WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 12.—Simon Feldman, a retired merchant of Pittston, committed suicide last evening. The deed was prompted by financial reverses.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 14.-Policeman Graeff, of Shamokin, was shot and killed in that place by an unknown man Saturday night while patroling his beat. No arrests have been made.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 12 .- State Treasment of the property valuation is $591,007,558.81, and the four mill tax mounts to $2,364,030.23.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—John Givin, of Chester county, was convicted before Judge Thayer of selling at the Philadelphia drove yard a cow affected with the "lump jaw." The flesh of the animal was intended for bologna sausage. but Meat Inspector Lowrey luckily prevented this from being done. Given was fined $100. fined $100.

MECKVILLE, Pa., Nov. 16. — Calvin Laub, while hunting for rabbits and partridges near this place, accidentally shot a son of Daniel Peifer. Very little hope is entertained for the lad's recovery. Mr. Laub shot into a flock of quail, and young Peifer ran to pick up a bird that fell just as Laub fired a second shot, which took effect in the boy's back.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 16 .- F. L. Chollar, burned to death. He got up during the night, and while carrying a lamp was taken with a convulsion and fell to the floor, the lamp exploding and setting his night clothes on fire. He was 75 years old, and for twenty-five years was employed by the Glendon Iron company as

READING, Nov. 12.—The sheriff has levied upon the furniture and other personal property of the Reverting Fund Life association of this city, on an execution for $2,071.67, issued at the instance of John Hendel, a policy holder. Mr. Hendel held a term policy, upon which, after it had run its course, he was unable to realize. He brought suit against the association and obtained

Many narrow escapes were made by occupants who were compelled to flee for their lives, and in many cases saved nothing but their clothing.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 14.—Early in the morning thieves entered the residence of Otto Fiest, at White Haven, and after ransacking the lower room went up-stairs to the apartment in which Mr. Fiest and his wife were asleep. The burglars, after lighting a lamp, com-manded Fiest to arise, and se the point of a revolver forced him to hand over all the money he had, amounting to $110. While this was going on confederates visited Philip Stemple and got $50 cash in a similar manner. The robbers es-

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 10.—Murderer Keck has cheated the gallows, having died from nervous prostration. This is the verdict of the coroner's jury: "That William F. Keck came to his death at Wifliam F. Keck came to his death at Lehigh county prison, Allentown, Lehigh county; that the cause of death was nervous exhaustion, superinduced by the fear and terror of the execution imminent." Early last evening Keck complained of feeling sick and vomited freely. He was too weak to give audience to the religious services being held by one of his ministers, and the latter was asked to desist. He continued to grow weaker until he died.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 16.—Notices are posted in the Carnegie mills stating that applications for work will be received until Saturday, and that the old men are preferred. From present indications the rod mill will start next Monday. Superintendent Dillon states that positions are open to all of the old men, providing they make application as individuals. Every incoming train is bringing new men, who are escorted to the office of the company. Repairs in the rod mill are being rushed to completion. Everything is quiet, but there is an undercurrent of feeling among some of the hot headed locked out men which may assert itself at any time. BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 16 .- Notices

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 14.—Yesterday afternoon a tramp giving his name as Anthony Hanlon or "Quinn" took shelter in a small shanty on the bank of the Tuna Creek, near the Buffalo, Rochester Tuna Creek, near the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad shops, used by small boys in the neighborhood as a playhouse. A number of boys were playing round the shanty and requested the tramp to get out. This enraged the tramp, who seized a pail of crude oil and threw it on John Leggett. aged 14. It is alleged that he then set fire to the boy's clothes. Young Leggett was frightfully burned all over the body, his face and head being literally cooked. The villain was captured and handed over to the police, and is now in the lockup. Young Leggett died last night. Williamsford Pa. Nov, 16.—A Lylockup. Young Leggett died last night.

WILLIAMSPORT Pa.. Nov, 16.—A Lycoming county former of the class who never read the newspapers was recently swindled out of $1,400 by the "gold" brick scheme. The farmer was led to believe that the "gold" brick had been brought east by an Indian, and by representations that it was worth at least $5,000 he was induced to make an advance on promise of an equal division of the full price. A confederate, representing himself as an expert from the United States mint, made a test of the brick and States mint, made a test of the brick and pronounced it good. The money was paid, and the farmer went to a feweler to have the supposed nugget tested. Upon discovering that he had been victimized he concealed his identity. District Attorney Reilly has received information that leads him to believe that he can capture the swindlers and is now making an effort to find the victim. Wednesday, Nov. 16.
