appeal to the supreme court in the case of Mrs. Jacob Lohr, who was recently awarded $950 by the Bellefonte court for injuries on one of our city's pavements, indicate that the borough authorities do not propose to pay over the money unless they are obliged to do so.

—Centre Hall people are beginning to figure on having a 4th of July celebration at that place. They intend to howl and make the eagle scream.

—E. Brown, Jr., the furniture man says he will sell goods upon the installment plan, at cash prices; and he always does what he says.
