

THE RACKET

Bargain Day, Friday, Sept. 23. — REMNANTS —

LADIES and CHILDRENS COATS.

When we tell U that we unloaded into The Racket 61 BOXES AND 1 BALE of assorted merchandise, in one day during the past week, U can form an idea of the capacity of the Store to absorb large quantities of goods—U ask, where did U put 'em? Well, the bundles carried away by the crowds of good natured customers is the key to the situation—Do U C? We keep right on in our well beaten path of good goods at one low price to all, and if U are not as yet a Racket buyer U had better take the old darkey's advice and "jine de procession."

Our Fall and Winter stock is now complete. Kom and C.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Frohman's Minstrelly next Thursday evening, Sept. 29th. Rudolph Schadd has opened a plumbing establishment at Hastings. The Sunday papers arrived and were distributed at this place on last Sunday. Post-office vigil George Washington Reese is off on a vacation, visiting friends at Scranton and Pottstown. Mrs. Geo. L. Potter has been ill for a number of weeks at Snow Shoe and could not return to her home, this place. On Tuesday morning Mr. E. Barry, who had been ill for some time, died at 10:30. The funeral will occur on Saturday. Mr. H. C. Brew has sold his handsome residence in Tyrone and expects to remove with his family to Bellefonte, early in October. Dr. Kochler, of Bellefonte, dentist, will visit Howard, Pa., on the first and fourth Mondays of each month to meet such as may desire treatment. Manager Garman has given the public a number of first class attractions this season. No better could be expected than "The Silver King." The Lutheran church at this place is under roof and the spires are being completed. The building will make a fine appearance when finished. The remains of a little child of Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Brachbill, that died at their home in Hughesville, on Saturday, were brought to Bellefonte on Monday for burial. The Lock Haven people are getting excited again over the prospects of having natural gas piped to that city from Elk county and it would cost less than the present form of fuel. On Saturday the travel to Washington City, D. C., was very heavy over the Pennsylvania. The morning train at Tyrone over the main line was composed of twenty sections. Mr. Will Reitmeyer, of Lewisburg, who is well known throughout Centre county, has been engaged permanently to play the cornet in the Stopper & Fisk orchestra of Williamsport. On last Sunday morning all the ministers of Bellefonte delivered sermons upon the observance of the Sabbath. Most of them strongly opposed the sale of Sunday newspapers. Messrs. Orrin Vail and Fred. Smith, supervisors of Rush township, had business in town on Monday. They say work on the new Troy bridge piers will be commenced next week. The farmers are busy cutting corn. The crop is good, in most parts of the county. Our "devil" wishes to add that next week the farmers will husk their pumpkins, and the following week thresh their rals. He ought to know. Guyer Mattern, who has charge of a supply department at Carnegies Homestead steel mills since the strike, came home to attend the Granger picnic. He says a large number of Centre county men recently obtained good positions there. The Philipsburgers are of the opinion that the Penna. R. R. will soon erect a new passenger station at that place. The present building is a bad one and should be torn away for something better. A drunken Hungarian entered the residence of Harry Gheret, on Howard street, on Sunday evening and frightened the family by his conduct. Mr. Gheret put him out, then he began to stone the house. Policeman Gares arrested Mr. Hungarian. He is now in jail awaiting trial.

VETERAN'S DAY.

Gathering of the Blue at Grange Park on Friday.

The gathering at Grange Park on Friday was much different from that which assembled there previous. It was the day set apart for the annual meeting of the Veterans Club of Centre county. The appearance of the familiar blue suits with the regulation polished buttons which many wore, evidenced this fact. As this is a day which attracts many from all sections of the county the attendance on Friday was quite large.

At 10:30 the auditorium was crowded when Mr. Rhone, on behalf of the patrons, delivered an appropriate address of welcome. Dr. Atherton, of Penna. State College, responded in a patriotic speech in which he paid a high tribute to those fallen heroes who had stood in the ranks and now rest in unknown graves. He thought the private deserved as much praise as the great generals. President Atherton made an elegant address. After the appointment of various committees the audience adjourned for dinner.

In the afternoon another large audience assembled with the following officers at their places on the platform: Gen. James A. Beaver, president; John C. Miller, of Bellefonte, Secretary; Col. Austin Curtin, Roland, treasurer. The report of the committees was then heard.

Hunters Park, along the Bellefonte Central railroad, was selected for holding the next annual reunion. Officers for the ensuing year: Gen. James A. Beaver, president; Geo. M. Boal, 1st vice; W. C. Patterson, 2nd vice; J. C. Miller, secretary; and Col. Austin Curtin treasurer.

R. A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, a former Centre county citizen, who went from here to the front, was called upon for the opening address. He was followed by Gen. Beaver, Lieut. Wm. Hayes, of Clinton county, Prof. John Hamilton, of State College, D. P. Fortney, Esq., Gen. D. H. Hastings and others.

Base Ball Flurry.

This season the Mountain League was formed representing base ball teams of Bellefonte, Tyrone, Philipsburg, Clearfield and Houtzdale. At the opening of the contest, the different clubs were composed of local players, but as they kept playing the struggle became warmer and they imported professionals until only a few men of the district played at all. Betting on the different games created considerable bitterness and towards the close it became desperate. It was apparent that the umpiring was becoming the strongest feature as their work nearly always determined the result. In almost every case men were selected by the various clubs who were dishonest and unscrupulous enough to do anything possible to award a game. It was not left to the players, but a struggle among umpires. The last exhibition here in which the game broke up in a row last Friday was enough to disgust all. Philipsburg was determined to win fair or foul and their umpire was with them.

