

ON A MURDER CHARGE

Warrants Against O'Donnell and Other Strike Leaders.

MLUCKIE'S NIGHT IN A CELL.

Secretary Lovejoy Says Murder Charges Will be Made Against a Thousand of the Homestead Workers—Manager Frick Promised a Dose of His Own Medicine.

PITTSBURG, July 19.—John McLuckie, burgess, or chief municipal officer of Homestead, slept last night on a cot in one of the cells of the county jail. Telegrams are being sent to a dozen points between here and New York seeking the aid of the police authorities for the arrest of Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the strikers, and warrants are in the hands of the officers of the law for seven other prominent participants in the troubles at Homestead and who are but vanguards of a small army of strikers that it is proposed to bring before the bar of the law.

The preliminary stages of the present proceedings were conducted with considerable secrecy. It was shortly before noon when Secretary Lovejoy, of the Carnegie company, sauntered carelessly into the office of Alderman J. V. McMasters at Diamond and Grant streets. Secretary Lovejoy stated that he desired to lay information against a number of men charging the crime of murder, and the alderman drew up the papers. The information set forth that in Millin township, in the county of Allegheny and the state of Pennsylvania, on July 6 the defendants did of their own malice aforethought, feloniously and riotously with force of arms and deadly weapons kill and murder T. J. Conners, a Pinkerton watchman, and Silas Wayne, a worker at the mills, and this information was made upon information received and believed to be true by the deponent, who therefore prayed that warrants might issue against the men named might be arrested and held on the charge of murder.

When this document had been drawn up the alderman suggested that it would be better to have two informations, one relating to the killing of Conners and the other to that of Wayne, and the second paper was accordingly made out. Secretary Lovejoy then named as the men accused Hugh O'Donnell, John McLuckie, Sylvester Critchlow, Anthony Flaherty, Samuel Barker, James Frick, Carnegie and Potter. In the information the name of O'Donnell stood first, while in the others it stood second. After the papers had been completed Secretary Lovejoy kissed the book, appended his signature to the informations, shook hands with the justice and sauntered out of the office.

No time was lost by Magistrate McMasters in making out the warrants and shortly before 2 o'clock they were entrusted to constables Joseph Weber, W. J. Morris and Mike J. Price, who at once left for Homestead. On their way they made known their business to General Snowden, who referred them to Colonel Green, in command of the provost guard. The latter detailed two companies of soldiers to accompany the constables, and the latter visited the houses of all the men wanted, but without result. When the officers returned to this city toward dusk they were surprised to find that Burgess McLuckie had gotten out of town while they were searching for him, and had already surrendered to the justice of the peace. Mr. Shiras was admitted to practice about thirty-five years ago, and soon rose to an eminence in his profession, and for years he has ranked among the leading members of the Pittsburgh bar. For years he has been identified with nearly every large and important litigation in the extreme western section of the state, and as the counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company at Pittsburgh he has played a leading part in some of the most noted of railroad suits in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Shiras has never occupied any political office, and, indeed, has avoided giving any attention even to municipal affairs at home, preferring to devote his time and attention to the practice of his profession.

A Plunge to Death.

MERRITTON, Ont., July 19.—One of the worst railroad accidents that ever happened in this vicinity occurred yesterday. The mail train on the Welland division of the Grand Trunk railway from Port Dalhousie, bound south, and the accommodation train from Niagara Falls, bound north to connect with the steamer Empress of India, met in collision a short distance north of this station, at a particularly bad point. A short wooden bridge crosses the water power roadway, and the engine of the boat train had just crossed when the trains met, and the two first coaches of the boat train were thrown from the track over the bank, plunging into the race stream, which flows rapidly past. The engine was demolished and thrown over the opposite bank. Four bodies have been recovered. They are: St. Chapman, engineer of the mail train, of Port Colborne; David Hunt, fireman of the boat train; Niagara Falls; Brake-man Peter Welsh, of Port Dalhousie, and H. Vanslyke, of Buffalo, a passenger.

The Liberal Victory.

LONDON, July 19.—The latest election returns show the following total results: Liberals, 271; Tories, 267; Liberal Unionists, 4; anti-Parnellites, 67; Parnellites, 9; net Liberal gain, 62. Total for home rule, 347; against home rule, 311. Justin McCarthy was yesterday elected a member of Parliament from the middle division of Tipperary, polling 3,284 votes, against 887 for Conway, Parnellite, and 347 for Armstrong, Unionist.

Stagnant Donnelly for Governor.

ST. PAUL, July 15.—The ticket named by the People's party is as follows: For governor, Ignatius Donnelly; lieutenant governor, Kittle Halvorsen; secretary of state, H. B. Martin; treasurer, P. M. Ringdall. John L. McDonald was named for attorney general. The ticket was completed by nominating Thomas Canty, Daniel Buck and William Davidson for supreme court judges.

Swept by a Tornado.

