LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

"Widow Murphy's Goat" at the opera house next Monday evening.

The first snow for this season fell on Wednesday in a few light squalls during the day.

Prof. D. M. Lieb has been very ill during the past week and his recovery is considered doubtful.

The State College football eleven was defeated at Philadelphia last Saturday by a score of 20 to 0.

Artist Joe. McCullley is preparing a large transparency for the front of the democratic club rooms.

Wm. Derstine and family left on Tuesday morning for Rockford, Ill., at which place they will reside in the future.

D. F. Fortney addressed a large audience in the democratic club rooms on Monday evening. He made a strong and telling argument.

The High school boys and College preps played a game of ball at Hunter's Park last Saturday. The game resulted in a victory for the State College boys by a score of 11 to 4.

John Nighthart, the barber, has added a bath tub to his establishment. Go and give yourself a surprise by a dip, with an application of soap and towel. It is an excellent tonic.

Mifflinburg celebrated her centennial anniversary on Tuesday. There was a large attendance and a magnificent parade. Hon. John B. Linn delivered the oration of the day.

Ed. Baney has opened up a barber shop in the room under Lyon & Co's store, on Allegheny street. Ed. can keep a keen edge on his razors and give you a comfortable and easy shave.

Dr. W. S. Young, of Philadelphia, will arrive in town this week to enter in partnership with Dr. H. K. Hoy, who expects to be away from home considerable of his time in the future.

The proposed electrical railroad for Phillipsburg, Houtzdale and Clearfield seems to be assured. The charter was granted last week and the company are taking active measures for the building of the lines to the above places.

Centre Hall borough passed an ordinance recently submitting to a vote of its citizens, at the coming general election, the question of purchasing the water works at that place. That would require a bonded indebtedness of $4,000.

Louis Doll is having some elaborate improvements made upon his residence on Bishop street. A store room is being fitted up and a mansard roof is being put on. It is rumored that he expects to open up a shoe store in his building.

Last week at the meeting of the national convention of the Order of United American Mechanics, at Manchester, N. H., Mr. R. H. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, formerly of Centre county was selected National Counselor, the highest position of the order.

There are a few cases of diphtheria in town at present, but thus far only one death. Extreme measures should be adopted to prevent its spread. As all know it is one of the most fatal and contagious diseases and its presence in a community concerns all.

On Friday night, Annie, daughter of Sheriff Ishler, died at their home, this place. She took ill with a severe attack of diphtheria from which she could not recover. The remains were interred Saturday morning on account of the malignant form of the disease.

Messrs. Wm. Neyman and O. N. Yarnell were pleasant callers on Tuesday. Mr. Yarnell is a red hot, rampant McKinley republican and gave the writer a good lecture. Doc, as he is familiarly called, is studying the tariff question closely we expect by and by he will be with us. When a republican begins to read and think there is hope for his political salvation.

DEATH OF GUYER MATTERN.

Expires at his Home, Stormstown, on Friday Evening.

Death has claimed another prominent young man, in the sudden demise of GUYER MATTERN, at the home of his parents, Stormstown, this county, on last Friday evening. He had been ill but a short time, at Homestead, Pa., where he had been employed, and he was brought home in a delirious condition with typhoid pneumonia from which he never rallied.

He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mattern who with four sons, Linn and Claude at home, Kline of Bald Eagle, and Grey, a physician and salesman of Philadelphia, survive him. A number of years ago GUYER opened a store at Scotia. Later he was employed as a clerk at Carnegie's works at Scotia. In 1886 he was nominated by the republicans of this county for legislature and was renominated for the same position in 1888, but owing to the large democratic majority he was defeated, but succeeded in polling many democratic votes throughout the county. In 1889 he was defeated for the republican nomination for Prothonotary by W. I. Fleming.

In 1891 he became an agent for the Tallapoosa Land Improvement company, of Ga., and was quite successful. This summer he obtained a position at the Carnegie steel works, at Homestead, where he had charge of a supply house for the large works. About three weeks ago he returned home for a short vacation as he was feeling unwell. He caught a severe cold while at the picnic (but thought nothing serious of it and returned to his position when he soon grew ill and was brought home to die.

The interment occurred on Sunday morning at Graysdale. A special train was run from Bellefonte containing about one hundred persons, composed of members of the Masonic fraternity and intimate relatives of the deceased. The funeral was the largest seen in that section for years. The M. E. church, of which he was a member, could hold but a portion of the people. He was known to everybody throughout that section and everybody was his friend.

GUYER was aged about thirty five years and had reached that period when he was in the full development of manhood. Of a pleasant, genial, sympathetic disposition, he had hosts of friends wherever he has known. GUYER will long be remembered, though life is now extinct and the body rests in the grave.

