AFTER THE COAL TRUST.
Charges Against the Reading Combination in Chicago.

TO REGULATE THE PRICE OF COAL.
State's Attorney Longenecker Asks an Injunction Restraining the Chicago Agent from Transacting Business in Cook County—To be Prosecuted in New York State Also

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—State's Attorney Longenecker took the first legal step yesterday towards breaking up the coal trust. An information was filed in the circuit court to restrain the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company and J. W. Skeele, its agent in Chicago, from selling anthracite coal in the county of Cook, Illinois, on the ground of unlawful combination. The petition, which is filed in the name of the people of Illinois, sets forth that in February, 1892, in the state of New Jersey, the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company was incorporated, and ever since has been doing business in New Jersey and elsewhere.

At that time the corporation is said to have entered into a trust and combination with the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company, the Port Reading Railroad company, the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and the Lehigh Valley Railroad company, all incorporated, to regulate and fix the price of a commodity called anthracite coal, and to fix the quantity to be mined and sold.

The Reading Company and the other corporations, it is said, are about to unlawfully fix, regulate and advance the price of coal, regardless of the demand or amount to be purchased or consumed, in violation of the state laws and to the damage of the county of Cook of over $100,000.

Under these circumstances the court is asked to compel the Reading Company to answer whether it has entered into the agreement or arrangement it has made with the other corporations.

The court is asked to grant an injunction prohibiting the company from doing business in the county of Cook, state of Illinois. No further steps than filing the petition were taken, and an injunction has not yet been granted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The counsel to the senate committee investigating the Reading coal combine recommended to the committee at the Murray Hill hotel that the combine be dissolved, and that under the constitution the charters could be annulled or the companies dissolved.

The committee resolved to adopt the recommendations of its counsel as its opinion, to refer to the attorney general, together with a copy of the testimony taken, and to ask him to take such legal steps as he may deem advisable.

AN OLD WOMAN'S CRIME
Strangled Her Own Child and Two Children of a Neighbor

BORDENTOWN, N. J., Sept. 28.—An old woman named Mrs. Brown murdered three young children ranging from 1 to 3 years old yesterday afternoon at her residence, No. 4 Chestnut street, by choking them to death. One of the victims was her own son and the other two were sons of William Bowker, a neighbor.

The parents of the Bowker children were attending the interstate fair at Trenton, and had left the children in her charge.

After killing the children the woman, who is believed to be insane, went to Marshal Jones and told him that he would find three dead bodies at her house. She admitted the killing, but could not give any reason for the act.

Mrs. Brown was locked up by the police, and the coroner and county physician took charge of the victims. The crime has caused much excitement in this place, and the house is surrounded by an excited crowd of men, women and children.

Alleged Slaughter of Innocents.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—A short time ago a man calling himself Dr. Henry C. Beale, his wife, known as Nellie Haven, and Hattie E. Graham were arrested, charged with the murder by malpractice of Mary Carroll, the young daughter of a Petaluma county farmer. Beale forfeited $10,000 bail and disappeared, but the women are still in prison.

The Examiner says that according to the story of a Mrs. Montrose, Beale used her house for ten months as a private hospital. During that period he had about fifty patients, and there were no fewer than forty children born in the house, not one of them being permitted to live. Beale either chloroformed or drowned his helpless victims, after which he weighed their bodies and threw them into the bay or cremated them.

Robbed a Mail Box.
CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 28.—The discovery was made last evening that the letter box in front of the postoffice at Darby had been robbed of a letter containing $4,500 worth of checks, which had been mailed by the Darby bank to the Independence bank, Philadelphia. The finding of one of the checks in the street was the first evidence of the robbery that the bank officials had, and an investigation disclosed the fact that one of two girls has confessed that she saw the other abstract the letter. Payment has been stopped on all checks and the postoffice authorities have been notified.

Harrison Reid.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The marriage of Miss Ella Spencer Reid, niece of Whitelaw Reid and Judge Ralph Chandler Harrison, of San Francisco, took place yesterday at Ophir Farm. Mr. Reid's country home. Miss Reid is 25 and Judge Harrison is 56. The ceremony was performed by Archbishop Kirby, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Whitelaw Reid gave the bride away. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison started for the west in the evening.

Yielded to the Concord's Guns.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The steamship Caracas arrived here from Venezuelan ports yesterday. When she was in La Guayra, Venezuela, the custom house authorities would not allow her to land her cargo. The captain of the United States steamer Concord trained her guns on the town, and the custom house authorities concluded to allow the cargo of the Caracas to be landed.

The Cholera Abroad.
AMSTERDAM, Sept. 28.—Twelve deaths from cholera have been reported from various parts of Holland. The disease is confined for the most part to Delft, Groningen, Maastricht, Alphen and Gouda. There has been one fresh case of Asiatic cholera in Berlin yesterday.

A SWINDLING NOBLEMAN.
He and His Fellow Conspirators Sentenced to Imprisonment.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The trial of Sir Gilbert Edward Campbell and others associated with him in a series of frauds on persons ambitious for literary fame terminated in a verdict of guilty. Sir Gilbert Edward Campbell was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment at hard labor, he appearing on the evidence to have been a guilty stool pigeon rather than a principal in the fraudulent schemes. William James Morgan, who was the chief in forming the various fraudulent societies and obtaining money from literary aspirants, was sentenced to eight years' penal servitude. James Sidney Tomkins, who was Morgan's right hand man in the "International Society of Literature and Art," was sentenced to five years' penal servitude. William Nathan Steadman, one of the lesser conspirators, received a sentence of fifteen months at hard labor. David William Tolmie received six months and Charles Montague Clarke four months.

