LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

West & Raynor's minstrels at the opera house to night. Chas. P. Hewes, Esq., and John Love, Esq., attended court in Clearfield county this week. The State College preps. beat the Academy boys on Saturday at Hunter's Park by a score of 8 to 2. The war against the Sunday newspapers in Bellefonte continues, so do the papers continue to come. On Tuesday, October 4th, Judge Krebs, of Clearfield county, will hold a session of argument court here. Williamsport people are figuring on having a silk mill built at that place, to employ about seven hundred hands. Every democrat in Bellefonte is invited to attend the meeting of the democratic club in Reynold's building next Friday evening. Saturday October the 1st will be a Jewish holiday and their stores will be closed from Friday evening until Saturday evening, 6 o'clock. Mrs. Adam Hosterman died at her home in Boalsburg on Saturday night of paralysis. She was 52 years of age; funeral occurred on Tuesday. Over $300 will be given away in prizes in the bicycle races at the Lewisburg fair, October 6th and 7th. The entries close October 1st, 1892. The Mountain League penant quarrel is becoming a chestnut. Philipsburg, Tyrone and Bellefonte each claim the victory and that is the way it will remain. Flour has gone down considerably in price, but then coal has gone up fully as much, and the man with a family who must buy both has not been benefited. Harry Patterson, son of W. C. Patterson, supt. of the experimental farm at State College, has been appointed director of the Maryland State Experiment Station. Miss Rosa Gill, the young lady who had her hip and spine injured last winter in a coasting accident on High street, died on Sunday morning from typhoid fever. On Sunday morning memorial services were held in the Reformed church to Miss Martha Keller, a member of that congregation, who died so suddenly in Danville the previous Sunday. In another column will be found a card that will be of special interest to the ladies. Aikens' music store has added a new department in the line of ladies coats, wraps and ulsters. A large assortment of the very latest styles has been opened. Go and see them. Next Thursday, Oct. 6th, Mr. Frank H. Whitman, formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Lida E. Holt, of Philipsburg, will be married in the Presbyterian church at that place. A number of relatives and friends of the young couple at this place will be in attendance at the wedding. Mr. Christ Murray, of Centre Hall, this year a member of the Senior class at Princeton college, has been engaged by the New York Sun to report Princeton college news. The Sun requires a higher standard than most daily papers and they are willing to pay accordingly. Mr. Murray has the ability and we expect to see him advance in the field of journalism.

FIRE ON SUNDAY EVENING.

Albert Owens' Residence Completely Destroyed. On Sunday evening at about 8:30 the populace was again called out by the sound of the fire alarm. The bright light in the south east of town proved to be at the house occupied by Mr. Albert Owens, formerly the John H. Orvis homestead, about one-half mile from town. As there was no water supply in that vicinity the different companies returned to their houses. Wm. Undercoffer while on his way home was the first to discover the fire which appeared to be burning in the dining room and above it and in a few minutes the flames broke out all around. It was useless to make an effort to stay the flames and only by heroic efforts did they manage to save a few pieces of furniture and a portion of Mr. Owens library, all of which were badly scorched and blistered by the heat. The entire building was burned to the ground. A heavy rain set in during the fire and prevented the flames and sparks from spreading to the adjoining buildings. The cause of the conflagration is unknown. Mrs. Owens and her son were away from home the past week, and Mr. Owens had left the house in the evening and gone to town. There had been no fire in the stove since Saturday. The loss is about $5,000 with $1,000 insurance.

Killed Instantly.

The death of a young man, a resident of Brisbin, was the result of a family quarrel in that place last Wednesday evening. The particulars, so far as known are about as follows: Peter Watcutson, a Frenchman, and miner by occupation, is given to drink, and when in his cups is quite cranky and quarrelsome. He is living with his second wife, to whom he was married not a long time ago. The neighbors say that the two quarrel a good deal, especially when Peter is in liquor. His two or three step-sons reside with him. With the eldest one, Emil, he has had frequent differences, but with Harry, the youngest of the boys, he has always seemed greatly attached. The oldest boy went hunting, and on his return in the evening, carrying his gun in his hands, the old man began quarreling with him. In a few minutes they were engaged in a struggle for the gun. Mrs. W. watched the struggle for a moment or two and then engaged in it, and she almost immediately followed by Harry. In the struggle, the gun was either purposely or accidentally discharged when in the hands of the old man, the load of shot entering the bowels of Harry, killing him instantly. Watcutson at once surrendered himself to Squire Pullen. With Mine Inspector Thomas as foreman, the following gentlemen were sworn in as jurors: Thomas Truebath, Jonathan Andrews, Jackson Abbott, Gwinn Williams and Henry Kephart. The jury held an inquest and rendered a verdict that death was caused by the accidental discharge of a gun through the carelessness of those struggling with it.

Cost of the Homestead Strike.