The scheduled games have all been played and Tyrone, Bellefonte and Philipsburg each claim the championship, and that is about the way it will stand. If base ball, in the future, is to receive any encouragement there will have to be some more satisfactory arrangement for the umpiring of the same. The public is disgusted in paying their money to see some unprincipled bloak deliberately steal a game by dishonorable decisions, as was the case this season. The Mountain League games were disgusting exhibitions on this account.

About Columbus Day.

Columbus discovered America on the 12th of October, 1492. The 500th anniversary of that event is to be celebrated on the 21st of October, 1892. The change of the day in the month is owing to the change from the old style to new style time, which took place in 1582. Some of our county papers have published that the anniversary would be celebrated on the 12th of October, when it will be on the 21st.

Some action in the matter has been taken by the Bellefonte schools; what the programme will be, will be known later. Bellefonte never does things by halves but in this matter there has been entirely too much delay and lack of interest.

Mountain League Games.

The base ball season is over and Philipsburg, Tyrone and Bellefonte each claim to have won the pennant. The following is the standing, as figured by the Bellefonte boys and of course they claim the championship for the season:

Don't Miss It.

On the inside page of this issue will be found a four-column illustrated article well worth reading. It treats an old subject in such a novel and entertaining manner that you will be pleased and instructed. We won't mention what the article is about, but we want every reader to read for himself. Don't miss this prominent feature.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Mattie Keller Dies Suddenly at Danville of Diphtheria.

The announcement of the sudden death of Miss Mattie Keller, at Danville, on last Sunday morning, was sad and startling news to her many friends and acquaintances at this place. She was the daughter of D. C. Keller, Esq., of Bellefonte; about 20 years of age, intelligent and accomplished, with that glow of good health and animation upon the bright face there could have been no greater surprise than the sad message that was flashed over the wires that morning.

On Friday, September 2nd, Miss Mattie left Bellefonte to visit her friend, Miss Dean, of Danville, Pa. On Sunday evening following, after she returned from church, she complained of a pain in her ear, which is one of the first symptoms of diphtheria, which soon developed in a malignant form and she became very ill. Mrs. Keller left on Wednesday afternoon and Dr. Harris, of this place, the family physician, was sent for next; but despite all medical skill she gradually grew worse. On Saturday a telegram stating that her recovery was impossible summoned Mr. Keller to Danville to the bedside of his daughter. She lingered until 10:30 on Sunday morning when the soul took its flight.

Owing to the malignant and contagious disease the body could not be brought to Bellefonte, her home, for interment. The funeral occurred at Danville the same Sunday afternoon.

One Hundred Years Old.

Mrs. Nancy Barger, of Roland, Centre county, was one hundred years old last Saturday. The old lady is in excellent health and the centennial was celebrated by all her relatives. The Milesburg G. A. R. Post arranged to pay her a visit and take part in the birthday celebration, her husband having been a soldier in the late war. Mrs. Barger can remember of Washington's death and has a good recollection of every presidential contest since 1801. She was present at the first two executions in Centre county, those of "Negro Dan" and the famous "Monks." Notwithstanding her having reached the centenary mark she is as spry as most women at fifty, managing her farm and doing the most of her own housework. Her youngest child is 58 years of age.

The exercises were held out doors and H. B. Shaeffer, the photographer, took several good views of the gathering. Col. Austin Curtin in behalf of the Post then made an address in which he reviewed some of the prominent periods of her life. She was a mere child at the time Washington died. Her husband was enrolled and participated in the war of 1812 and three sons were enlisted in the late rebellion. A handsome chair, the gift of Potter Post, was then presented Mrs. Barger by the speaker.

A Mistake.

For some time we have noticed the following in some of our exchanges: "The members of the State militia who solemnly vowed a citizen of Pittsburgh by stabbing him with a bayonet has been sent to the penitentiary for four years. He begged the court to impose a light sentence on the ground that he was in liquor when the crime was committed, but he was told that was no excuse." Col. Austin Curtin informed the writer on Saturday, while home on a short visit from Homestead, where he has been located since the strike, that the above story was a mistake. No such sentence was imposed.

Visiting in Old Centre.

Mr. Noah Stover, of Bonacord, Kansas, is at present visiting his aged mother and friends in this locality. He left Centre county nine years ago and has lived in Kansas ever since. He is looking hale and hearty, and don't seem to be getting any older. Mr. Stover is engaged in farming and has been very successful. He reports having had an excellent wheat crop and a fair crop of corn. His stay here is limited, as he took advantage of an excursion to the east, which is only good for 30 days.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League convention of Central Pennsylvania will be held in Harrisburg Nov. 1-3. It will be a delegated body. Each league is entitled to four delegates, one of whom shall be the pastor. It will, without doubt, be a very enthusiastic gathering. It is supposed there will be from 400 to 600 delegates present.

Every Man a Liar.

They say a man from the adjacent county who went out to view the great west, has returned and now says it is indeed a wonderful country. Every hamlet is a town, every town a city, every farm a ranch, every barnyard a corral, every mound a mountain, and every man a liar.

"The Silver King" played to a large house on Tuesday evening. It was well received and all present seemed to unite in the opinion that it was one of the best attractions that has appeared in the opera house. The entire cast was good; there was an abundance of fine scenery and every act was deserving of praise.
