A Wealthy Couple in Fall River Found Dead in Their Home.

NO CLEW TO THE PERPETRATORS.

A Search of the House Fails to Reveal a Motive for the Crime, Although a Relative Believes the Murdered Man's Daughter Is Implicated.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 6.-Andrew J. Borden and his wife were found dead at their home. Both had been fright-fully mutilated about the head and face with an ax, cleaver or a razor. The police were notified and immediately began an investigation. Mr. Borden was a wealthy real estate owner and mill man and was seen on the street half an hour before he was found dead. There is hardly a doubt that both were mur-dered. The case is shrouded in mystery, and it is broadly hinted that Borden's daughter Lizzie and his brother-in-law, John W. Morse, are implicated.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 9.—The police are very active in the Borden murder cases. Yesterday Captain Desmond, accompanied by a sergeant and two officers, went to the house and instituted another search. Places in the old fashioned chimney were opened in a vain search for clews. The officers also pulled over everything in the cellar, but without obtaining any tangible results. while the search was going on Misses Emma and Lizzie Borden were even more gracious to the officers than they were on Saturday after the funeral. One of the searching party who came from the house states that, in conversation, Miss Emma Borden looked a person in the eye, but Miss Lizzie invariably turned her head when questioned

The guard is still kept on the house, but the officers are under instructions not to molest the inmates nor interfere with their freedom in going about the city. If any attempts are made to leave the city, however, arrests will follow. HARTFORD, Aug. 9 .- George B. Fish, of this city, whose wife is the sister of the murdered Mrs. Borden, of Fall River, in a published interview says that he believes Lizzie Borden and John V. Morse concocted the deed and hired some one to do it. Lizzie and Emma Borden are stepdaughters of the murdered woman and have never been on good terms with her, owing to trouble over the division of a small property left by the girls' mother to Mr. Borden, who gave it to the second wife instead FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 10.-Yesterday Bridget Sullivan, the servant girl in the Borden family, was summoned to the Central police station. She was taken at once into the marshal's presence and also into the presence of District Attorney Knowlton and Medical Examiner Dolan, to undergo a thorough examination as to the facts before and after the murders as far as she knew them. The private inquiry that is going on in the Second district court is in reality an inquest ordered by Judge Blaisdell at the suggestion of District Attorney Knowlton.

A few hours later Miss Lizzie Borden was brought to the central police station in a back containing Marshal Hilliard, Officer Harrington and Mrs. James W. Bingham. Miss Borden was served with a subpoena summoning her to attend at an inquiry into the death of her father and mother. Mrs. Bingham was visit-ing Miss Borden at the time, and she accompanied her at her request and consent of Marshal Hilliard. Miss Borden and her companion were conducted through the guard room on the second floor, where the court sits, and she passed through a gaping lot of policemen and a staring crowd of reporters. She was dressed in a well fitting suit of black, covered with lace. Her face betrayed little or no emotion, and she paid no attention to the persons around her. Her face looked worn and worried, and was as far different from a criminal countenance as could be well The inquiry is conducted imagined. behind closed doors guarded by police-in 2.32 3-4. Long Branch, Aug. 10.—Only about 10,000 people attended the races at Monmouth Park yesterday, notwithstanding an excellent programme, fine weather and a fast track. The management had expected fully 25,000 people to be present to witness the junior champion and champion stakes races. In the opening event Kingston scarced out all of the entries excepting Russell, who made a gallant fight, but was defeated by a neck. Kingston, of course, was the favorite at odd of 10 to 8, but many backed Russell.

The second event was more of a race. Lifeboat was a strong favorite, but was badly beaten by Trouble, Carmen colt taking second place from Lifeboat by a short head. The next race was for the junior champion stakes. Lady Violet was a hot favorite, with Sir Walter second choice and Don Alonzo next in favor. The race was such an easy victory for Don Alonzo that the people were silenced. He won in the most impressive manner, coming in three lengths ahead of the favorite. Dr. Rice race third.

The fourth race was for the Champion Stakes, and was one of the best ever seen in this country. The horses raced in a bunch from start to the last furlong pole, where Lamplighter, Locohat chee and Banquet left the others and fought it out to the finish. Lamplighter won in a drive, but had been forced to make a new mile and a half record, 2.324. The record heretofore has been 2.33, made by Firenzi in 1890. Sum mary:

First race, 36 mile-Kingstone, 1; Russell, 2 Time, 1.264.
Second race, % mile—Trouble, 1; Carmen, 2; Lifeboat, 3. Time, 1.14%.

Mr. Holly, N. We began using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for our 14-year-old daughter (who had had epileptic fits since she was 5 years old) over a year ago with but little hope of any good, as we had been so often disappointed in other remedies, but soon after using this medicine she began to get better, and we hope that any and all afflicted with this terrible disease will try your wonderful remedy. I recommend your medicine to every one affected with any nervous affliction whatever.
