-Will Bellefonte observe Discovery Day ?It don't look that way at present. -The Bellefonte curb stone market is beginning to dwindle as the frosty mornings appear.

-Mr. Fauble moved into his new store rooms in the Brockerhoff House block on Wednesday.

-John Barleycorn did much to knock out Sullivan at New Orleans last week.

-Most of the towns in the interior of the state are afflicted with a water famine. Fortunate is Bellefonte with its immense and never failing spring of fresh, sparkling water.

-A few of our sporting men backed their opinions on the Corbett-Sullivan contest with their boodle; a $50 to $25 on Sullivan was put up by one enthusiast. He knew better when the morning came.

-Some of our young democrats are anxious to have a Cleveland club organized in Bellefonte. This does not seem to be a campaign in which clubs, brass bands and fire works play a very prominent part.

-The base ball season will soon draw to a close and many fellows will be out of a snap. For the first time in many years Bellefonte managed to put up a first class nine, but most of them were hired players from a distance. A good ball team costs money.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strine, of Philadelphia, have been visiting at Mrs. Minnie Harper's, on West Linn street, for several weeks. Mr. Strine is on the editorial staff of the Ledger, and is an accomplished and cultured gentleman, of republican convictions.

Killed at Pardee.

The Laurelton correspondent says in last week's Mifflinburg Times that another accident occurred at Pardee, which resulted in the death of one of the hands, Isaiah Bell. It seems that the dinkey, on which he was riding was coming in with a load of lumber, about 12 o'clock, Monday night, when they came near a switch, and Bell jumped off and ran ahead to see that the switch was all right, when he slipped and fell across the track, and the dinkey, which came right after him, ran over him cut- edgements and other legal documents,
