Our opponents must be measured by their deeds and not by their professions. The Fifty-first congress wrote the bright page in our legislative history and became a thing of the past. It challenged the approval of the people and they responded in tones portentous that it seemed the voice of God.

With a granularity that finds no results in the control of the people and the people and the people and the people are the people and the people are the people and the people are the people with a unanimity that finds no parallel in the history of popular government they de-termined that a billion dollars was far too much to pay for such a museum of freaks. If we but permit it they will stand by their ver-dict. That our cause may triumph let us work in kindness.

In the heat of contention let us not forget that our political brother may be just as honest and perhaps better informed. Impelled by one purpose, and that purpose the public good, we will free ourselves from the bickerings and heart burnings that characterized the Republican party when its Marshall Ney went down at Minneapolis before in kindness. the mailed legions of the bread and butter

At the close of Mr. Owens' speech, upon motion of Delegate White, of Cali-fernia, the roll was called for the constitution of the committees on cre-dentials, on rules, and order of business, on permanent organization, and on resolutions, each state to name one member of each committee. All resolutions and communications to the convention were ordered referred to the resolutions com-

Its reading was interrupted with the loudest applause up to that time, and when the reading was finished the resolution was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Swett, of the Maine delegation, in behalf of the Democracy of Maine, thanked the delegates for the sympathy it had extended to the distinguished resident of their state. "God forbid," he said, "that the Democracy of Maine or of any other state should hesitate to tender their sympathy in the presence of that grim tyrant who wipes out all political lines and levels all ranks. From the misfortunes and bereavements which have come upon the distinguished gentlemen in the past two years, it may be said that one woe treads upon another's heels so fast that they follow. Only in a Democratic national convention can we," Mr. Swett said in conclusion, "extend to him the sympathy which comes from every section and from every state. Mr. Swett's remarks were greeted with loud applause and cries of "good,

CLEVELAND AND GRAY.

The Nomination of Candidates Will be a Ratification Meeting. CHICAGO, June 22 .- When the time comes for nominating candidates for the presidency and vice presidency by the Democratic convention it will be practically a ratification meeting. This much was assured yesterday, and to ex-Secretary Whitney belongs the credit. It does not require the divine gift of prophecy to predict the naming of Grover Cleveland on the first ballot. Indeed, this result of the contest is generally conceded now, even by the friends of Hill and Boies, the only two rivals of the ex-president in the field today, although there is every indication that the ex-president's opponents will go down to defeat with colors flying and the solid support of their respective states behind them.

It is generally acknowledged that ex-Governor Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana, will be nominated for the vice presidency. He will be presented for that place by his own state delegation, and it is understood that the consent of the Gray men to the withdrawal of their presidential candidate and the casting of the solid vote of Indiana for Cleveland was only given on the assurance that the Cleveland leaders would favor ex-Governor Gray for vice president. As the Cleveland organization is now very thoroughly and well disciplined, there is little doubt that any compact of the leaders will be carried out to the letter in the convention.

Despite the indication that Cleveland will be nominated on the first ballot the Boies people announce that their candidate will remain in the race to the end, and that the vote of the Hawkeye state will be cast for the governor not only as a matter of state pride, but as a protest against the selection of a presidential candidate who is not supported by the delegation of his own state. Indeed the Boies people are almost as bitter as the Hill managers in their protestation against the nomination of Cleveland.

TENACIOUS HILLITES.

They Will Not Give Up Until Defeated by a Ballot.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The New York delegation leaders have renewed the fight in Mr. Hill's behalf, and are alleging that a dark horse may yet beat Mr. Cleveland. The rank and file of the Hill men do not, however, share this sentiment and it is common talk on the street corners and in the hotel lobbies, where New York state men are gathered, or where the Tammany banner is displayed, that the Hill people are badly beaten. Mr. Murphy took particular pains to send for the newspaper men and deny the story that some members of the New York delegation had asked that Mr. Hill's name be copped.

"There is not a word of truth in it," he said, "nobody has thought of such a thing. We do not concede that we are beaten, and shall not concede so until after the ballot has determined it.' State Treasurer Elliott Danfort said: 'Mr. Cleveland is not nominated, and my candid opinion is that he will not be. Why, at a little conference yesterday afternoon we figured out the opposition to Mr. Cleveland can muster 410 votes, and that precludes his nomination on the first ballot. In addition to that we believe that the vote for Mr. Cleveland will begin to fail after the first ballot."

"Will New York cast its vote for Mr.

Boies, as has been intimated?"
"I cannot say. I believe, however, that they will vote for Hill all the time." The general opinion is that a combine of Hill and Boies is being formed, but it is doubtful at this writing whether they can stop Mr. Cleveland's nomination on the first ballot. Nevertheless this plan is being pushed, and the New York leaders are as hard at work as if the contest has just begun.

Longer Terms and Better Pay,

The State treasury this year will pay over for the use of the public schools $5,000,000 in a lump sum. This contribution has raised the question among the school boards whether the State money should be so applied as to lessen the rate of taxation for school purposes, wages for teachers, longer terms and better schools. Superintendent of Public Instruction Waller is in favor of longer terms, better schools and larger wages.

I Am So Tired.

I Am So Tired.

Is a common exclamation at this season. There is a certain bracing effect in cold air which is lost when the weather grows warmer; and when Nature is renewing her youth, her admirers feel dull, sluggish and tired. This condition is owing mainly to the impure condition of the blood, and its failure to supply healthy tissue to the various organs of the body. It is remarkable how susceptible the system is to the help to be derived from a good medicine at this season. Possessing just those purifying, building up qualities which the body craves, Hood's Sarsaparilla soon overcomes that tired feeling, restores the appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, imparts vigorous health. Its thousands of friends as with one voice declare "It Makes the Weak Strong."
