Ayenging lams' Thumbs.

The trial of Colonel A. L. Hawkins, Lieutenant Colonel J. B. Streator and Surgeon W. S. Grim, of the Tenth Regiment, on the charge of assault, preferred by ex-private Imes, will occur this week in Allegheny courts.

Iams was strung up by the thumbs and drummed out of camp in disgrace for hurrahing over the attempted assassination of H. C. Frick. The outcome of this trial is watched with great interest in all sections. There Bellefonte to Athens, Pa., and his entire are various opinions expressed and the verdict will have much to do with future discipline in the state militia.

Political Meetings.

Political meetings will be held by the democrats at the following places: On Saturday evening, Oct. 29th, in the school house, at Tusseyville.

Columbus in a fitting and appropriate manner. There was a grand parade and exercises under the auspices of the in this vicinity, the academy, Grand Army of the Republic, Odd Fellows, American Mechanics, Golden Eagles, Bellefonte and Forge camps of Patriotic Order Sons of America and last but not least the Bellefonte Wheelman's club, who made a very showy turnout. It is estimated that there were 1,500 school children in line, each carrying a flag. Several bands of music added to the occasion. After the parade there were flag raisings at two different school buildings, one was presented by the G. A. R. and the other by the Junior Order United American Mechanics. The

In the yard of the high school building under a spreading oak tree exercises were also held. They were opened by prayer by the Rev. Dr. Laurie, who made a very earnest prayer. A very able adress, "The Meaning of Four Centuries" was delivered by Geo. Miller. Then followed the reading of the ode "Columbia Banner" by Miss Ella Twitmire. John G. Love, Esq., then delivered the address of the day in a very able maner. The singing of the national hymn, "America," brought the exercises of the day to a close.

Next at Harrisburg.

Last week Editor J. A. Feidler, of town, took a trip to Union county to see relatives and talk politics. The Lewisburg News gave him the following notice:

Editor Jim Feidler, the hustling Bellefonte journalist, who has been causing the democracy of Centre county to hold its hand to its side for some time, was in town a few hours on Sun-day. He is an ardent supporter of Gen-eral Hastings, and if that gentlemen should ever become Governor no doubt would be placed at the head of one of the Departments at Harrisburg. Jim is a royal good fellow and has lots of friends.

Wonder how Secretary of the Commonwealth would suit Bro. Feidler. We are sure he would prefer State Treasurer where there is lots of boodle. Mr. Feidler will soon hand in his resignation as postmaster, to Cleveland, and would not object going to Harrisburg.

Explain, Gentlemen.

Gen. Hastings and Gov. Beaver are now traveling around through the coun_ try making speeches for Harrison and praising up the McKinley bill. They did the same business four years ago, when they told all workingmen about Bellefonte that if Harrison should be defeated the different manufacturies about Bellefonte would close down and they would be thrown out of work. Harrison got there, and McKinley gave them more protection than they asked for. Since then the Collins' furnaces, the glass works, the nail works, Curtin's furnace and Mann's axe factory have closed down, and several thousand men were thrown out of employment. Gentlemen, come home and explain. Did you know what you were talking about