ROME, July 30.—A tornado swept the little village of Polesella, near Rovigo, yesterday afternoon. Forty houses were completely destroyed, and hardly a building in the village was left undamaged. Many persons were caught in the ruins and were seriously injured. Two deaths are reported and several persons are said to be dying.

Moorish Warfare.

LONDON, July 30.—A special dispatch from Tangier says that refugees who have arrived there report that the troops have looted houses in the villages and outraged women. In many cases they chopped off women's hands to obtain the rings and bracelets they wore.

National Chairman Carter.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Hon. Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, was upon J. B. Clark's nomination, chosen chairman of the national P. party committee, vice W. J. Campbell, of Illinois.

HARRITY IS WILLING.

Will Accept the Democratic Chairmanship if Tendered.

HARRISBURG, July 19.—Secretary of the Commonwealth, William F. Harrity was in the best of spirits last night when he arrived in this city from Philadelphia, and talked freely on the national chairmanship of the Democratic committee. He has decided not to call upon Grover Cleveland before the appointment of a chairman is made. Mr. Harrity is in rather a predicament, as he is pressed from all parts of the country to accept the place, and is continually receiving communications asking him to accept. He will certainly accept should the committee see fit to elect him.

WILLIAM F. HARRITY.

"I am in the hands of my friends, as I always have been, and I will endeavor to serve them to the best of my ability wherever they may place me. It would be premature for me to accept a position now which had not yet been awarded," said he to a United Press representative. "I await the action of the committee on Wednesday or Thursday, and if they elect me I will serve," added Mr. Harrity as the interview closed.

Several political leaders who figure prominently in state politics say Mr. Harrity is beyond a doubt the only man suited to the chairmanship under the existing circumstances.

A NEW SUPREME JUDGE.

George Shiras, of Pennsylvania, to Succeed Justice Bradley.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The president yesterday afternoon sent to the senate the nomination of George Shiras, Jr., of Pennsylvania, to be justice of the United States supreme court, vice Bradley, deceased.

Mr. Shiras, who is now about 58 years of age, was born in Allegheny county, and now resides with his family over the river from Pittsburgh in Allegheny City. He comes of a family of large scholarly attainments and high intellectual character, being a grandson of the late Rev. Dr. Herron, a Presbyterian clergyman of ability and note.

He graduated from Yale college with the class of '53, and at once devoted himself to the study of law. Mr. Shiras was admitted to practice about thirty-five years ago, and soon rose to an eminence in his profession, and for years he has ranked among the leading members of the Pittsburgh bar. For years he has been identified with nearly every large and important litigation in the extreme western section of the state, and as the counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company at Pittsburgh he has played a leading part in some of the most noted of railroad suits in Pennsylvania.

Necessary for a nomination, 33

The attention of the Democratic voters of the county is called to the following series of resolutions which were adopted by the last County Convention for the purpose of changing the basis of representation in the various district conferences, of which Centre county forms a part, and the manner of electing the delegates to said district nominating conferences.

The resolutions adopted read as follows:

WHEREAS, All nominations of candidates for public office to be voted for by the people, should be made by the people themselves, or by the representatives chosen in such a manner as to give every qualified voter an equal voice in making such nomination; and whereas the method of making district nominations in the Democratic party in the central part of Pennsylvania and in the western part of this county has the same representation regardless of its population or democratic vote, it is hereby resolved that for various reasons the general plan of organization of the democratic party, therefore be it

Resolved, That hereafter the democratic party of Centre county shall insist that the representation in all district conferences or nominating conventions, from each county shall be in proportion to the democratic vote of such county.

2nd. That we favor making the nominating convention sufficiently large to properly represent the wishes of the people, and therefore favor the allotment to each county in the district of a delegate for every five hundred democratic votes, and that the method of making district nominations in the Democratic party in the central part of Pennsylvania and in the western part of this county has the same representation regardless of its population or democratic vote, it is hereby resolved that for various reasons the general plan of organization of the democratic party, therefore be it

In order to avoid confusion and uncertainty and to make uniform the manner of electing said district delegates the County Committee at said meeting authorized and directed its chairman to recommend some method of nominations.

In pursuance thereof it is recommended to the voters of the ten several delegate districts apportioned as aforesaid that they meet at their several polling places on Saturday, July 23rd, (being two weeks prior to the day of the regular delegate elections) at 6 o'clock, p. m., and elect delegates or representatives to a nominating caucus in each of said ten districts, said caucus to place in nomination a candidate for Congressional Delegate to be voted for at the regular primary election to be held Saturday, August 6th. The number of delegates from each election precinct to said nominating caucus to be the same as to the county convention.

It is further recommended that the delegates to the said district caucus meet on Saturday, July 30th, at six o'clock, p. m., being one week prior to the regular primary election, at the following named places:

First and Second Districts, at Millheim.

Third District at Centre Hall.

Fourth District at State College.

Fifth District, at Port Matilda.

