

THE RACKET

SPECIAL.

Just in—the finest assortment of European samples in Linen. Tray covers, art squares, bureau and side board scarfs. The attention of ladies of taste is respectfully asked. There are only three of these lines in the United States and The Racket captured one of them. Prices less than the same can be imported.

Butterick Fashion Sheet, Delineator and patterns for November—now in.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

—Ladies coats and ulsters at Aiken's store.

—Col. D. S. Keller has been ill during the past week, which confined him to the house.

—Thieves have made several raids on T. B. Buddinger's stores, at Snow Shoe, during the past two weeks.

—The Presbyterian Mite Society will give a chicken and waffle supper in the chapel this, Thursday, evening.

—D. Irvin & Son, of Julian, have purchased McFarlanes hardware store, in town, and will continue the business in the future.

—Mr. Wm. T. Hillibish has withdrawn from the firm of Wm. T. Hillibish & Co., of this place. He expects to engage in business elsewhere.

—On Tuesday, the famous protection pole from Curtins Works was raised at the High school building for a flag pole for the Columbus celebration, on Friday.

—The Methodist Sabbath school dispensed with their regular service on last Sunday afternoon in order to hold a memorial service to pay due respect to the memory of Prof. D. M. Lieb.

—The Millheim band will be in Bellefonte this evening on its way to Altoona for the Columbus celebration there on Friday. We will insist on the boys giving us a few of their choice tunes while here.

—The sample ballots for use in Centre county will be printed this week, and a lot will be distributed by the county chairman so that all can become perfectly familiar with it before the day of election.

—The members of Gregg Post enjoyed a feast in their rooms on last Monday evening. This organization will turn out in full force on Friday and desire all members to be on hand early that morning.

—The Evangelical church, at Zion, is undergoing extensive repairs at present. A new steeple, new roof, new weather boarding and several coats of paint will make a decided improvement in the appearance of the building.

—Prof. Wilse Reitmeyer, of Lewisburg, was a pleasant caller at our office on Monday evening. Wilse is a jolly fellow and a good democrat. He is spending the week with the Zion band, giving them instructions and some of his very best music.

—There will be a large time at Altoona on Columbus Day, Friday of this week. In addition to the general observance of the day there will be some fine racing at the park. The railroad company is selling tickets at reduced rates for that occasion.

—Joseph Hurst, an aged veteran-Mennonite preacher, was found lying quite ill along the road, near the home of George Schaeffer, near Aaronsburg, on Friday, September 30. He died soon after. He had about $1000 in bank notes, etc., on his person at the time.

—Mr. Burwell, the prohibition orator who spoke in the court house last Thursday evening, was a very fine orator. He scored Harrison and Morton in great shape and gave the democrats a few good clips also. On the tariff question Mr. Burwell strongly advocated the same position taken by the democrats this year.

Columbus Day.

On Friday Bellefonte will celebrate Columbus day in appropriate style, under the management of the instructors of the public schools.

A large parade will be formed of all school children in Bellefonte and adjacent districts. Each will carry a flag and wear a badge. Large flags will be raised at the stone and brick school buildings and the oration of the day will be delivery by John G. Love, Esq.

The G. A. R., Knights of the Golden Eagle, I. O. O. F., U. O. of A. M., P. O. S. of A., Company B and other organizations will take part in the parade. Quite a programme has been prepared for the occasion and it will be an interesting event.

No style about Judge Orvis.

The Williamsport Sun in speaking of one of Bellefonte's most prominent and popular men said that there is no style about ex-Judge Orvis. He dresses neatly in black, but not to attract attention, and no one who does not know him would pick out the modest, quiet looking man sitting at the table in the court house as one of the most able lawyers in the state. He figures frequently in big cases, of a civil character, and is usually successful. His efforts recently saved Banker Dill, of Clearfield, from heavy punishment, and his efforts secured the second conviction of Charles Cleary for the murder of Policeman Paul in Clinton county a few months ago. The Judge is a democrat and leads his faction up in Centre to victory whenever he gets well interested in a fight.

Recent Deaths.