It is expected that the Sixteenth regiment will soon be relieved of military duty as the Adjutant General apprehends no further trouble at the Carnegie works. The Homestead affair will entail an expense on the State approximating $400,000. Warrants have already been drawn for the payment of $282,899.93 for the payment of officers and men, commissary stores, quartermaster bills, horse hire and other incidentals.

The bill of the Pennsylvania Railroad company against the State for transportation expenses is $52,000 and other railroad expenses will probably reach $15,000. The aggregate cost of the Homestead outbreak will exceed Gov. Pattison's estimate about $150,000 owing to the long service required of a portion of the State militia.

C. L. Gramley Appointed.

The department of public instruction has been notified of the resignation of county superintendent David O. Etters, of Centre, to accept the principalship of the public schools of Bellefonte. His resignation has been accepted to take effect October 1. Superintendent of Public Instruction Waller has appointed C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, to fill the unexpired term. Prof. Gramley will assume his duties at once. He is well qualified for the position and we believe will prove a satisfactory official.

Mrs. Victoria Woodhull.

Mrs. Victoria Woodhull-Martin, the Women's Right's candidate for President of the United States, was formerly a resident of Clinton county. Her parents at one time resided in what is now the borough of Beech Creek. Her father, Buckham Claffin, was one of the pioneer settlers of the West Branch. The lady herself was born in Dry Valley, Union county.

Death of Mrs. Ellen Williams.

Mrs. Ellen Williams, of Huston township, this county, widow of the lamented Scott Williams, died on Tuesday, the 20th, in her 71st year. Her husband died 51 years ago.

Everybody is benefited by a hearty laugh. Go and take in the minstrels at the opera house this evening.

DEMOCRACY ORGANIZE.

The Young Democrats of Bellefonte Organize a Club.

In response to a general call passed along the lines on Monday a large number of democrats of this vicinity assembled in the Democratic County Committee rooms on Monday evening for the purpose of organizing a Cleveland and Stevenson club. A everybody was in favor of the project a temporary organization was effected with John Noll in the chair. After discussing the object of the meeting and its purposes a permanent organization was decided upon and the following officers were then selected:

President J. M. Cunningham; Vice-Presidents, Geo. R. Meek, Chas. R. Kurtz and Longer Wian; Secretary, J. C. Meyer, Esq.; Treasurer, Hammond Sechler, Com. on Finance, Wm. C. Heinle, Esq., Harry Fenlon and Frank Adams; Com. on by-laws and name, J. C. Noll, Esq., Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., and M. Gardner.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening to hear the report of the different committees. The club will likely procure the same rooms occupied four years ago for the same purpose in the Reynolds Block. Meetings will be held every week which will be addressed by eminent speakers upon the issues of the campaign.

All are invited to attend these meetings, no matter of what party affiliation or creed they may be. Come and hear the issues of the campaign discussed from the democratic point of view.

New Store at Zion.

The old store stand at Zion, Pa., for a number of years past occupied by David Solt, at present a portion of the Cole property, is undergoing extensive repairs. New floors are being laid, the interior is being remodeled and painted in snowy white so that it will be in first class order for the new occupants. The new firm will be B. A. Noll & Co., general merchants, of Pleasant Gap, who will open up on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, October 6th, 7th and 8th, with a brand new stock of groceries, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, gents furnishing goods, and other lines of goods to suit the trade of that vicinity. They will sell strictly for cash, or its equivalent in country produce. All are invited to attend the opening and see the new goods, and prices at which the same can be sold.

An Open Air Concert.

If the weather is favorable on Friday evening Meyer's orchestra will give an open air concert from the pavillion in the court house yard. Among the selections they will render will be the "Bohemian Girl," from Balfe's opera, by Moses Tobani; "Occidental" march, by Sousa, and a number of other equally good pieces. Two French horns and kettle drums have been added to the orchestra and improve their playing very much. As this will probably be their last concert of the season they no doubt will have a large number of listeners.

A Chinaman's Bones sent Home.

Several years ago Sang Lee's brother died and was buried in the Tyrone cemetery, and on last Monday morning at four o'clock the remains were raised for the purpose of shipping them back to the celestial kingdom to be re-interred there by the side of his fathers. There was nothing left but some bones, and these were scraped clean by his surviving brother, who still resides at Tyrone, and placed in a new telescope and shipped to New York, where they will be articulated and then forwarded across the ocean to his former home.

Where Columbus Died.

The house at Valladolid, Spain, in which Columbus died, is now used as a cow stable. Above the stone archway is a time stained medallion, bearing a man's head, standing out in bold relief on the stucco. Underneath is the engraved inscription: "Aqui murio Colon Anno 1506." (Here died Columbus, year 1506.) Close to this hung a small sign-board with the following inscription: "New milk sold here, you may see it milked."

A Five Legged Pig.

Comrade Thomas Lyons living about a mile west of Centre Hall, has a curiosity in the shape of a pig with five legs. The pig is not inconvenienced with this extra appendage and is as lively as any in the lot. The fifth leg is connected with one of the front ones and is somewhat shorter, but is similar in all other respects to a pig's foot, having hoof, joints and all. The pig is about seven months old, and has excited no little curiosity in the vicinity. -Reporter.