Sixth District, at Phillipsburg.

Seventh District, at Snow Shoe.

Eighth District, at Howard.

Ninth and Tenth Districts, at Bellefonte.

DEMOGRAPHIC RULES.

The following are the rules governing the election of delegates and the County Convention:

1. The Democratic County Convention of Centre county shall be composed of one delegate for every fifty Democratic votes polled at the Presidential or gubernatorial election next preceding the convention. The allotment of delegates to the several election districts in the county shall be made by the Standing Committee of the county at its first meeting in every alternate year succeeding the 1st residential and gubernatorial elections and shall be in proportion to the Democratic votes cast in each district at such election.

2. The election for delegates to represent the different districts in the annual Democratic County Convention shall be held at the usual place of holding the general election, for each district on the Saturday preceding the second Tuesday of August in each and every year, beginning at 2 o'clock, p. m., on said day, and continuing until 6 o'clock, p. m. The delegates so elected shall meet in the County Convention in the Court House at Bellefonte, on the Tuesday following at 12 o'clock M.

3. The said delegate election shall be held by an election board, to consist of the member of County committee for each district and two other Democratic voters thereof who shall be appointed or designated by the County committee. In case any of the persons so constituting the board shall be absent from the place of holding the election for a quarter of an hour after the time appointed, by Rule Second for the opening of the same, his or their place or places shall be filled by an election, to be conducted viva voce, by the Democratic voters present at the time.

4. Every qualified voter of the district, who at the late general election voted the Democratic ticket, shall be entitled to vote at the delegate election; any qualified elector of the district who will pledge his word and honor to support the Democratic ticket at the next general election shall be permitted to vote at the delegate elections.

5. The voting at all delegate elections shall be by ballot; upon which ballot shall be written the name or names of the delegates to be elected. Each ballot shall be received from the person voting the same by a member of the election board, and by him deposited in a box or other receptacle provided for that purpose, to which the box or other receptacle, no persons but members of the board shall have access.

6. Instructions shall be received or recognized upon the same be voted upon the ballot as provided in Rule Fourth, nor shall such instructions if voted upon the ballot be binding upon the delegates unless one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning the same. Whenever one-half or more of the ballots shall contain instructions concerning any office, the delegate elected at such election shall be held to be instructed to support the candidates having the highest number of votes for such office.

7. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of the names of all persons voting at such elections, when the list of voters together with a full and complete return of such election containing an accurate statement of the persons elected delegates and all instructions voted shall be certified by said board to the county convention upon printed blanks to be furnished by the county convention.

8. Whenever from any district qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the delegates which such district has in the county convention, shall complain in writing of an undue election, of false returns of delegates or of instructions, in which complaint or alleged facts shall be specifically set forth and verified by the affidavit of one or more persons, such complaints shall have the right to be supported by the candidates having the highest number of votes for such office.

9. All delegates must reside in the district they represent. In case of absence or inability to attend, substitutes may be made from citizens of the district.

10. Delegates must obey the instructions given them by their respective districts and if violated, it shall be the duty of the President of the convention to exact the vote of such delegates in accordance with the instructions, and the delegate or delegates so offending shall be forthwith expelled from the convention and shall not be eligible to any office or place of trust in the party for a period of two years.

11. In the convention a majority of all voters shall be necessary to a nomination, and no person name shall be excluded from the list of candidates until after the third ballot or vote which person receiving the next highest number of votes shall be omitted and struck from the roll, and so on at each successive vote until a nomination is made.

12. If any person who is a candidate for any nomination before a county convention shall be proven to have offered or paid any money, or other valuable thing or made any promise of consideration or reward to any delegate for his vote, or to any person with a view of inducing a delegate to vote for him or to any other person with the knowledge and consent of such candidate, the name of such candidate shall be immediately stricken from the list of candidates; or if such facts be ascertained after his nomination, he shall be struck from the ticket and the vacancy supplied by a new nomination, and in either case, since person shall be ineligible to any nomination by the convention, or to an election as a delegate thereafter, and in either case, if alleged after the adjournment of the convention that any candidate put in nomination has been guilty of such acts or of any other fraudulent practice to obtain such nomination, the charges shall be investigated by the county committee, and such steps taken as the good of the party may require.

13. If any delegate shall receive any money or other valuable thing, or accept the promise or offer of such thing, or reward to him or to any person, for such candidate, as an inducement for his vote, upon proof of the fact to the satisfaction of the county committee, such delegate shall be expelled, and shall not be received as a delegate to any further convention, and shall be ineligible to any party nomination.

14. Cases arising under the 12th, 13th and 14th Rules shall have precedence over all other business in convention until determined.

15. The term of the chairman of the county committee shall begin on the first day of January of each and every year.

16. Cases arising under the 12th and 13th Rules shall be authorized, in conjunction with the chairman of the county committee to appoint the members of the committee for the various boroughs and townships.