On Sunday, the 9th, a son of Joseph L. Neff, Roland, Pa., died at Johnsonburg, Elk county, where he had been employed. The remains were brought home for interment on the following Wednesday. He died from typhoid fever.

On last Sunday night Miss Mary Gerity died at her home on Lamb street, from consumption. She was a young lady of about 25 years of age. She had a large circle of friends who are sad to hear of her death. The interment occurred on Wednesday forenoon in the Catholic cemetery.

The interment of the late James Klinger, who died at his residence at Roopsburg, occurred on Wednesday in the Union cemetery.

Yes, Every Time.

There is little hope for the young man who spends his time and money in saloons or gambling houses. The young man who drinks or gambles cannot be trusted in the employ of responsible firms. Nine out of ten of the banks that fail can trace their failure to illegitimate speculations by the bank officials with the bank's funds. No business institution can afford to keep in their employ the young man who takes pride in drinking and getting drunk. There are plenty of young men in the country who are sober to fill the positions and they are the ones who will be found there. Young man, look well to your walk in life. Look well to your associates. Look well to your habits.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Not to be a Hard Winter.

This will not be a severe winter, says the sign-observing oldest inhabitant, for the big brown caterpillars are all brown having upon them no brown stripes, indicative of the amount of severe weather and the time when we expect it. And although there promises to be an abundant crop of chestnuts and some walnuts, to please the taste of the hungry squirrel, he will have to travel over many a wooden mile before picking up any shalbar to store away for winter, for in most localities the trees put forth no blossoms and consequently will be no fruit.—Ez.

State your Position.

Prof. Hamilton, the republican candidate for Legislature, is asking democrats to support him.

Mr. Hamilton, will you give the public one plain, positive answer to the following question:

If elected to the state Legislature, how would you cast your vote, "for" or "against" M. S. Quay's re-election to the U. S. Senate?

Mr. Hamilton will you answer? We await your reply.

Service and Worth.

We are abreast of the times and in advance of the seasons bringing in the finest stock of Fall and Winter Clothing. The dollar you spend with us goes farther, lasts longer, gets more style, more quantity, more quality, and does you more good, in service worth and wear than money spent elsewhere. Our goods and prices now waiting for your inspection, will prove this.

SAMUEL LEWIN, Clothier.

Don't Bet.

It is not generally known, yet true, that a section of the new Baker ballot law says that a person's vote can be challenged and be prevented from voting if he has any wager or bet on the result of the election. Voters should bear this in mind, and either not bet at all or else wait until after their vote is deposited on election day, but the former course is the safer in more ways than one.

—The very latest styles in ladies coats at Aikens' store.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

Public meetings will be held throughout the county on the days and at the places in the following list:

Thursday evening, Oct. 20, in the school house, at Farmers Mills.

Thursday evening, Oct. 20, in Noll's Hall, Pleasant Gap.

Friday evening, Oct. 21, in the school house, at Jacksonville.

Friday evening, Oct. 21, in Decker's school house, in Gregg twp.

Saturday evening, Oct. 22, in the school house, at Coburn.

Saturday evening, Oct. 22, in Walker's school house, in Boggs twp.

Monday evening, Oct. 24, in Colyer's school house, in Potter twp.

Monday evening, Oct. 24, in Brumgard's school house, in Miles twp.

Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, Murray's school house, in Gregg twp.

Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, Ripka's school house, in Gregg twp.

Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, Sellers' school house, in Patton twp.

Thursday evening, Oct. 27, in the school house, at Woodward.

Thursday, October 27, in the school house, at Sandy Ridge.

Friday evening, Oct. 28, in the school house, at Rebersburg.

Democrats, turn out and bring your republican neighbor with you, to hear the issues of the campaign discussed. Come and hear the McKinley tariff explained, how it robs the farmer and workingman and enables the few to grow rich at their expense.

A thorough explanation of the new Baker ballot law will be given at each meeting.

Two or more prominent speakers will be present to address the meeting which begins, promptly, at 7 o'clock. By order of L. A. SCHAEFFER, County Chairman.

Presbyterians for Local Option.