(Colonel) D. F. Fortney.

Whenever one of Bellefonte's prominent citizens goes outside of the borough confines he is sure to be given a hand to his name. D. F. Fortney, Esq., was in Philipsburg last week and this is what they said:

Colonel D. F. Fortney, president of the Bellefonte school board, visited the Philipsburg schools yesterday and made an impromptu but very original and highly instructive address to the pupils. Colonel Fortney is deeply interested in the great cause of education, and is an example himself of how a boy without much opportunity can secure a good education and grow up to be an able attorney and an eminently good, useful citizen, honored and esteemed by everybody.

Railroad War settled.

The railroad strife waged between the Beech Creek and Pennsylvania, in the Snow Shoe district, has finally been settled by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company agreeing with the Pennsylvania to make all shipments of coal over whichever road is the most direct line to their markets. By making this agreement the injunction granted against the Beech Creek by the courts was withdrawn by the Pennsylvania, and the former was allowed to cross the latter's tracks wherever necessary.

SAMUEL LEWIN, The Clothier.

Leander Green Arrested.

On Monday the chief of police from Milton, Pa., arrived in town and soon had Leander Green, our illustrious colored high constable, under arrest on the charge of appropriating a gold ring, a lot of articles of clothing and jewelry, at Milton, and then skipped the town. Leander was placed in the jug for future reference. As the time for voting is drawing nigh, postmaster Feidler and Mr. Potter appeared as bail for brother Green. He will be called to Milton later for a hearing.

Prof. Cephus Gramley, the newly appointed county superintendent, of Rebersburg, was in town last Friday to be qualified for his position. Brush-valley has furnished more county superintendents than any other section of our county. In other avenues of professional life she has furnished her large quota. There must be something in the soil or atmosphere of that section that enervates and inspires her people.

Next Saturday, October 8th, is the last day to pay your tax.

ANOTHER BIG FIRE.

The Rolling Mill at Howard Burned to the Ground on Thursday night.

The rolling mill and bar iron mill, known as the old saw mill and the machine shop of the Howard Iron Works burned to the ground on Thursday night about 11:30 o'clock. The mill was operated by John Jenkins, of Milton; Williams Jenkins, and Howard Lingle, of Bellefonte, under the firm of Jenkins Bros. & Lingle, with W. E. Jenkins of Howard as superintendent. For sometime past the mill has only been in operation during the day, but the fire had to be kept up during the night. The furnace was going and a spark from it is said to have fallen on the roof of the mill and thus caused the conflagration. Geo. Regal, the watchman, gave the alarm, but before the people had gotten out to aid in extinguishing the flames the building had gained too much of a head way. This is one of the oldest mills and furnaces in the county, and under the present firm it was operated successfully, and it is certainly a great loss to the community.—Gazette.

Stranded Minstrels.

About three weeks ago West & Raynors Metropolitan minstrels started out from Atlantic City for a full winter's engagement. They were poorly equipped as to uniforms and advertising matter and they drew small houses wherever they went. None of them received any salary from the proprietors and with a small house again here they concluded to quit. The managers paid the hotel bills here and left eighteen men in town without any money to get away. They concluded to give a benefit entertainment on Friday evening which was well patronized by our people. It furnished enough money to purchase tickets for all to get to their homes and one dollar each in pocket. They certainly appreciated the kindness of our people and gave a very creditable performance in return.

Pay Your Taxes Now.

It is of the highest importance that every Democrat see to it personally that his tax is paid before October 8.

The highest privilege given to the citizen is his right to vote and it should be zealously guarded by him and never lost. For this reason each one should fulfill the requirement which the law imposes upon him in order to vote—he should pay his poll tax. It is a small sum for his franchise.

Let every Democrat then, without delay, pay his tax before October 8 and secure the right to vote for Cleveland, Stevenson and Tariff Reform and for the whole Democratic ticket. No tax collector will receive taxes unless paid by the voter himself. No campaign funds are to be used for paying taxes. Voters should remember this.

The Line Located.

The county line case, which has attracted the attention of Mifflin county citizens for several years, particularly those of the west end of Kishacoquillas valley, came to a culmination so far as the United States district court is concerned, during the past ten days. At the session of court at Williamsport the case had been on trial for several days, and on Tuesday last Justice Buffington charged the jury, taking strong ground that the Mifflin county line should be seven miles west of where Huntingdon county people have been locating it. The jury took one ballot and rendered a verdict in accordance with the Judge's opinion.

"Widow Murphy's Goat."