The schemes of the conspirators have been explained in the testimony as given by several witnesses. They obtained various sums of money from clergymen, farmers, and even domestic servants upon the pretext, never fulfilled, of publishing poems and other productions, or of giving them literary employment. The sums amounted to considerable in the aggregate, and were shared between the swindlers.

Sir Gilbert Edward Campbell is an Irish nobleman of Carrick-Buoy, in the county of Donegal. He is about 54 years of age, and was formerly a captain in the Ninety-second Highlanders. The first baronet was his grandfather, Sir Robert Campbell, who died in 1858. Sir Gilbert Edward's father was a man of some distinction, a major of cavalry and a charge d'affaires in Persia. Sir Gilbert Edward himself has been a man of prominence.

MAIL ROBBERS CAUGHT.
Four Thieving Drivers in Philadelphia Caged at Last.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—After nine months' hard work General Edgerton, head of the postal inspectors of this district, and his subordinates have succeeded in running down a set of conspirators who have been systematically robbing the mails for a long time.

The men under arrest are all van drivers, and are John Hooper, James Hirst, Charles S. Shoch and John J. Dixon. Shoch, who has been a driver but once, was arrested first, and at once signified his desire to make a clean breast of the matter and tell all he knew. James Hirst, who is regarded as one of the ringleaders, also gave evidence against his confederates. It is largely on information furnished by him that the officers are now searching for others.

These arrests are among the most important made by the postal inspectors in this city for years, and the operations of the gang have never been surpassed, the officials declare. Their system of stealing was simple. All mail pouches are placed in the mail wagons to be carted to the depots. The merchandise is placed in what are called the racks fastened with a string. At the depot the drivers would back up their wagons, get inside and leisurely ransack the bags. Small and valuable packages would then be abstracted. Afterwards the spoils would be disposed of to a "fence."

At the Carnegie Union Mills.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28.—The past twenty-four hours have been eventful for the strikers at Carnegie's Union mills and the Carnegie interests. As a result of street encounters between unionists and "scabs" William Reese, a former puddler, lies with a fractured skull in the Seventeenth ward police station under the care of a physician. Patrick Duffy, John Smith and John McDonald are already serving out sentences in the workhouse, and must appear to answer further charges preferred, as James Conley, a striker, awaits a hearing charged with felonious assault. Fire breakdowns in various parts of the mill followed in rapid succession, and several departments were shut down in consequence. A number of deserters from the mill have reported at Amalgamated headquarters since the beginning of the week.

Charged With Burning a Town.
ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 28.—Felix Renaud, a son of Collector of Customs Renaud, ex-member of parliament, has been arrested with another young man, charged with incendiarism, by which the town of Ducktonche was destroyed. It is stated that the fire was started to destroy a large quantity of smuggled liquor from St. Pierre, which the Dominion officials were on the scent of. So closely were the parties having the liquor watched that they resorted to the expedient of destroying it, which incidentally destroyed the whole town. When the sheriff was taking Renaud and his companion to jail he was fired on when passing through some woods by members of the smuggling band, but escaped without injury.

A Desperado Escapes.
DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 28.—Commodore Miller, one of the most notorious desperadoes in the southwest, overpowered his guards, and arming himself with their weapons, liberated twelve fellow convicts who were working with him in the quarries near this city, and made his escape. Owing to the character of Miller, people in the city and vicinity became much alarmed when they heard of his escape, and a strong posse was at once organized to hunt him. As he is well armed, and can hope for little mercy from his pursuers, there may be bloodshed.

Alleged Bootleggers Bailed.
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 28.—In the case of R. B. Taylor, of Butler, Pa., against whom seven true bills were found for conspiracy to defraud the county of Schuylkill in the erection of the new court house, the court concluded to allow Mr. Taylor to enter bail in the sum of $20,000 at Butler, the bondsman to be qualified before the judge of the court of the county. Bail of M. E. Beebe, the architect of Butler, also indicted for conspiracy, was fixed at $10,000, and will be entered at Pittsburg in the same way.

A Young Miner's Death.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 28.—Joseph Brier, aged 26, was killed yesterday in the Delaware and Hudson Colliery at Parsons, near here. He was filling a cartridge from a half emptied keg of powder. A spark from his lamp fell into the keg, and Brier was blown across the chamber and violently against the opposite wall. His chest, face and arms were horribly burned, yet the man survived an hour. He leaves a young widow.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

SENATOR Hill's speech does not seem to suit the republicans. They had expected him to sulk in his tent like Mr. Blaine. In this they were sorely disappointed. Instead of sulking he is in the fight with an energy that means mischief to the republican cause. Senator Hill's course makes New York safe for Cleveland, and thus destroys hope of Harrison's re-election. This is why there is "weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth" in the republican camp.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Clothier.

Right or Wrong.
Which will you have? It does seem as if some folks prefer to have the last condition of the liver rather than the first. They perpetually dose themselves with purgatives totally without virtue as the alterative of liver trouble. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the successful candidate for the people's choice, and yet, popular and well known as it is, there are unfortunates who keep on trying the drastic remedies of former days. It is to the intelligent portion of the public that the Bitters appeal. Reason should be guided by experience in the matter of medication. "The best guide to our feet is the lamp of experience," said a patriot of the early revolutionary period, and the exclamation is pregnant with truth. For over a million of people suffering from liver complaint, malaria, rheumatism, debility, and troubles accompanied by dyspepsia. Lately it has declared itself and been thoroughly approved as a remedy for the grippe.