Union County Fair.

The Union county fair will be held next week, the principal days being Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 5, 6 and 7. Excursion tickets will be sold at greatly reduced rates by the Pennsylvania railroad. The fair will be largely attended as they are offering larger prizes than usual for the races.

Minstrelsy, mirth, music, song and dance at the opera house to-night.

The State College foot ball team will play the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia on Saturday. Some say they won't be able to score. State College is in good shape and may be able to surprise the Quaker City dudes.

AN AWFUL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

The Just Retribution That Fell Upon Edward Grundy.

It is seldom that a drunken wife beater gets his just deserts, but Edward Grundy, mine boss at Liverlight's colliery, got his on Thursday night. He lived with his wife and family in the old John Goss homestead, about two miles from Osceola. Sober, he was an ordinary good husband and father, but drunk, he was a fiend, and abused his family shamefully. On Thursday night he came roaring drunk at midnight. His wife gave birth to twins on Tuesday night and was sick in bed. Her sister was with her. When they heard Grundy staggering on the porch they were alarmed, and when he began beating and kicking the door Mrs. Grundy got out of bed and hid the gun, which stood in the corner under the bed. His revolver, which was lying on the bureau, she concealed in the bosom of her night dress. By this time Grundy had smashed the door in, and came into the house raging like a wild beast. He first caught sight of Mrs. O'Donnell, and charged on her swearing he would kill her, but she escaped out of the house to a neighbors. Then he drove the children out, and finally turned on his wife and demanded to know where the gun and pistol were. She refused to tell and he ran at her with oaths and threats. She ran out of the house, but he pursued her and caught her and beat and kicked her and dragged her back into the house by the hair. In the scuffle he caught sight of the pistol in her bosom and grabbed for it. She caught it, and in the struggle it exploded, the ball striking him in the right eye and coming out at the back of the head. He fell dead without a struggle. Mrs. Grundy fainted. Mrs. O'Donnell and the children—who had fled to Galbraith's, the nearest neighbors, some distance away—ventured back to the house about 2 o'clock in the morning and found Mrs. Grundy alone with the corpse. The older children went out and gave the alarm and the neighbors came. In the morning the authorities at Osceola were informed. The coroner sent to Clearfield for the district attorney, who came over and an inquest was held. A verdict of accidental killing was rendered, clearing Mrs. Grundy of any violation of law. The poor woman is half crazed with grief and remorse and is in a very dangerous condition.

Columbus Day.

The executive committee of the national celebration of Columbus Day, Oct. 21, have addressed the ministers of the gospel in America upon the subject of a religious recognition of the 400th anniversary of its discovery. The committee suggests to the pastors of the churches of America, without distinction of creed, that Oct. 16, the Sunday preceding Columbus Day, be observed as a "Columbian Sunday," that not only the popular services of the day give recognition to Divine providence which has so marvelously led and abundantly blessed this people, but also that the sermons of the day, in view of the national celebration of the following Friday, give special emphasis to the educational which has with such wisdom been made the centre of all local celebrations.

School Directors not in it.

Henry Houck, deputy superintendent of public instruction, is opposed to the plan advocated by a number of educators of the state to pay school directors for their services. He says that if directors were paid there would be such a scramble for the office that the best man would not always be elected as is the case generally under the present system. There are about 14,000 school directors in the state, Mr. Houck says, and if each were paid fifty dollars a year it would take $350,000 out of the school fund, which he contends needs to be used in other directions. He does not believe that pay would elevate the standard of directors.

SAMUEL LEWIN, The Clothier.

The "Gazette" in Danger.

The Tyrone correspondent to the Harrisburg Patriot on Monday says: It is very likely that one of the umpires who umpired several of the ball games at Bellefonte will enter a prosecution against the Bellefonte Gazette for libel. This umpire is well known for his total abstinence qualities and considers that his good name has been injured by that sheet in its attack upon him as being "filled with whisky."

Over One Hundred Years.

Mrs. John Stanton, of Patton township, died Thursday of last week, aged over 100 years at her death. This is the lady so much written and talked about for the past few years. She was part Indian and remarkably agile for her age up to the time of her recent illness.

Where Presidents Were Born.

Virginia, as is well known, leads all the States in the number of her sons who have become Presidents of the United States. In fact, she has been called the "Mother of Presidents." Massachusetts has been the birthplace of 2 Presidents; New Hampshire, 1; Vermont, 1; New York, 2; Pennsylvania, 1; Virginia, 7; Ohio, 4; New Jersey, 1; North Carolina, 3; Kentucky, 1 and Indiana, 1.

Cook Marshall.

On Tuesday evening Charles F. Cook, clerk in the Centre county bank, and Miss Ellen Marshall were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marshall, of Buffalo Run. The ceremony was attended only by close relatives. We extend our hearty congratulations.