Alfred Keley, the popular comedian who presented "O'Flynn in Mexico" last season and delighted everybody, will be here again on Monday evening next with a new play entitled "Widow Murphy's Goat," which had a great run when first produced in New York city this season. Any one who heard "O'Flynn in Mexico" will want to hear Alfred Keley every time he comes around. There will be fine dancing, excellent singing and enough fun to last a month. Be sure and see "Widow Murphy's Goat."

Health Ordinance.

At almost every council meeting some one calls to have an ordinance passed to improve the sanitary condition of the town. This is a waste of time for Bellefonte borough has sufficient legislation on that point. There are ordinances that fully cover the point, only they are not enforced. Before you go to council meeting to ask for any kind of an ordinance be sure and read carefully the ones that have been adopted and seldom are enforced.

The New Cards.

About the 15th of this month the new return postal cards will be placed on sale at all the postoffices. Two designs, one for the domestic and the other for the international postal union service have been approved by Mr. Wanamaker.

FRED. DUNHAM ARRESTED

For the Sale of Sunday Newspapers last Sunday in Bellefonte.

The crusade, in Bellefonte with Dr. Laurie the chief agitator, against the sale of Sunday newspapers is booming. Last week all tobacco stores, barber shops, etc., were asked to close and did so, but Fred. Dunham's pony express brought the Sunday papers from Lock Haven and four boys soon sold them to the many eager purchasers. Watchers were stationed about the town to obtain evidence of the sales that took place. From the evidence obtained, James Harris, merchant, made information before John B. Linn, justice, and a warrant was issued and served upon Fred. Dunham who "did do and perform worldly employment or business, by conveying newspapers into said borough, by delivering newspapers to various patrons and by selling newspapers to various persons, etc." The names of Jerome Harper, Charles Kurtz and J. I. Curtin are mentioned to whom papers were sold by the different carriers.

The hearing of the case will take place before Justice Linn next Monday or Tuesday when he will return home. Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., has been retained by the prosecutors. The arrest has caused much interest and public sentiment appears to be generally against the crusaders.

THE FIRST MAP.

A Valuable Historical Document in a Lock Haven Man's Possession.

William P. Mitchell, surveyor of Lock Haven, according to the Democrat of that place has in his possession the first map of Pennsylvania ever printed. The said map was gotten up by James Nevil for William Scull and bears the date of April 4, 1770. The map is directed to Williams, Richard and John Penn, proprietary owners of the province of Penna. But eight counties are marked. They are Northampton, Berks, Cumberland, York, Chester, Philadelphia, Bucks and Lancaster. The above mentioned counties were all that there were in the state at that time. All that was known of the remaining portion of the state was what was gleaned from surveyors and explorers. Of course much of the remaining territory had been surveyed previous to that time and the country in this section was partly settled. Fort Pitt, where Pittsburg now stands, is marked on the map, as is also Bald Eagle's nest, near where the town of Milesburg now stands.

The big spring of fountain from which the town of Bellefonte received its name and now receives its water supply is marked as the Big Spring. So that it is evident that surveyors visited this section previous to 1770. The map in question is printed on light parchment and pasted on muslin. It was purchased by Mr. Mitchell from the estate of Major A. H. McHenry, of Jersey Shore It is certainly a valuable relic and one well worth preserving. What changes have taken place since that map was made. Where are the Penns? Not one person who bears their name sleeps beneath the soil of the Keystone state. Not one of their descendants own a foot of land in the state they created. The site of Fort Pitt is occupied by two rich and populous cities. The big spring furnishes water to a town of nearly 6,000 inhabitants.

The Bald Eagle has flown from his nest and where once the smoke of his wigwam curled now stands a prosperous village. The change of the past century have been many. From eight counties we now have sixty-seven. Who can tell what the changes of the next hundred years will bring? None, no not one.

A New Convent.

A new Roman Catholic convent is to be erected at Creson at the cost of $200,000. The school will be for girls, and is to be put on a tract of land containing 30 acres. The main building will be sandstone front with brick walls. The dimensions are 250x100 feet. In the building will be three dormitories, two refectories, and a handsome chapel with fine carved oak ceiling and rooms for the sisters. The capacity will be 150 pupils. A suite of rooms will be fitted up for the occupancy of the Bishop when he makes a visit. Two towers will cap either end of the main building.

Personal.

Your most earnest attention is called to a description of the Electropoise in another column, a most wonderful discovery for the cure of diseases. It has been pronounced by physicians who were broad minded enough to study it, the greatest discovery in the history of medicine. It has been pronounced by ministers of the Gospel. "The greatest blessing God has bestowed upon the race." It has accomplished cures where the most skillful specialists in the world failed.