The Presbytery of Huntingdon at its recent session at Williamsburg adopted resolutions favoring local option within county lines as the best legal means to counteract the evil of intemperance and overtured the Synod of Pennsylvania to take similar action. Resolutions were adopted and indorsed by many citizens within the Presbytery. Ex-Governors Curtin and Beaver, ex-Judge Orvis, President Atherton of State College, E. C. Humes and James Harris indorse the movement heartily.

How About Bellefonte.

Some time since it occurred to the authorities of Williamsport that the light furnished the city by an individual corporation was not up to the standard of 2,000 candle power as prescribed in a contract entered into. Engaging two experts, they had them make tests. The result—not a light exceeded 1,300 candle power, and some came as low as 700.

How about Bellefonte's electric lights? Would they stand such a test? We doubt it very much, but the borough must pay for it all the same, and at an enormous figure.

—Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., will address the Bellefonte Democratic club, in their hall, on next Monday evening. Don't forget this and bring your republican friends and neighbors with you.

—The display of fashionable cloaks and ulsters at Aikens' is all the talk among the ladies. Everybody is invited to come and see the new styles.

—A man by the name of Daniel Weaver died at his mountain home, several miles east of Greenbriar, last Monday from injuries received in a tussle with a wounded bear. He was out in the mountains on last Friday huting chestnuts when he met a hounding bear. He had no weapons along, but, thinking he could manage his game all right he tackled Mr. Bruin. He came away worsted and but for the timely arrival of some men would have been killed outright.—Journal.

—The large barn of Neah Stover, west of Millheim, was destroyed by fire on last Saturday, Oct. 1st. All the contents were burned—400 bushels of wheat, all the summer's crop of hay and oats, all his implements, eleven hogs, several calves, a colt and one or two horses. The loss is about $2000 with no insurance.

—D. F. Fortney, Esq., was the principal speaker at a large democratic rally in Lock Haven, on Tuesday night. The next day he was at Renovo where he addressed another large gathering. The remainder of the campaign he will devote to making addresses in our county.

—A minstrel show is being gotten up by some of our young local talent. Their first appearance will be in about a month. The programme will contain some rare specialties such as clog dancing, daring trapeze performances, soloists and quartets. Should their effort be a success they will start out on a tour. There is plenty of financial backing to give the boys a start. More later.

Trustworthy—Serviceable.

Our complete assortment insures perfect satisfaction in the selection of goods to satisfy individual tastes. You will find our large stock made up entirely of goods that are trustworthy, serviceable and the best of their class. Everything goes at the lowest possible price. Come in and see how fair we will treat you, how well we will please you and how much we will save for you. PHILAD. BRANCH.

Oldtime Names.

All the towns in this section of the state went by other names than they are at the present called. Some of the old residents still stick to the original names. We cite the following:

PAST. Oldtown, Derrstown, Longstown, Youngmanstown, Shraubsteedle, Weiricksteedle, Selysteedle, Jewstown, Mudtown.

PRESENT. Clearfield, Lewisburg, New Berlin, Mifflinburg, Freeburg, Centerville, Selingsgrove, Aaronsburg, Millheim.

Fifteen years ago, and back, all these places were called by the names in the first column, but the later baptism has taken the place of these.

[Charles Calvin Zeigler, of Brush valley, Centre county, is the author of a little book of Pennsylvania German poems. Among the many we select the following as a fair specimen of his genius—changing the spelling to suit our style.]

Somshdang Owvet.

Oyster Omelet

The following recipe for oyster omelet will recommend itself to the frugal cook who likes to set a good table, but whose means are limited and will not allow her to serve expensive dishes: "Scald half a dozen oysters in their own liquor, remove the oysters and chop them fine, season with pepper and salt; return them to the juice with a small lump of butter rolled in flour, and set on the fire to simmer until the mixture thickens. Beat four eggs, and into a pan put two tablespoonfuls of butter as soon as this is very hot pour in your beaten eggs, and when well set pour in three quarters of the mixture. Turn the omelet half over, take up and serve on a hot dish with the balance of the mixture poured around the omelet."

What you Want.

The opening months of this season, we want all to remember, is a revelation in fair goods and fair prices. We are going to do business with you, because we have just exactly what you want, and our prices are simply irresistible. Our Fall and Winter attractions will cause a turn out.
